The Truest Thing We Ever Didn't Say.

BUT PERHAPS WE DID AND ONLY REPEAT.

Not sure whether we told you after inventory that our stocks were then in record condition, by which we mean Clearest of clinkers. If we didn't it was the truest thing we ever didn't say.

Of all the hard lessons a merchant has to learn the hardest is this: NEVER CARRY OVER.

Into goods lately bought, bought right and still in fashion, it's mighty hard to plunge the knife. But do it he often must, or suffer later. It's due to you. as well as us, that we start the new season right. WE DO.

A youth, born and bred in the midst of luxury, who has always leaned upon his parents, and has never been obliged to fight his way up to his own loaf, who has been coddled from his infancy, is like a sapling. A youth who perhaps has been an orphan since babyhood, and has had to struggle for ar education and a place in the world, has developed a fibre as strong as that of a mighty oak. His roots have struck deep; they have drawn nourishment and strength from the soil of adversity, and they sustain him in reverses of fortune, amidst the tempest of panic, and in great energencies, OUR LINE OF SPRING where weaklings bend and fall to the earth. The giant is made strong in wrestling with obstacles. Power is the resultant of forces overcome. The savage believes that he receives the strength which he overmasters in his enemy, and this very belief adds to his physi. cal yowers. In a more real and salutary sense, we gain the strength we overcome; poverty and difficulty and hardships, when conquered lend the force they formerly exercised in opposition to their conquerer .- Ex.

Five Children Borne by One Mother in 13 Months.

We are informed of a very sin gular occurrence in Montgomery county. Thirteen months ago the wife of Mr. Richard Bonton, whose residence is at Mt. Gilead, gave birth to twins. The two little ones are living and in excellent condition. One day last week this same mother increased the population of Montgomery county by the birth of triplets-two girls and one boy-all of which are well developed and healthy children .-Wadesboro Courier.

BLACK JACK ITEMS.

BLACK JACK, N. C., Mar. 12, 1902. Two run mad dogs have recently been killed near here, and now everybody has an eye on the dogs. Miss Willie Smith, of Ayden, has been visiting Miss Sudie Haddock.

We can't help expressing our sympathy for our young friend, W. F. Evans, on seeing him after his return Monday morning from Greenville. He didn't make the expected trip, even after saying in the debate Friday night that he had rather see her Sunday than have two dollars.

Miss Mollie Godley, of Chocowinity, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Maggie Smith.

Miss Nan Hardee, who has been visitiug her brother, J. S. Hardee, returned home Monday.

Miss Dora Cox accompanied Miss Helen Galloway home from Winterville last Friday. They returned Monday.

Miss Mamie Buck, of Aydeu is visiting Miss Maggie Smith.

There was quite a large attendance at church Sunday, although the weather was threatening.

On Friday night, W. H. Wynne, and W. F. Evans organized the Black Jack Literary Society with twenty two members. The following officers were chosen: Pres. E. L. Clark, Vice-Pres. Heber Dixon, Sec. Miss Annie White, Treas. Miss Lucy White. After organizing the following question was debated by Mr. Evans, in the affirmative, and Mr. Wynne, in the negative: Resolved, That woman has more influence over man than money.

Mr. Evans opened his remarks with a reference to the scene enacted in the Garden of Eden, and then related several incidents of life to show the influence of women, and closed with a reference to the influence of woman in the last political campaign, and a tribute to woman-hood.

Mr. Wynne's points, for the negative, were well chosen and strong. He made reference to the discovery of America and influences that led thereto. He gave several instances in which money had the predominating influence over man, for a striking example, the treachery of Benedict Arnold.

The affirative was adjudged the the victor, but it is the opinion of all that both money and women have a great influence over man.

Miss Louise Aiken, of Terre Haute, Ind., "split her side laughing" at a comedy a tew nights ago. She felt a sharp pain in her side, and her suffering increased until she was forced to leave the theatre. At home her mother a pplied simple remedies, but she grew worse, and a physician was summoned. He found that the diaphragm was torn. The girl is recovering.

FARMVILLE ITEMS.

WARMVILLE, N. C., Mar. 19. We are raving much bad weath. er now. It was snowing here yesterday morning.

Miss Mamie King, of Greenville, who has been visiting Miss Delphia Belcher and other friends, returned home Sunday.

Miss Vivian Parker, who has been visiting friends and relatives at Snow Hill, returned home yesterday accompanied by Miss Alyce Middling 81

TC. . Turnage and W. A. Lewis Low Middling spent Sunday in Tarboro and returned Monday on the noon train.

Miss Mary Moye, of Greenville, spent Saturday and Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. Florence Horne. W. B. Tyson and Knapp Burnette spent Sunday in Ayden.

Mrs. John Ross, of Ayden, is visiting her brother, Joe Morriss. Mrs. J. J. Parker and Mrs. Lucy Moore spent Sunday in the country with Mrs. J. H. Barrett.

G. W. Freeman and family returned from Washington Saturday.

W. A. Hardee and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with his sister, Mrs. W. B. Pollard.

Ray West, of Fieldsboro, was in town Sunday visiting friends.

Mrs. D. E. Burch, of Robersonville, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sarah Smith, near here.

Expensive Potatoes.

The Kinston Free Press tells of a man in that town who put a lighted lantern in a pile of potatoes and covered it with a blanket to keep the potatoes from freezing. The house took fire and was damaged to the cost of $100, and but for the timely aid of the fire department would have been destroyed.

George Washington died and the country survived. His death was a ten days' talk and then people talked of somebody else. Napoleon went to St. Helena and a Bourbon occupied the throne of France. What is true of illustrious men is true in greater degree of those who have not achieved eminent distinction. To succeed in advertising one must keep himself constantly before the public. When he ceases to advertise people forget him. Who remembers Hembold now? Yet time was when he and his buchu preparation were the talk of the country. Camphor Eaters.

The latest fad among the fashionable women of the country is camphor eating. The idea seems to prevail that this gam, taken in small and regular doses, gives a peculiar creaminess of complexion, and scores of young women buy it for this purpose. The habit is, moreover, very difficult to east off, for campher produces a mild form of exhibitaration and stupefaction, and in many instances where very large doses have been swallowed the habit has become a sort of slavery. These camphor eaters all have a dreamy, dazed and very listless air, and in most of them there is an ever present longing to sleep or at least to rest. Extreme weakness generally follows the taking of regular doses, and cases have been seen where it has been almost difficult to tell the effect from those of alcohol. As to the complexion, if a ghastly pallor be an improvement, camphar cer-
