Ricks & Wilkinson

"Take Away Women"

And what would follow?" said a Women's Rights orator. "We would," excitedly shouted a man in the gallery.

Perhaps that's why so many men do their shoe business at our store, for we certainly have the women's trade.

Why shouldn't we?

We carry the most famous line of Women's shoes and our store is fairly ablaze with the latest Spring creations in Kid and Patent Kid Oxfords--all Goodyear Welt (this insures sole flexibility and comfort.)

They will soon be on the feet of the best dressers in town.

They're yours at $2.50 to $3.50 a pair.

As well be out of the World as out of Fashion.

For earliest knowing and possessing of the authoritative things of fashion, keep yourself familiar with

TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 1902.

Dallas, Texas, had three fires early Sunday morning, supposed to be the work of incendiaries. The loss is said to reach $370,000.

Out in Kansas the temperature is figuring up in the minutes, while a little further west, in Utah, they are having a snow storm and blizzard.

Early Sunday morning the large side-wheel steamer City of Pittsburgh was burned on the Ohio river. Including passengers and crew there were about 150 people on board and 60 of them are reported to have perished. The steamer and cargo were a total loss. It was a terrible disaster.

It is not every thief who gets in the clutches of the law. There are those who make a big haul and, hiding behind some technicality or misplaced law, go unwhipped except by their own conscience, while the petty larceny fellow gets a term in striped clothes. And it is the way of the world that the big thief is lauded as a sharp, shrewd fellow because he cuts a dash with ill gotten gains. It may be that way here, but there is day of judgment coming when it will be found that the Eighth Commandment handed down from Sinai has never been repealed, and all thieves will be classed together.

There is nothing that encourages intelligent immigration more than a good hospital. A man does not care to bring his family to a town that does not furnish every facility for the protection, comfort and safety of the sick any more than he desires to invest in real estate where there is nothing to protect it from fire. A hospital is a necessity in these days of progress, and all our sister towns realizing this have secured them. Are we to lag behind, especially when we have such generous offers of help in this direction? Greenville and Pitt county must have a hospital. If its citizens will get together and raise a few thousand dollars in cash, other men with capital outside of the county, realizing the wonderful benefits of a first-class hospital, will gladly supply the rest.

When it comes to wearing an engagement ring the left hand is the right hand.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C., Apr. 21. Last Wednesday the Senate passed a Chinese Exclusion bill, not the measure reported by the Committee on Immigration but the Geary law, re-enacting it for another term. The large majority of the democrats voted for the more drastic measure out the influence of the representatives of large Pacific coast corporations, who have swarmed the Senate end of the Capitol of late, and who hope under the provisions of the Geary law to secure labor at lower wages than they would have had to pay had the new bill become a law, proved too strong for the republican Senators. The action of the Senate was a severe disappointment to the Pacific coast delegations and one senator from that section said to me yesterday, "If the Senate should pass the Cuban reciprocity bill you might as well strike my State from the republican column and count it in the democratic list."

The Philippine government bill is now the regular order in the Senate and it will be followed by the Isthmian canal bill, at least, so say several members of the republican steering committee. It is possible, however, that the republicans do not appreciate the organized opposition with which their present bill will be met. The testimony which is being presented to the Philippine committee is constantly tending to prove the correctness of democratic contentions as well as to demonstrate the ap-paling cruelty and disregard for the rules of civilized warfare of which certain American officers have been guilty.

Correspondents of the democrats press have been charged with sending out exaggerated reports of the Army transportation service scandals, and, through the courtesy of Representative Richardson, I secured the proof sheets of the documents on the subject submitted to the House by Secretary Root. Space will not permit extensive quotation but perhaps the following will suffice: In refitting the transport Hancock the Union Iron Works of San Francisco furnished the following items as shown by their itemized bill: One small brass bed, $44; four pillows, $16.40 three bath curtains, $62.70; 235 yards of carpet, $171.50; one chair, $46.75; three chairs, $132; skirt round commander's bed, $9.35. These are but a few items. It is not surprising that Lieut.—Col. Chamberlain says of the above, "The following extracts appear to substantiate the charges of extravagance."

The oyster is yearning for his vacation.

A man may be as good as pie and still feel crusty.

A politician, like a poor work man, always blames his tools.

The spend thrift can easily make a $10 bill look like 30 cents.

The pen is mightier than the sword when it comes to signing checks.

A man can't be a chronic kicker without stubbing his toe once in a while.

There is not much more time in which to look after paying poll tax if you are yet delinquent.

There can hardly be any more danger from frost now, so the fruit crop may be considered safe.

There is some question as to whether the leaves will all be grown by the 10th of May. There must be some fast growing if they are.

GIVE US A PRIMARY.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Permit me as a citizen of Pitt county to offer some suggestions relative to our approaching political campaign. In the first place I wish to bring to the minds of the voters of the county the unfairness in the nomination of candidates for the several officers in the county, as practiced in our county conventions in former years. These conventions assemble, and certain delegates, possibly selected by the different townships in the county, are allowed to vote in selecting candidates, and by this plan 90 per cent. of the voting population have no voice in these nominations, as the delegates who compose the nominating conventions have their preferences, and without consulting the wishes of the people, nominate certain favorites and expect the voting class to elect them, whether they wish to or not.

To obviate this seeming unfairness, the best plan is for candidates to announce themselves for the offices, and then about 10 days before the county convention is held, let there be a primary election in each township, and when the county convention meets whoever has received the largest number of votes in the primary, the convention should confirm said primary election by endorsing and nominating the candidates whom the primaries have selected. This manner of nomination of candidates would give entire satisfaction to all and no one would have cause to complain.

Another thought I wish to express in regard to holding office. I believe that our county should have a rule, as our state has, that no officer shall hold an office longer than four years. To keep certain men in office for an indefinite length of time to the exclusion of other citizens whose capacities for business are just as good, seems wrong and unjust, and disgusts the popular mind as to the favoritism shown to a few when others just as worthy and competent are not shown the same favor and courtesy as those who hold office for an unlimited number of years. Let us have a primary, and let us enforce the rule that no man shall occupy an office within the gift of the people longer than four years.

The Amateurs at Washington.

The rendition of "Hazel Kirke" at the opera house last night by Greenville's local talent, was a complete success. They received applause after applause, which was justly merited and we congratulate every member of the cast and especially Mrs. A. L. Blow, under whose management that drama was so successfully produced. Every member possesses histrionic ability and could be classed in the role of veterans. Miss Annie Perkins. Miss Mary Blow, Mr. Jno. L. Horne, in fact the entire company were especially clever. The plot of the play is well laid and was most admirably presented. We hope our good sister town of Greenville will favor us again at no distant day.—Washington Messenger, 19th.
