A BIG HAUL

Five Thieves Captured With Stolen Goods.

This morning five colored people, four women and one man, from Greene county, came to Greenville and undertook to work out the town, but instead of getting back home with their stolen booty they are now occupying quarters in charge of Sheriff Harrington in the county hotel.

The negroes went to several of the stores and while one or more of the crowd would be occupying the attention of the salesmen looking at goods they pretended to want to buy, the others would be stealing. After they left the stores of Greene & Brown and C. T. Munford these gentlemen missed a lot of goods. As soon as possible a search was instituted for the negroes when it was found they had left town.

Messrs. C. T. Munford, H. C. Hooker, W. B. Greene, L. H. Rountree and R. D. Cherry got horses and went in pursuit of them. They overtook the negroes near Frog Level, about 5 miles from town. The negroes had some of the goods with them and had hid portions of the stealings in the woods. The pursuers made them go in the woods and find the goods and in all a lot of white goods and embroideries belonging to Greene & Brown, and two capes, a pair of shoes, a suit of clothes and two pieces of calico belonging to C. T. Munford were recovered. No doubt there are other goods yet missing.

The negroes were all brought back to town and had a trial before Justice of the Peace C. D. Rountree who sent them on to Superior court. The negroes gave their names as Annie Taylor, Polly Taylor, Easter Anderson, Flora Weathington and David Ormond.

The gentlemen who went in pursuit of the thieves are telling some rich experience in the capture of gang and recovery of the goods.

Seek Relief!

The great proportion of women who suffer never make a serious effort to benefit themselves. The most of them go on paying no attention to their little menstrual disorders, believing they will eventually wear off. They grow worse and worse every day. At the period of menstruation a woman is peculiarly susceptible to cold and other external influences and it is also the most favorable time for the development of hidden disease germs which may be lurking in the system. Any physician knows that disordered menstruation, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea are blighting lives in almost every home. No woman should neglect herself a moment after she sees indications of female diseases. Almost instant relief can be secured by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

It will relieve you right in your own home. Will you accept the testimony of Mrs. Beigler and thousands of other women and really seek relief today? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

100 Chicago Street, Fort Wayne, Ind., March 27, 1900.
Your Wine of Cardui has done a world of good for me. I have used five bottles of the Wine and one package of Thedford's Black-Draught. And since I have started to use it I will not be without it in the house. It helped my sister in Toledo, who did not menstruate as she ought. She was sixteen years of age and nothing else helped her. I was in a very bad state myself before I used your medicine, but I found relief in three days. And now I feel like a new woman and do all my housework and washing, which I could not do before I took Wine of Cardui. I would be very glad to write any poor woman and tell her how I suffered before I used Wine of Cardui.

TOWN MATTERS.

Proceedings of Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met in regular monthly session Thursday night, all the members but one being present.

The finance committee reported about $2,500 on hand in the general fund.

The street committee reported that an agreement had been reached for the street across the Star Warehouse property at $87.50. The drain across Fifth street above the railroad had been properly constructed and filled in.

The white cemetery committee made a report of lots sold, and bad condition of fence.

The Tax Collector, Chief and Assistant Police made report of collections for past month.

The Chief of Fire Department reported no fires or fire alarms during the month of March. Fire department and equipment in good condition.

Somewhat of a stormy time developed in the proceedings when Alderman King arose and called attention to the fact that Alderman Hooker, one of the members from the Third Ward, was now living in the Fifth ward, and raised the question as to whether he (Hooker) was a legal representative of the Third ward under such circumstances. The question brought out a spirited discussion, some taking the view that Alderman Hooker should resign, but he stated that unless good legal reasons were produced for his doing so he would not resign. There were some personal thrusts during the discussion. The Board closed the matter for the time being by appointing a special meeting for the 17th to consider the question.

Another little breezy time followed when H. W. Whedbee, attorney for the County Board of School Directors, appeared with a demand for the fines imposed and collected by the town for three years. He stated that in the former suit the Supreme court had ruled in favor of the town because such demand was not made upon the town at the time of bringing the action, and now the matter would be started again and for that purpose this formal demand was made. There was more lively discussion, some wanting to settle the matter and pay whatever the town owes without any further litigation, others wanting to fight the matter out to a finish through the courts. This was disposed of for the time being by the appointment of a committee of the Board to confer with a committee of the School Board and attorneys to determine the amount due by the town and report at next meeting.

LEAVE THE DOCTORS

to settle the question whether food is fuel or merely the conductor of so much necessary electricity. What you are after is the right food—clean, pure, inviting and wholesome at the right price, with as little annoyance of service as may be. We propose to meet you half way on this proposition.

HEARNE & COMPANY, GROCERS.

the Board agreeing not to plead the statute of limitation for the time such investigation is pending. It had been agreed at a former meeting to pay to the School Board the fines collected between March 11th and July 1st, 1901, and an order for the amount, $119.50, was drawn. Since July 1st, 1901, the Mayor has paid over the fines every month to the County Treasurer for the school fund.

A committee was appointed, with the Chief of Fire Department as chairman, to look into the advisability of getting a bell to ring at 11 o'clock at night to warn the bar keepers to close up, and stop using the fire alarm for that purpose.

The following were appointed registrars and poll holders for the election of Aldermen to be held on the first Monday in June, next:

FIRST WARD.
Registrar, H. Harding. Poll holders, W. J. Cowell and S. P. Humphrey. Voting place colored Odd Fellows hall.

SECOND WARD.
Registrar, J. N. Booth. Poll holders, Chas Cobb and L. C. Arthur. Voting place, J. N. Booth's residence.

THIRD WARD.
Registrar, L. W. Lawrence. Poll holders, G. E. Harris and R. Hyman. Voting place court house.

FOURTH WARD.
Registrar, T. M. Hooker. Poll holders H. L. Carr and E. G. Barrett. Voting place Five Points.

FIFTH WARD.
Registrar, Zeno Moore. Poll holders, J. C. Lanier and Dempsey Ruffin. Voting place Farmers Warehouse.
The Clerk, Tax Collector and Treasurer were given permission to be absent from town for ten days from April 7th.

Orders amounting to $503.52 were drawn on the Treasurer.

A Hoboken, N. J., woman wants a divorce because her husband, who earns $3 a week, brutally refused to give her the money to buy a $4.69 Easter bonnet which had been marked down from $4.70.—Wilmington Star.

A woman book-keeper in Philadelphia embezzled $15,000, but, woman like, couldn't keep the secret and gave herself away.

Mary Stockton, who came yesterday on a search for her sweetheart, Oscar Phillips, left this morning for Greenville, having failed to find that "slippery gemman" in Kinston. She, however, learned that he had been here and gone to Greenville. She is on the "war path" right, and is determined to find him and punish him as he deserves for his infidelity.—Kinston Free Press 3rd.

That Missouri man charged with having married 13 women, indignantly denies the charge. He says he never had more than three wives at a time in his life.—Wilmington Star.

How He Finally Proposed.
"Why don't you speak for yourself?" she asked of the diffident suitor.
"Because I—I want to speak for you," he answered.—Chicago Post.

Horsemad Flier.
"Young man, you are going the pace that kills."
"Seems so, parson. My automobile ran down six chickens and a dog yesterday."—Chicago News.

Hints to Housekeepers.
Sandwiches to be offered at an afternoon tea should not be buttered or be spread with the filling mixture quite to the edge of the bread. This is to save the gloves of those who will handle them.

The old fashioned green and black calico has been revived as a cotton print and is especially artistic as the backing of a porridge. One of the latter, of rich dark green corduroy, was effectively lined with the calico. Never allow fresh meat to remain in paper. The paper absorbs the juices.

You may avoid the unpleasantness to the eyes when peeling onions by sitting in a draft of air or by an open window or door while doing it. Holding the onions in cold water while peeling them will accomplish the same result.

To make paper stick to a wall that has been whitewashed wash the wall in vinegar or saleratus water. When an egg is partially frozen, beat the yolk separately before adding the whites.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would continue, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and my hearing in five weeks my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you very truly and beg to remain Very truly yours F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md. Your treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Epidemics in this country are catching on to the true inwardness of the hind leg of the hopper. It is estimated that the catch last year amounted to 2, 00,000 frogs. New Yorkers eat about 500 pounds a day, and pay from twenty five to seventy cents a pound, and sometimes as much as a dollar a pound. There are some splendid frog farms down in these parts, but we do not seem to have caught on. —Wilmington Star.

Bring On Your Work.

Now that our foreman is back at his place in THE REFLECTOR office, we are ready to handle work with usual promptness and invite you to send it in. We have just received a large lot of the nicest commercial stationery for letter heads, bill heads, statements, etc., and can give some good bargains on large orders. Good material and good work is the kind turned out at THE REFLECTOR office.

All the Comforts of Home.

For the future railway travelers the offer of "all the comforts of home" will have no meaning, indeed he has already learned to expect in traveling a great many comforts which are impossible in the average home, and form no part of his daily life. For example, we read of a Western railroad which is now equipping a train at a cost about equal to that of a first class hotel, with buffet cars, bath rooms, barber shop, library and smoking cars, drawing room, sleeping and observation coaches. To these we have already attained, but this train will also have telephone connection with local and long-distance services, and it is expected that before long a passenger may call up any number anywhere, and hold a conversation while the train is in motion.—New York Times.

I. A. Sugg and F. M. Whichard returned from Tarboro Thursday evening.

Almost a Fire.

On Thursday night as Mrs. Chas. Cobb went to her bed room to light a lamp, she took a match and reached down to the side of the fireplace and struck it. The flame from the match ignited the mantle draperies and for a few minutes the whole room seemed to be in a blaze, as the flames went up to the ceiling. The fire was quickly put out, but not until Mr. and Mrs. Cobb both had burned their hands in stopping it.

Murder and Robbery.

Austin Texas, April 2.—Mrs. O. L. Levy, aged eighty years and a resident of Travis county for the past forty years, living sixteen miles west of here, on Barton Creek, was murdered and robbed last night. The house was afterwards fired, and parts of the remains were burned. The trunk and one arm of the body were horribly mutilated before the house was set on fire. The house and two outbuildings were burned.

He Suffered Greatly.

THE REFLECTOR feels more at ease since Foreman T. W. McBryde is able to return to his post, and in short everything about the office will be in smooth working order. During his absence of four weeks he suffered great bereavement, his father, mother and a sister dying. Another sister was almost at death's door for several days and he watched anxiously by her until her condition so improved that he could leave. He has the sympathy of all his friends in Greenville, and all are glad to see him back.

Good Boys.

THE REFLECTOR feels like speaking a word of praise for "the boys behind the guns." During the absence of the foreman, with no available printers near, the boys in the office have had almost double work to do, yet they stuck to their places day and night and the paper came out on good time every evening. THE REFLECTOR is proud of its force, and there are none better or more obliging anywhere. They are made of the stuff that gives them a readiness to take hold and help surmount any difficulty that may arise.

Tipped The Senator a Quarter.

Senator Hawley of Connecticut, chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, yesterday politely pointed out some of the interesting decorations in the committee room to a party of old ladies who were evidently strangers to the capitol. As they left him, one of the ladies slipped a quarter in his hand, and when the astonished Senator asked why she offered to pay a United States Senator for an act of courtesy, she said with perfect simplicity: "Oh, excuse me; I thought you were a doorkeeper."—Washington Times.

This April 2, 1902.

D. C. MOORE,
Clerk Superior Court

A tramp was recently arrested in Chicago for the unusual crime of stealing a bar of soap. There must be some mistake about this—a case of mistaken identity. It wasn't a tramp or it wasn't a bar of soap.
