"Take Away Women

And what would follow?" said a Women's Rights orator. "We would," excitedly shouted a man in the gallery.

Perhaps that's why so many men do their shoe business at our store, for we certainly have the women's trade.

Why shouldn't we?

We carry the most famous line of Women's shoes and our store is fairly ablaze with the latest Spring creations in Kid and Patent Kid Oxfords--all Goodyear Welt (this insures sole flexibility and comfort.)

They will soon be on the feet of the best dressers in town.

For Corporation Commissioner.

Wysocking, N. C., April 24, 1902. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

At our next Democratic State Convention which convenes in Greensboro on the 16th July will be nominated a candidate for Corporation Commissioner to succeed Dr. Abbott. In surveying the field of the many and deserving bright lights in the State, we are satisfied there is none among the list more competent and deserving to fill the position than our old friend G. I. Watson, of Hyde county. A graduate of Trinity College who stood second to none in his class, a man of extra business qualifications; a capacity which has been frequently and fully attested, by filling with honor and credit nearly every office of trust in his county, from Superior Court Clerk down. A true and tried Democrat, of the true Jeffersonian type. A gentleman in its true sense. Strictly temperate in all his habits, very moral, social and easily approachable, though prudent in all things. What more deserving and capable a candidate could we select? Should he be nominated and elected he will reflect credit upon his party, State, county and self.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April, 30.

Alex Evans, who is employed in the factory at this place, had the misfortune last Monday of having a piece of tobacco flue to fall on his head, the sharp edge descending first and making a very ugly wound. Mr. Evans bled considerably from it, but we are pleased that it was not very serious.

Prof. Forbes failing to be here at regular noon practice of the band last Monday rendered an excuse and offered to make amends by giving an extra lesson. He was kindly informed by the boys that his absence had not been noted as practice was had just the same.

A gentleman in town, suffering with indigestion, procured the necessary remedy for relief from his physician and carried it home. Several days afterward he declared himself entirely cured and a very happy man. Not so with his daughters, who were expecting special company, on looking for their essence of strawberry for flavoring purposes, found the bottle of medicine from the M. D. and in its stead the old gentleman had made way with their flavoring. So much for imagination, even if the same does lead to the gift of a five dollar bill for medical purposes.

Rev. Mr. Griffith, of Kinston, held religious services in the chapel here last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Griffith anticipates the completion of an Episcopal church at this place in the very near future.

Quite a crowd of young gentlemen came up from Ayden on their wheels last Sunday and attended Sabbath school in the afternoon.

Miss Bessie Chapman went to Ayden Friday evening to visit relatives and returned Saturday.

Clarence Jones, of Greenville, was here Monday talking shoes.

Heber Nichols and Pete Harris spent the Sabbath here.

T. R. Tyndall went to Kinston Monday night and returned next morning.

Mrs. J. D. Cox spent Monday afternoon in the country with Mrs. Frank Carroll.

Mrs. Fannie Highsmith is on a visit to her parents near Grindool.

J. C. Lanier, of Greenville, came in to see us last Saturday and we were pleased to have him do so. Mr. Lanier is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of Register of Deeds, which if he should receive and be elected to he would prove a most efficient officer.

Misses Hattie Nichols and Annie McLawhorn spent Monday night out at Harry Kittrell's, in the country.

When a young man can't tell the difference between his mother's Bible and a twenty-five cent novel matters are certainly critical.

Pigs are not credited with much homing instinct, but a story is told about two in New York which were sold and taken by the purchaser in a covered wagon to his place fifty miles distant. A few days afterwards they got out and disappeared and turned up at the place they were taken from, although they had to swim a stream fifty yards wide. They were returned to the man who bought them and within a week went back again.—Wilmington Star.

A jealous woman in an Ohio town rushed to the river, jumped in, and found the water so cold it froze the jealousy up and she waded ashore. It not only cured her of her jealousy but also of her infatuation for the fellow who caused it, and she has never blinked at him since.—Wilmington Star.

Spent for Negro Education.

Interesting figures have been compiled in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, giving the amount spent for the education of negroes since 1874. The total is $5,061,633 17, including $250,000 estimated for 1902. In addition there are in round numbers $320,000 paid to colored institutions, and their part of special taxes in city graded schools for the last twenty years. Greenville Steam Laundry.

I'll have my Laundry done there too, for I want the best, it cost no more.

A man's life is full of crosses and temptations. He comes into this world without his consent, goes out against his will and the trip between the two is exceedingly rocky. The rules of contraries is one of the important features of the trip. When he is little the big girl kiss him, but when he is grown the little girls kiss him. If he raises a big family he is a chump, but if he raises a small check he is a thief and a fraud and shunned like a leprous Chinaman. If he is poor he is a bad manager, if he's rich he is dishonest; if he's in politics it's for pie, if he's out of politics you can't tell where to place him and he's no good for his country; if he doesn't give to charity he's a stingy cuss and lives only for himself, if he does give it is for show; if he died young there was a great future ahead of him, if he is living to an old age he has missed his calling. He is introduced to this world by a doctor and to the next one by the same process. The road is rocky but man loves to travel it.—Kinston Free Press.

Some of the Fishers.

Fishing parties are going out nearly every day trying their luck after the funny tribe. Messrs. Al and Jim Taft went seven miles down the river Tuesday and made a fine catch, bringing back about 60 fish.

Messrs. F. M. Hodges, M. A. Allen and Ed. Foley also tried their skill, Tuesday afternoon, but did not do so well. They succeeded in landing just one each. Mr. Allen says he had regular "fisherman's luck." He slipped off a log upon which he was crossing a slough and sat in the mud and water until the others pulled him out.

"Owe no man anything." is the injunction of the Bible. If people would prayerfully observe this, how much better the condition of our people would be. There would not be anything due on subscriptions and many editors and publishers would be in a much better humor than they usually are.—Ayden Baptist.
