"Take Away Women

And what would follow?" said a Women's Rights orator. "We would," excitedly shouted a man in the gallery.

Perhaps that's why so many men do their shoe business at our store, for we certainly have the women's trade.

Why shouldn't we?

We carry the most famous line of Women's shoes and our store is fairly ablaze with the latest Spring creations in Kid and Patent Kid Oxfords--all Goodyear Welt (this insures sole flexibility and comfort.)

They will soon be on the feet of the best dressers in town.

They're yours at $2.50 to $3.50 a pair.

THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 1902.

The Confederate Veterans reunion in Dallas, Texas, is a great success. Including the veterans and others there are 125,000 visitors in the city.

A Wake county man is in trouble, having been arraigned before a United States Commissioner and bound over to Federal court, for smashing one of the rural free delivery mail boxes on the public road. Tampering with mail boxes is a grave offense.

Some bar keepers doing business within one mile of the city limits of Raleigh, and from whom the city collected license taxes for several years, brought suit to recover the same. The trial in Superior court was in favor of the plaintiff, but the Supreme a few days ago reversed the matter, rendering a decision in favor of the city.

Raleigh has held a mass meeting in the interest of the proposed railroad from that city to Washington. In the meeting $25,000 were subscribed to the road and a soliciting committee was appointed to secure $25,000 more. Greenville will be expected to extend a liberal hand to the enterprise. Nothing should be left undone to secure the road here.

A Charlotte negro lawyer created something of a sensation in court there a few days ago. He was defending a negro on trial and made a motion to quash the bill of indictment on the ground that there were no negroes on the grand jury that found the bill, and no negroes on the trial jury, and therefore his client could not get a fair trial. In his remarks to the court the lawyer said negroes were not selected to serve as jurors through prejudice to his race. Judge Coble, who was presiding, overruled the motion to quash the bill of indictment.

Several insurance brokers in London are issuing policies indemnifying the holders against losses occasioned by outbreaks of smallpox in the vicinity of their residences. Thus if a policy holder is forced to move by reason of the development of a case of smallpox next door to him the cost of removal is borne by the insurance company.

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

GRIMESLAND, N. C. April 24. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mason spent Sunday in the country.

W. S. Galloway and wife made a flying trip in the country Sunday.

Dr. C. M. Jones returned from Baltimore Monday.

W. E. Proctor and F. Powell went to Washington Tuesday.

L. E. Elks and C. E. Boyd attended church at Black Jack Sunday.

W. E. Proctor is all smiles—it's a beautiful little girl.

H. H. Davis and family of Winton, have moved in town.

J. W. Mayo went to Greenville Sunday.

Mrs. J. O. Proctor and little daughter, Susie, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Whichard at Warren's Mill.

Jno. Warren, Jr., went to Fictolus Sunday to see his best girl.

Mrs. J. W. Mayo, who has been visiting friends in Greenville, returned Sunday.

The town held its primary Monday evening and nominated the following parties: Mayor, W. S. Galloway; Commissioners, W. E. Proctor, J. J. Mason and H. H. Davis; town constable, Rufus Galloway.

We were glad to have Mrs. J. B. Galloway and Miss Paramore to visit us Tuesday.

J. W. Higgs, of Greenville, was in town Wednesday.

W. H. and J. B. Galloway were in town Tuesday.

Austin Grimes went to Greenville Tuesday.

Smith Paul, of Washington, was on our streets Tuesday.

J. F. Wilkins, of Baltimore, was here Tuesday.

Ninety-five in the shade would be accounted a strenuous degree of heat down in these ends of the earth, for the 20th of April, yet that is what they had at Omaha, Neb., Sunday, and even blizzard stricken Kansas had it at 91. The Southern States of North America are God's country, after all.—Charlotte Observer.

Scientists claim that the soil of the Everglades in Florida is the richest in the world, and would, if drained, produce marvelous crops of nearly anything planted. It is proposed to reclaim this immense tract, which covers nearly 4,000 square miles, by building drainage canals to take off the water, and at the same time serve as a means of transportation between plantations. Contrary to the general belief, the Everglades are healthful, the water is sweet and pure, and there is almost a total absence of fevers and epidemic diseases. The cost of preparing these lands for cultivation will be about $2.75 per acre.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

For N. C. Fair tonight and Friday, cooler tonight in interior.

A STEP AT THE TIME.

Begin With the Shorter Ones and They Get Longer.

The seines have been catching a few rock fish.

There came near being a shower this morning.

Something New—Carolina Rice Flakes at Sam'l M. Schultz.

A season now would mark the setting out of tobacco plants.

Vegetation has progressed rapidly under the genial warmth of the last few days.

The bright, warm days have put the business houses to looking after awnings.

There is dust enough for the street sprinkler, but the sprinkler so far stands idle.

The anglers are out but do not get many bites. Rather much water in the river as yet.

Do not be in too much hurry to discard heavy underwear. There will be a cool spell or two yet.

A few days more will determine whether you disfranchise yourself by failure to pay your poll tax.

What will Greenville and Pitt county do about securing a hospital? That is an important question just now.

The first of May is nearly here, but as yet the merchants have taken no action relative to early closing in the evening.

The remains of Judge A. M. Moore, who died this morning, will be taken to Edenton for burial, leaving here on Friday morning's train.

The excellent tribute to Hon. A. M. Moore that appears elsewhere in this paper, was written by the talented Capt. Swift Galloway, who was a lifelong friend of the deceased and knew him perhaps better than anyone else.

SUPERIOR COURT.

April Term Now in Session

The following cases have been disposed of:

Allen Tucker, larceny, guilty, one year in penitentiary.

John Hall, disturbing religious congregation, guilty, nine months on the roads of Edgecombe county.

Howard Moore, gambling, not guilty.

Walter Miller, larceny, guilty, one year in penitentiary.

Origin Of The Wedding Ring.

The wedding-ring is the subject of quaint historical facts and endless superstitions. It was probably chosen as the symbol of marriage more for convenience than anything else. It is supposed to be a symbol of unbroken love and of power, and to carry special curative virtues with it. The old good luck saying about it is, "As your wedding ring wears, your cares will wear away." The ancients, Pliny among the rest, believed that a delicate nerve ran directly from the "ring finger" to the heart, and that the ring placed on that finger was very closely connected with the heart. In early Christian marriages the bridegroom put the ring first on the bride's thumb, then on the first finger, then on the second, and, last of all, on the third, saying as he did: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." The thumb and first two fingers represented the Trinity, the next finger was the one the ring was left on, to show that, next to God, a woman's duty was to her husband.—May Ladies' Home Journal.

Shoulder Broken.

Mrs. Ashley Thigpen, an aged lady, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Cobb, of this place, fell this morning and broke her shoulder. The bones have been set but she is still suffering very much.—Tarboro Southerner, 23rd.

A Remarkable Find.

Mr. S. M. Taylor, while in the act of cutting off a chew of tobacco this morning, struck a hard substance with the blade of his pocket knife which proved to be a two dollar and a half gold piece, which was embedded almost in the centre of the plug. He was talking to several persons at the time and their surprise was as great as Mr. Taylor's. Now, the question, was that a scheme of the manufacturer for advertising or was it accidentally dropped by some employee during the process of manufacture?—Fayetteville Observer.

Like Daisies Before the Scythe,
Baby lives are destroyed in summer by cholera infantum. The attack of the disease is sudden, its progress is sometimes terribly rapid. Mothers who have given their children Perry Davis' Painkiller in water with a few drops of brandy added can tell how this treatment has checked the diarrhoea and vomiting, and put the little patient out of danger. 25 and 50 cts.

DEATH OF HON. A. M. MOORE.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Hon. Augustus Minton Moore, which occurred in this town at 10 o'clock this morning, carrying sorrow to every home and heart in our community, where he was known only to be loved and honored for his many noble traits of head and heart.

Judge Moore was in the 61st year of his age, and was a son of Hon. Augustus Moore, of Chowan county, who was one of the Superior Court Judges of our State and died several years before the civil war.

In 1861, having just graduated with distinction at the University of North Carolina, he entered the Confederate army whose flag he followed faithfully to the end of the struggle, being most of the time a member of Badham's Battery of artillery.

After thoroughly preparing himself for the bar, he began the practice of the law in Edenton, his native town, in 1866, from whence he removed to Greenville in 1882. His great ability and learning in his profession and his fidelity to duty won for him a large clientele.

In 1889, he was appointed to a land agency under the administration of President Harrison, when he removed to the west, first settling in South Dakota and soon afterward in the State of Washington. Here he pursued the practice of the profession, winning the confidence and love and esteem of the people, as he had done in his old home. In the latter State he was elected from the county of his residence to the legislature in which he served with distinction. About seven years ago Judge Moore obeyed the yearnings of his heart for his old associations, and, quitting the west he returned to live the remainder of his days in our town where he and his excellent wife had made and retained so many warm friendships. In 1890 he was appointed by Gov. Russell as Judge of the Criminal Courts in the Eastern Criminal Circuit of North Carolina, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the lamented Judge Battle. In this position his legal learning, his ripe and accurate judgment and his fairness and impartiality won for him the respect and esteem of the bar and the people, and gave him deservedly a high reputation as a judicial officer throughout the State. To the regret of his host of friends of all shades of political creed and of all classes, he was from serious ill health compelled to resign his Judgeship in the spring of 1901.

Judge Moore was three times married. He leaves a son and a married daughter. His last wife, who was Mrs. Mary A. Roberts, nee Bond, survives him. Tenderly and with ever watchful, ever loving care, this devoted wife has been his guardian angel through his declining strength which began about five years ago, and their union, through all the eighteen years of their married life, has been (to use his own language) "one long honeymoon." In his last illness this devotion was touchingly and beautifully manifested.

Judge Moore was a member of the Protestant Episcopal church, and had a firm and abiding faith in the teachings and promises of the scriptures, and his life was exceptionally pure, upright and honorable. He held an unshaken hope that a blessed immortality awaited him, and we have every reason to feel and believe that this hope was well grounded. "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."
