Ricks & Wilkinson

"Take Away Women

And what would follow?" said a Women's Rights orator. "We would," excitedly shouted a man in the gallery.

Perhaps that's why so many men do their shoe business at our store, for we certainly have the women's trade.

Why shouldn't we?

We carry the most famous line of Women's shoes and our store is fairly ablaze with the latest Spring creations in Kid and Patent Kid Oxfords--all Goodyear Welt (this insures sole flexibility and comfort.)

They will soon be on the feet of the best dressers in town.

They're yours at $2.50 to $3.50 a pair.

As well be out of the World as out of Fashion.

For earliest knowing and possessing of the authoritative things of fashion, keep yourself familiar with

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

R. O. Jeffress returned Friday evening from Tarboro.

J. B. Higgs, who has been sick for several days is out again.

Mrs. J. B. Cherry returned Friday evening from Baltimore.

Mrs. J. L. Barr, of Weldon, is here on a visit to her parents.

W. M. Arnheim, of Tarboro, was here a short while this morning.

J. J. Cherry, Jr., returned Friday evening from Baltimore and Norfolk.

L. D. Ames, of Portsmouth, came in Saturday evening to visit his daughter, Mrs. W. B. Brown.

Miss Estelle Thigpen went to Tarboro Saturday to see her mother who was seriously hurt by a fall last week.

J. A. McBryde, of Jonesboro, who was here during the sickness and death of his brother, returned home today.

Fires.

Friday evening a portion of the saw mill a mile above town was destroyed by fire. The kitchen to the residence of Mr. H. W. Whedbee, corner Greene and Second streets, caught fire the same evening but was put out without damage.

Voting Party.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church request your presence at their voting party, Tuesday, April 29th, from 8 to 11 p. m. at the opera house. Invitations have been sent to the young men to take the young ladies with them to the party, but the invitation is extended to others as well, as every one will have the opportunity of voting. Open for children at 4 p. m. No admission charge, but refreshments will be on sale.

Men Will Be Boys.

In the excitement of a lively exercise the boat-racing or ball-playing, they will strain their muscles and go home limping and sore. Then they are glad they have Perry Davis' Painkiller on hand to soothe the quivering nerves, to penetrate the muscles with warmth and healing power. It has relieved the pain of two generations of Americans. Large bottles 25 and 50 cents.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April, 26.

Strayed—Mrs. Emily McGlohon has a cow that strayed from home and any information will be very highly appreciated by her. The cow is red and spotted, no mark and will weigh about 225 pounds. She has been gone about three months.

Mrs. Barnes Sumrell, of Ayden, who has been visiting her father, Capt. H. M. Dixon, returned home Wednesday.

Hunsucker Carriage Co. have a few of their buggies which they are offering at special prices. Better come soon or you will miss a bargain.

J. J. Laughinghouse, of Grimesland, spent Wednesday night with A. G. Cox.

Mack Dixon, of Gardner's cross roads, spent Wednesday night with his brother, J. H. C. Dixon, and left for Greenville next morning.

If you are ready for your tobacco trucks you can come at once. We have a lot on hand and are finishing others.—A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

If you want tobacco flue repairs send the measure of circumference and we will have no trouble to fit them. You can get your flues or repairs at any time. Come after them whether you have placed order or not. We have them made and can fit up any style in short while.—A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

J. E. Green went to Grifton Thursday night and returned Friday morning.

J. A. Nichols has accepted a position at Aulander and left for that place yesterday.

W. B. Wingate gave a supper complimentary to the Tar Heel Band Thursday evening, which was very much enjoyed by the members.

Little Miss Annie Nelson went to Greenville yesterday.

C. A. Fair and wife attended the Odd Fellows anniversary at Ayden last night.

Prof. A. A. Forbes and B. F. Manning went over to Ayden yesterday afternoon to witness the base ball game.

All of the Dormitory crowd are loud in their praise of the Tar Heel Band which gave them such a nice concert Thursday night. Coming from those who are so competent to judge, this is a very high compliment, but no more than our excellent band deserves. We don't believe any band in the State ever made more improvement in the same length of time.

THE BOOK CLUB.

Reported for The Reflector.]

The End of the Century Book Club has not held its regular reception since the truly delightful entertainment given by Mrs. James L. Little just four weeks ago. Mrs. Little not only entertained the club in her pretty new home on Fifth street, but had quite a number of friends as well to participate in the intellectual and edible feast prepared for the occasion. The fair hostess, though a young and consequently a new housekeeper, not only received her guests with the ease of a society matron long accustomed to do the honors of her own establishment, but clearly demonstrated her skill in the prescribed arts of a well regulated merage. The menu was appetizing from start to finish.

The literary treat was a so most enjoyable. Mrs. Grimes read an interesting and beautifully worded prose synopsis of Tennyson's Princess, while Mrs. Jarvis read several of the songs of the poem.

The club will meet with Mrs. Harry Skinner on Wednesday evening of this week at 3:30 o'clock.

Seek Relief!

The great proportion of women who suffer never make a serious effort to benefit themselves. The most of them go on paying no attention to their little menstrual disorders, believing they will eventually wear off. They grow worse and worse every day. At the period of menstruation a woman is peculiarly susceptible to cold and other external influences and it is also the most favorable time for the development of hidden disease germs which may be lurking in the system. Any physician knows that disordered menstruation, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea are blighting lives in almost every home. No woman should neglect herself a moment after she sees indications of female diseases. Almost instant relief can be secured by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

It will relieve you right in your own home. Will you accept the testimony of Mrs. Beigler and thousands of other women and really seek relief today? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

100 Chicago Street, Fort Wayne, Ind., March 27, 1900.
Your Wine of Cardui has done a world of good for me. I have used five bottles of the Wine and one package of Thedford's Black-Draught. And since I have started to use it I will not be without it in the house. It helped my sister in Toledo, who did not menstruate as she ought. She was sixteen years of age and nothing else helped her. I was in a very bad state myself before I used your medicines, but I found relief in three days. And now I feel like a new woman and do all my housework and washing, which I could not do before I took Wine of Cardui. I would be very glad to write any poor woman and tell her how I suffered before I used Wine of Cardui.

A SAD DEATH.

Theophilus Walton McBryde Passes Away.

Every heart in Greenville was deeply grieved Saturday morning when it was announced that Mr. T. W. McBryde was dead, the end having come a few minutes past 8 o'clock. Death is always sad, but it does not seem that one could have been more so than this. A young man in the full vigor of life, the friend of everybody and esteemed by all, with a future so full of hope and promise, his taking away seems so untimely. Yet God willed it so, and His will is Supreme.

Theophilus Walton McBryde was born in Moore county January 28th, 1871, making him a little more than 31 years old at the time of his death. He was not known in Greenville until the fall of 1899 when he came to accept a position as foreman of THE REFLECTOR. Though at the time an entire stranger, there was about him that attractiveness, both in person and character, that at once won for him the admiration of the people here. Time passed on only to prove how fully deserving he was of all the esteem bestowed upon him. Acquaintance at once grew into friendship, and friendship quickly ripened into esteem, so that day by day the circle about him grew larger and larger, never losing a friend but gaining them constantly. He was indeed the perfect gentleman in word and act, loyal and true to every friend and every duty.

His life here is known to all, and saying words of praise for him is but to repeat what each knows and feels yet none can realize with what a heavy heart we pay this feeble tribute to his memory. To us he was more than a faithful employe, for he had won that place in our heart that made us love him almost as a brother. And the same feeling was held by every one connected with THE REFLECTOR, for there was that kindness and consideration that made the entire force on the paper seem almost like a family, and his death is a personal bereavement to each one.

On the 6th of March, not quite two months ago, he received a telegram stating that both his father and mother were very sick with pneumonia at the old home near Jonesboro. He left at once to attend them. A few days after getting home his mother died, and next day his father joined her "beyond the river." In the meantime a sister was taken sick, to be followed a few days later by the sickness of another sister, all having pneumonia. The first sister died, the other hovering between life and death for sometime before there was a change for the better. All this bereavement and patient nursing of the sick through several weeks had broken him down in spirit and body. He returned to Greenville on the 3rd of April to resume his work, but on the 14th was himself taken with pneumonia and died on the 26th. Everything possible was done for him and he made a brave fight for life, but the hand of death could not be stayed.

The burial took place in Cherry Hill cemetery Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. J. N. Booth, assisted by Rev. H. M. Eure.

The pall bearers were Messrs. J. G. Moye, Frank Wilson, C. S. Forbes, C. T. Monford, J. N. Hart, J. M. Reuss, E. E. Griffin, R. L. Carr, W. H. Ragsdale, A. J. Griffin, C. W. Hearne and C. B. Whichard.

The many beautiful floral tributes from sorrowing friends and the great assemblage of people around his grave speak more eloquently than words the high regard for him by the people of Greenville.

If you want people to visit your store put your advertisement where it will be read, that is in

THE REFLECTOR

People read this paper for what there is in it, and they will see what you have to say.

If you have not time to write the advertisement yourself or don't know just what you want to say, let us know and we will help you get it up.

We have bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements which you can use for the asking.
