EMBLEM.

BY G. G. FINEMAN.

The spring time came with loveliness, a flower bloomed beautifully, and wished from hour to hour That summer heat would hasten to mature Its tiny tender stalk, and thus insure It from the injury of wind and shower.

The summer came, the tiny stalk grew strong, The flower bloomed afresh, the days were long, The torrid wind soon made it bow its head. And then, it longed for autumn, for it said, "with summer flowers I'm sure I don't belong."

Cool autumn came, and then the stalwart stalk Did in defiance boldly stand and mock The storm. Its fragrant bloom had passed away, It's summer gone, its spring seemed but a day, Thus sadly disappointed would not talk.

It felt the cruel biting of night Still more; there was to come cold winter's blight. Joy, beauty gone, and strength departing fast As days flew by, its only wish at last was, that it might be hurried out of sight.

So in the spring of youth we long to see Our summer manhood days; and wish to be Advanced in age, and business and feel That life is not a passing dream but real. It comes too soon for you, too soon for me.

Then follows autumn's days and winter's snow, Our spring and summer gone, and as we go Down the decline of life the thoughts of youth Bring to our memory this solemn truth, The one in spring time which we did not know.

On Wednesday evening at 4:30 o'clock, in the Baptist church, Miss Dannie Wood, of Kinston, and Artford Gaskins, of Robersonville, were happily married by Rev. Mr. Edwards. After the ceremony the bride and groom left for Robersonville, where a reception was held. We wish them a long and happy life.

W. J. Peal, of Pactolus, spent Wednesday in town.

W. O. Andrews spent Sunday afternoon, looking for grapes. We hope he got a plenty.

Runaway.

An inoffensive looking little mule, a rail bodied cart loaded with tobacco sticks, and a dirt-mover loaded with molasses barrels, made a ripple on the monotony of upper Main street a few minutes before 12 o'clock today.

The colored driver was busy adjusting the barrels in the rear cart, which was fastened to the rail-body, when one of them got beyond his reach, climbed along over the tobacco sticks, and hit the mule squarely on the touch-me-not. Despite the docile attitude of the animal, he evidently had in reserve a full head of steam. He opened the throttle about opposite the Greenville Banking & Trust Company's, and come down at the post-office corner; leaving the remains—which consisted mostly of the driver and cart No. 2,—sandwiched with molasses barrels and properly staked off with the contents of cart No. 1—carelessly displayed in front of the Elliot block. The little fellow seemed a bit disappointed at finding himself still incumbered upon getting down; but evidently remembered that "all things came to him who waits," and having no idea of giving old What Was It another chance, he proceeded up Third street to Cotanch, with a haste that must have left a vacuum behind him. In getting to the second corner the cart had collided with two trees, but still followed. So the runaway turned down Cotanch, took the right side-walk, planted one wheel against a tree and the other against the porch of the Macon House and stepped out—just in time for dinner.

First Showing of New Fall and Winter Clothing

For weeks everybody about this establishment has been on the jump, marking and arranging the car loads of wearables that have been daily pouring into our store. We have now ready a

FRIDAY, SEPT., 12, 1902.

There are 600 students at the State University.

A man doesn't often break his neck twice in the same place.

When an office gets after a man there is apt to be a collision.

Vesuvius intimates that she has about completed her preliminary arrangements.

It is probably safe to remark that Thomas L. Johnson continues to expose himself to the office.

It is said that the few remaining Populists in this county will hold a convention here next Thursday. Wonder what for.

The editor of the Tarheel is in the lockup for smoking a cigarette on the streets of Elizabeth City. They take their cigarettes out in the back yard over there.

The fact that prices were sustained, on a break that broke the record, following a rush that would have taxed the facilities of any market, speaks volumes for Greenville.

The Monroe Journal is reminded that if the President had been killed when the trolley car ran into his carriage the other day, Secretary of State John Hay would have succeeded to the presidency, there being no Vice President. The law provides for a line of succession running through the cabinet, in case of the death or removal of both President and Vice President, in the following order: Secretary of State, Secretary of the Treasury, Secretary of War, Attorney General, Postmaster General, Secretary of the Interior and Secretary of Agriculture, this being the order of the creation of the Departments. Of course it is utterly improbable that the Secretaries toward the end of the list should ever become President. If we have our history right, no Vice President who succeeded to the presidency on the death of the President has ever died or been removed. Although Andrew Johnson, who succeeded Lincoln, was impeached, the necessary majority to remove him was not forthcoming in the Senate.—Charlotte Observer.

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment, but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and putrid matter and do it so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Cure biliousness, torpid liver and prevent fever. John L. Wooten.

Mr. Small On North Carolina.

We have before us and have read with a good deal of care and a very deep interest the speech of Hon. John H. Small in the House of Representatives on June 28th, 1902, on the state of North Carolina, says the Concord Standard. Mr. Small has surely rendered his state a most valuable service in thus presenting the state he represents.

It is a strong vindication of the State's progressiveness and her rapid development of her many resources.

He shows that we are of the purest type of Americans, there being the fewest foreign born citizens.

We give the minutest statistics of our climate, including temperature and rainfall; our various industries, and the leaps and bounds of their progress; our immense water powers, our forest and mineral wealth as well as our wonderful fisheries and fruits, including berries. He leaves nothing neglected.

He shows the great progress in educating and the magnanimous treatment along these lines of the stronger toward the weaker race.

The onward and upward trend is shown in tabulated form. Thus the population of the State increases 17.1 per cent. from 1890 to 1900, while the wage earners increased 109.9 per cent., the wages paid 111.9 per cent. the cost of material used in manufacturing 133.9 and the value of the products 132.1. The assessed value of real estate increased 16.8. It is shown that more capital was employed in 1900 in cotton manufacturing than in all the industries of the state in 1890.

In 1900 there were 91 cotton mills with a capital of $10,775,134 while in 1900 there were 177 mills with a capital of $33,011,516. (Turners Almanac gives the number mills now as 284.) There are 30,000 people employed and they received $5,000,000 in 1900.

In 1890 there were six little furniture factories, with a capital of little more than $12,000. In 1900 there were 44 of these factories with a capital of more than $1,000,000 and a product of more than $1,500,000.

We repeat that Mr. Small has left nothing untouched; and one may from this pamphlet get the best birdseye view of the State's interests and progressiveness that we have seen anywhere.—Kinston Free Press.

All Incomes Must Be Taxed.

The tax commission gives out the following opinion in the matter of the income tax:

In view of the fact that the review of the tax lists of the State so far made by the State tax commission develops the fact that discriminations and inequalities in assessments have been made; especially in that while many persons employed in various capacities by the Federal government neglected and refused to list their incomes for taxation, other Federal officers have listed their incomes; and, in that while some of the judges of the State have listed their incomes, others neglected and refused to list theirs, the tax commission deemed it proper to address a letter to the county commissioners in each county in the State, calling their attention to these irregularities, and advising and directing them to examine the tax lists in their counties and correct the same by adding thereto the incomes from all sources except incomes derived from property taxed.

Take Care of the Stomach.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodol cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: Kodol has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians, Kodol saved my life. Take it after meals. Jno. L. Wooten.

The charity that begins at home covers the most sins.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

A fat woman will train off flesh till she gets afraid her new clothes won't fit her.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

A husband in hand is worth two that are beyond control.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequalled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skindiseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. Jno. L. Wooten.

It is the coastwise steamer that manages to avoid the rocks.

Lingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season. Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long sledge like this will pull down the strongest constitution. One Minute Cough Cure will break up the attack at once. Safe sure acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it. John L. Wooten.

Love may be blind, but it never fails to hear papa's footstep on the stair.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The high price of provisions gives many a person food for thought.

A Liberal Offer.

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach, and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

There is every indication that the cotton crop will be short throughout the country, and it is hoped that the farmers will not be in a hurry to sell their cotton this season. It is quite reasonable that with a short crop if farmers will hold back any considerable quantity of it, they will stand a chance of getting better prices la-

A Request.

One naturally expects to find the local news in the daily paper, but is frequently disappointed by the omission of something that should have been published. Probably the first thought of the reader is of the negligence of the reporter.

Now, it happens that the reporter of local items is almost entirely dependent upon his own eyes and ears. And he is not omnipresent. And he doesn't yet enjoy the acquaintance of everybody who comes and goes, and those around are frequently as unfortunate. And your friend arrives, lives, moves, and has his being, and departs, unannounced. Which is to be regretted; and may be avoided, if you will only let us know. Will you? Phone us, write us, hold up your hand, or make any kind of a sign. Whisper it, if you wish.

San Souci Club.

Reported for The Reflector:

One of the most enjoyable afternoons ever experienced by the members of the San Souci Club, was on September the second, when Miss Pattie Skinner entertained at The Hotel Macon. The attendance was the best in many months, members having returned from their various outings, each vied with the other in relating the grand time they had experienced.

Business at first held sway—various motions were made, carried and accepted as by-laws. After hearing discussions, we were very grateful when our charming hostess presented each one with a complimentary ticket entitled, The Funville, Frolictown & Featherbrain Railway—good for one trip only.

All had a delightful journey, on which our President Miss Latham, reached the end with the least number of scores, for which she was rewarded by a beautiful picture.

Refreshments were served, and the club adjourned to meet with Miss Tyson, September the sixteenth.

60 Years' Old.

Our friends still wish to know whether the 60 years old firm makes a complete piano. So far they have had no answer.

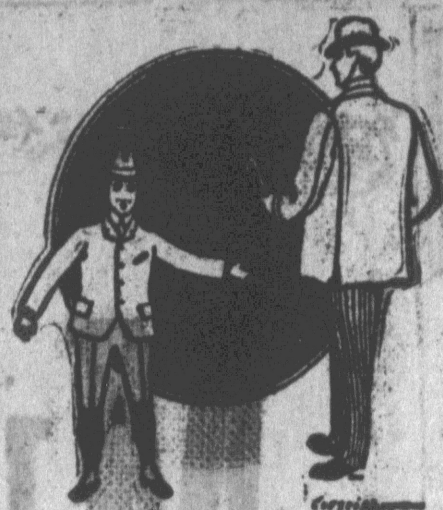

THE CABLE CO.

Doesn't Come Often.

On the day President Garfield was buried, a Mr. Britt, who lives near Marlborough, was in Greenville. Near here, returning home, he was thrown from his conveyance, and hurt. He was here, for the first time since, Thursday.

Thanks.

This morning THE REFLECTOR received with the compliments of the Riverside Nurseries a large basket of delicious James grapes, the first of the season. There is no finer grape grown than the James. The Nurseries are about ready to begin shipments of this excellent fruit.

BREAK INTO THE HOMES OF THE PEOPLE BY ADVERTISING IN THE REFLECTOR

A REFLECTOR advertisement will walk into the homes every day and will let your wants be known to the people.

A REFLECTOR advertisement will bring customers for your goods, find tenants for your house, find employment or employees, in fact fill any reasonable want you may have.

THE REFLECTOR goes into the homes of the people and is read for what it carries them, hence the place to tell your wants is in THE REFLECTOR.

The cost of an advertisement in THE REFLECTOR is the easiest part.
