Mr. Lewis Goes to Danville.

In the promotion of Mr. W. E. Lewis, by the Imperial Tobacco Company, resulting in locating Mr. Lewis in Danville, Greenville society sustains a loss of which it is deeply sensible. Mr. Lewis came here at the beginning of the tobacco season, from Lynchburg. A very short acquaintance with him was sufficient to convince local tobaccoists that the Imperial had secured a man worthy of its confidence, and the Greenville market a buyer by whose deportment and business qualifications it would be the gainer.

Mr. Lewis and his interesting family bear with them the best wishes of many friends in Greenville.

Great Opportunity.

We have yet some three or four fine pianos, on which we will offer unparalleled inducements in prices or terms. You do not know what an attractive offer you will get until you call. Special offer on the "Simplex" Piano Player we have here. Thanking the public for their liberal patronage and appreciating your further favors, we are courteously yours,

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1902.

Lo, the poor Indian, is dead.

Necessity is the grand mother of Luxury.

Will Senator Platt kindly tip his hat to Governor Odell.

That cancer in thought to be eating out the Senator's peace of mind.

Mr. Pritchard will not suffer from ennui as long as that debate continues.

The Board of Aldermen and the fire company have not announced the date for their union love feast.

Jones' lecture made one man famous. He is said not to have laughed during the whole trying ordeal.

If Elizabeth City has really secured Carrie Nation for the fair, what does it want with the President?

Anybody else would have required a two week's rest without an operation on the leg, after-fath-ering a trust remedy like that.

The question is, not what the Republican party is going to do with the trusts, but what are the trusts going to do with the Republican party.

The Superlativeness of some of the newspaper reports of the Craig-Pritchard debate may serve to illustrate the possibilities of the English language.

If something doesn't happen in Kinston to divert the Free Press' attention from the Greenville market, our Neusey neighbor will have a case of chronic melancholia on its hands.

If there was anybody in Cumberland county whom the associated press dispatch to Thursday's News and Observer failed to "quote," will he or she please get up on its hind feet and jine the chorus?

If Senator Pritchard and Mr. Craig hold out like they've started, one of them may have his work for his pains, but both will finish up with a reputation for respectability—which is quite as important to some folks as a seat in the Senate.

EXCITEMENT AT LEBANON, PA.

Negro Iron Workers from the South Taking the Place of Strikers—Troops Called Out—Rioters in a Frenzy.

Lebanon, Pa., Sept. 23.—This city has not yet recovered from the exciting events of last night at the plant of the American and Steel Company, which was due to colored iron workers from the South taking the places of the striking workmen. Special and regular officers are guarding the plant and hundreds of men are about the mills. The first battalion of the Twelfth regiment reached here tonight. Sheriff Copenhagen says the soldiers are needed if the colored men remain at the plant.

A favorable sign that further trouble may be avoided was a communication sent late this afternoon to Mayor Hess by Superintendent Culliney, of the company, in which the latter said the negroes would be sent away tomorrow. The mayor at once dispatched officers to the scene to pacify the crowd and tell them the news.

Tonight the strikers fired several volleys at the works. H. M. Richards, treasurer of the company, was wounded. He was standing in the puddle mill office when a bullet crashed through a window and struck him in the side. President Sternberg and Supt. Culliney were attending Mr. Richards when the latter was shot. Later six men were placed under arrest by the troops. This had a salutary affect and the crowd soon dispersed.

Colonel Clement has established headquarters in the local armory and before sending his battalion to strike duty he paraded them in the principal streets. It was necessary several times to drive back the crowds with bayonets and Colonel Clement warned the mobs that if persuasion would not suffice force would be used to any extent that was necessary to preserve order.

Shortly before the arrival of the troops the rioters were in a frenzy and that no casualties were reported seems remarkable. A mob of men took possession of a cornfield south of the works and sent out a shower of lead.—Wilmington Star.

Major Powell of the Smithsonian Passed Away.

Haven, Me., Sept. 23.—Major J. W. Powell, director of the Bureau of Ethnology of the Smithsonian Institute at Washington died at 6 o'clock tonight at his summer home here. He has been critically ill here for some days.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Scientists in Washington placed Major Powell in the foremost rank of the geologists and onthropologists of the world. Major Powell's most notable scientific work was his exploration of the grand canon of the Colorado in the sixties. His fellow workers say that he was not only the first man who ever went through the Colorado canon, but the only one who so far ever traveled its entire length from Green river station to the mouth of the canon. This exploit, scientists say was one of the most notable geographical, geological and ethnological explorations and surveys in the history of North America.

Major Powell had been director of the bureau of American ethnology since he founded it in 1879 and also was director of the geological survey for more than a decade, beginning in 1880.

Do Not Sleep on Your Left Side.

When a patient complains of a bad taste in his mouth every morning on waking up, says a physician, the first question I ask him is as to the position he assumes when going to sleep. An immense number of people sleep on the left side, and this is the most common cause of the unpleasant taste which is generally attributed to dyspepsia. If a meal has been taken within two or three hours of going to bed, to sleep on the left side is to give the stomach a task which it is difficult in the extreme to perform. The student of anatomy knows that all food enters and leaves the stomach on the right side, and hence sleeping on the left side soon after eating involves a sort of pumping operation which is anything but conducive to sound repose.

The action of the heart is also interfered with considerably, and the lungs are unduly compressed. It is probable that lying on the back is the most natural position, but few men can rest easily so, and hence it is best to cultivate the habit of sleeping on the right side. It is very largely a matter of habit, and the sooner it is acquired the better for the sleeper and the worse for the physician.

Take Care of the Stomach.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodol cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: Kodol has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians, Kodol saved my life. Take it after meals. Jno. L. Wooten.

Don't look a gift horse in the mouth while the donor is present.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For Sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville, N. C.

The birds that fly the strongest don't have the finest plumage.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The horse you get a "sure tip" on is sure, perhaps, but slow.

Boy Cured of colic After Physician's Treatment Had Failed.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. Wilkins, Shell Lake, Wis. Mr. Wilkins is book keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

To a woman the next handsomest people after herself are her children.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequalled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skindiseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. Jno. L. Wooten.

Love's dreams go by contraries.

Lingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season. Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long sledge like this will pull down the strongest constitution. One Minute Cough Cure will break up the attack at once. Safe sure acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it. John L. Wooten.

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment, but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and putrid matter and do it so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Cure biliousness, torpid liver and prevent fever. John L. Wooten.

When a married man falls down stairs he is sure to blame his wife for the mishap.

A Liberal Offer.

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach, and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

The Misses Erwin have on exhibition today and tomorrow selections from their new stock of fall and winter millinery. A peep into their busy store discloses a feast for the feminine eye, and a pattern to suit every taste. This exhibit affords an opportunity to become posted on the very latest creations in feminine head dress.

The Herald's report of the independent convention, as well as that sent to out of town papers, seems to have given much dissatisfaction in certain quarters. The reporter of this paper was sent to the convention to report what happened and not to give opinions one way or the other. This kind of newspaper work may be an innovation, but it is what we are standing for.—Durham Herald.

If Mr. Fish had not been drinking and I had been sober there would not have been any trouble, and Mr. Fish would have been alive and I out of the toombs." So spake Thomas Sharkey, private detective, pool room hanger-on and China town guide, the murderer of banker Fish, and that blunt sentence contains ample material for an effective sermon so sobriety. In thirty two words it tells the whole story of one of New York's saddest sensations.—Winston Sentinel.

Laundry Grows.

THE REFLECTOR is always glad to note the success of a home enterprise, especially so when it follows previous failures along the same line. As worthy of note, we call attention to recent extensive additions to the Greenville Steam Laundry, including a well of its own, new machinery, and a gasoline engine. Mr. Dayberry deserves the patronage that has resulted in these improvements.

The Meeting.

The rain Thursday night caused a smaller attendance at the service in the Baptist church, but it proved to be the most interesting of any up to this stage of the meeting. Rev. Mr. Edmundson preached on faith, showing that it is not by knowledge, by works nor by feeling, but by faith in Lord Jesus Christ that we are saved. There were three confessions after the sermon.

The service tonight will be preceded by the 7:30 o'clock prayer meetings at the same places as yesterday. These prayer meetings are helpful. The regular service will begin at 8 o'clock. Do not stay away because of the weather.

Sam Jones on Lynchburg.

A gentleman from Lynchburg joined the group standing around Sam Jones at the depot Thursday morning. The conversation had turned on Greenville's tobacco market. "How is the Lynchburg market getting along?" inquired Sam. The Virginian replied that Lynchburg was falling off a little. "Well," said Sam, with that far away look in his eyes that a Lynchburger acquires from standing on Main street to watch the clouds play around the court house, "Well, Lynchburg is in a good place to fall off." When the laugh had gone round he continued: "Lynchburg always reminded me of the experience a farmer had whose plantation was on the side of a mountain. One day, while out plowing, he fell out of the field."
