NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., May 7.

J. J. Laughinghouse, one of the most prosperous and progressive farmers in the Grimesland section, sent in an order last Tuesday for twenty seven tobacco trucks, which he proposes to use on his farm during the coming season. Mr. Laughinghouse anticipates good prices for tobacco next fall.

At the election held here last Monday the following were elected as officers for the town to serve for the next twelve months: Mayor, J. M. Blow; Commissioners, R. G. Chapman, L. L. Kittrell, J. H. C. Dixon; Constable, J. L. Hamilton.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., are prepared to furnish flues and flue repairs on the shortest possible notice.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., will move their office on west side of railroad in a very few days. The new office will be a decided improvement on the old one.

Large preparations are being made for the commencement exercises of the Winterville High School. These exercises will be of a high order and the large number of people who will no doubt be in attendance will have cause to congratulate themselves upon the pleasure they will realize from it. No pains are being spared to make it a perfect success.

J. A. Andrews and W. B. Greene, of Greenville, were here a short while last Sunday. It was Mr. Greene's first visit and we were pleased to hear him express himself as very favorably impressed with our adopted home. We were really glad to see the boys, as indeed we are any one from old Greenville.

Miss Effie Smith, from near Greenville, came down last Saturday evening and returned home Monday morning, after spending a pleasant Sabbath with her cousins Misses Hattie and Effie Kittrell.

Miss Bessie Ives, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Mayne Ives, at Mrs. J. D. Cox's, returned home Monday.

Miss Mattie Meeks left yesterday for Mt. Olive, where she will spend sometime visiting relatives.

L. N. Lancaster, of Vanceboro, was here Monday.

The usual large crowds attended church at Reedy Branch last Sunday.

Mrs. W. M. Carroll, of Kinston, is on a visit to relatives in this section.

If it don't rain there will certainly be a dry spell.

The people of Winterville are loud in their expressions of congratulations to the people of our sister town Ayden in their victory last Monday for prohibition.

[THE REFLECTOR wishes to extend congratulations to "Bud Joe" upon his election as Mayor.—Ed.]

Men Will Be Boys.

In the excitement of a lively exercise the boat-racing or ball-playing, they will strain their muscles and go home limping and sore. Then they are glad they have Perry Davis' Painkiller on hand to soothe the quivering nerves; to penetrate the muscles with warmth and healing power. It has relieved the pain of two generations of Americans. Large bottles 25 and 50 cents

A Story of a Sucker.

A man who smokes four cigars a day and chews 25 cents worth of tobacco a week, said he was too poor to take a local paper. He is a smart man, too. And economical I should smile. This saving fellow was getting a Maine story paper, and found by sending a dollar he could get a cure for drunkenness. Sure enough he did. It was "take the pledge and keep it." Later on he sent 50 two cent stamps to find out how to raise beets successfully. He found out. The answer "just take hold and pull." Being single he wished to marry and sent 34 one cent stamps to a Chicago firm to learn how to make an impression. When the answer came it read: "Sit down on a pan of dough." That was a little tough; but he was a patient man and thought he would yet succeed. The next advertisement he read, "how to double his money in six months." He was told to convert his money into bills, fold them and he would see his money doubled. But he was bound to get some useful secret by which he could make money, and sent $5 to find out how to write without pen and ink. The answer was, "try a lead pencil." Then he sent a dollar to learn how to get rich—"work like the devil and never spend a cent." This was discouraging; but he decided to try once more and sent a dollar bill to learn how to live without work and was told to "fish for suckers as we do." He now takes the home paper and is happy.—Anniston Hot Blast.

The Robin.

The robin is one of the first of the song birds to leave the south, often appearing in the middle states early in February.

He is about eight inches long, and his coat is a dark slate color, with a chestnut breast. The nest is very bulky and rough in appearance and is formed of roots, leaves, twigs and grasses and sometimes entirely of mud and lined with fine grass. It is usually placed in a crotch or branch from four to thirty feet from the ground.

The eggs, three to five in number, are of a greenish blue. The food of the robin is chiefly worms, and it is wonderful how many one robin can eat in a short time.

A Clever Boy Organist.

In the west of England there is a very clever boy organist, who is attracting considerable notice in musical circles at the present time. He is only ten years old, yet he is sufficiently advanced in musical matters to perform the works of the great masters with peculiar insight and power. He began playing the organ when he was five years of age.

Don't cuss the flies use Tanglefoot. ZENO MOORE & BRO.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., May 7, 1902.
Rev. J. J. Barker, of this place, left this morning for Goldsboro. He will be present at the district conference.

O. H. James went down the road Monday.

Quite a large crowd from here attended the preaching at Flat Swamp Sunday.

W. W. Thomas is very sick. We wish him a soon recovery.

Rev. Samuel Moore came from up the road Monday evening.

Mr. McClellan came in Sunday evening from Suffolk.

Miss Pearlle Edmundson spent Saturday in Everetts and returned Sunday.

Miss Nannie Moore spent Monday in town.

Our school in white district No. 1, Bethel township, closed last Friday and was followed by an address by Rev. J. J. Barker, on the subject of education, and concert exercises by the children at night. The speech of Mr. Barker was to the point and made a good impression on our people and I hope will inspire them to a larger support of the school next session. The children all did well and the concert was very entertaining and showed that they are being well trained under the leadership of Mr. J. C. Carson, who has been teaching for us for the last six months. The committee have already spoken to Mr. Carson to teach our school next fall. I hope we will accept. The hope of our country is in the proper education of our children, that is to educate heart, head and hand."

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY PASSED BY COVENANT LODGE NO. 17 I. O. O. F.

It is with real sorrow that this Lodge learns of the sad bereavement of Brother W. L. Brown in the death of his wife, believing that God in whom we all place our trust has dealt the blow for the wise purposes of his own.

Resolved, that this Lodge extend to Brother Brown and his family that profound sympathy that springs from the warm heart that beats for others, woes, That we pray for and help him to bear this sad dispensation of Providence; and may her memory remain to him an inspiration to the happy meeting on the "other shore." To the children we tender our sympathy and offer a word of comfort. "Mother" has passed on to the home of the soul, the bosom of God, and awaits the coming of her loved ones. "Meet her there."

2. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, a copy sent to Brother Brown and copies furnished to the papers of the town for publication.
