Serious Race Conflict.

Jasper, Ala., March 26.—Information has just been received here of a race riot twelve miles east of Jasper late this afternoon in which 150 shots are reported to have been exchanged, but the casualties cannot be ascertained at this hour. A farmer named Murry came in about 7 o'clock for ammunition and has returned.

Sheriff Moore has asked Governor Jelks to call out the militia company and the men are now getting ready to respond to the call which is momentarily expected. The trouble is said to be the outgrowth of racial dissensions.

Sheriff Moore late tonight, received instructions from Governor Jelks authorizing him to call out the local military company whenever he thinks it necessary. The scene of the riot is at a negro colony situated on the Warrior river, and, owing to the location, further details of the difficulty cannot be obtained tonight. The negroes, it is reported, have armed themselves and are prepared to make stubborn resistance.

Child Falls in Well.

At Churchland, this county, on last Saturday evening a little three year old child, of Mr. Alfred Leonard fell from the top of a well 48 feet to the bottom, and still lives.

The well had just been dug and some planks placed across the top. The child was walking across these when one of the planks slipped and the little tot was precipitated to the bottom. There was about six inches of water in the well. The accident was immediately discovered, and Mrs. Leonard quickly let her husband down the well on a rope. He rescued the child and both were soon drawn to the top, the little one being unconscious. It soon revived, however. An examination revealed no bones broken, and the baby was practically uninjured and is now recovering. It was a miraculous escape from death and is supposed that the water alone broke the force of the fall and saved the child from being killed.—Lexington Dispatch.

Told by Pain

If you have pains you should look after them quickly. Pain shows something is wrong. The sharper the pain the more danger there is in delay. There are thousands of women to-day who are bearing awful pain almost continually, rather than tell a physician about the shooting pains in their lower abdomen, about the agony of falling of the womb and the distress of leucorrhoea. They let the months pass and their trouble becomes harder to cure and more distressing. But modest women can secure exemption from the embarrassment of a private examination. When pain tells them of danger they can cure themselves by the use of in the privacy of their homes. You can be cured without distressing publicity. With these facts before you there is no reason for the delay which is increasing your misery and wasting the days of your life. Why not stop the pain today?

Belen, Miss., March 9, 1900.

I have used one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theodor's Black-Draught. Before I began to take your medicines I had pains in my back, hips, lower bowels and my arms. Sometimes I thought I would go blind. My head ached and I was so weak I could hardly walk across the floor. Now I can only feel a little of the pain in my side and I am going to use your medicines until I get cured, for I believe they will certainly cure me. I have been married twelve years and am the mother of seven children. I thank you for your wonderful medicine and what it has done for me.

FRIDAY, MARCH 28, 1902.

A young man from Cuba and a young lady from Canada were married on the dome of the capitol in Washington City at noon on Wednesday. They were high up for once in their lives, if they never get so any more.

The term of court just closing has disposed of a large volume of business on the civil docket, and Judge F. D. Winston has added more to the estimation in which he is held by the people of Pitt county. Whether presiding over a criminal or civil term of court, his manner of conducting the business shows that he is a wise and impartial Judge.

There has recently been much discussion of the poll tax qualification to suffrage. Some lawyers have taken the position that as the constitutional amendment does not go into effect until July 1st the law requiring poll tax to be paid before May 1st to qualify one to vote cannot apply to the elections of this year. But Mr. George Rountree, of Wilmington, who was chairman of the suffrage committee of the Legislature, gives out an opinion that puts the other aside. He holds that the act is entirely valid and will apply to the elections this year. So the safest thing for all to do who want to do is go ahead and pay poll tax before May 1st.

The Supreme Court decides the interesting case of Mrs. Scott vs. Ingram, involving the title to the whole town of Star, in Montgomery county. Mrs. Scott, a married woman, living in South Carolina, sold the land on which the town now stands, for a trifle, it seems. The town was built, and it is said the land is now worth $70,000 or thereabouts. The Supreme Court decides in favor of Mrs. Scott and so the property owners lose it.—Charlotte Observer.

People of this country have been educated to go to the newspapers to find where to go for what they need. This is so true that no well informed man will deny it. It follows that the advertiser who uses the newspapers will get the customers. This does not mean that the newspaper is the only means for successful advertising, but it is the universally approved medium, although some who believe in it may employ other methods as well. All believe in its merit, while all do not give pre-eminence to any other one method.—Printers' Ink.

The Giddy Young Thing!

Mrs. Gilbert's eightieth birthday, which was celebrated recently at St. Louis with a flower hung dressing room and a serenade by the orchestra, which played "Auld Lang Syne" on the stage after the performance, occurred just before an illness which necessitated a short rest. When she returned to the cast at the Lyceum theater in New York, one reason after another was advanced as to the cause of her indisposition. In that vibrant voice of hers that has retained its mellowness through these many years, she denied in turn each one of the causes ascribed. "I'll tell you what it was," she said finally and with a twinkle in her eye, "I had too much birthday."—Leslie's Weekly.

Precautions For the Czar's Life.

No nihilist will ever get a chance at the czar of Russia with a razor, at least in the guise of a barber. The autocrat has his beard carefully trimmed, but with scissors. Even this is treated as a responsible and important function, and of the four grand masters of the court, as they are called, one always attends the czar when his majesty is under the barber's care. Not that any doubt is felt as to the fidelity of the barber. The family of the Guelabovski have been barbers to the imperial house of Romanoff from the time of Czar Paul.

The Miller's Thumb.

It is by the thumb the miller tests the character and qualities of the grain he grinds. Spreading the sample over the fingers by a peculiar movement of the thumb, he gauges its value by the thumb itself. Continual action in this way makes the thumb assume a shape resembling the wide flattened head of the bull-head, or Tommy Logge, a fish prevalent in mill streams, which in consequence is popularly known as the miller's thumb.—Chambers' Journal.

Optimistic Boers.

Bennet Burleigh, the noted English war correspondent, reports a suggestive conversation between a British officer and a Boer field cornet under a flag of truce.

The former asked, "When do you think the war will be over?" "Oh," replied the other, "when you people are able to catch a horse with an ox wagon; not before!"

Woman's Name.

Cleveland.—Since you have been calling on Miss P. have you had her father and mother named you? Dasherway.—Splendid! I haven't even met them.—Judge.

Suicide in a Hotel.

Savannah, Ga., March 26.—This evening a porter of the Screven house detected an odor of gas. It came from room No. 63. He tried the door and found that it was locked on the inside. He got on a table and pushed open the transom over the door. It was dark inside and the porter struck a match and held it up. Instantly there was an explosion—room No. 63 and the number adjoining were wrecked, and windows shattered in other parts of the house.

A fire alarm was turned in. Firemen entered room No. 63 and found on the bed the dead body of W. P. Hankinson, aged 24 years, of Ellenton, S. C. He had taken morphine, unscrewed the tip from the gas burner and turned on the gas. Letters found on his body explained that he was despondent and determined to die.

At the time of the explosion the hotel was well filled and a panic was narrowly averted.

Our talented young friend, Rev. F. H. Harding, who is now in Greenville, but a native of this city, has received a call to Grace Episcopal church in Baltimore as assistant. He is a most excellent young man, and if he accepts, our best wishes will go with him.—Washington Messenger.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Your treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We the undersigned, constituting the Local Board of Underwriters, in the town of Greenville, N. So many fires originate from this source that all of the first-class Companies condemn them as a menace to property, and the insuring public carrying as they do, one fourth of the value of the property insured, it is to their interest to have brick flues safely arranged.

Opera House.

Seldom do our people have the privilege of seeing a Comedy Drama which presents such touching and thrilling pictures of domestic life as that of "Hazel Kirk" which will be played at the Opera House on Tuesday, April 1st. Each character has an originality and charm peculiarly its own, beginning with the big hearted old miller "Dunstan Kirke," whose wounded pride and resentment is conquered by a father's love; to the eccentric, though faithful friend and fond lover "Pittacus Green" whose inimitable wit and humor is only equalled by his devotion to "Dolly Dutton" the Millers niece.

Ere the end is reached we are compelled to accept the lesson taught "that human heart is more than human will."

Good for the Girls.

Friday evening the Thos. J. Jarvis chapter Daughters of the Confederacy, composed of little girls, brought their dues for last month to THE REFLECTOR as a donation to the Sir Walter Raleigh monument fund. The amount was 47 cents. This was good for the little girls and they deserve much credit for their contribution.

Chamber of Commerce.

Many months ago a Chamber of Commerce was organized in Greenville, but for some time it has been inactive. Tonight a meeting will be held in the Mayor's office for the purpose of reviving and reorganizing. Let there be a large attendance of our business men. A Chamber of Commerce well conducted will accomplish much for the town.

Special Services.

The services at the Baptist church Sunday will be somewhat out of the usual order. A programme has been arranged for both morning and night. Several will take part in the exercises, the children among the number. At the night service it is especially desired that the parents of the town be present. There will be something for them, music will be one special feature of the programme. All are cordially invited to both services.

Men's Prayer Meeting.

Every Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock a men's prayer meeting is held in the Methodist church, lasting for one hour. These meetings have proved very interesting, and no one can attend without being spiritually benefitted. THE REFLECTOR has been asked to say that while these meetings are held in the Methodist church they are not regarded as meetings for members of that church alone, but all Christians are cordially invited to participate in them, and even men who belong to no church are cordially welcomed. The meetings are intended to help all men and the attendance should be large every Sunday morning.
