Ricks & Wilkinson

This is Greenville's

Fastest Growing Store.

WHY?

BECAUSE no other store Anywhere is so diligent in the interests of the buying public to which it looks for support.

BECAUSE nothing but absolutely reliable merchandise is admitted here at any price--that point is of vital import.

BECAUSE the prices we ask are the lowest known to the merchandise world for goods of the quality we sell.

BECAUSE every sale that we make is backed by an absolute personal guarantee of satisfaction to the smallest detail.

BECAUSE every thing is done to promote your personal comfort while shopping, and to fulfill the most exacting requirements.

And so we might continue to name reason after reason almost without end. No really careful buyer will pass the offers we make without investigating them. Look at this double column full of Economy opportunities for this week:

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

At Winston A. Savery lost $2,000 in bills and a railway mileage book by accidentally dropping his pocket book in a sewer.

The American Cigar Company will establish a branch factory at Greensboro. The new factory is expected to give employment to 500 hands.

J. C. Bingham, ex-Mayor of Smithfield, died of consumption at his home in that town last Monday, aged 46 years. He had been in failing health for several years. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his death.

Mr. J. B. Wise came to Salisbury this morning post haste for a physician. His little child this morning fell from a barn loft and was very seriously injured. It is thought that the child's left leg was broken.—Salisbury Sun.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor W. H. Long has disposed of the following cases since last report:

James E. Donelson, running dray without license, not guilty, case dismissed.

Walter Nettles rolling hand cart on sidewalk, fined one penny and cost, $1.05.

William Webb, drunk and down on street, fined $1 and cost, $3.30.

Marion Perkins, assault with deadly weapon, bound over to Superior court.

Marion Perkins, resisting officer, bound over to Superior court.

Nelson Hopkins, riotous and disorderly conduct, and assault, fined $2 and costs, $4.35.

To Whom It May Concern.

I understand that it has been rumored around town that the bond taxes collected in Greenville for the past year have been in part misappropriated or squandered by the Board of Aldermen. Such rumor is absolutely false, as all such taxes collected by me are now on deposit in bank and not one penny of it has yet been turned over to the Treasurer of the town, nor has my commission for collecting same been yet deducted therefrom. This money has been held waiting for the decision of the Supreme Court on the bond injunction, and I will again state that not one penny of it has been used for any purpose whatever.

C. D. ROUNTREE,
Tax Collector.

WARD PRIMARIES.

Democratic primaries for the nomination of candidates for Aldermen for the town of Greenville, will be held at 8 o'clock p. m., on Thursday, May 29th, 1902, at the following places:

1st Ward at old Mayor's office.
2nd Ward at present Mayor's office.

3rd Ward at the court house.
4th Ward at Star warehouse.
5th Ward at Farmers Warehouse.
This the 21st day of May 1902.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 28, 1902.

A bill will probably soon pass both houses of Congress appropriating $300,000 for the construction of a light house off the Cape Hatteras. Should it pass and the light house be erected, it will be a godsend to mariners. This is the most dangerous coast on the stretch of Atlantic seaboard, and has been the scene of more wrecks than any other portion of the whole American coast line. The light house will be not less than 200 feet high, and will throw a light thirty miles out at sea.

The drought in this county has assumed serious proportions. The farmers from all sections of the county say that the wheat crop will not be more than one-third the yield of last year. All vegetation is suffering.—Salisbury Sun.

Dr. Milburn's Congressional Prayer and the Reporters.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Record tells of an amusing difference of opinion among the newspaper men and shorthand reporters in the senate. One day not long ago Dr. Milburn, the blind chaplain of the senate, in his opening prayer asked divine favor for the reporters who send out accounts of what is done in congress. There are two classes of these reporters—the newspaper men in the gallery and the shorthand men on the floor who report for The Congressional Record. Each side at once declared that the prayer was meant for the other, and in the controversy that arose an appeal was taken to Chaplain Milburn, who promptly declared that all reporters were meant, as all needed to be prayed for.

The discussion brought to light the fact that the chaplain's prayers are open to revision when occasion demands, just as the speeches of senators and representatives are. In 1873 Dr. Sunderland, the senate chaplain, mentioned a host of persons by name in a prayer and the next day found he had forgotten to say a word for Henry Wilson, the vice president of the United States, so the official reporters, after a consultation with Dr. Sunderland, interpolated a nice little prayer for the vice-president.

A Monster of Fat.

In Vladosta, Ga., recently a hog was killed whose gross weight was 1,260 pounds; his net weight was 955 pounds. Each ham weighed 102 pounds. This fat monster produced 510 pounds of lard, or nearly a tierce and a half—enough to last a small family about four years. Besides the lard, there was nearly a wagon load of sausage from this one pig, to say nothing of big dishpans of hog's head cheese, liver pudding and other products.

A New Way to Dun.

A Rochester (Mich.) physician recently caused the following card to be inserted in a local paper:

Wake up! Change cars! Don't you think you have been carrying my money long enough? Come in and secure my autograph on a receipted bill. You will feel better about it, and I assure you the feeling will be mutual. Very truly yours,

Winterville Department.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., May 28. Misses Minnie Clinard and Hattie Nichols attended the commencement exercises at Ayden Monday evening.

Leonard Hamilton, E. F. Tucker, Ferd Tucker and Lex Thigpen all went to Ayden yesterday and took in the commencement. They report the occasion a grand success.

Prof. Lineberry and wife left on Monday to visit their relatives up in the middle section of the State. After spending a short while with home folks the Professor will attend the summer school at Knoxville, Tenn., in order to better prepare himself for his avocation in life, though those who know the Professor hardly think a very much greater improvement could be attained as he seems to be already fully equipped for his calling. Everyone here will be greatly pleased when the time arrives for him and his most excellent wife to return, for they are unusually popular with our people.

Most men want a new suit of clothes every season. They cannot afford to purchase a new cart, wagon or tobacco truck so often however, and for that reason those who are acquainted with the "Tar Heel Brand" of these goods manufactured by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. always use them in preference to any others as they do not have to buy so often. The distinguishing feature of this line of goods, tobacco trucks not excepted, is that they stick to you. Hence the name "Tar Heel."

J. E. Fleming and C. A. Fair went to Greenville Sunday evening to hear the orphans sing that night.

From present indications the prospects for bountiful crops are glorious and the farmers are all smiles.

Peaches they tell us will be plentiful the coming season. Oh! that delicious, luscious, soft sweet peach. What in the world is the matter with my mouth? It's funny!

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. on yesterday sold two thousand yards of wire fencing to one party.

Misses Minnie Cox and Kate Chapman went to Ayden yesterday to attend the commencement.

The Misses Tyndall went to Grifton Friday on a visit to Mrs. James Keene.

Jeremiah Fields and Mr. Johnson, of Farmville, were here Saturday buying a nice lot of wire fencing and a number of trucks from the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Leonard Hamilton, Our Chief, took a trip on the railroad Sunday. Where? He won't tell. But we know.

Miss Minnie Clinard went to Greenville Saturday to hear the orphans and visit friends. She returned home Monday evening.

Wanted—A good milch cow. F. O. Cox.

Summer Necessities

Nothing is so good to soothe a hot irritated skin as TALCUM POWDER. It has become a toilet essential. Some claim that our ALLEN'S TEN CENT TALCUM is as good as any. Others say our MENNEN'S TWENTY-FIVE CENT TALCUM is superior to anything made, but all agree that the name of Colgate & Co., the makers of Cashmere Bouquet Soap, is a guarantee of best quality, and we have their Talcum Powder at Fifteen Cents per box—a window full. ### BUYING LAND.

Board of Aldermen Negotiate for a Market House Site.

The Board of Aldermen held a special meeting Tuesday night, seven of the members being present, to consider a proposition for the purchase of a site upon which to locate a market house. The proposition was from Mr. W. E. Hooker, who recently purchased the Ricky Moore property on the corner of Fifth and Cotanch streets, who offered to the town 60 or 80 feet front of it on the corner at $35 per front foot.

There was much display of verbosity and heated discussion over the proposition, some of the members getting a bit warm and personal in their remarks, which finally ended in the adoption of a motion, by a vote of 6 to 1, to purchase 80 feet front of the property for a market house site.

The matter of completing the transaction was placed in the hands of the finance committee.

The building of a market house is a matter of the future; the present Board taking no further action than looking after a site.

CLARK AND BROWN.

Washington, N. C., May 26. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Permit me to say to your people through your paper that there are thousands of Democrats in this section who favor the nominations of Judge Clark and Judge Brown for exactly the same reasons:

1st. Clark is the Senior Democrat of the Supreme Bench and Brown is of Superior Bench, and promotion to worthy Judges is a good old Democratic doctrine.

2nd. Both Clark and Brown are able and incorruptible Judges and have demonstrated by long service, the surest test.

3rd. Both Clark and Brown have shown that they are fearless in the discharge of what each conceives to be his duty.

The reports received here from the entire State indicate both will probably be nominated. The entire State is interested in the selection of Supreme Court Judges, but if location has to be considered we think it very unfair to nominate a Chief Justice and Associate Justice from adjoining counties and leave the entire section East of W. & W. R. R. unrepresented on the Supreme Court Bench.

B. B. NICHOLSON.

Attention Daughters of The Confederacy.

The meeting of the Singletary Chapter which was to have been held with Mrs. Monteiro and Miss Latham on Thursday of this week, has been deferred by request of the President until Tuesday, June 3rd, as the National and State constitutions require us to meet on that day. A full attendance is earnestly desired, as this will be the last assembly for the season.

MRS. T. J. JARVIS, Pres. MISS LOUISE LATHAM, Sec.
