

RICKS & WILKINSON

Great Cut in Prices of High-Class Wash Dress Fabrics and Silks

Although most houses wait until the end of the season to make reduction, it has never been our policy to do so. We put a time limit on goods, and if not sold within that period, they must go. This week we offer among other great values many of our finest novelties at prices far below cost of importation, an opportunity customers can thoroughly appreciate with the season all before them.

All of our White Goods, Lawns, DIMITIES, Silks, Chiffons, Mercerized Gingham, Piques, in white and figured, have been reduced 25 per cent.

Also 10,000 yards Challoys and Scotch Lawns 4½ yard. Fine sheer quality, pin dots, rosebud all over effects, fancy stripes and figures, white and tinted, full assortment. Lot not broken. (This quality elsewhere 7c yd.)

What Some Young Men Need.

The editor of and exchange says: Let the young man about town out of a job try a year on the farm. Plowing behind a mule will give him a new constitution, take the kinks out of his head, the frogs out of his throat, the gas off his stomach, the weakness out of his legs, the corns off his toes, and give him a good appetite, an honest living, and a sight of heaven.

Leads Them All.

"One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Currin of Loganton, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., July 12.

Friday morning filled our old heart with envy when from every source we heard words of commendation and expressions of delight concerning the ice cream supper given by Mrs. J. D. Cox complimentary to those three beautiful young ladies, Misses Mamie Galloway, Helen Galloway and Pearl Edmundson, who are visitors in our town. It was an occasion affording all present a pleasure most rare and they are manifesting their appreciation in words of praise of the interest Mrs. Cox always displays in we young people. None present entered more heartily into the delights of the evening than the hospitable hostess and her earnestness and sincerity in giving pleasure to others is a beautiful trait of womanly character that might well be imitated. Unfortunately we were not present, hence our regret.

Dr. B. T. Cox left Wednesday morning for Baltimore, accompanied by Mrs. Bennett Speight, who has gone to John Hopkins for treatment.

Mrs. Mary Smith and Miss Annie Stocks left yesterday for Vanceboro to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. E. Brown who died yesterday.

Mrs. J. R. Johnson, Miss Helen Galloway and Sim Chapman spent Friday in Greenville.

Mrs. W. H. Rouse and children left Thursday to spend some days in Ayden.

Miss Mamie Galloway returned to Grimesland Friday.

Miss Pearl Edmundson, of Bethel, came Thursday and is visiting Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Mrs. Abram Cox, who has been visiting sometime in Ayden, returned Tuesday. Miss Ludie Hadcock came with her.

Miss Bessie Chapman, after spending quite a while in Vanceboro, came home Wednesday.

Misses Clara and Fannie Roach, of Vanceboro, spent Thursday night with Misses Bessie and Kate Chapman.

Miss Hattie Nichols, who has been visiting in the country since Sunday returned Thursday.

J. B. Higgs and H. A. White, of Greenville, were with us yesterday.

Ben Bynum, of Farmville, was here one day this week on business.

The house and lot of F. O. Cox spoken of in last items can be bought on reasonable terms.

He's Gone.

Mr. B. W. Moseley, a cotton buyer here for the past few seasons, has gone away on his summer vacation, and a local poet expresses himself thusly over the departure:

Dearest Mosley, thou hast left us
And thy loss we deeply feel;
For no more we'll see thy presence,
'Till the cotton comes from field.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 11.

There is a growing belief in Washington that Senator Hanna is looking to his fences with an eye on the next presidential nomination and some, there are, who suggest that even Mr. Roosevelt's attack upon the trusts is a trap into which he has been led by his wily friend from Ohio. The policy of those who support the Senator from Ohio is to utter no word in public, derogatory to the President, in fact to kill his chances with damning praise. They will say that he is "frank, courageous, a good republican, fearless—possibly a little too much so, it is true, impulsive—to a fault it may be—but still admirable, etc." But in private, to the great financial interests whose treasuries are always open to the managers of the republican campaign fund they will say, "he is all that is admirable—but hardly to be trusted, too radical you know, too apt to prove headstrong, in a word—not quite a safe man". Mr. Hanna, on the other hand, has the implicit confidence of these interests and he has the support of practically all the republicans in Congress and, if the plans of the Ohio senator and his friends do not miscarry, at the eleventh hour Mr. Roosevelt will be found to be "too young", and Mr. Hanna will be the only available "older man."

General Fitzhugh Lee has just made public a statement in which he says that unless the next session of Congress grants reciprocity to Cuba, anarchy will replace the present government and will undoubtedly be followed by annexation. General Lee's experience as consul general at Havana places him in a position to speak with authority and he says that discontent is growing rapidly among the negroes; that riots are likely to occur as the number of unemployed increases and that without tariff concessions from the United States, it will be impossible for the planters to put in another sugar crop. Already, according to General Lee, one of the largest transportation companies doing business between Cuba and the United States has placed three of its largest steamers out of commission.

A Real Friend.

"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. John L. Wooten.

The Best Prescription for Malaria
Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chilli Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no Pay. Price 50c.

"Honor to Whom Honor is Due."

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

North Carolina and the Democratic party can easily honor L. S. Overman, from Rowan county, as United States Senator, and we trust our sister counties of the East and West will bear in mind that Rowan's grandest and most honored son, honored as defined by the scholarly Cicero, by the concurrent approbation of good men, those who were capable of administering true praise, they themselves praise worthy, being illustriously good in the main as well as the circuitous paths to honor—honored like the ancient Athenians, that while in the midst of their glory paused to erect a memorial statue to the illustrious Aesop, the famous fable writer, placing a slave on its pedestal that all Athenians in passing by could know that the road to honor was open to all.

Now we find that everything grand, glorious magnanimous and honorable in the grand and eloquent L. S. Overman, of Rowan county, hence we are suggesting him as a candidate for the United States Senate. And we doubt if North Carolina in her earliest history, dating back to Revolutionary times, has had one son in her political history who has rendered more efficient service to his county, his district and his State than has L. S. Overman. Ever ready in his devotion to duty whether called by county, district or State, now ripe in legal lore and thoroughly qualified and brilliantly equipped for Senatorial duties, he richly deserves any, yes, the highest honors, at the hands of her people. For he with our illustrious Simmons at Washington, North Carolina can look back 30 years, yes more, and feel that her anchorage is strong, that her moorings are safe. ROWAN.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Ways in Which Tissue Paper May Be Used in the Household.

One would be surprised to know how many uses can be made of tissue paper, an article that abounds in most households, as the shops employ it extensively in packing delicate goods.

Probably few people have tested its merit as a pencil mark eraser, yet it serves the purpose admirably and on paper of some textures often acts more satisfactorily than the rubber eraser.

For cleaning and polishing glass of any description, from the fine lens of a pair of spectacles to the common window glass, tissue paper is unexcelled.

Bought fresh and new in packages of a hundred sheets of white and colored, it costs little, yet gives an added quaintness in many ways. It brightens bureau drawers, it makes a pretty wrapping for the small package that one often finds it necessary to carry, it adds far more to the effect of a present than ordinary paper and stuffed in waists and sleeves it prevents wrinkling and crushing when packed. Silk and lace that need pressing are protected by tissue paper, and wrinkled veils pressed under it emerge with renewed freshness.

Kodol Digests what you Eat Dyspepsia Cure

Nature never makes a mistake and the preparation which duplicates its action cannot fail. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure never fails because it digests your food by nature's own process. Its effect is equally prompt on both occasional and chronic cases of indigestion, dyspepsia and stomach trouble of every kind. It digests what you eat while the stomach rests. No dieting is necessary. Eat all the good food you want. "We have been selling Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for the past two years and have also used it," write Bowman & Sons, of Valley Forge, W. Va. "and never heard of a failure. We are so confident of its merits that we sell every bottle under our personal guarantee." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure never fails.

BREAK INTO THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employees, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
