The Announcement

OF great reductions in every department of our store created a sensation, and throngs have visited us through out the week. Were it not for the fact that our original stock was so enormous, we should have been entirely cleaned out by this time; as it is, we still have a good stock of sizes and styles, and can fit and please every man and boy who is in search of fine apparel. We cannot promise you, however, that this very important sale will be of long duration; in fact, some of the best lots are likely to be closed out any day.

MR. SHEROD SMITH DEAD.

On the 16th of July, as the dark shades of night were expanding to a bright and beautiful day, death entered the home of Mr. Ivy Smith and took Sherod, our beloved brother, from among his happy family circle. Sherod had spent the two years previous to this in clerking for Messrs. J. H. Flanigan and C. D. Smith, and this year he was intending to spend at school in C. C. College in Ayden. At the expiration of the spring term he came to his brother Ivy's with the expectation of working with him during vacation. He had not been there but a short while when he was severely taken with the dreaded disease, typhoid, and lived about three weeks. Notwithstanding, the attention of skilled physicians, a trained nurse and kind mother and friends he suffered intensely and death was inevitable. Sherod was one of the best boys we ever knew, ever trying to do his duty. He never drank, or had bad habits, or used profane language in any degree, and would often ask his mamma what was best for him to do for he wanted to do right. Oh, wasn't it heart breaking to see him suffer, one who was so kind and obedient and esteemed by all who knew him, but, Oh! he was too good for this unfriendly world and God in his infinite love and mercy has taken him to a better world above. He had conversed with mamma a good many times about religion, and had two conversations during his sickness and tears in his eyes expressed himself very freely. It is hard to give him up. Just twenty two years old, just blooming into man-hood, but still we do not weep as those who have no hope. Help us to be resigned to thy will O God, "for nothing in my hand I bring, but simply to Thy cross I cling."

Thy gentle voice now is hushed,
The warm, true heart is still,
And on thy young and innocent brow
Is resting death's cold chill.

'Tis hard to break the tender chord,
When love has bound the heart,
'Tis hard, so hard to speak the words,
We must forever part.

Farewell dear Sherod but not forever,
There will be a glorious dawn,
We shall meet to part no never,
On the resurrection morn.
—By his sister Fannie.

The Southeastern Cotton Buyers' Association allows only six yards of bagging and six bands to each bale of cotton. The buyers belonging to this association have agreed to put a penalty of fifty cents on each bale that has an excess of bagging and bands.—Wilmington Messenger.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C. Aug. 11.
There is more than the suggestion of a smile playing about the features of the older Democratic politicians in Washington when any reference is made to the Roosevelt boom for 1904, and of late there has been a suggestion of a similar expression on the countenance of certain Republican politicians, while others regard the situation with an anxiety which would hardly seem warranted by the facts. As a matter of fact there is a growing suspicion that the Roosevelt boom has been prematurely launched, and is destined to fill an early grave. It has long been an axiom with politicians that a boom, like good lettuce, must be grown rapidly, that from its first appearance as a tiny leaflet it must grow and wax strong without a single check, as otherwise it would become stale and unpalatable and would be eventually rejected as too ancient.

Of course, it can be said that Mr. Roosevelt has the indorsement of such powerful leaders of his party as Platt and Quay and so he has now, but that he has it now is no guarantee that he will have it in 1904. Both of these gentlemen desire, first and before all else, the defeat of Senator Hanna and to that end they are ready to make many sacrifices but that will not prevent either the "easy boss" nor the "old man" from changing his mind, entirely, for the "good of the party" of course, when the national convention of two years hence comes to be held. Can the enthusiasm with which the public at present regards Mr. Roosevelt last. That is the question which the more experienced politicians answer in the negative. They all say it will wear out and that the ambitious young man who now fills the White House will find himself abandoned by the public, which is fickle in its favor, and by the politicians who have been his friends only as a matter of expediency, when the crucial hour comes.

The proposed loan which Cuba intends to negotiate and which will result in the issuance of Cuban bonds to the amount of $35,000,000 is causing considerable anxiety to the administration and it is even rumored that President Palma has, or is about to make an appeal to the President to call an extra session of Congress to ratify a reciprocal treaty with Cuba. The fact that Senator Platt of Connecticut went over to Oyster Bay one day last week and spent some hours with the President would indicate that the subject of Cuban reciprocity was again uppermost and whatever may be the facts it is known that the Cubans regard reciprocity with the United States as their only hope for financial salvation. In the face of such an appeal will Mr. Roosevelt yield to President Palma's request? Will he receive the support of his party if he does yield? Will Cuba's action in regard to the loan be regarded as a threat and be met with stubborn resistance by the Republican Senators who it is believed stood back of the opposition to reciprocity in sufficient strength to secure the defeat of that policy?

Notice.

These are all questions which are being asked in Washington today and the answers to which are sought with interest.

Representative Bankhead, of Alabama, was in Washington one day this week. Speaking of the campaign, he said that he did not take the hopeful view that some of his colleagues did. The Republicans had so much more money for the furtherance of their interest, than had the Democrats, that it was difficult to combat them. Nevertheless, Colonel Bankhead regards victory in 1904 as certain. He believes that when the people have had an opportunity to see that their urgent demands for tariff revision as a protection against the trusts are disregarded, they will then turn to the Democratic party as the only source of relief from trust oppression. Colonel Bankhead thinks it possible that some law similar to the Sherman anti trust law may be passed by the next Congress, a law which will look well on paper, but which will not hold in the courts, but he believes that will be the extent of legislation by the Republicans.

To the Democratic voters of Pitt county.

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the nomination for Register of Deeds of Pitt county subject of course to the action of the County Convention when it meets.

I have been a voter since 1871 and have always tried to do my whole duty as a good and loyal Democrat and if nominated and elected I will try to preform the duties of the office to the utmost of my ability. Thanking my friends in advance for their support, and awaiting the action of the Convention, I am for the best interest of the Democratic party.

Very truly,
J. L. SUGG.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 12, 1902.

A Word of Warning.

It is assumed that, as a matter of course, the religious newspaper must exhort on the subject of temperance. There is quite an uplifting of the eyebrows, however, when the editor leaves the high-road of dull abstractions and travels the more direct avenues which pass through practical legislation. The said uplifting of the eyebrows tells a tale which is not particularly refreshing to the lovers of truth and righteousness. Years ago, certain subtle designing ones took the so-called principle of separation of Church and State, (there should be a certain kind of separation) dressed it up as a scarecrow, and set it up in the field of truth to scare away conscience. So it has been the custom for some editors of newspapers to tremble when it was necessary to write the word "politics," and thousands of good church members have been afraid to carry their religion into politics, and vote for men and principles rather than parties.

Now is the time when it behooves every Christian voter in North Carolina to disregard the scarecrow and march boldly into very centre of the field of truth. It is extremely important that every Christian voter should know the man for whom he votes and know him as a lover of honor and truth and of the best interests of his fellow man.

Why do we say this? Read the private circular which the Liquor Association of North Carolina has sent out, and you will not wonder. We have not space to publish the whole circular but will give certain extracts:

NORTH CAROLINA LIQUOR DEALERS, DISTILLERS AND GRAPE GROWERS ASSOCIATION.

Raleigh, N. C., July 3, 1902.

The Retail Liquor Traffic in North Carolina is facing a crisis. There has been organized in this State an association known as the Anti-Saloon League, having for its motto, "The Licensd Saloon Must Go." They are vigorously but quietly pushing their work, effecting local organizations in every county in the State and keeping their doings from publicity.

To meet this issue and make a successful campaign against this organized force which seeks the ruin of the retail liquor business, we must be prepared to enter the field and wage a vigorous opposition against this enemy.

Resolved, That the following be made a By-Law of this Association. [Here follow resolutions assessing Retail Liquor Dealers $5.00, bar tenders $2.50, non-resident Wholesale Liquor Dealers and brewers annually $50.00, and non-resident Cigar Dealers $75.00 annually; also a recommendation that members of the Association in ordering goods give the preference to those non-resident firms which pay their dues.]

The membership of this Association is promptly responding to this matter, and we trust as you are deeply interested as we are in the result, you will forward your check for $5.00 at once, as we must put ourselves in position to meet the vital issue before nominations are made for the Legislature, and continue our vigilance until it shall meet and adjourn.

(Signed).

S. T. SMITH, Chm'n
A. A. BAILY,
L. N. WHITE,
J. D. CARROLL,
JNO. U. SMITH.

Now, if any man can read th above and not feel impressed that it is his solemn duty to know the legislator for whom he votes, we are greatly at sea. To pack the coming Legislature in favor of the Saloon, and then to remain in its lobby until all favorable legislation is secured, is the purpose of the North Carolina Liquor Dealers' Association. Christian voters of North Carolina, we look to you to do your duty in the present situation.—Raleigh Christian Advocate.

Slow Starvation

is the fate of sufferers from dyspepsia and indigestion. If your food remains undigested it can't build up the body. In fact, it does actual damage by decaying in the stomach and poisoning the system.

KODOL Digests What You Eat.

Kodol is the sensible remedy. By digesting what you eat it strengthens the body and at the same time rests the stomach. This rest soon restores perfect health. Cathartics and stimulants only reach the symptoms. Kodol cures. It is Nature's tonic.

Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such a hold on me that I could scarcely go. I took quantities of peppin and other medicines, but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grasps at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once, and after a few bottles am sound and well. GEORGE S. MARSH, Attorney-at-Law, Nocona, Tex.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

The most painful suspense is hanging.

His Sight Strengthened.

"While picknicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

The best way to find out whether a tree is hollow or not is to go and ax it.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. John L. Wooten.

'Tis the duck of a girl who marries a quack of a man.

A Necessary Precaution.

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Always inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucus membrane. Cures coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Children like it. Jno. L. Wooten.

The preferred creditor is the one who waits longest for his pay.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words can not tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. John L. Wooten.

We now wonder if the sand-trust will effect the sugar trade.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The man who wants a soft berth in this world generally has to oust someone else out of it.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. W. L. BROWN, Sec'y.

To the White People of Pitt County,

The people of Pitt county know my position in public matters and their interests, but in view of the fact that many of my friends have expressed a desire that I be a candidate for the Legislature—that they would like to see me in the Legislature, I make the following statement. I favor

The distribution of school money according to taxes paid by the races.

Just taxation and economy instead of a special tax.

Better laws—laws that will relieve the people of many of the burdens that oppress them. Laws that can be understood.

A reform of the jury system and better pay for jurors.

Relief for court witnesses.

A labor contract law for protection of farmers.

Better disposition of our convicts.

A constitutional convention, if remedies cannot be had otherwise.

Now if the people of Pitt county see fit to nominate and elect me, I will serve them as best I can, in the Lower House of our Legislature.

WHAT DOES JUDGE HILL MEAN?

Judge Chas. N. Hill in his announcement of his candidacy for the office of Chief Justice of North Carolina says at the solicitation of many friends I hereby announce myself a Democratic candidate for chief justice of the Supreme court, subject to the action of any State Convention composed of Democrats that may be held to nominate a candidate in opposition to Judge Clark.

A Democratic candidate, subject to the action of any State Convention composed of democrats, to nominate a candidate in opposition to Judge Clark. What does Judge Hill mean? Has he forgotten that the State Democratic Convention met in Greensboro, on July 16—and there nominated Judge
Clark as its candidate for Chief Justice?

Has he conceived the idea that it is the policy of the Democratic party to nominate a candidate, and then call another convention to nominate a candidate to oppose the candidate already nominated, would it not be suicidal for the Democratic party to adopt such a method? Surely Chairman Simmons will not advise such a course.
It is the policy of this paper to stand by the candidates of the Democratic party and it proposes to do so now, but if the party anticipates calling another convention and placing another candidate in the field which candidate this paper is to stand by is the problem. It may be that Judge Hill has been sleeping—or that he has not kept up with the political course of the State and is still laboring under the impression that the State Convention has not yet met and that the fight against the nomination of Judge Clark is still on. Wake up Judge Hill, read the papers. Keep up with the times, and you will not fall into the error that seems now to have overtaken you. The convention has been held. Judge Clark has been nominated as the candidate of the Democratic party by Democrats and will be elected by democrats in November.

Your announcement comes too late. If you desire the honors of your party you must let the people know it before the convention, or you will lose your go. Of course Judge Hill does not mean that he will be an independant candidate, nor does he mean that he expects the endorsement of any other party. He states that he announces himself a Democratic candidate, subject to the action of a convention of Democrats, which means of course a Democratic convention, and no man doubts Judge Hill's loyalty to his party or that he will not stand by the candidates of that party until the close of the day of election. Judge Hill has lost the count of days. He'll be alright when he finds out.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug. 13. Again we urge upon our friends who feel an interest in the town and surrounding community to bring us the news. We want the outside world to know we are in the land of the living and that we are no sluggards. We want them to know we are wide-awake and abreast with the times and that we are a live, energetic, go-ahead people. That there is cash here and room for more, in fact that we can offer as many inducements for capital as the next place going. So bring us the news friends and we will get there with every leg up and don't you forget it.

The result of Dane Cooper's tumble from his bike Sunday is a skinned chin, a bruised lip and a black eye. His appearance seems to be the result of a cyclone.

Cards will not be sent out to the Hunsucker-Cox marriage to friends in town and vicinity, but all are cordially invited to be present at the church to witness the ceremony.

Mrs. Bennett Speight, who has been at the hospital in Baltimore for some time, we are pleased to learn returned last week very much benefitted by the treatment she received.

Mrs. F. O. Cox and Master Bruce come home Saturday from a visit to Kinston.

Miss Lydia Roberson, of Robersonville, who had been visiting the Misses Chapman since Friday returned home Monday morning.

Misses Lula and Lela Stocks, of Ayden, have been on a visit to little Miss Annie Nelson since Saturday.

G. W. Evans, J. L. Hamilton and Jeremiah Nichols went to Morehead Saturday and returned Monday morning.

Persons wishing first class laundry will bring it or send it to C. A. Fair by Monday evening the 18th inst. Mr Fair patronizes the Wilmington laundry, one of the best in the State.

Our young friend Charlie Baker, of Sheldermine, was here visiting Sunday. Charlie was one of our special friends during the last session of Winterville High School and we are pleased to learn he will attend next session.

It is seldom "Old Contentnea" The Banner Democratic township of the county asks favors from her party, but at the next convention she will ask the endorsement of L. L. Kittrell as a suitable candidate for the General Assembly. Mr. Kittrell is a farmer of good sense, sound judgment, keen perception and knows the needs of the farmer and mechanic. He has the manhood to express his convictions and as we take it is well capacitated to discharge the onerous duties of a legislator.

Misses Mabel and Julia Von-Eberstein, of Chocowinity, and Miss Martha Tripp, of Washington, are visiting Mrs. John D. Cox.

G. A. Kittrell will have two car loads of cotton seed hulls for sale the latter part of the week. Come early if you wish to be supplied.

J. R. Harper and little Miss Clara Belle, went to Black Jack Monday and returned Tuesday.

COOL CLOTHES

Would your suit look any cooler if you saved a few dollars on ? If so, look at the suits we are selling for $5.00, $6.00 and $8.00.

In weather like this you want everything to count for coolness, and hence the fit is an important part. You can't very well keep cool when you're raging mad at that bad-fitting coat that pulls down on your favorite shoulder bone.

Flannel coats and trousers. Oxford mixed flannel, just the thing for men who want to be in fashion, but not way in it. If you buy here, we take the risk. "Money back if you want it."

Hit the Wrong Target.

Mitchell, Ga., Aug. 12.—A mad dog entered the yard of Charles Stanley, a prominent farmer living here last night. Notice.

To the Democratic voters of Pitt county.

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the nomination for Register of Deeds of Pitt county subject of course to the action of the County Convention when it meets.

I have been a voter since 1871 and have always tried to do my whole duty as a good and loyal Democrat and if nominated and elected I will try to preform the duties of the office to the utmost of my ability. Thanking my friends in advance for their support, and awaiting the action of the Convention, I am for the best interest of the Democratic party.

Very truly,

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST, 13, 1902.

White Man and Negro Hang on Same Tree.

Lexington, Mo., Aug 12.—A quiet crowd of 150 Lafayette county farmers took Charles Salyers (white) and Harry Gates (colored) from the county jail here this morning and hanged them.

The men were the confessed murderers of George Johnson, a popular farmer, who was shot dead while pursuing Salyers and Gates after they had attempted a raid on his chicken coop.

The farmers rode and drove into Lexington last night and about 12:30 a. m., made their way to the jail. The prosecuting attorney of the county and several guards were in the building but they saw that resistance to the lynching party would be futile and offered none. Members of the party were equipped with crowbars, files and axes and work was quietly and quickly started at the opening of the cells. Salyers and Gates occupied separate compartments and nearly half an hour elapsed before both men were secured.

With the trembling prisoners safely in their possession the crowd started for the cemetery, three miles from the centre of the town. Beneath a low tree the leaders halted and the crowd formed a circle, with the prisoners in the middle. The stillness was hardly broken until the prisoners were asked if they wanted to make any statement. Salyers, the white man did not evince one half as much courage as did Gates, the negro. He said Gates had done the actual shooting and that he was to blame. Salyers pleaded for his life but his words were cut short and Gates was told to speak.

He admitted being present with Salyers on the chicken raid in which farmer Johnson was killed. He said he did not know which of them fired the fatal shot and that neither had intended murder.

"We both confessed to the prosecuting attorney," he said, "and he said we were equally guilty and would have to hang. I guess my time has come."

Ropes placed around the culprit necks, were drawn tight and the two were hanged simultaneously to the same tree. The crowd then dispersed. At day-break this morning the bodies were cut down and brought from the cemetery to an undertaking shop here. This morning a coroner's jury was empaneled. There is no doubt that its verdict will be that the prisoners came to their deaths at the hands of unknown parties.

In Lexington there is no popular demand for the prosecution of the lynchers.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to Wooten's drug store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

Lynched on General Principles.

New Orleans, Aug 12.—A negro named John McDaniel was lynched at Smithdale, Amite county, Mississippi, near the Louisiana line, by a mob of unknown white men for various robberies and other crimes. The lynching occurred in a backwoods district, and there are few particulars. The coroner was notified that McDaniel's body was swinging from a tree by the roadside. The body was taken down and buried, but nothing could be learned of the lynchers.

An Instructive Collection For a Boy to Make.

Every boy at some time or other of his life has probably collected birds' eggs, but a collection of wishbones or "merry thoughts" is unique.

Have our young readers ever seen such a collection or thought of it, or that there is a connection between birds' eggs and the wishbones of the skulls of the birds that laid the eggs, and that it is interesting to study the two together? One learns from them a good deal about elementary anatomy. In many museums collections of birds' skeletons lie beside the eggs.

A deal box, varnished, and about 15 by 18 inches and 6 inches deep is a very suitable size and will hold at least 100 eggs and as many wishbones. It must be fitted with a glass, sloping downward from the back, so as to give greater depth for the larger eggs. The eggs may be arranged in rows, marked out by wooden partitions, with trays, one above the other. If the collection grows to any size, a mahogany cabinet may be provided, and if such a case with its ivory white wishbones or skulls and eggs, systematically and neatly arranged, each with its appertaining eggs, were sent to the county fair it would certainly carry off a premium.

A Rainy Day Money Maker.

The New York Times tells of a boy who makes money on rainy days by furnishing protection from the rain to persons caught out without umbrellas. As soon as school is out on a rainy day he takes his umbrella to the foot of the stairs leading up to one of the elevated railway stations, and as people come down the stairs he offers to them the use of his umbrella at the rate of three blocks for 5 cents for one person. He makes quite a neat little sum every rainy day. He says he could make more money if he could supply rubbers.

How to Clean a Plaster Cast.

A correspondent of a scientific journal says that a bust or statue can be most thoroughly cleaned provided it has not been painted, oiled or waxed by inverting it and filling it with water free from iron. The water is then allowed to filter through the plaster. After the filtering has been kept up for a sufficient time and the outside surface occasionally washed with water and a soft brush the plaster is allowed to dry. It is then found that all the dust has been wiped out of the pores of the cast, which is thus restored to its original whiteness.

Diplomacy.

"I always endeavor," said the matrimonial philosopher, "to take the wrong side of an inconsequential argument."

"With what object in view?" he was naturally asked.

"It gives my wife a chance to prove me wrong, and this so delights her that I find her generously tractable in all the more important matters."—Chicago Post.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words can not tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. John L. Wooten.

Philosophy is the salve of disappointment.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

Girls swim overhand almost as naturally as they ride horseback straddle.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A man bets on reason and loses; a woman doesn't bet on instinct, but she wins with it.

His Sight Strengthened.

"While picknicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

A Republican candidate for Congress in Kansas charges an admission to his meetings. But the people in his bailiwick don't have much fun and they enjoy this circus.—Wilmington Star.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. John L. Wooten.

The life insurance companies have 96,555 policies in force in this State, covering $71,284,000 insurance; issued 43,450 policies during the year for $20,014,000; received $2,249,000; of premiums and paid $821,857 losses.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Trainmen to Be Instructed in Surgery.

Train employes of the Northwestern road are to receive instruction in medicine and surgery, so that they shall be able to set a broken leg and bind up the wounds of the injured.

Railway surgeons have estimated that 50 to 75 per cent. of the deaths which now occur from injuries received in railway wrecks would not occur provided the injured received skillful and intelligent aid at once. The value of the theory has appealed to the officials of the Northwestern.

It is proposed to establish a school of instruction, where train crews can be taught rudimentary surgery, become familiar with many of the remedies used for the purpose of temporary relief and learn what materials are used and how to use them. In this connection every passenger and freight train will carry a medicine chest well stocked with all the materials which the physicians and surgeons think essential for the purpose.—Chicago Dispatch.

Vilification of the South By a Southerner.

Professor Sledd, of Emory college, has an article in The Atlantic Monthly on the negro question, which has brought him into sudden notoriety of a kind naturally to follow a bitter arraignment of the people of the south by a southern man for their manner of handling and trying to solve a problem that has puzzled the minds of the greatest thinkers of both sections of the country.

There is nothing too harsh for this professor to say against his own people for their treatment of the negro.

Professor Sledd charges that the negro at the south is "dehumanized and treated lower than a brute." He declares that "the average white man of the south would sooner kill a negro than a forty dollar mule;" that "if the negro is thought of at all in a general way it is with the most absolute loathing and contempt." Another serious cause of complaint by him is that when negroes travel, "at the depot they may not enter the room for the whites and on the train they must occupy their own separate cars. Reaching their destination they may not eat at the restaurant of the whites or rest at the whites' hotel."

Professor Sledd's article can be divided under two heads—one is the misstatement of facts and the other is asking more for the negro along the line of social equality than the negro asks for himself.
Every one knows that his charges
as to brutal treatment are false.
That needs no argument. The leaders of the negroes of the south have refuted them time and time again. As to his plea for social equality—no matter how much Professor Sledd may desire to associate with the negroes on terms of perfect social equality, he will find that the negroes do not want to be on these terms with him. On these two subjects this professor should read the speech of Booker Washington, President Dudley and other colored men of their character and standing.

America is not sufficiently civilized for Professor Sledd. We advise him to move to Hayti or San Domingo, or perhaps the inhabitants of these islands may be rather too exclusive for him in their distinctions of even shades of color. So to find his true level he may perhaps have to travel as far as the wilds of the upper Congo.—
