SHOT ON HIGHWAY.

Intended Robbery Supposed the Cause.

On Tuesday Mr. Jim Ellis, near Farnville, went to Wilson to sell tobacco. When he reached home early in the night he was unconscious, and died during the night without regaining consciousness.

Mr. Ellis was seen to pass Saratoga on his way home. Somewhere between that place and his home he was waylaid and shot by some one supposed to have intended robbery. It is also supposed that when fired upon his horse was frightened by the gun and run off. The horse kept on home and stopped at the gate. Inmates of the house heard the wagon come up to the gate and went out to assist Mr. Ellis in unhitching, when he was found as above stated. When taken in the house and examined it was found that he was shot in the head. He also had his money, the running of the horse no doubt preventing this being taken. There is no clue as to who did the shooting.

Married.

On the 26th one of the prettiest marriage ceremonies ever witnessed took place in St. Marys' church near Coakley, Rev. E. W. Gamble, officiating.

The contracting parties were William Cherry Dancy and Miss Selma Louis Satterthwaite.

Into the church filled with friends and relatives the lovely bride in a light brown tailor made suit, with hat to match, entered upon the arm of her brother, J. R. Satterthwaite. At the chancel she was met by the groom and by the grand ceremony of the church the twain were made one.

The maid of honor was the bride's niece, Miss Mollie Satterthwaite. No sweeter or prettier maid ever walked up St. Marys' aisle.

J. Stroud in the regulation dress of the hour was best man.

The ushers were J. L. Cherry and Felix Jones, both handsome and the personification of urbanity.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for their home in Farnville.

Presents numerous, costly and useful were sent them betokening the estimation in which each and both were held.—Tarboro Southener.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6, 1902.

April 10th is North Carolina editors' day at the Charlotte exposition, and J. B. Sherrill, Secretary of the State Press Association, is arranging an excursion for the members. Let's all go.

A meeting will be held in Tarboro on the 18th to form a good roads association for Edgecombe county. Here in Pitt the time is much consumed in complaining of bad roads, but nothing is done to improve them. It would be a wise step and a start in the right direction if the County Commissioners would provide for having the convicts turned out at Pitt courts work our own roads instead of sending them off to work in other counties. And it would not be bad to follow the example of Edgecombe and have a good roads association.

The winter has been long and cold in Chicago, and the power of endurance of its people has been almost exhausted. To save themselves from the necessity of hibernating the members of a German society devised a scheme for a night's festival in a summer garden. A large hall was transformed into a garden, huge trees being placed here and there and covered with artificial leaves. The walls were painted to represent long vistas of country in summer. There were tables under the trees and a band of music. In short, everything was summerlike, especially after the heat was turned on and the mercury marked eighty degrees. Then came the people, the women dressed in white summer garments and the men in white duck trousers, while the children ran about barefoot. The whole thing was realistic, and when at midnight the people dispersed they were fortified for another three months of winter.

A "refined young lady" in Leavenworth, Kansas, is pining for some congenial masculine who would love her "for herself alone." As she incidentally remarks that in addition to her good points she is worth in cash $20,000, the probabilities are that she will find some sympathetic fellow who will volunteer to do that.—Wilmington Star.

Frank P. Jacobs, aged 25, shot and killed his wife, aged 18, and then cut his own throat with a razor, at Lynchburg, twenty miles from Houston, Texas. The bodies were found lying side by side. The couple had been married a year.

FARMVILLE ITEMS

FARMVILLE, N. C., Mar. 5.
R. L. Davis & Bros., have erected a large warehouse near the depot for the storing of guano and other freights. T. L. and W. J. Turnage are also building one for a similar purpose.
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dancey spent Sunday in Greenville at his mother's home.
Mrs. Martha E. Belcher has been very sick, but we are glad she is now improving.
Norris & Jones have had the blacksmith shop on the Pollard lot moved over in the rear of their store.

Miss Mollie Satterthwaite, who has been visiting Mrs. W. C. Dancey, returned to her home at Coakley today.

A. S. J. Bynum & Co., are turning out an immense quantity of wire fencing.

Mrs. D. W. Arnold returned from Plymouth Saturday where she had been visiting her mother.

There are a few new buggies ready for the road at the carriage factory now, and though its a stirring place never employing less than seven workmen, this is the first time in quite awhile that the output has been in excess of the orders, but a few dry days will carry these away.

Miss Pearl Moore has gone to Crisp to spend the day.

The East Carolina railway is the best paying line in the State to its length, though only a few months old. Isn't it strange the wide awake people with money to invest had never conceived this scheme before?

The telephone line between Farmville and Greenville is down. It is hoped a new line will soon be run.

The heavy roads are beginning to tell on the livery teams.

R. L. Davis spent yesterday in Greenville on business.

W. B. Pollard has gone up the road on business today.

Voting Away the People's Money.

The extravagance of the United States government is now an old, well worn theme. The trend is all the time towards heavier burdens on the people, the burden bearers and toilers. The new river and harbor bill reaches the great sum of over $60,000,000, which is but $20,000,000 under the total expenditure of the Buchanan administration for all purposes in 1860. A million of dollars is but a $10 expenditure as it appeared to Nathaniel Macon and other faithful economists in the past. This new congress actually passed a larger bill of expenditure than was found in the bill defeated in the last congress, which was the most wasteful and foolhardy of all other congresses. It is pleasant to know that while the extravagance rages and public moneys are voted away as if they grew on trees that Wilmington was not forgotten. It gets $150,000 of the over $60,000,000—a little but better than none. A half loaf is better than no bread. If the democrats in the congress favor republican extravagance they will all be deprived of important campaign lightning.—Wilmington Messenger.

Uncle Sam had to shell out $50,000 for the shells shot at the Spanish fleet by Dewey, and $84,000 for those shot at Cervera's ships. It was a cracking business while it lasted, but we don't know yet how it will pan out, whether it will pay or not.—Wilmington Star.

The Way to Victory.

Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson in a strong letter printed in The New York Journal, March 3, points the way to a new Democratic victory by recalling how all the later triumphs of the party have been won. He cites the Tilden platform of 1876 as a suitable model to build upon in 1904:

We denounce the present tariff levied upon nearly four thousand articles as a masterpiece of injustice, inequality and false pretence. It yields a dwindling, not a yearly rising, revenue. It has impoverished many industries to subsidize a few. It prohibits imports that might purchase the products of American labor. It promotes fraud, fosters smuggling, enriches dishonest officials and bankrupts honest merchants. We demand that all custom house taxation shall be only for revenue.

In repealing taxes that put money in the Treasury and retaining taxes that put money into the pockets of favored monopolists the Republican party is again, as after the civil war, preparing the way for its downfall. The Democratic party needs only to keep faith with itself and abandon its wanderings after strange gods in order to secure the control of the government and return it to its ancient moorings.—Philadelphia Record.

Pitt Wins More Honors.

The President has appointed Private Bruce Cotten, of Twenty Fifth Company Coast Artillery, a Second Lieutenant of Artillery commencing May 8th, 1901, and the Senate on the 4th inst., confirmed the nomination. This young man is a son of Mr. R. R. Cotten, of Pitt county.

Judge Winston and Solicitor Moore left Sunday morning for their respective homes. They have made lots of friends among our best citizens, and you can hear it everywhere on our streets; that they are the best that have held court here in a long time.—Snow Hill Standard.

Flood Damage.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 4.—Official reports received at the railroad headquarters here show that situation in the flooded district is improved. The Southern's loss between Morristown and Asheville will aggregate from $200,000 to $250,000 to road-bed and bridges alone. The loss by delayed and annulled trains and cutting off of all passenger and freight traffic since last Thursday will be very large. About 900 men are repairing the road and bridges on the Asheville branch. There is still a gap of thirty-two miles between Marshall, N. C., and Del Rio, Tenn., without railroad service.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

There is more snow in Asheville and vicinity, but it melted almost as fast as it fell.

The grand stand and other buildings on the State fair grounds at Raleigh are to be improved.

Durham has a new city directory, which shows the present population to be 12,935, a gain of 5,660 since the taking of the 1900 census.

The two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Fulcher, of Newbern, picked up a button, placed it in his mouth and it slipped into his windpipe. He strangled to death before a physician arrived.

William Morgan, 60 years of age, was found dead in a ditch yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock on Mr. Speight Sutton's farm, about six miles from Kinston. Last Saturday he was known to have had between $35 and $40 on his person—when found there was only $9 in his pocket-book. It is thought by several who knew the old man that there has been foul play, that he was murdered for a few dollars.—Kinston Free Press 5th.

Advertising for Growth.

It is reasonable that the advertiser should expect immediate returns from his announcements. In the case of a permanent business however, the future also is worth considering. An establishment which is expected to grow can well afford to bear the cost of advertising which will give to it an enduring place in the public memory. The small merchant who is ambitious to become a large merchant must begin his growth in the advertising department.—Philadelphia Record.
