TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Little Bennie Bailey Burned and Dies from the injury.

Monday afternoon the children of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Bailey were playing in front of their home on Second street, when in some way Bennie, aged four years, set his clothing on fire with a match. The screams of the little boy attracted the servant who was in the house attending the baby, ran out and met him as he was going toward the house and put out the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey had just gone to the river to look at the water, but returned in a few minutes and were terribly shocked at the accident with which the little boy had met. Physicians were summoned and all possible done for the child, but he died this morning at 4 o'clock.

It is a crushing blow to the parents and they have the heartfelt sympathy of every one in the community in their deep grief and agony. May they look in faith to the Great Comforter who alone can heal their broken hearts.

Bennie was a bright boy and his sweet, sympathetic disposition had drawn him very close to the hearts of his parents. The little fellow had recently seemed to have some presentiment that he was going to die, and spoke of it to his parents, who thinking it only a childish way he had of talking would divert his mind to other subjects, yet his words are recalled by his untimely accident and sudden death.

The funeral will take place Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in Cherry Hill cemetery.

Still Rising Slowly.

This morning the water was over the foot of the bridge at the north end and ropes had to be used to keep a portion of the bridge from being washed away. The water has continued to rise slowly here during the day, but it was falling at Tarboro this morning and will probably go but little higher here.

On the street, at social gatherings, anywhere, where ever a number of good dressers are gathered and the clothes question is the topic of conversation, you will learn, if you lend an attentive ear, that we are quoted as being the store that always has snappy toggery for the up-to-the-honr man. The store that he looks to for new things; the store to which he first turns for a new cut in a suit, a new shape in a hat or tie. TUESDAY, MARCH 4, 1902.

Some towns in the State have adopted ordinances prohibiting the congregating of boot blacks on the streets on Sundays. Greenville has had some annoyance along this line that such an ordinance might stop.

The snow and sleet storms two weeks ago played havoc with electric wires in the Northern section of our country, and now the railroads in the South are catching it from floods and freshets. There are washouts in every direction, impeding travel and doing great damage. Towns and farms have also suffered.

At the February meeting of the Board of Aldermen two bills were paid for damage done to store windows by fireworks Christmas. It being conceded that the town is responsible for damage done by fireworks when exploding them is permitted, has caused some talk that they should be prohibited in town altogether. If any action is to be taken by the Aldermen to that end it should be done early in the year so all dealers may have ample notice before making any contracts for purchases next season. THE REFLECTOR believes it would be wise to prohibit the discharge of fireworks entirely in town, and mentions the matter now as it is nearly time for the Aldermen to meet again.

Colonel Alexander, of Topeka, was an intimate friend of President Lincoln, and he can tell many anecdotes of "Old Abe." In 1862 the Colonel visited Lincoln at Washington, and found him in a greatly worried state of mind. "This being President isn't all it is cracked up to be, is it, Mr. Lincoln?" inquired the Colonel. "No," said Lincoln, with twinkling eyes. "I feel something like the Irishman, who after being ridden on a rail, said: 'Bejabbers, if it wasn't for the honor of the thing I'd rather walk!'"—Kansas City Journal.

The Great American Climate.

On the heels of a bright mild day comes a howling blizzard and the next thing you know the weather is spring-like again. No wonder people have colds and sore chests and stiff backs. Luckily, Perry Davis' Painkiller is at hand to give relief. Take it internally and rub it into the aching flesh. All druggists sell it. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 3.

By its staunch adherence to the constitution and its logical exposition of the law, as voiced by Senator Bailey of Texas, the democratic minority in the Senate scored a signal victory last week and forced President protege Frye to recede from the autocratic position which he had assumed. Following the personal encounter between Senators Tillman and McLaurin which had occurred last Saturday, and to which only the unjustifiable action of Senator Frye leads me to refer, the President protege caused to be erased from the rolls of the Senate the names of the two senators from South Carolina. For the reason named, when the Philippine bill was passed on Monday afternoon neither senator was given an opportunity to vote. Senator Bailey, however so ably presented the unconstitutionality of the action of the Chair that their names were restored on the following day and the republicans caused an immediate adjournment of Tuesday's and Wednesday's sessions because they feared to act in the matter until the Committee on Privileges and Elections had reported. Thursday the Senate met in joint session with the House to participate in the memorial services held for President McKinley and on Friday the above committee reported, censuring both senators for having violated the dignity of the Senate and removing from them the stigma of contempt which had been placed upon them by the whole Senate in executive session.

There is a further report due from the above named committee. It has been instructed to investigate the charges of Senator Tillman that Mr. McLaurin was bribed with the promise of the federal patronage of the state, to vote for the ratification of the treaty of Paris. As is well known, the junior Senator from South Carolina had made a speech in the Senate denouncing the treaty, and later, after a call at the White House, he voted for its ratification. He has since been adopted by the republican caucus and has dictated the federal appointments in his state. The democratic senators declare that the republicans dare not pursue the investigation of Mr. Tillman's charges and say that no further report will be brought in.

On Friday the Senate passed the permanent census bill. It was passed by the House on the same day and the President will have now an opportunity of demonstrating how sincere he is in his protestations of regard for civil service reform, as the bill is the severest blow to the reform and the aims of the Commission which has been struck by Congress in years. By its provisions it gives precedent in the line of appointment, to about 1500 employees of the Census office who were appointed by the "spoils system" over a nearly equal number who have passed civil service examinations and are eligible to appointment as soon as vacancies occur.

The memorial exercises of the late President held on Thursday were elaborate and impressive. The half masted flags, the playing of the President's favorite hymns by the Marine Band, and the eulogy of Secretary Hay, which was remarkable for the elegance of its diction and the beauty of its metaphors, all combined to produce an atmosphere of sombreness that took one back to the last sad rites which occurred in the Capitol in September. Prince Henry of Prussia was present and preserved throughout a rigidity of military decorum remarkable from an Dining Room Decoration.

A recent idea is to form a border or semifrieze above a plate rail or bric-a-brac shelf in dining room or living room. Quite a pleasant effect was lately secured by an artistic decorator in a library by hanging a line of old prints just above the plate shelf. Another quite novel effect was secured in a dining room by a line of blue, red and white Japanese plates against deep yellow paper above the plate rail.

Oil the Machine.

Many a sewing machine fails to do as good work as it ought and might because it is not properly oiled and cleaned. When it gets gummed up—generally through the use of poor oil—a thorough oiling with kerosene, followed by careful wiping and then with an oiling with good sperm oil, will often greatly mend its way of running.

To Restore Tarnished Silver.

Tarnished silver may be restored to brightness by the application of oil used for polishing hardwood floors. The oil should be applied with a flannel cloth and the articles briskly rubbed afterward. Silver candlesticks and similar articles may be kept in good condition by occasionally rubbing them with flannel and a little floor oil.

HOUSEHOLD DEPARTMENT

This department is being added to all the time. Nearly every day there is something new. We will only call your attention to a few specialties.

Nickle Plated Ware.

This is the most serviceable ware you can get. It is a heavy nickle plate on a copper body, so it is almost indestructable. We have this ware in coffee and tea pots different sizes, butter and sugar dishes, milk and water pitchers serving dishes, syrup pots, cuspidors, waiters, &c. If you use this ware once you will never want any other kind for it is the best.

Crockery and China Ware.

It is no use to say anything about this department for everybody knows we are the crockery people in this part of the world. We always carry a large stock and you can select the pieces for a

Dinner and Tea Set

to suit yourself, which is much better than having to buy what you do not want. Did you ever use any of these new goods in Anti-Rust Ware.

It is guaranteed never to rust. Come in and ask for it. In fact we carry almost everything needed to fit up your kitchen, bedroom, sitting-room, or parlor. All we want you to do is to come in and call for what you want. We try to keep the very best in each of our departments and think we can please you both in price and quality. All we ask is a trial.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings In North Carolina.

The law office of Senator Pritchard at Marshall was washed away by the flood Saturday, and its contents, including the Senator's library, destroyed.

The town of Marshall, in the western part of the State, was nearly washed away by the flood last Saturday night. No lives lost but the property damage was great.

The son of Mr. Lafayette Isenhour, of Wittenburg township, Alexander county, while out hunting fell off a log and his gun was discharged. The load took effect in his neck and death resulted almost instantly.

Last Friday afternoon the dwelling of W. K. Hurst, near Goose Nest, Martin county, was struck by lightning and was much damaged. The plastering in rooms and hall was shaken off and a portion of the porch was wrecked.—Tarboro Southerner.

Sunday night J. E. Lee, ticket agent of the Southern Railway at Durham, while on his way home from the depot was sandbagged by two men. They beat him into unconsciousness, and taking his keys from his pocket went back to the depot and robbed it of $400.

J. W. Wallen, who lives on Flat creek, sixteen miles north of Asheville, was driven by the rising waters from his house. He took three children, aged 8 and 6 years and 9 months, to a tobacco barn, left them with a torch and returned to the house for his wife and another child. While gone the barn caught fire and burned to the ground, all the children losing their lives.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

Most opportunities are talked into idle dreams.

Children are a necessity that is as expensive as luxuries.

Great men look into other people's mirrors; small men into their own.

Women don't worry so much about how the other half lives, as how the better half lives, away from home.

Being a financier is letting somebody else make money for you.

Dynamite can't blow a man in public life as high as too much talking.

Noah got along in the ark fairly well, in spite of the big crowd he had, because his mother-in-law wasn't there.

You can never discourage a woman about loving. If she can't love her husband she is content to love her children; if she hasn't any children she will manage to get along loving her pets.
