OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondent of Reflector.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 22.

It's a good sign when the chairmen of the two great political parties in this State vie with each other in claiming that "their folks" have done most for the charitable and educational institutions of North Carolina, and to have their "organs" respectively sticking to it and laboring hard already to prove it.

On with the dance! gentlemen; you both deserve credit along this line, but you cannot lose sight of the fact that you will all be afforded the opportunity to prove your claims when the next General Assembly meets, at least, whatever you may do meantime. Nor will candidates be permitted to forget that the voters have their eyes on them, while the campaign proceeds and that there'll be a "chiel" among them taking notes all over the State—and, faith, he'll print 'em. Let us hope for good results of this generous rivalry.

The 129 volumes of N. C. Supreme Court Reports bequeathed the State Library by the late Judge John Gray Bynum of Greensboro have been received here.

The "bad egg" case of H. F. Seawell vs. S. A. L. Railroad having resulted in a verdict of $4,500 damages for the Rep. Pop. politician at Moore county court Friday, the boys with direct or remote connection with corporations are cautioned to be more "keerful" during the pending campaign, unless they are anxious to mulct their employers.

An Artist Indeed.

THE REFLECTOR is always glad to see our home young men meet with success and rise to prominence in their chosen professions or trades. A splendid example is found in Mr. R. T. Evans, the photographer on Dickinson Avenue. A few years ago he began business in a tent. From the start he met with such success that he soon found it necessary to build a gallery and studio, and his business has constantly increased.

The character of work turned out by Mr. Evans was such as to mark him as an artist and won him many friends and patrons. His motto has always been improvement, and he has applied himself industriously to master his profession, until now his work will in every way equal that done by city artists. It is a pleasure to visit his studio and examine specimens of his work. He is equipped to make any kind or size of picture desired.

Campaign Opens At Ayden.

Senator F. M. Simmons will open the campaign in Pitt county on Saturday, October 4th, at Ayden. The county candidates will also be present and speak the same day. Let everybody turn out and give Senator Simmons and the county candidates a big crowd.

Opening At Winterville.

On Friday and Saturday, 26th and 27th, Mrs. C. A. Fair & Co., at Winterville, will have their fall and winter millinery opening. All are cordially invited, especially the ladies.

CLOTHING LITTLE MEN

THE "Good-enough-for-the-Boy" idea is mighty poor policy. Is anything too good for your boy? If our children's clothing costs a TRIFLE more than some of the cheap duds of the dry goods stores, it is because it is worth more. No good Clothing for Boys and Children can be had elsewhere for as little money. Blouse Suits, Little English Walking Coats, Russian Blouse Suits, Single and Double Breasted swell Overcoats. Many smart and new ideas for Fall and Winter. We are pleased when parents drop in just for a look.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1902.

Washington correspondence to the Raleigh Post represents Ex-Senator Marion Butler as "paying very little attention to politics, though he said he was interested in the situation in North Carolina." Visible attention, of course. The statement could not be interpreted as a refutation of the popular opinion that the Big Blue Senator sleeps with one eye open.

A dispatch to the Raleigh Post credits Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, with an expression of surprise at Speaker Henderson's withdrawal.

"It is virtually a distinct recognition," he said, "of the strong feeling in the west in favor of tariff revision, and especially on trust made articles; and if the Republican party does not take action in that direction I believe the result will be a material falling off in its vote and a corresponding increase in the Democratic vote."

By which it may be seen that Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, knows how to vary the monotony of training the Democratic mule by administering an occasional jar to the elephant.

One's Value to a Town.

Your value to the town in which you live must be measured by the work you do. If you have nothing but criticisms and unkind remarks to make of the town and people therein or if you never patronize home industries but spend your money in other towns, you may depend upon it the good you will do for those around you will amount to very little, and you ought to go forthwith to some place that you can work for and talk for. Both the town you leave and the one you move to would be better for such a change.—Asheville Citizen.

Lingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season. Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long sledge like this will pull down the strongest constitution. One Minute Cough Cure will break up the attack at once. Safe sure acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it. John L. Wooten.

Homesick.

I want to go back to the orchard—
The orchard that used to be mine,
The apples are reddening and filling
The air with their wine.

I want to wake up in the morning
To the chirp of the birds in the eaves;

I want the west wind through the corn fields—
The rustle of leaves.

I want the old song of the river,
The little, low laugh of the rills;
I want the warm blue of September
Again on the hills.

I want to lie down in the woodland,
Where the feathery clematis shines,
God's bluesky above and about me
The peace of the pines.

I want to run on through the pasture
And let down the dusty old bars,
I want to find you there still waiting.
Your eyes like twin stars.

On nights you are weary and dreary,
And days, there is something you lack,
To the farm in the little, old valley,
I want to go back.

—Alice E. Allen in Lippincott's.

Been Radical Since 1896.

History, it seems, is about to repeat itself in the vicinity of Charlotte. Back in the 70's, it will be recalled, an independent movement started out from that city, and its chief organ was the old Charlotte Observer, under the management of Col. Charles R. Jones, who himself became a candidate of the independents of that day. His inglorious defeat, and subsequent decline, is a matter of history. Out from that hustling city of the present day comes the rejuvenated Observer and takes the role of independentism, against party organization, led by its present editor. This is nothing more than we have expected all along since the days that Palmer and Buckner flourished. —Durham Sun.

Take Care of the Stomach.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodol cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: Kodol has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians, Kodol saved my life. Take it after meals. Jno. L. Wooten.

Some people have such a habit of being in hard lines that they can get rid of one disease only by catching another.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

Many a man who couldn't train a dog decently imagines that he is an ideal child trainer.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Occasionally you find a girl so modest she is ashamed to undress in a room with herself.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Do a man a favor and he will consider you under everlasting obligations to him.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequaled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. Jno. L. Wooten.

Politeness is an easy virtue, costs little, and has great purchasing power.—Alcott.

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment, but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and putrid matter and do it so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Cure biliousness, torpid liver and prevent fever. John L. Wooten.

Many a woman who makes a man a mighty poor wife makes him a rich husband.

The Thrust of a Lance is scarcely more agonizing than the recurrent pains in the abdomen which follow the eating of improper food or too free indulgence in ice-water. The immediate cause of cramps and colic is often the distention of the bowels by gas. Quick relief follows the use of Perry Davis' Painkiller. Careful housekeepers give it the place of honor in the family medicine chest.
