ALL SUMMER GOODS MUST WALK.

We are anxious to sell—yes, but we are not so anxious for money that we will jeopardize our business by offering stuff we cannot stand back of. We are as jealous of our good name as we are proud of our business. Come this week and see how far a dollar bill will travel.

Mr. Wilkinson is in the northern markets buying Fall and Winter goods, and all summer goods must suffer great cuts. We mean carry over.

Ex-Gov. Jarvis and the Public Schools.

Editor REFLECTOR.

I read the article by Ex-Gov. Jarvis in Sunday's News and Observer of August 3rd and but for pressing farm duties requiring my close undivided attention just at this season would have replied to some things he said at an earlier date.

The Ex-Governor need not have dwelt so much upon what our State Constitution contains in respect to school taxes. Many people know as much beforehand as they did after being informed by his citations and elaboration. The people have changed our Constitution in some necessary particulars, and they can also alter it as to the methods of providing funds for the maintenance of public schools for both races. The most of the white people have come to the conclusion that the way to settle the free school problem is for the white man's taxes to go to the white schools and the black man's to go to the colored schools.

But let me come to the particular matters which I wish to notice. The Ex-Governor in his recent article sees fit to condemn an Eastern individual for certain language used in a convention, criticising our present Governor and others. That said individual stated the only harm he wished them was that they might live to be a thousand years old and have to teach a negro school the balance of their lives and be denied the use of soap. The individual thus referred to is myself. While the language attributed to me is only partly correct and misleading, I wish to say the remarks I did make had reference to Ex-Governor, Ex-Minister, Ex Senator Thomas Jordan Jarvis, and not to Gov. Aycock and others. I have no reason to believe that Gov. Aycock's and others' views are as extreme on this line as Gov. Jarvis'.

In the campaign two years ago when Bob Glenn spoke in Greenville, he addressed a few remarks to the negroes, telling them the people were going to adopt the suffrage amendment, and unless they behaved themselves there possibly would follow another amendment to tax whites to educate white children and the blacks to educate theirs. This sentiment was loudly applauded by 90 per cent of his audience. The Ex-Governor criticised these utterances of Mr. Glenn in the presence of several people, saying if the present amendment contained such a feature he would be found censuring the state on the other side. Some one remarked he would have a lonesome time of it as nearly all the Democratic voters favored it.

He says my remarks were not creditable to me. I am not concerned as to his opinion when I express my honest convictions. I am open-handed, open-hearted, with nothing to conceal, and the people can always understand my position and conduct. The Ex-Governor is different, very different, sometimes. Few of us have forgotten his posing as a "visiting statesman" in the lobby of the legislature of 1891 or 1893, advising and urging the legislature to accept the terms of certain railroads as to taxes they should pay, etc., appearing as an individual and acting for the public interest, when the disclosure was soon made and he was forced to admit he was hired by the railroads and paid a fee to represent their side.

He says he has served his party faithfully for nearly half a century. I am willing to give him credit where credit is due. The Democratic party has rewarded him. The white people of the state have been very generous to him. It seems now he would repay them by taxing them heavier to educate another race and not educate their own children without the task of educating every negro child. This is somewhat in line with what I have often heard it said when he was elevated to high official position—that what he had to give he gave to his enemies to conciliate them and ignored his friends. My outspoken opinion is that it is an unreasonable task to continue the effort to educate the negroes of the state at the expense of the poor white tax payers of North Carolina. This tax is a burden, and what goes from their pockets into the school fund should be for the education of their own race, their own children.

If in some way or another the Ex-Governor should be the owner of much real estate in the near future, it would be better that his increased school taxes should go towards the education of the children of the white men who have helped him in the days gone by than be distributed per capita between the two races of our state.

FRIDAY, AUGUST, 22, 1902.

A severe storm swept Rome, Ga., Tuesday afternoon. A portion of the Central hotel was unroofed, a negro church demolished and dozens of trees were blown down. In the country, hundreds of acres of corn were levelled.—Wilmington Star.

Some of the Northern papers are discussing the question whether automobiles are safe. Not always, because they sometimes fall into the hands of speed cranks who persist in running them at the rate of sixty, or seventy miles an hour, when almost anything is liable to happen to them and the people on them.—Wilmington Star.

The press agencies are telegraphing all over the country that Uncle Sam's relation with Turkey are "strained."

Uncle Sam doesn't take much to Turkey in hot weather. Just wait until about the last of November and the old gentleman will show what he can do to settle all questions between him and the Turk.—Raleigh Post.

There is an old gentleman in town who recently moved from Edgecombe county with his family, who claims to be one hundred and seven years old. He says he served in the Confederate army during the entire war and had his only son, upon whom he was dependent for his support killed during the Spanish American war and he is now asking the government to grant him a pension on that account.—Washington Messengers.

Jumped From Train

On the excursion train from Delaware park last evening there were two half grown negro boys trying to beat their way, so the reporter was informed by a passenger on the train, and they took a unique way of saving the conductor trouble of putting them off.

Without a word the first boy doubled up and went off the car while the train was going at some fifteen miles per hour. The second one then followed and both struck the ground rolling. In a moment the first to jump was on his feet and grabbing his hat in his hand he made a bee line for the woods nearby.

The second one did not fare so well and he lay on the ground for several minutes. The train was stopped and backed to get him but he regained consciousness just before the train reached him and he, too, made for the woods, following his companion. The names of the negroes could not be learned.—Durham Herald.

There is more hope of a fool than at the man who conceals he is wise above his neighbors.

Obituary.

On the 20th of August, God in his tender mercy sent in our midst the angel of death and took from the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Cox, one of their infant sons, Urban. Aged 2 months and 4 days. After an illness of 10 days, God willed to take the precious jewel home. We realize the sorrow that has over-shadowed their home and we have great sympathy for them, we feel sad at the loss of our loved ones, but if we would think for a moment they are not ours, they are only loaned to us for a while.

How sweet to think that on his eyes, A loving chime shall yet arise, When he shall wake from death's dream, Beside that pure and living stream.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words can not tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Frv. Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. John L. Wooten.

A lost character can sometimes be restored, but it takes a great deal of virtue and time to do it.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

More helpful than all wisdom is one draught of simple human pity that will not forsake us.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Some people spend half their time in repenting of their blunders and half in committing more.

His Sight Strengthened.

"While picknicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

Obedience, submission, discipline, courage—these are among the things which make a man.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. John L. Wooten.

The man who is trying to keep up with the fashions has little time to do any useful work.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

No man can tell another his faults so as to benefit him unless he has deep friendship for him.

A Necessary Precaution.

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Always inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucus membrane. Cures coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Children like it. Jno. L. Wooten.

Attempted Burglary.

News reached here this morning of an attempt at burglary at Washington early this morning. An attempt was made to enter the residence of Jas. L. Fowle, President of the First National Bank by means of a ladder through the side window. Miss Mattie Fowle, his daughter, who was sitting up late in her bed-room reading, heard the noise and went to the window and threw back the curtains and saw a man's hand trying to open the blinds. She ran to the door to make an out-ery, but upon second thought ran back to the window, threw open the blinds and saw the would be burglar going down the ladder. She screamed and the burglar ran. She said he was a white man, in his shirt sleeves, had on a white shirt, and wore a black crush hat. The burglar also attempted to enter through a rear window by means of a chair. Hurricane Branch with his blood hound was telegraphed for. Mr. W. C. Hines of this place was also telegraphed for, and he left immediately for Washington with his blood hounds, to track the would be burglar.

A Runaway.

A horse hitched to a buggy ran away down Evans street Thursday afternoon and caused some little excitement. The horse became frightened near the Court House and scattered fruit jars all along the street, finally running into the fence near C. T. Munford's residence and smashing the buggy.

His First Crop.

Capt. W. A. Parvin, of Washington, who has for many years been running on the steamer Myers was here today with four hundred pounds of tobacco and sold it with one of the warehouses here, for which he was tendered a check for $50.75. The Captain told us he had raised some of nearly every thing that farmers can produce, and that this tobacco was raised on land that his neighbors told him would produce nothing.
He says this year was his first attempt at tobacco and he is very much gratified with the result.

When you wake up with a bad taste
in your mouth, go at once to Wooten's drug store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Parmville, and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

BREAK INTO THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING
IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employees, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
