A Pretty Marriage.

Reported for The Reflector.]

In Tarboro, on the 30th of July, Miss Annie Daniel Vines celebrated her nineteenth birthday by marriage with Mr. William Alonza Lewis, of Farmville. It was a pretty home wedding, the house was tastefully decorated with ferns, roses and trailing vines. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Morton in his own happy earnest manner. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Daisy Gillespie Smith. Miss Mary Vines as a sweet little flower girl, and Misses Effie Vines and Mary Brown, robed in white, carrying la France roses preceded the bride. The bride was dressed in purest white and her veil was draped with maiden hair fern and white jasmine buds.

The parlor was filled with friends and relatives to witness the happy nuptial.

After the congratulations were offered refreshments were served in the dining room. The merry voices of happy people made glad the hearts of all as they gathered around the room to be served. The table was beautiful, in the center was a star of nineteen pink and white candies resting upon a bed of roses from which trailed through center of the table to each end a winding wreath of roses and ferns, the table was bordered with dainty sprays of Boston ivy. The back ground consisted of a pyramid of pink and white candles gleaming out from magnolia branches.

On Thursday morning the bridal party took the cars for Farmville where they were entertained by the groom's mother, Mrs. Mary F. Lewis, at her hospitable country home. An elegant dinner was served and enjoyed by all.

Mr. Lewis is book-keeper and confidential clerk of the well known firm of R. L. Davis & Bros and Miss Vines the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Vines, is one of Edgecombe's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies. They were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor H. W. Whedbee has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report:

Silas Donaldson, assault, fined $2 and costs, $4.65.

John Cox, resisting officer, bound over to Superior court.

William Morgan and Sam Gibbs, riotous and disorderly conduct and assault, fined $2.50 each and costs, $9.55.

J. S. Sutton, drunk and down, fined one penny and costs, $2.31.

Meekin Moye, drunk and down, fined $1 and costs, $3.45.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

If you will kindly allow me space in your paper I should like to suggest to the public a few things that constitute a true representative of the people of a community. My reason is obvious. Some people have an inborn thirst for honor and office. They are of the restless kind, and for this reason perhaps at the slightest hint of a friend, they make bold to announce their candidacy for certain offices. I have not the slightest ill-feeling toward any of those good people—for I am a friend to them all; and will correct the error of their way, if I can. Hence my suggestion, to you, O men, who are anxiously praying the good old people of Pitt county to nominate and elect you to represent them either in the upper or lower house of our State Legislature. I propound the following questions: Are you sure of your qualification to represent the people of Pitt county? If so, in what way? I have heard of such a thing as misrepresentation. Is your knowledge of the needs of your constituents theoretical or practical? Some people know how they want their house built, but they get a mechanic to do the work. A young man chock full of books and theory gets a job of surveying. For sometime he blunders, but later, when he has combined the practice with the theory, everything moves on smoothly. Now the point, candidate, is your practical knowledge of the needs of our people amply sufficient to represent them intelligently in our Legislature halls? If not beware, for there's a hot time coming by and by.

The farming industry surpasses every other industry in the county. The farmers are demanding men,—good honorable men, whatever their profession may be at present, who have followed the plow.

Mr. Editor, I think I am not in error as to what I am writing, because I am one of the boys, and am well acquainted with the sentiments of my people. Furthermore, I am not ignorant of the fact that most of the different interests of the people of this county are strongly allied. There is a kind of a mutual sympathy an interdependence existing between them.

But there are State issues that the representative should be acquainted with, for in a measure, he is to represent the state as well as his county, or district. Upon the whole the man that represents the people truly, should be an all round, wide awake, practical, broadminded truly loyal citizen. A prejudiced mind cannot and will not fairly represent a whole people, and I so trust, as a loyal citizen of my county and state, as one who has the interest of good government at heart, and above all, as one who aspires not to office, that our democratic convention will make no mistake in the selection of our candidates.

Very truly,
JOHN F. STOKES.

A Prompt Settlement.

GREENVILLE, N. C., Aug. 2, 1902.
H. A. White, Agent, Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:—I beg to acknowledge receipt of check for $5,000 and wish to extend to the Penn Mutual Insurance Company, through you their Agent, my sincere thanks for the very prompt manner in which they settled the death claim of my late husband, John Flanagan.

The Penn Mutual was the first of the three companies in which he carried a policy to settle. It has only been ten days since proofs were mailed your Company, and such a prompt settlement as this should commend the old Penn Mutual to the insuring public.

Very truly,
MARY W. FLANAGAN.

A Necessary Precaution.

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Always inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucus membrane. Cures coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Children like it. Jno. L. Wooten.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS

Made By The Orange, Virginia, Observer.

For an hour of mirth we frequently pay a month of sorrow.

The bore always tries to leave a hole in the memory of his victim.

The man who freely forgives his own faults is the first to condemn those of others.

It pleases any man to be called a gentleman, even if he knows you don't mean it.

Some men who are looking for an opportunity to work are praying that they won't find it.

One of the rarest pleasures in the world is to hear a friend say something good about you when he does not know you are listening.

Editors would like to feel that all men are honest but occasionally some one arouses suspicion that such is not the case by ordering the paper discontinued without first sending the cash to pay for the time he has been receiving it, or moving away and letting the postmaster notify the publisher that it is not taken from the office.—Durham Sun.

One month, .25
One week, .10

Delivered in town by carriers without extra cost.

Advertising rates are liberal and can be had on application to the editor or at the office.

We desire a live correspondent at every post office in the county, who will send in brief items of news as it occurs in each neighborhood. Write plainly and only on one side of the paper.

MONDAY, AUGUST 4, 1902.

THE REFLECTOR has said it before but the same will bear repeating—keep your eye on Greenville. There is not a better town in which to locate Greenville has thirteen barrooms to tempt people. Now and then some fellow tries to drink one or more of them dry and there is trouble. This might be done away if there were no bar rooms.

To be sure there is plenty of politics and candidates to be talked about, but don't let these things take all your time. Look to matters that tend to progress and prosperity and talk about these some. See if you cannot interest other people in your town and section. Building new houses, starting new enterprises, developing new industries are more important things than politics. Such agitation of these things as will bring about co-operation will be helpful.

TICKET AT THE BANK.

Somebody Will Get the Right Number.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

The sealed envelope containing the winning number for THE REFLECTOR Sewing Machine prize has been received, and will be carefully kept in the vault of the Bank of Greenville until I am notified by you that all the tickets have been given out. As soon as so advised I will open the seal and announce the number.

Yours truly,
J. L. LITTLE,

Cashier Bank of Greenville.

Thus the reader can see that the winning number is ready for somebody. This number was selected by a gentleman in another State, put under a double seal and mailed to Mr. Little at the bank. No person anywhere, except the one who numbered the ticket, has any knowledge of what the number is.

We have printed and numbered one thousand tickets and are giving them away to people who pay for THE REFLECTOR, either old or new subscribers. Every dollar paid at one time gets a ticket, and whoever gets the number corresponding with the one held by Mr. Little at the Bank of Greenville will be given a $60 Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine at Sam White's store.

The more dollars you pay on subscription the more tickets you receive, and the more chances you have to get the machine.

RAIN NEEDED WASHING.

Mr. Richard Mansfield is not celebrated for his lively sense of humor, but this serious cast of his mind does not prevent him from occasionally indulging in a bit of humor no less enjoyable because unconscious. Recently in conducting a dress rehearsal of a play in which occurs a rain scene Mr. Mansfield and his entire company began coughing violently from a shower of dust which suddenly filled the wings. "Stage rain" is generally made by the dropping of split peas in a drum cylinder, and in this case there was an instant suspicion that the "rainbox" had not recently been cleaned.

But none of the stage hands volunteered the information until Mr. Mansfield fiercely exclaimed:

"I demand to know where this abominable dust comes from!"

Finally one of the men, more courageous than his associates, ventured the explanation, "I think it comes from the rainbox, sir."

"And, can't you wash the rain?" inquired Mr. Mansfield in all seriousness.—Saturday Evening Post.

Garland and the Mushrooms.

Hamlin Garland, who is now, by residence at least, a New Yorker, is well known among his friends for the seriousness with which he regards his work and the importance which he attaches to his position in literature. An example of this was given when Mr. Garland recently visited a friend, whose wife brought in for Sunday night tea a dishful of fresh mushrooms, which she had procured from a neighboring hot-house. The distinguished author regarded them with undisguised suspicion.

"Are you sure, madam," he asked with great concern, "that these are not a poisonous variety of mushroom?"

The hostess assured him that they were harmless and edible, but he still hesitated, looking speculatively into space. The host asked him if he still feared.

"No," replied Mr. Garland; "I was just thinking of the effect, should you be wrong, on American letters."—New York Times.

A Morganatic Marriage.

A friend called to see Russell Sage a few days ago and in the few minutes he remained incidentally asked the financier his opinion of Cecil Rhodes' will.

Mr. Sage replied that he did not consider Rhodes' idea of the unification of the English speaking peoples a practical one and that if any alliance came about between the United States and Great Britain it would not be for sentimental reasons, but rather through commercial and financial interests.

"Then, Mr. Sage," said his questioner, "you think if any closer political relations are established between John Bull's monarchy and Columbia these will be the result of great industrial schemes engineered by such men as J. Pierpont Morgan?"

"Yes; what one might perhaps call a Morganatic marriage," chuckled Uncle Russell.

"WHY DON'T YOU KNOW"

on a railway platform when a traveler rushed up and asked, "Has the 9:30 gone yet?" "I really don't know," replied the man in blue. "Why don't you know?" shouted the other angrily. "What are you standing there for, perhaps you will tell me, just like a log of wood? Aren't you a conductor?" "Certainly I am," replied Sousa; "the conductor of a brass band."

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words can not tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. John L. Wooten.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Smell and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. John L. Wooten.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Tomdix—Isuppose Miss Coiner's rejection of young Shortleigh nearly broke his heart!

His Sight Strengthened.

"While picknicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

PERSONAL NOTES

Brief Mention of People Met
With in the Social World

J. S. Tunstall went to Goldsboro today.

W. B. Greene left this morning for New York.

Miss Sarah Hocutt has returned from Washington.

Jesse Speight returned Saturday evening from Norfolk.

E. H. Thomas left Saturday evening for Seven Springs.

Mrs. J. G. Rives returned Saturday evening from Black Mountain.

Miss Etta Hines returned Saturday evening from a visit to Cone-toe.

Miss Lizzie Stewart, of Washington, is visiting Mrs. A. J.
Griffin.

Rev. J. N. Booth left this morning for Goose Nest to conduct a meeting there.

Miss Floy Andrews, of Durham, arrived Saturday evening to visit Miss Carrie Andrews.

Rev. and Mrs. N. C. Hughes and daughter, Miss Carrie, of Chocowinity, returned home today.

Mrs. Mary Johnson, of Raleigh, who has been visiting Mrs. E. H.
Bryan, returned home today.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Liles came in Saturday evening from Newport News to make their home here.

B. F. Manning and J. F. Harrington, of Winterville, passed through this morning going to the northern markets.

R. C. Flanagan and Misses Blanch Flanagan, Bessie Patrick Mary Madearis returned home today from Oeracoke.

Charlie Harris, of Falkland, took the train here this morning for South Carolina, and says he will bring a "friend" back with him.

Prof. J. H. Carrell, of Wake Forest College, came in Saturday evening in the interest of the college. He spoke in the Baptist church Sunday night.

Tried to Break Jail.

Saturday night several prisoners came near escaping from jail.
Some one on the outside had given them a file through the window, and with this the staple holding the lock on one cell was cut in two.
After getting out of the cell the prisoners commenced pecking a hole in the brick wall, when some women in another cell began hollering and gave the alarm. Night Policeman McGowan heard the alarm and went after Deputy Sheriff Tucker and they soon had the prisoners in a safe place.

Careless Smoker.

Parties going in late at Hotel
Bertha, Saturday night, smelled smoke. A prompt investigation followed and a mattress was found burning in one of the rooms. The blaze was put out without any damage. It was supposed to be caused by a cigarette stump.

Prompt.

The Penn Mutual Insurance Company, through H. A. White, local agent, paid a policy on the life of the late Mr. John Flanagan within ten days after proofs were mailed.
This is an example of prompt payment that is commendable.

Boy Cured of colic After Physi- cian's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co.
For sale by Wooten's Drug Store,
Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

BREAK INTO THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employees, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries. Hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
