Ricks & Wilkinson

This is Greenville's
Fastest Growing Store.

WHY?

BECAUSE no other store Anywhere is so diligent in the interests of the buying public to which it looks for support.

BECAUSE nothing but absolutely reliable merchandise is admitted here at any price--that point is of vital import.

BECAUSE the prices we ask are the lowest known to the merchandise world for goods of the quality we sell.

BECAUSE every sale that we make is backed by an absolute personal guarantee of satisfaction to the smallest detail.

BECAUSE every thing is done to promote your personal comfort while shopping, and to fulfill the most exacting requirements.

And some might continue to name reason after reason almost without. No really careful buyer will pass the offers we make without investigating them, Look at this double column full of Economy opportunities for this week:

White India Linen, White Persian Lawns, White Piques. The prices start at 5½c and by an easy rising scale run up as high as 75c.

French, Austrian and Japanese Fans in all the latest new creations in Crepe paper, Silk Gauze and all floral designs 5c, 10c, 15c, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.

Zephyr Dimities.

Something entirely new this season, and just as pretty as they are new. We could offer them as a bargain at 12½c, but this week we say 8½c.

Testimonial of Judge Winston.

On Saturday evening after the adjournment of the April Term of Pitt Superior court, an impromptu meeting of the Greenville Bar was held and the following resolution unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the Hon. F. D. Winston has held for the county of Pitt a special term, Oct. 1901, and Dec. term 1901, the January term, March term and April term 1902 of our Superior Court to the great satisfaction of the Bar and people of the county.

Now therefore, we the members of the Bar of Pitt county, desire to testify to the uniform courtesy he has extended each of us during said courts, and to the able and impartial manner in which he presided and dispensed justice and we take pleasure in commending him to the people of the State as an able, learned and just Judge.

Breeze Shifting Underwear.

We have Underwear so comfortable that it's cooler to wear it than to go without. All sizes for all shaped customers. It's the kind that fits without having to turn up the sleeves and legs. We can hear the short, fat, and long, lean fellows say, "We've been waiting for you." We return the compliment with the Underwear.

All the Network, Meshes and Gauzes, Balbriggans and Lisles are here. Jean Drawers for customers who prefer them. All grades.

Come here with your Underwear troubles—we'll cure them

THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1902.

Congressman J. S. Solman, of New Jersey, died suddenly on Tuesday. This is the third death in a week to occur among members of Congress.

Rear Admiral William T. Sampson died at his home in Washington City Tuesday afternoon. He had served a brilliant career in the United States Navy and was on the retired list at the time of his death.

Chatham County Democrats held their county convention Tuesday, the first to be held in the State this year. One action of the convention was the adoption of a resolution endorsing Judge Clark for Chief Justice of the Supreme court.

GRIFTON ITEMS.

GRIFTON, N. C. May 7, 1902.

L. J. Chapman left for Winston on a business trip.

C. H. Gaskins went to Kinston Tuesday.

Paul N. Brooks left on Monday for Baltimore to visit friends a few weeks.

Walter Dawson, Conetoe, came down Monday evening and is soliciting orders for truck barrels and boxes for the Conetoe Mfg. Co.

A large crowd went over in Greene Sunday, that being the first Sunday in May, to the mineral springs.

Will Newborn and George Sumrell, of Kinston, spent the day here Tuesday.

Charley Keys, of your city, is here.

Miss Gordon, of Boston, Mass., been here since Sunday organizing a Woman's Christian Temperance Union and has been very successfully getting some men to sign the pledge that had signed everything else, and still they would get on a booze once in a while.

At the election Monday J. L. Patrick, L. A. Cobb and W. J. Kittrell were elected city aldermen for the ensuing year. They had no opposition as there was only one ticket.

J. C. Griffin caught a large sturgeon in his seine last week.

Mr. Chas. Skinner, of your town, was here Wednesday.

The like of large red breast perch have never been known in the river here before, or since we can recollect, but they won't be here long, as there are certain parties who have several fish traps setting and making more, contrary to the law, as there has been an act passed by the Legislature prohibiting fish traps between the mouth of the creek and Edwards bridge.

There is a corps of surveyors here with tents to survey the Contentnea creek from its mouth to Snow Hill.

Professor John S. Brown, a negro school teacher, wrote two petitions for a certain man in town and got all the negroes and white people he could to sign them, and a white man did the same with the other. They were after getting a certain man as town constable, threatening the nominees for town commissioners that if they did not give the place to a certain Republican they would get out another negro ticket and elect him anyway. Of course he will get it, but it should be in the neck.

The physicians who attended Mr. McKinley in his last illness are to be paid at the rate of a fraction less than $4,000 per day. That is pretty good pay for what they accomplished.—Danville Bee.

The Best Prescription for Malaria
Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no pay. Price 50c.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

A Cute Little Playhouse the Children Outgrew.

West Somerville can lay claim to the smallest house in greater Boston.

It stands on a lawn close by a stately house at the corner of Highland avenue and Cedar street.

It is so perfectly proportioned and the exterior is so well finished with its little piazza and steps up to the door that at first sight one almost expects to see miniature beings from Toyland stalking around the place.

The house is 8 feet wide by 6 feet deep and is 8 feet 6 inches high to the tip of the roof. The interior consists of one room, as its size precludes the possibility of more for the accommodation of human beings. Its walls are papered and decorated and hung with pictures and small ornaments.

In the center of the floor stands a small table, with chairs arranged around it, and the whole interior seems so comfortable and cozy that one almost wishes for the magic ring of "Arabian Nights" fables, by the aid of which one might grow small enough to enter through the tiny door and enjoy the comforts which one is privileged to look upon through the windows only.

It was formerly used by the owner as a playhouse for his children, but, alas, the children grew, and the house didn't, until it failed to accommodate them. And so now it stands empty, silently waiting for the next generation of children to make its little walls echo with their merry laughter, as they were wont to echo in the days of the children of the past generation whose childhood days are no more.—Boston Globe.

Kubelik's Generosity.

The Austro-Hungarians of New York city entertained Jan Kubelik, the violin virtuoso, at a well known cafe one night recently. During the evening a young lady asked Kubelik for his autograph. Her request led to similar requests from half a hundred others. For a quarter of an hour Kubelik was kept busy writing his name on cards. Among those who requested the young musician's autograph was Marcus Braun, the president of the Austro-Hungarian Republican club. But instead of handing Kubelik a card on which to write his name Mr. Braun handed him a check from his checkbook. It was a blank check on the Second National bank. Kubelik took it and filled it out as follows:

Second National Bank.
Pay to the order of the president of the United States
$10,000,000,000,000,000.
JAN KUBELIK.

Dogs and Literary Fame.

Mr. Richard Harding Davis, who lives in Marion, Mass., came over to New York to visit the dog show, in which Mrs. Davis, who has long been interested in dogs, had some fine exhibits. Mr. Davis was in the smoking car on his trip to the city when he was accosted by an unafraid stranger of somewhat "sporty" appearance.

"Are you," said this gentleman, cheerfully seating himself by Mr. Davis' side—"are you Mr. —?" naming a celebrated dog fancier.

"I am not," Mr. Davis replied calmly enough, knowing that he had facts up his sleeve which might easily be made to annihilate this presumptuous individual. "I am Mr. Davis—Richard Harding Davis."

"THAT'S THE FINEST BULL"

The sporting gentleman drew back with an air of deference and awe.

"Do you mean to say," he said, "that you are the husband of Mrs. Davis, the owner of Woodcote Jumbo? I'm glad to know you. That's the finest bull!"—But Mr. Davis had vanished. Incidentally Mr. Davis himself has been accorded a "blue ribbon" by his publishers, the Harpers, who recently issued an exquisite new edition of this author's famous story, "Her First Appearance."

MEMORIAL DAY.

Honor to Those Who Wore the Gray.

Let all good citizens remember that Saturday, 10th, is Memorial Day. The Daughters of the Confederacy earnestly request the town people and all citizens of the county who can, to join them in doing honor to the men who wore the gray, and who died either during or since the war.

The Singletary Chapter and the Thos. J. Jarvis (children's) Chapter D. C. will meet at the Methodist church, which will be open for the purpose, promptly at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when a procession will be formed which will proceed directly to the cemetery. The line of march will be directed first to the lot in which the remains of a dozen or more soldiers were finally collected and buried.

The ceremonies will be opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Eure. The memorial shaft will then be unveiled by Misses Ima Allen, Margaret Skinner, Mattie Moye King and Pattie Wooten. This will be followed by a short address from Solicitor L. I. Moore, after which the graves will be decorated.

Let all who can possibly do so bring flowers and evergreens.

MRS. T. J. JARVIS.
MISS HELEN FORBES.

Feast of Berries.

THE REFLECTOR household is indebted to our good friend, Capt. Edgar L. Hart, of the Atlantic Coast Line, for a feast of elegant strawberries which he sent Wednesday. He also wrote that the daily shipments of berries from points between Chadbourne and Mt. Olive make from 100 to 115 car loads. With 200 crates to the car and 36 quarts to the crate it will be seen that the shipments from that section aggregate nearly three fourths of a million quarts of berries a day. This is something to think about.

Canned Goods at Cost.

I am overstocked with some canned goods and for a few days will sell California lemon cling Peaches 15c per can, nice table Peaches, peeled, 10c per can, good Corn 3 cans for 25c. If you ever want cheap goods this is your chance.

Your advertisement in THE REFLECTOR goes right along with its work.

REFLECTOR advertisements work all the time building business for the wise advertisers.

If you want people to visit your store put your advertisement where it will be read, that is in

THE REFLECTOR

People read this paper for what there is in it, and they will see what you have to say.

If you have not time to write the advertisement yourself or don't know just what you want to say, let us know and we will help you get it up.

We have bright and attractive cuts to illustrate REFLECTOR advertisements which you can use for the asking.
