GRIMES-RODMAN.

Washington N. C. April 5.—The wedding of Miss Theodora Bryan Grimes, of Grimesland, and Mr. Wiley Croom Rodman, of Washington, celebrated on Tuesday in the old historic Trinity Episcopal Church at Chocowinity, was a most brilliant affair, the crowning event of society this season.

The church within was a scene of beauty, the chancel being most artistically decorated with the choicest of flowers. Gathered within the building were the many friends of the happy couple, whose presence and congratulations testified to the great popularity of the young couple.

At half past one o'clock the bridal party entered the church as the grand music of the wedding march was rendered by Miss Bessie Harding. First came the ushers, Messrs. W. D. Grimes, Frank Bryan, N. S. Fulford and A. D. MacLean.

Then entered the bride-elect, most charmingly attired in a tailor made gown of blue cloth, hat to match, her radiant beauty enhanced by the happiness of the occasion leaning upon the arm of her maid of honor, Miss Della Weller, of Weldon, also a picture of loveliness. At the chancel they were met by the groom and his best man, Dr. John C. Rodman, and in the presence of the goodly company the solemn marriage vows of the Episcopal church were given by Rev. F. H. Harding, of Greenville.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party, accompanied by many friends, drove to this city and Mr. and Mrs. Rodman left on the afternoon train on their bridal trip to Washington, West Point, New York and other cities, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.

On Wednesday morning a wedding breakfast was served the bridal party at the home of the bride in Grimesland. It was a most charming occasion, made so by the charms of true Southern hospitality most happily evinced. The many and beautiful gifts of the young couple were greatly admired.

The bride is a daughter of the late Major General Bryan Grimes, and a sister of Col. J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State, and of Mrs. Alfred Williams, of Raleigh. Her distinguished father made a famous name as the hero of many Confederate battles, who planned, managed and led the last charge at Appomattox. She is a most fascinating brunette, with many rare gifts that go to make up a cultured and charming Southern belle.

The groom is a son of the late Judge W. B. Rodman, at one time an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina and a brave Confederate soldier. He is a rising young member of the bar, being associated with his brother, Col. W. B. Rodman, in practice at Washington, where he is winning fame as an advocate and adviser.

Both bride and groom have a large circle of friends over the State, and from all these there will be many congratulations upon the happy event.

OUR GOVERNOR'S DAY.

North Carolina Women Will Make Memorable This Occasion at Charleston.

Salisbury, N. C., April 5.—In response to very earnest invitations from the president and other prominent ladies of the Charleston Exposition, the women of North Carolina decided to make our Governor's day memorable, so the day will be "North Carolina Governor's and North Carolina Woman's Day at Charleston." The program decided on is very pleasing. The young women at 4 p. m. in muslin dresses and ribbons, will give a violin, piano and song concert, an address of a few minutes will be made and a charming hour will have been spent in the auditorium.

The performers at this concert will be Misses Julia Crouch, piano; Mary Johnson, violin; Gertrude Robbins and Alice Hammond, of the Baptist College, voice. At 8:30 the accomplished Prof. Zehm will give an opening number on the pipe organ. Mrs. Vardell (Linda Rumble), whom North Carolina has honored and admired, will preside at the piano. Miss Seymour, on the violin, and Miss Catherine Vardell will sing. These accomplished musicians have entered full and freely into the spirit of the occasion and invite all North Carolinians to attend these exercises in the auditorium on the afternoon and evening of the 10th.

Mrs. Simmons, the president of the woman's Department, has tendered North Carolina an entertainment, leaving Mrs. Charles Price, of the Woman's Board of this State, to fix the date. I named the 11th as the day, hoping it would be convenient and suitable. The hours will be decided on later and will be fully advertised.

A "boczy" gentleman from the country was in all kinds of trouble Saturday. His lower limbs refused to support him as they were wont to do—his eyes played him tricks, causing him to see double and ran him into everything "a'most" that he could get up to—even an officer of the law, who cruelly pulled him out of his buggy and landed him in the "calaboose," just as he was preparing to leave town. It is said, however, that it was high time some one was interfering with the jolly fellow, as he had hitched up the wrong end of the horse to the buggy.—Kinston Free Press.

On Monday the Goldsboro Argus began its eighteenth year of continuous existence. It has become one of the oldest dailies of the State and is a welcome visitor to our sanctum.

HEARNE & COMPANY, GROCERS.

Hail Two Inches Deep.

Prattville, Tex., April 6.—A destructive storm swept over this place last night, between 8 and 9 o'clock. No lives were lost, but much property was destroyed. The storm came from the north and for 20 minutes there was a flood of rain and hail. As far as known it extended only between Prattville and Pacio, eight miles distant. Along the path of the storm, which resembles a railroad track, all trees including many fruit trees, were leveled. Hail fell two inches deep. The Prattville Methodist church was blown from its foundation and a dwelling house at Lake Creek was lifted up and carried into an adjoining field. Two stores at Pacio and a farm house near by were blown down. Charles Pratt's store at Pacio was completely wrecked and the goods scattered for miles. Pratt escaped with a few bruises. The entire loss caused by the storm is not known.

A BLIZZARD IN MICHIGAN.

Marquette, Mich., April 6.—Northern Michigan is in the grip of a blizzard tonight. Heavy snow is falling and a gale is lashing the lake to fury. The weather yesterday was balmy and warm.

Urge public benefits and improve ments at all times.

Assist in promoting every enterprise for the good of the whole community.

Don't follow "calamity shouters;" keep in the front ranks of progress and advancement.

Negro Lynched in Virginia.

Lynchburg, Va., April 6.—Jas. Carter, a young negro, who shot and seriously wounded Mr. Don Thomas near New Glasgow, in Amherst county, Thursday night, was taken from jail at Amherst Court House, last night just before midnight and lynched a short distance from the village. The deed was very quietly and expeditiously done.

Between 11 and 12 o'clock a party of men, estimated to number about 200, and supposed to have come from the neighborhood of Cliffords, 7 miles away, where Mr. Thomas lives, rode into the town of Amherst. All were masked, or had their faces blackened. When Jailer John Jones left the jail for his home, several members of the lynching party made him surrender the keys. Going to the jail the men secured Carter, took him a half mile north of the village, hanged him to a tree, and fired 35 bullets into his body, which remained suspended till this morning.

A coroner's inquest returned a verdict that the man came to his death by hanging and gunshot wounds inflicted by parties unknown to the jury. The shooting of Thomas by Carter was the result of an accusation said to have been made by the former, that Carter had set an outhouse on fire. He had been sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Here is the latest recipe for pushing a town ahead:
Praise it.
Talk about it.
Write about it.
Help to improve it.
Speak well about it.
Patronize home merchants.
Elect good men to local office.
Give them moral support when in office.

Induce desirable settlers to locate in it.
Let "Home Trade" be the watchword.

Remember that every dollar invested in permanent improvements is that much on interest.

Friends may be sickle, but most of them will last as long your money.

Even the woman who is strong-minded can't always hold her tongue.

A prominent manufacturer of this city states that this State consumes 500,000 bales of cotton annually, and that in the manufacture of this cotton 50,000 people are employed; each person manufacturing 10 bales of cotton a year. By the same calculation it is estimated that just 1,000,000 people are engaged in manufacturing 10,000,000 bale crop.

Importance of Advertising.

At the recent dinner of the Sphinx Club at the Waldorf-Astoria, in New York, a paper on "Art in Advertising" was read. The writer cited as a proof of the importance of advertising the fact that some of the great artists are now employed in making designs for advertisers. It is also noteworthy that some of the modern processes of reproduction in art work have been invented through the demands of advertisers.—Philadelphia Record.

Dixon Sentenced to Hang.

The verdict in the Cyrus Dixon case, tried last week at Trenton, he being charged with the murder of Godfrey Webber, was rendered and he was sentenced to be hanged on May 16th. Notice of appeal was given. Dixon was charged with shooting Webber from ambush at the latter's gate, as he was going in his home. It was a cowardly and brutal murder. It was at night and the assassin's first shot did not kill.

He then went to within a few feet and discharged a second load into Webber. The latter made a dying declaration that he thought Dixon was his slayer. Dixon and Webber's wife were former sweethearts and this is supposed to have been the trouble.—Kinston Free Press.

Even the people who have money to burn can't take it with them when they die.

Some people should pack their good resolutions in cotton and then, perhaps, they wouldn't get broken.

Run Over and Killed.

Jesse Parker, colored, Friday was killed on the road near Palmyra. He was driving a pair of oxen to a log cart loaded with timber. Under the influence of liquor it is said he fell off and one of the wheels ran over him producing death.—Tarboro Southerner.

Won Fortune for Swzetheart.

Pottsville, Pa., April 5.—Ten years ago John J. Joyce and Miss Sallie Kerchner were school mates at Frackville. The young people wanted to get married, but their parents objected because of their youth and the poverty of Joyce. Joyce then left for California, where he became wealthy. This week he crossed the Continent to make Miss Kerchner his bride, and the couple were married by Justice Shaw, of Pottsville, today.

Bride, 74; Bridegroom, 33.

The Gillion House was the scene of a midnight marriage on Sunday night. The bride, Mrs. Jane E. Kowald, of New York, has been in the city only a short time and is 74 years old. The bridegroom, Cloyd H. Barker, is 33, and came here from Tampa a week ago. The couple were married by Justices of the Peace A. A. Gwynn and W. O. Johnson. The bride left the next day for New York and the bridegroom the following night for Tampa. The bride is said to be worth $70,000.—Key West, Fla., Dispatch.

A Michigan woman had a man arrested for robbing her, and a day or two later she married him. A subsequent chapter will be necessary to decide whether he thus got out of a bad fix or into a worse one.

TWO WAYS OF LOOKING AT IT.

To some the attraction in these suits may be the price. It certainly is low. Others may be induced to purchase by the quality. That certainly is excellent.

THESE $12.50 AND $15.00 SPRING SUITS

Bullet In His Heart, He Lives.

The thirty-first congress of the German Chirurgical Association opened here today with a discussion of the first treatment of the wounded in battle. Prof. Von Bruns, detailing the formed practice resulting from experiences in Cuba and South Africa, declared that antiseptic bandages were undoubtedly ideal for the battlefield, superseding antiseptic treatment.

Prof. Bergmann introduced several patients to illustrate the desirability, as far as possible, of not molesting wounds by probing and other operations. The most remarkable case was that of a man who attempted to commit suicide with a small calibre gun. The bullet penetrated the heart, but the wound healed quickly. Subsequently X-rays revealed the bullet lying on the right ventricle, bounding with each beat. Eventually it became encased, and now moves rhythmically with the heart, not causing the least inconvenience.—Berlin Dispatch.
