Ricks & Wilkinson

This is Greenville's

Fastest Growing Store.

WHY?

BECAUSE no other store Anywhere is so diligent in the interests of the buying public to which it looks for support.

BECAUSE nothing but absolutely reliable merchandise is admitted here at any price--that point is of vital import.

BECAUSE the prices we ask are the lowest known to the merchandise world for goods of the quality we sell.

BECAUSE every sale that we make is backed by an absolute personal guarantee of satisfaction to the smallest detail.

BECAUSE every thing is done to promote your personal comfort while shopping, and to fulfill the most exacting requirements.

And so we might continue to name reason after reason almost without end. No really careful buyer will pass the offers we make without investigating them. Look at this double column full of Economy opportunities for this week:

Begins Tuesday Night.

The meeting in the Disciple church, to be conducted by Rev. D. W. Davis, will commence Tuesday night after the first Sunday in June, instead of on Monday night. Mr. Davis cannot reach here from his Sunday appointment at Pante-go until Tuesday.

Was It Mule Suicide?

Mr. Jasper Walker, who lives a few miles below town, came up Sunday evening to visit a friend in West Greenville. He drove a mule and hitched the animal to a tree in front of the house. Later when he came out to return home the mule was dead. The animal had wound the halter around the tree until it could get no tighter when it is supposed he fell and broke his neck. It was a gray mule, too.

Registration.

The registration books in the several wards will be open on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Only those voters will have to register who have become citizens of the town since last election, those who have become of age since last election, and those who have changed residence from one ward to another. All coming under either of these classes must register if they expect to vote. See which ward you live in and attend to this.

But Advertise.

"Advertise, no matter how small the newspaper space which you are able to buy," is the advice of the periodical Good Advertising. "Increase the amount as you can, for you can put your profits to no other use which will bring half as good results. Start in with the resolve to grow into a big establishment through judicious advertising."—Philadelphia Record.

Found After 20 Years.

About 20 years ago Mr. J. Watt Kirkpatrick, of Sharon, lost a Masonic badge. The badge was a large onyx, set in gold, and cost $25. Mr. Kirkpatrick thought that he had lost the article at the old race track, but a few days ago his son, John O. Kirkpatrick, found the badge, undamaged, while working in the fields, near the house.—Charlotte Observer.

MONDAY, MAY, 26, 1902

As fast as county conventions are held throughout the State, the strength of Judge Clark for the nomination for Chief Justice is shown. Most of the counties that have met so far have endorsed him. Anson, Craven and Lenoir counties held conventions Saturday, and each endorsed resolutions to that effect.

Again comes the announcement that the Boer war is ended and peace in South Africa assured. It has been evident that both the Britains and Boers would welcome a cessation of hostilities, but how to bring about a declaration of peace has been the difficult problem. Even now this last assertion that the war is ended may be only a report to be followed by renewed activities in battle. May we hope that entire peace is indeed near at hand, that the sword may be sheathed, the cannon hushed, the rattle of musketry silenced, and progress and prosperity once more take up the onward march.

It was reported from Guatemala City, Guatemala, April 20, that earthquake shocks, which were general throughout that country April 19 and 20, partly obliterated the town of Quesaltenango and badly damaged Matlin, Solola, Santa Lucia and San Juan. Two hundred persons were reported killed, mostly women, and many people were injured. Quesaltenango has a population of 25,000 people, is handsomely built and well paved and has a richly decorated cathedral, several other churches and a fine city hall.

A young man said recently in our hearing of a certain woman, she is easy to live with. The words of praise are so rich in meaning, we were led to ask for an analysis of their appropriateness in the case. The outcome was the conclusion that the class is a lamentably small one. One easy to live with has eyes to see the brightside of things. All have need of what Goethe died crying for. He who would make us happy, day after day, must shed upon us light that brightens and cheers. Then he who would be most agreeable to us must know how to give up individual preferences for the sake of others. Such habitual bearing goes far to make smooth and sweet the days that go by. And it is equally true that to be a congenial companion, one must know how to not take offense at trifles or envy the success of friends. Such a companion goes far to make the machinery of life run smoothly and brings happiness to the hearts that otherwise would be dreary and sad or tumultuous with agony. --Lumber Bridge News.

It is understood that the Empire Steel and Iron Company, which is preparing to start up its blast furnace at Greensboro will have practically an unlimited quantity of iron ore from which to draw in the operation of the plant. The ore is located near Wilson's Mills in Johnston county. A recent test consisted in boring a hole through the earth 250 ft, but the indications are that it will be necessary to go much deeper before the supply of ore is exhausted.

North Carolina is in the List.

Large numbers of seventeen year locusts have made their appearance in Washington, and reports of similar visitation have reached the Department of Agriculture from Altoona, Pa., and Nashville, Tenn. The Department sent 5,000 postal cards throughout the country asking for immediate reports on the first appearance of the locusts. The department has a full record of their appearance in 1885, and its experts know where to look for them this week.

According to the charts, Maryland and Indiana, with the adjoining counties of their neighbor States, are to be most effected by the pest. The department etomologists say that young nursery trees and young shoots of mature trees are all that will sustain injury from the visitation of the locusts, and that there is no cause for alarm over their appearance. It is anticipated that the locust will be reported from other portions of Pennsylvania and Tennessee, and from New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and possibly a few other localities.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States.

that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

The Orphans.

Greenville is always glad to have a visit from the singing class of the Oxford Orphan Asylum and would feel slighted if this town should ever be left out of the list when making up their annual summer tours. We believe the orphans are equally glad to come to Greenville, as they always speak of the pleasure a visit here affords them. The last few years their visits have fallen on Saturday which gave them an opportunity of spending Sunday here.

They came last Saturday morning and gave an excellent concert in the opera that night. The audience was large and appreciative. The receipts amounted to something over $52.

Sunday night they sang at the service in the Baptist church and the building was crowded. A collection was taken for the orphans amounting to nearly $19. Altogether the receipts from their visit here was a little above $70.

The class left this morning for Williamston. Frank Brown, a little son of the late Dr. Frank W. Brown, of this town, is a member of the class and his friends here were glad to see the little fellow.

Excellent Music.

Such delightful music is seldom heard in our churches as that enjoyed by the congregations at the Baptist church Sunday.

At the morning service Mr. E. A. Young, formerly of Richmond, presided at the organ, and its strains were never more beautiful than under his master touch. "The Last Chord" rendered as an offertory was superb.

At night the class from the Oxford Orphan Asylum did the entire singing of the service which was truly delightful. Praise is never sweeter than that from the lips of children.

Progressive Citizens.

In the columns of THE REFLECTOR will be found the names of the most progressive merchants of Greenville—men who make our town a live town, one that is ever ready to extend the hand of welcome to home-seekers. The merchant who advertises not only reaps benefits for himself, but he helps each reader of the paper—he tells them what to buy, when to buy, where to buy. It is also a fact that in these progressive days the merchant who advertises is the one who sells his goods at a lower profit than those who do not. Readers of papers are realizing this truth and today the men who are doing the most judicious advertising are the men who are getting the bulk of the trade.

No, Maude, dear; the man who walks when his foot is asleep is not necessarily a somnambulist.—Philadelphia Record.

He is only some-nambulist, then, is he?
