Ricks & Wilkinson

"Take Away Women

And what would follow?" said a Women's Rights orator. "We would," excitedly shouted a man in the gallery.

Perhaps that's why so many men do their shoe business at our store, for we certainly have the women's trade.

Why shouldn't we?

We carry the most famous line of Women's shoes and our store is fairly ablaze with the latest Spring creations in Kid and Patent Kid Oxfords--all Goodyear Welt (this insures sole flexibility and comfort.)

They will soon be on the feet of the best dressers in town.

They're yours at $2.50 to $3.50 a pair.

As well be out of the World as out of Fashion.

For earliest knowing and possessing of the authoritative things of fashion, keep yourself familiar with

INTRODUCING

Solos, Duets, Trios, Quartettes and a Grand Chorus of Twenty Voices.

Admission 25, 35 and 50c.

Seats on sale Wednesday morning, May 7th, at Burch's.

If necessity is the mother of invention, who is its father?

In heaping coals of fire on your enemy's head don't try to burn him up,

PERSONAL NOTES.

Those Who are Passing This Way.

W. T. Hunter went to Jamesville this morning.

C. M. Jones left this morning for a trip up the road.

Mrs. J. A. Lang is very sick at her home just east of town.

Dr. J. L. Wooten and wife left this morning for Richmond.

Mrs. J. N. Bynum, of Farmville, is visiting Mrs. Alice Harper.

R. D. Cherry and sister, Miss Lillian, returned Saturday evening from Oxford.

Little Miss Ruebelle Forbes returned Saturday evening from a visit to Weldon.

Miss Ella Smith went to Winterville Saturday evening and returned this morning.

Mrs. C. M. Bernard, of Raleigh, who has been visiting friends here, returned home today.

Miss Alice Sutton, of Lenoir county, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Harper.

Mrs. Sallie Greene, of LaGrange, came in this morning to visit her daughter, Mrs. F. M. Hodges.

Leon, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Evans, is very sick at their home in South Greenville.

Foster Quinn returned Saturday evening from Richmond where he had been attending a business college.

Mrs. H. W. Whedbee and little daughter returned Saturday evening from a visit to relatives in Florence and Raleigh.

Little Miss Catharine Wilkerson, of Raleigh, came Saturday evening to visit her grandmother, Mrs. W. T. Lipscomb.

Mrs. J. N. Booth returned Saturday evening from Raleigh where she had been visiting her mother. She left her mother much improved in health.

Mrs. Cherry Hurt.

As she was alighting from a buggy in front of one of the stores, Saturday afternoon, Mrs. J. B. Cherry made a misstep and fell on the brick pavement. She was considerably bruised and also suffered a sprain of one ankle.

Benefit of Factories.

When the two cotton mills were established in Henderson the receipts of cotton had fallen off from four or five to one thousand. Now they are seven thousand--about half as much as the mills consume. And aside from creating a ready market for cotton these mills have been of great benefit to merchants and people who have country produce to sell. Would that there were more manufacturing enterprises in our midst.--Henderson Gold Leaf.

Merry Milk Maids.

This charming operetta will be presented in the opera house on Friday night, 9th, by local talent under the direction of Miss Clara Bruce Forbes, for the benefit of the Methodist church.

This operetta was presented here in the old opera house several years ago and many of our people well remember how delightful it was. A number of the same participants in it then are in the caste for the new presentation, which more than assures its success. Watch for further announcement and be sure that you secure seats in time.

We Are After The Shirt Trade

Of Greenville this season. And we are going to have it, too. Can't help it, with our attractive Shirt styles. The new stuffs are so fine and beautiful that we have a right to praise our stock. The best shirt values you ever saw are here.

Cuffs to match the shirts at 50c $1.00 $1.50 and $2. Pleated, some plain. Plenty black and whites, and rich colors in new shades. Neat figures will be very new and popular. Also white madras and white corded linens--white will be much worn, also, this season. Come, see our pretty shirts--we like to show them.

MONDAY, MAY, 5, 1902

The two weeks term of Superior court that closed Saturday was, like all others held here by Judge F. D. Winston, was a very good term and cleared the dockets of a large number of cases. This is Judge Winston's last term in Pitt county for the present, but there is generally expressed a wish that he could continue to hold our courts for sometime to come. He is an excellent Judge and has won a warm place in the hearts of the people of this county.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 5.

The crop of votes next November will be short—in some counties very short indeed. Reports from all over the State show that thousands and thousands voters are out of the political game this year, and a surprisingly large number of the delinquents are white men. Of course those over fifty years of age and those who have been relieved of the poll-tax by the county authorities by reason of poverty and infirmity are not affected, and they will not be required to "exhibit a poll tax receipt."

The darkies who will be disfranchised because of lack of educational qualifications of course were not in a hurry to pay their poll tax by May 1st. But there are thousands in the State who are qualified educationally and I am told that these, as a rule, have fortified themselves pretty largely with a poll tax receipt.

MORE OF THE JUDGE CLARK RUM-PUS.

The result would now seem to depend largely upon whether or not Judge Walter Clark shall receive the nomination for Chief Justice by the Democratic Convention. The letter signed by Mr. W. Plumer Batchelor of this city, and printed as a reply to the arraignment of Judge Clark by Major J. W. Wilson, is not generally considered satisfactory to the average Democrat. It really does not answer either of the more serious charges brought by Major Wilson (although the writer says he "called upon Judge Clark" just before completing it and sending it to the papers for publication), but is, rather, considered an adroit appeal to class prejudice, especially against the railroads and corporations generally.

But there is one section of the letter signed by Mr. Batchelor which is more to the point—that which refers to the type-written letter of Governor Russell, and with a request from him to destroy it, lest his sitting on the case later

DON'T MAKE FACES

At the phone because you didn't get what you ordered

Try HEARNE & CO., Grocers,

when it came before the Supreme Court by objected to. This letter was in Raleigh last week and is now again in Russell's possession, I learn. Mr. Batchelor calls upon Governor Russell to publish it. Now that sounds like business.

VARIOUS MATTERS OF INTEREST.

The farmers of this (Wake) county and some of the counties east here are complaining seriously of the scarcity of farm labor. A large number of negroes are migrating to the North at the time of year when they are most needed, some five hundred having gone from this immediate vicinity.

Renewed steps to establish a State Reformatory, by act of the next Legislature, are being taken, and a conference has been called for June 12th in this city.

At Wilkesboro on May 1st it is learned that the poll taxes of over four hundred voters were paid by "party leaders"; that the Democrats first "rushed in and paid the taxes of two hundred voters," and that thereupon the Republicans hurried over to the Sheriff's office and did the same trick for over two hundred more.

J. H. Hill, the Stokes county airship inventor, has completed a model of his "vessel" and will now organize a stock company to build the real thing—a big airship, which he will exhibit at the St. Louis world's fair and complete for the large purse offered. He'll all sail through the air, yet, sure thing, but whether in yet of Mr. Hill's ships or not, it is too early to predict at this writing.

LLEWELLYN.

Why all this todo about the barbarities practiced in the name of war in the Philippines? American troops over there are only following the precedent established by the Union soldiers in this country thirty odd years ago. The orders then were to "kill and burn"—and they were carried out, too. And it was their own people that Sherman and Sheridan waged this kind of warfare against. History is repeating itself and the chickens are coming home to roost. —Henderson Gold Leaf.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

For N. C.—Generally fair to night and Tuesday.

A STEP AT THE TIME.

Begin With the Shorter Ones and They Get Longer.

Masons meet tonight.

County Commissioners in session today.

New cut Herrings at S. M. Schultz.

Last week cotton walked up the hill—it has now walked down again.

Mr. A. G. Cox, of Winterville, has obtained a patent for his cotton seed planter.

The Greenville Steam Laundry is doing good work. Try it and help support a home enterprise.

The weather turned much cooler during Saturday night, and it looks like we are getting near the cold spell in May.

Work is progressing rapidly on Mr. E. B. Ficklen's new residence in West Greenville. It will be a handsome building and add much to that section of the town.

Several large elm trees that blocked the sidewalk next to the O'Hagan property, on Fifth street, have been removed. Mrs. J. J. Laughinghouse will soon have a new building put on the corner lot there.

Dr. Hyatt will be in Greenville at Hotel Bertha on Monday, May the 12th for the purpose of treating diseases of the eye and fitting glasses. Dr. Hyatt has many friends and patients in Pitt county and hopes to meet many of them while here.

County's Most Important Officer.

The Tarboro Southerner quotes Mr. W. S. Clark, chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Edgecombe, as advocating making the chairman of the Board a salaried officer. Mr. Clark has no selfish purpose in making the suggestion, for he says that under no circumstances would he take the position.

The position of chairman of the Board of County Commissioners is the most important office in any county, and is the poorest paid of any public officer. He ought to give most of his time to the important and varied duties and be paid a sufficient sum to compensate him for the work. Mr. Clark and the Southerner are eminently right in placing the proper estimate upon this important office.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Don't Worry.

If you want to get well or to keep well, don't worry. If you want to be happy and to make others happy, don't worry. If you want to be plump and fresh, don't worry. If you want things to go right with you and yours, don't worry. If you wish to be a help-mate to your husband, don't worry. If you wish to be a loving and loved mother, don't worry. If you want a good appetite, don't worry. If you want to sleep well, don't worry. Worry is the curse of American women. Instead of taking the blessings that a kind Father provides, and being happy and content, all are passed over and they worry for what they have not. "Don't cross the bridge until you come to it," is a maxim that it would be well for all to bear in mind. Live today, so far as troubles and anxieties of the future are concerned, leave them to the future. "As thy day, so shall thy strength be."—Exchange.

Some people give a thought to charity and that is all they give.

Never fight the devil with fire—he's used to that. Better freeze him out.

MISS FAY LEE,

President of the Shakespearian Club, Kansas City.

"Your booklet came to my home like a message of health when I had suffered with headache, backache and bearing-down pains. I was weak, nervous and hysterical and had not consulted any doctor, thinking it would pass away in time, but instead I found that the pains increased and were more frequent. I decided to try Wine of Cardui and in a short time was much improved. It seemed to act like a charm. I kept up the treatment and the result was most satisfactory. Words fail to express my gratitude for the suffering that is now saved me. I am in fine health, physically and mentally. I can only say 'thank you', but there is much more in my heart for you."

Miss Fay Lee.

nervous tension. The nerves soon begin to give way under the strain. You perhaps jump at any unusual disturbance, or laugh or weep, hysterically, at no apparent cause. That is what Miss Fay Lee, 603 1/2 North Seventh Street, Kansas City, Kansas, was coming to when she rescued herself by taking Wine of Cardui. The Wine made her a strong, healthy woman again, as it has made a million other women strong and healthy. By inducing regular menstruation the entire system is relieved of the terrible wasting drains. The ligaments which hold the womb in place are strengthened by a healthy flow and that organ is returned to its normal position. Returning health is the result. This is what Wine of Cardui has done for thousands of the best women in America.

If you need advice write The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn., describing all your symptoms freely, and a letter of advice will be sent you. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist to-day.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Adopted by Greenville Bar in Memory of Judge A. M. Moore.

The Greenville Bar held a memorial meeting, Saturday afternoon, in respect of the late ex-Judge A. M. Moore, at which the following was presented and adopted:

Your Committee beg leave to perform the duties imposed upon them by the chairman.

We chronicle the death of Honorable Augustus Minton Moore, which occurred in this city in the morning of April 24th. His death was not unexpected. His daily absence from the sittings of this Court warned us that a severe malady had fastened upon him and the announcement of his death was expected.

Judge Moore was born in Edenton, Chowan county. He was the second son of Honorable Augustus Moore, a distinguished Judge of the Superior Court of this State. He was in the 61st year of his age. In 1861 he graduated with distinction at the University of North Carolina and from the doors of that ancient institution of learning he took his place under the flag of the Confederacy and followed its varying fortunes until peace came. As a soldier he was devoted to the cause for which he fought and was prompt to perform the duties imposed upon him by his superiors. Most of his service was seen as a member of "Badham's Battery of Artillery."

He commenced the practice of law in his native town in 1866 and for some years he was a resident of Edenton. In 1882 he moved to our county. Here as in his native county his ability, and learning in his profession, and his fidelity to duty and to his clients won him distinction. Several times he was the representative of his party on its State ticket for the office of Attorney General and in 1889 he held a commission under President Harrison, both in the State of South Dakota and afterwards in the State of Washington. His residence there brought him friends and influence, and the people of Washington showed their appreciation of his worth and capacity by electing him to the State Legislature. But place and honors could not supply his yearnings for old associations and the land of his birth and he turned his face again to the good old State of North Carolina, to become for a second time a resident of Pitt county.

In 1900 he was appointed by Gov. Russell a Judge of the Criminal Court for the Eastern Circuit to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Judge Dossey Battle. In this position his learning, accurate judgment, fairness, and impartiality won the respect of the Bar and the people. When he retired from this position in 1901, by resignation owing to ill health, he had established a high reputation as a just judge.

Judge Moore was a member of the Protestant Episcopal church. He had an abiding faith in the promises of the Scripture and he led a pure and upright life. He looked with a blessed hope for immortality and when the end was apparent he turned with confidence to the promises contained in the "Book of Books."

Judge Moore was thrice married. He leaves a son and a daughter by former marriages, and his wife, Mary E. Moore. She has been his guardian angel through his declining strength and the years of their union have been sweetened by her wifely ministrations and loving care.

We record in plain language our high respect for Judge Moore as a
