ALL SUMMER GOODS MUST WALK.

We are anxious to sell—yes, but we are not so anxious for money that we will jeopardize our business by offering stuff we cannot stand back of. We are as jealous of our good name as we are proud of our business. Come this week and see how far a dollar bill will travel.

Mr. Wilkinson is in the northern markets buying Fall and Winter goods, and all summer goods must suffer great cuts. We mean carry over.

Illicit Still Discovered.

Deputy Revenue Collector C. M. Babbitt went to Beaufort county Sunday where he found and destroyed a moonshine still. It was located about a mile and a half from Belford, or what is commonly known as Edwards Mill, and was deep in the swamp being over a half a mile from any road. It was located not far from where another still was destroyed about a year ago. It is believed that the person in charge of this still is Stephen Tuten, who is alleged to have killed Caton, a United States officer, about a year ago. Caton had found Tuten engaged in the illicit distillery business and attempted to arrest him but he was killed in a fierce fight. He is a desperate man and is said to never to be unarmed.—New Bern Journal.

HUNSUCKER-COX.

A Beautiful Marriage at Winterville.

Magnificent flowers, lovely evergreens of every shade and variety, resplendent hot house plants, all tastefully displayed by experienced hands and loving friends was a scene that greeted one's entrance in the Baptist church at Winterville, Wednesday.

This was in honor of the occasion of the marriage of two of our most popular young people, Mr. J. Hugh Hunsucker and Miss Rosa A. Cox, daughter of our townsman, Mr. A. G. Cox.

At the appointed hour to the sweet music of "Meldeissohn's Wedding March", artistically and skillfully rendered by Miss Bertha Dawson, of Littlefield, the ushers, D. S. Chapman and C. J. Jackson marched down, one the right and the other the left aisle, taking their positions on either side of the altar.

Immediately following came the attendants:

Josh Manning and Miss Bessye Chapman.

Fred Buhman and Miss Mollye Bryan.

Jno. Nichols and Miss Effie Kittrell.

Will Smith and Miss Annie Stocks.

Lil Jackson and Miss Kate Chapman.

Jno. Carroll and Miss Nellie Mumford.

Then came the two little flower girls, Clyde Chapman and Vine-sha Cox bearing beautiful flowers, followed by the groom leaning on the arm of his best man J. E. Green, and the bride on the arm of her sister Miss Mimie Cox, the maid of honor.

The bride was dressed in organ-dy and carried beautiful bride roses in her hand.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Cary.

After the ceremony, they all retired to the home of the groom where ice cream, cakes, fruits, etc. were served. They received many valuable and handsome presents.

A Significant Fact.

The tax list of the town of Washington and township shows a remarkable state of affairs in one particular, as far as the colored race is concerned. In a comparison of the total valuation of fire arms given in for taxation with farming implements, show about the ratio to each other in favor of fire arms as ten dollars is to four. In other words, the sum total of the books shows that while the negroes have invested ten dollars of their hard earnings in fire arms, they have only invested four dollars in farming implements. It was nothing unusual for a negro to admit that he was the owner of from one to five pistols. There is food for thought in the above statement, and it shows the still further necessity of the law against carrying concealed weapons.—Washington Gazette

Jno. D. Cox For The Legislature.

WINTERVILLE Aug. 21, 1902.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:—

Please allow me the space in your paper to recommend one of Pitt counties best citizens for the lower house in the Legislature. This man is in every way fitted for the place and is just the man that everybody wants. No more popular man can be had and it will be a ringing welcome to the people of Pitt to know that such a man as John David Cox will consent to represent them again in our Legislature. People everywhere know him, and he needs no introduction. His character is without blemish, and his former conduct while a representative can not be attacked. An all round gentleman he is and we are proud of this opportunity to recommend his nomination. Therefore let all Democrats think candidly and nominate him without opposition.

R. G. CHAPMAN.

Fearful Death of an Aged Fayetteville Lady.

Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Greene, aged 70 years, relict of the late Thos. Greene, met a horrible fate about one o'clock this morning at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Alex. Giles. At this hour the home was burned. When discovered the fire had gained such headway the family had barely time to escape in their night clothes.

When the building had collapsed and the flames died out, it was discovered that Mrs. Greene was missing. Search in the smouldering debris revealed the charred trunk of Mrs. Green and from its position, it is thought she was burned in bed. Her limbs and head were gone, only the charred trunk remained to tell its story. During the progress of the fire two ladies living near, fever patients convalescent, hearing the cries of distress, died from fright. The house burned was the property of Mr. W. L. Holt, situated about a mile from the city.

Fatal Shooting Near Henderson.

In an encounter between a train crew and four drunken negroes on the Seaboard Air Line passenger train near Henderson shortly after noon to-day, one man was killed and another probably fatally injured. The dead is Assistant Road Master Stever and the injured James Mitchell, a negro porter on the train. The white man was shot through the head and died immediately. The negro was shot in the stomach and was carried to Raleigh. Four negroes were in the shooting party and three of them are in jail at Henderson. The other made his escape by jumping from the train and he is now being pursued.

The trouble occurred near Middleburg, between Norlina and Henderson. Conductor Clements was trying to keep the negroes in their part of the train, when they became insulted and the shooting followed. The negroes were being taken from Virginia to Louisville, N. C., to work.

H. Early Norman, of Halifax, who is now at the Hotel Carolina, this city, was a witness to the tragedy and assisted in tying the three negroes afterwards. He says that five negroes came into the white car and began to sing, being at the time partly under the influence of whiskey. Conductor Clements told them to go back into the colored car, when they became "boisterous and refused to go. The conductor then went after the negro porter to assist him. When he returned the negroes were in the car for colored people and immediately upon the appearance of the conductor one of them pulled a gun and tried to shoot him. The negro was knocked down by Assistant Road Master Stever, who was killed. The ball entered the right cheek and ranged upward, killing him instantly. As he fell to the floor another of the negroes fired at the dying man and the ball took effect in the stomach of Jim Mitchell, the porter. The conductor saved his life by getting behind the car door. There was great excitement among the passengers, but three of the negroes were disarmed and tied with ropes. The fourth escaped by jumping from the train. A posse was soon in pursuit and a telephone message from Henderson to-night says that blood-hounds have been secured and he will be taken. The dead body of Stever and the three prisoners were taken from the train at Henderson, the prisoners being hurried to the county jail.—Durham Cor. Charlotte Observer, 19th.

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at Wooten's drug store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Then their use is not followed by constipation as is often the case with pills. Regular size, 25c. per box.

Don't Treat Symptoms

Go after the cause. Stimulants and cathartics will never cure indigestion. They may temporarily relieve the system but the next meal clogs it again. The food should be digested. The nourishment—health—strength it contains should be appropriated—absorbed by the system.

Children Thrive on Kodol

purifies, cleanses, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. This new discovery digests all classes of food and assists the stomach and digestive organs in assimilating and transforming it into the kind of nourishment that is taken up by the blood and fed to the tissues throughout the various organs of the body. Kodol cures indigestion and dyspepsia, thus removing the cause of all stomach troubles. Kodol gives such strength to the body that it is invaluable in all wasting diseases.

"I wish to thank you for what Kodol has done for me," writes Clifton Gorton, Collett, Ind. "It cured me of dyspepsia after everything else had failed. When I tried Kodol it helped me right away. I cheerfully recommend it."

Kodol Digests What You Eat.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words can not tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. John L. Wooten.

The best and most renowned bet ever made is the alphabet.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy Farmville, N. C.

Economy is the avenue to the golden temple of pecuniary independence.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Opportunities are very sensitive things. Slight them on their first visit, and they may never return.

His Sight Strengthened.

"While picknicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

It is said that when a man is full his pocket is usually empty, and when he is tight his tongue is loose.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. John L. Wooten.

If you throw a piece of wrought iron at a man it becomes cast iron. Manufacturers ought to be able to utilize this idea in some way.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. BREAK INTO
THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employees, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
