ALL SUMMER GOODS MUST WALK.

We are anxious to sell—yes, but we are not so anxious for money that we will jeopardize our business by offering stuff we cannot stand back of. We are as jealous of our good name as we are proud of our business. Come this week and see how far a dollar bill will travel.

Mr. Wilkinson is in the northern markets buying Fall and Winter goods, and all summer goods must suffer great cuts. We mean carry over.

Now Devoted to the Cause of Morality.

Within the past few months good people interested in the suppressing of vice have leased three houses on Fourth street near Castle and closed their doors to the infamy to which they have been devoted many years. One of them was the former groggery known as the Klondike and the other two are small dwellings on the same side of the street a few doors away. Persons who pass the locality can now see on the doors of all three houses large placards, on which is printed in large letters the following: "This house will be permanently used as a place of worship.—Wilmington Messenger.

Acting on the principle that the end justifies the means some South Georgia farmers laid a plan to turn the joke on an old alligator which was in the habit of lunching on their pigs. They baited a big hook with a live pig. The squealing of the pig caught the ear of the saurian, he went for the squeal, caught the pig and the hook caught him, and then all those farmers fell upon him and murdered him. He was 12 1-2 feet long.—Wilmington Star.

From the midnight, by the gate post, comes a mournful cry of woe, 'tis the maiden's shout to lover:—"Father's coming, you must go!"

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to Wooten's drug store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

Following the prediction of Wm. J. Bryan that the United States is heading for a smash-up like Babylon of old come a theorist from New York who would have us believe that before the event predicted by Mr. Bryan will have a chance to manifest itself, a bigger performance is on the cards. This performance is nothing less than the end of the world itself. The world, he says, is going to be destroyed by electricity. His theory is that the immense number of dynamos now in use are generating a flood of electricity that is soon to wind up all earthly affairs. Nobody has yet been scared to death by the predictions of these alarmists, and the probabilities are that the factories will continue to turn out dynamos and that in 1908 Mr. Bryan will still be denying that he is a candidate for the presidency.—Charlotte Observer.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST, 26, 1902.

Ex-Judge David Schench, of Greensboro, died Tuesday evening, aged 71 years. He had been in poor health several years.

A glance ahead for a few weeks to the coming of winter almost makes one shiver here in August at the prospects of prices that will have to be paid for coal.

It is hinted a bullet be picked out of Tom Jones, the lynched Seven Springs negro, and sent to Gov. Aycock. His Excellency might stop the pardon mill long enough to offer a reward for the lynchers.

Lynchings are bad and it is a pity they ever occur, but the negro Tom Jones, near Seven Springs, came as near getting what he deserved as ever did a criminal. The Coroners jury that investigated the case stated in their verdict that the lynchers had done their duty.

In opening court at Greensboro, Monday, Judge McNeill had to charge two grand juries. After the jury had been sworn and the charge delivered it was discovered that two of the members owed taxes for two years. The jury was called back, the two men removed and others put in their places, and the Judge had to deliver another charge to the body.

The Kinston Morning News tells of the attempted poisoning of the family of S. S. Cauley, in Lenoir county, by carbolic acid being placed in the coffee pot. The poison was discovered just in time to save the family from probable death. A negro named Eddie Davis, who worked for Mr. Cauley was arrested for the crime. He made a confession and said another negro named Lot Lawson, "put him up to it." Both were placed in jail. It looks like the negroes over that way want another lynching.

There is in Altoona, Pa., a physician who is in 100th year, and still practices his profession. For recreation he works in his garden, and moves around as nimbly as most men at 60 do. The most remarkable thing in his case is that as a boy he was puny and at 30 was considered a hopeless victim of consumption. He picked up his health and has never been sick since. With him the rule for health and longevity is "excess in nothing, moderation in all things."—Wilmington Star.

BIG ANIMAL SHOWS.

Coming Wednesday, September 3rd.

What promises to be one of the big events of the season is the forth coming visit to this city of Norris & Rowe's Big Trained Animal Shows. Beyond question, there is not an amusement institution in America that has such a hold on the public favor as these big moral shows. The rise of this great enterprise is phenomenal. First, starting small it has risen year by year with tremendous strides until the present season, it is now the largest and best. The past season was a record breaker. In San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Salt Lake, Denver, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth hundreds were turned away at every performance and its tour was one continuous ovation. The press and public were unanimous in declaring it to be the brightest and best show of its kind in existence, and it has made an undying name for itself and its hustling progenitors. The career of Messrs. Norris & Rowe illustrates the typical thrift, integrity of purpose, ingenuity of representative western men. Their success has nearly all been achieved in the West, and western ideas of honesty and fair dealings have gained for them a reputation that is as carefully preserved as it is well merited. The season of 1902 of the Norris & Rowe's Big Shows marks long and rapid strides in advance of similar exhibition in the way of size and grandeur. The special features this season are the performing lions, camels, seals, buffaloes, baby elephants and the most marvelous troupe of juvenile performers, while many of the popular features of past years are retained, so that taken all in all they give as clever a performance as one could wish to witness.

One thorn of experience is worth a whole wilderness of warning. Some folks won't mind their business, the reason is you'll find they either have no business, or else they have no mind. Every time a man reads of a woman losing a pocketbook, he feels justified in his stand against giving his wife any money.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words can not tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength of mind and body depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. John L. Wooten.

Some people blow their own horns because no one else is willing to undertake the work.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

When ill news comes too late to be serviceable to your neighbor, keep it to yourself.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A man's own good breeding is the best security against other people's ill manners.

His Sight Strengthened.

"While picknicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Iowa. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. John L. Wooten.

It is the richest who is content with the least; for content is the wealth of nature.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

He who has not a good memory should never take upon him the trade of lying.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Smell and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. John L. Wooten.

The man who never in his life was foolish was never a wise man.

A Necessary Precaution.

Don't neglect a cold. It is worse than unpleasant. It is dangerous. By using One Minute Cough Cure you can cure it at once. Always inflammation, clears the head, soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane. Cures coughs, croup, throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Children like it. Jno. L. Wooten.

A Nine-Months-Old Sandow.

A nine-months-old boy living in Somerville, Mass., has developed into a regular Sandow. He has a name as substantial as his strength. He has been christened John Driscoll Sweeny, and "Johnny" has a pair of arms attached to a thirty pound body that are marvelous. His strength is extraordinary. He can hang from the top of a door, trapeze, wantel—in fact anything on which he can obtain a grip with his tiny hands. A feat performed by him not long ago was hanging from the tailboard of a wagon while the horses moved at a brisk trot. He swung back and forth perfectly contented and apparently feeling that he was in no danger of falling.

The baby goes through a regular course of athletic training, with his father as trainer. Every morning he takes his exercise, going through the test with wonderful enthusiasm. The boy began to exhibit unusual strength when he was three months old, and since that time his muscles have developed until he is a wonder.

Bicycle Thief Caught.

A negro named Willis Johnson was put in jail Monday afternoon for stealing a bicycle from Charlie Haskett. The negro took the wheel Saturday evening from in front of the store of J. B. Cherry & Co., where Charlie clerks. He rode the wheel to Jim Elks' and left it there. Johnson went off to his work Monday but did not carry the wheel with him. Later in the day the wheel was found at Elks' and when it was learned that Johnson carried it there officers went after the latter and brought him to jail.
