LADIES SLIPPERS REDUCED

Summer Kinds at Mid-summer Economies.

Prices one-third and one half off. A late shipment gave us too many slippers for the season. A discount of 33 1-12 per cent. was allowed for the delay. It will pay you to investigate. The sun has shown that he still exists, and there are many who need a new pair of slippers for these hot days.

Here is interesting story in detail:

WELCOME SERVICES

Participated in by Four Congregations Yesterday.

"Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity," was doubtless a thought that came from many hearts in the large congregation that filled the Baptist church Sunday night. The great audience was composed of the congregations of the Christian, Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist churches, all united in extending a welcome to Rev. A. T. King, the new pastor of the latter church, who has just entered upon his labors on this field. It was an inspiring scene, and the heartiness with which all joined in singing together "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts, in Christian love," indeed seemed a strong likeness to that fellowship above. Such unity on the part of the Christian people of the town will make a deep impress for good in the community. It was a meeting greatly enjoyed by those present and many were heard to say they had never attended a better meeting.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale had charge of the meeting and read the Scripture lesson and offered prayer.

Five brief addresses of welcome to the new pastor were made: On the part of the town, by Mayor H. W. Wheedbee; on the part of the Christian church and congregation, by Rev. W. E. Powell; on the part of the Presbyterian church and congregation, by Rev. G. F. Hartman; on the part of the Methodist church and congregation, by Rev. H. M. Eure; on the part of the Baptist church and Sunday school, by Mr. M. A. Allen.

Following these was a beautiful solo, "My Redeemer and my Lord," by Miss Janie Tyson.

Then Rev. A. T. King arose to respond to the addresses of welcome. His remarks and those of the several gentlemen who had delivered the addresses were most timely and appropriate. It does not seem that either of the speakers could have been more choice in his words than on this occasion, there being a cordiality in the welcome and warmth in the response that deeply impressed every hearer.

The music rendered by the choir at this service was especially good and much enjoyed by the congregation.

The Veterans Thankful.

In behalf of the Confederate veterans of Pitt county, I desire to express our very grateful appreciation for the interest shown by the public generally in the annual meeting of the Confederate veterans on July 3rd.

We especially desire to extend our thanks to the mayor of Greenville for the generous welcome extended by him on the part of the town of Greenville; to the Daughters of the Confederacy who added so much to our comfort; to the Tar Heel Band for music rendered; to J. L. Flemming our courtly master of ceremonies; to the central committee and a host of others for the many courtesies and kind favors extended to us.

It is, indeed, gratifying to the old veterans of Confederate fame to be thus honored and remembered forty years after the battles are ended. Although our ranks are growing thinner year by year, our interest in the cause for which we fought is undiminished.

H. HARDING.

Death of Former Greenville Lady.

Mrs. J. A. Wilson, mother of Mr. H. H. Wilson, died at the latter's home on McLewean street this morning after an illness of six months with consumption. She was 55 years of age and leaves three sons, Messrs. H. H. Wilson, of this place, with whom she has lived nearly all of her life since the death of her husband, Roland B. Wilson, of Greensboro, and Claud F. Wilson, of Morristown, N. J.

The two latter have been advised of her death and will probably arrive on tomorrow's train in time to witness the funeral, which will be at the cemetery here at 5 p. m.

Mrs. Wilson was a member of the Presbyterian church and her consistent walk and high Christian character has left its indelible imprint on her children, whose sterling worth and high sense of honor are well known to citizens of this place.—Kinston Free Press, 4th.

Mrs. Wilson lived several years in Greenville and had a large number of friends here who learn with regret of her death.

Notice—To You.

When you wish to transact business over the 'phone with the telegraph or express office, please do not call for THE REFLECTOR, but ask for the proper number, 74, and avoid annoyance all around. Time is money, and it is too hot to answer 'phone when there is nothing doing. Please bear in mind the following:

For telegraph, express or D. J. Whichard, call for 74.

For mechanical department of THE REFLECTOR, or Outlaw, call 56.

Now don't let it happen again.

Money in Carolina.

Mr. W. H. Williams, of Oakley, who was here at the reunion Friday said the farmers who raised potatoes this season were in possession of more money than they had been for many years. Truck growing intelligently pursued is profitable.

Run Away.

J. B. Higgs' horse was left standing at the depot this morning, and not liking the situation the animal ran away. The only harm done was slight damage to the buggy.

In the run down the street the horse collided with a cart occupied by the two cripple Campbell brothers, inmates of the county home, and threw them both out. One of them was slightly hurt.

A Bad Mixture.

The colored people here Saturday celebrating the 4th tried to do much scrapping as the day grew old and bad liquor got to making itself felt. Around the depot about train time it was very disorderly, pistols, knives and blood all being in evidence.

Rebuild of Brick.

Brinkley & Hooker, whose warehouse, the Farmers, was burned last week, are talking of rebuilding a brick house. We hope they will do so.

Rebuilding.

Work has started on Parham's warehouse, the Planters. They are building at one end before it quits smoking at the other end from the late fire. The house will be ready to sell tobacco when the season opens.

W. O. Barnhill returned Saturday evening from a trip to Courtland, Va.

New Negligee Shirts.

THEY are here. Take of that stiff starched Shirt--no wonder you are uncomfortable. Put on one of our Negligees and you'll feel like a different man--cool as a cucumber.

Soft as a government job, but not as hard to get, for they cost only 50c., 75c., 1.00, 1.25 and 1.50. Many new patterns, some are pure white, some are pleated. French Percalés, Cheviots, Madras, etc. If you have never worn a Negligee during hot weather, try one, and you will feel under lasting obligations to us for the suggestion. See display of 50c. Shirts in our window.

LIGHT SHINES THROUGH DARKNESS.

In the meeting in the Baptist church last night there is a lesson which might be learned to the exceeding great profit of every individual. There are men living who never thought to see the day when Baptists, Methodists, Disciples and Presbyterians would meet on common ground, in a spirit of enlightened tolerance and brotherly love, for the purpose of welcoming a stranger within the gates. Let us not say the world is growing worse, that humanity is degenerating and that selfishness and ignorance are supreme. Let us say rather that the grandest day in the history of the world and the religion of Jesus Christ is marching on—the day when the last trooper in the army of sin shall go down under the labors of combined Christian evangelism and the earth once more be made a place fit to touch the feet of Him who will come again.

The Raleigh Post wants to know "were there any other white folks—than English—doing business—within the present limits of the United States" prior to the advent of little Virgie," referring to the birth of Virginia Dare. Which proves that a little history is a dangerous thing. There certainly were other white folks doing business within the present limits of the United States prior to the advent of Virginia Dare, that is, if you would call Norsemen white folks. Vikings landed in what is now a part of the United States about 400 years before Columbus dreamed of sailing westward to Asia. Probably this incident had been forgotten by the Post.

The discovery of a new species of the genus lawyer down in South Carolina moves the Gaffney Ledger as follows:

"A lawyer in Gaffney, when approached in regard to taking a very nasty case replied: 'No, I can't take that case. There are some things that money cannot hire me to do and one is to mix up in a dirty law suit.' More men like that would add lustre to the profession."

The sending of a petition from the Jews of America to the czar of Russia protesting against the murder of Jews is a piece of folly. Everybody knows the czar will never see it and he would throw it in the wastebasket if he did see it.

This is the season when the despondent lover hies himself to the home of his indifferent Juliet, puts a bullet through her heart and then turns the weapon upon himself and shoots—great holes in the air.

History repeats the weaknesses of mankind. Here in enlightened America many of us would be shocked to learn that we are doing just as the Roman heathens did in bribing men for various purposes.

The mortality in Breathitt county will not cause much weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth in other parts of the country until the pension applications begin to roll in.

Delaware may send a few of her young people down here to be instructed in the art and science of lynching without "howling mob" and "burnt offering" accompaniments.

That Union county lynchees evidently had no difficulty in joining the get-dead-quick society.

The candidates for the governorship are taking time by the forelock, and no doubt each and every one of them wishes he could grab the nomination in the same way.

The Charlotte Chronicle hopes Judge Parker will have a good time in the South. He will. Anybody who can make a speech will have a good time in the South.

The postoffice department is up against a four million dollar deficit. It is not thought that more than three million five hundred thousand was stolen.

As any democrat who is nominated for governor will be elected, there will hardly be any talk about "accepting for the good of the party."

Judge Parker on the 14th amendment suggests that he could use a few Southern delegates in his business next year.

The Southern railway recently gave a mortgage for four million dollars. Does it anticipate an egg-throwing suit?

They call the people of Asheville "Ashevillians" and some of them occasionally endeavor to live up to the name.

Warden Hawk, of Atlanta, is probably one man who didn't want to get out of the penitentiary.

Isn't it about time for Thomas Independent Hill to announce his candidacy for the governorship?

Charlotte now has a Carnegie library, and no doubt the inhabitants will speedily learn to read.

The Hon. E. Spencer Blackburn has again announced himself for congress by given in by agent, his poll and personal property in Wilkesboro. Wonder if Greensboro won't be trying to tax him, too? In the meantime, Spencer ought to bring his folks "p" "home" and let our folks look at 'em, just once at least.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

There is something the matter with the jury system when any shrewd lawyer can pick out a jury that will save a criminal's neck.—Durham Herald.

We have never made up our mind whether the legislature really wanted an exhibit at St. Louis or simply adopted a smooth way of getting out of it.—Durham Herald.

A SURGICAL OPERATION

is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me eighteen months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since.—H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C. For Blind Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Salve by Wooten's Drug Store.

A Chicago man was killed in Indiana while beating his way on a freight train. They do take desperate chances to get out of Chicago.—Atlanta Journal.

JUST ABOUT BEDTIME

take a Little Early Riser—it will cure constipation, biliousness, and liver troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are different from other pills. They do not gripe and break down the mucous membranes of the stomach, liver and bowels, but cure by gently arousing the secretions and giving strength to these organs. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

The Chicago idea of an open air horse show seems a good one on the face of it. They will not have to look at the horses in the open air.—Atlanta Journal.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Everybody else in the world is expected to be responsible for his own business, but the farmer always puts his up to Providence.

THE FOUNDATION OF HEALTH.

Nourishment is the foundation of health—life—strength. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the one great medicine that enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest, assimilate and transform all foods into the kind of blood that nourishes the nerves and feeds the tissues. Kodol lays the foundation for health. Nature does the rest. Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and all disorders of the stomach and digestive organs are cured by the use of Kodol. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

A woman has such an imagination that she thinks she is happy when she is breaking her heart over some man who wouldn't be worth her little finger if he was as good as she believes he is.

CATARH OF THE STOMACH.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food taken into it that fails to digest; it decays and inflames the mucus membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucin, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach. For years I suffered with Catarrh of the Stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store.

How Blisters Are Raised.

A blister is the vesicle, or bladder, which is formed by an effusion of serum—the watery portion of the blood—underneath the scarf, or outer skin. Any such powerful irritant as boiling water may produce blisters, and we may regard their formation as an effort of nature to protect the true and acutely sensitive inner skin from attack.

The fact speaks for itself, but the reason for this injurious action of scalding water has a much deeper seat. Our blood vessels are supplied with nerves, and the stimulation of these causes in some cases dilatation and in others contraction. An excessive stimulus will cause paralysis of the muscular coat of the vessels and consequent stagnation of the blood in these parts, and then their nutrition is impaired.

It is owing to the condition thus induced by scalding water that the serum oozes through the vessel wall and makes its way into the surrounding tissue. This raises the upper and insensible skin into a blister, which probably takes its name from the Anglo-Saxon blestan, to blast or puff.

The Flight of Time.

One day "Uncle Chet" Thomas drove out to South Topeka to sell a man a horse. The man was no judge of horseflesh and knew it. So after looking the animal over he told "Uncle Chet" to come out again in about ten days. "A friend of mine who knows a horse when he sees it will be here then," he said, "and I'll see what he thinks. And, by the way," he added, "how old did you say the horse was?" "Seven years old comin' February," said "Uncle Chet" as he gathered up the reins and drove away. "Uncle Chet" drove out to South Topeka again. The prospective purchaser was there, and after looking the horse in the mouth asked his age. "Twelve years old this spring," replied "Uncle Chet," smiling blandly. "But," broke in the man who wanted to buy the horse, "you told me not ten days ago that he was only seven." "So I did," squeaked "Uncle Chet"—"so I did. My, how time does fly!"—Topeka Capital.

An Ancient Tragedy.

A historical paper in Lord Montagu's collection in London tells of a strange tragedy "done in Holborn, a little before Christmas," several centuries ago. "A boy seven years old came up into a gentleman's chamber and prattled to him and drew his sword and flourished with it. The gentleman, being in bed, wondered to see the boy toss his blade so and said: 'So, good boy, thou hast done well. Put in the sword.' The boy persisting, the gentleman rose and held him the scabbard, and the rude handed lad, thinking to sheath the sword, lustily chopt it into his belly. Company were called. One offered to strike the child. 'Let him alone,' quoth the gentleman. 'God is just. This boy's father did I kill five years since and none knew. Now he hath revenged it.' And the gentleman died the second dressing."

How Oysters Grow.

A man who has devoted much time to the study of the oyster says that this bivalve is born with his shell on and that he grows only in the summer time. The beard of an oyster is not only his breathing organ—that is, his lungs—but it also serves to convey food to his mouth. When the warm, calm days of June come the oyster opens his shell and by means of his beard begins building an additional story to his house. This he does by depositing very, very fine particles of carbonate of lime till at last they form a substance as thin as silver paper and exceedingly fragile. Then he adds more and more till at last the new shell is as hard as the old shell.

Secret For Secret.

In the days of Louis XIV. even warriors banded epigrams with one another. The Marechal de Grammont had taken a fortress by siege. "I will tell you a secret," said its military governor after surrendering. "The reason of my capitulation was that I had no more powder." "And, secret for secret," returned the marechal suavely, "the reason of my accepting it on such easy terms was that I had no more balls."

Wanted Something Effective.

Under a "sketchy little thing" exhibited by Jones there hangs a printed card which bears the words: "Do not touch with canes or umbrellas."

An appreciative small boy added the following postscript: "Take A. A.—London Tit-Bits."

Rheumacide

Thoroughly eradicates the excess of Uric and Lactic Acids from the system, starts the kidneys into healthy action, cures constipation and indigestion.

THIS DONE, YOU ARE WELL OF

RHEUMATISM,

AND ANY OTHER DISEASE CAUSED BY IMPURE BLOOD.

Do not be discouraged if other remedies have failed. RHEUMACIDE has made its reputation by curing alleged incurable cases. Does not injure the organs of digestion.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Aug. 25, 1902.

Gentlemen—Some six years ago I began to have sciatica, and also a chronic case of muscular rheumatism. At times I could not work at all (my business being baggage master on Southern R.R.). For days and weeks at a time I could not work. My suffering was intense. Physicians treated me, without permanent relief, however. Tried a number of advertised remedies without permanent benefit. Finally I tried "RHEUMACIDE." It did the work, and I have had excellent health for three years. I can cheerfully say that all rheumatics should use "RHEUMACIDE," for it is by far the best remedy.

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

Grimesland, N. C., July 3, 1903.
It is with deep regret that we hear of the great fire in Greenville. We know how to sympathize with the unfortunate, having suffered along that line ourselves.

We saw Prof. Ragsdale Thursday and talked with him about school matters.

He especially desires to see a good school building and a good school in this community, and if our people want a good school now is their opportunity to establish it. Prof. Ragsdale will come down to see us if invited, and lay his plan before us, and a good one it is, and if we adopt it, a good school is assured. Let us have it.

Our town was startled Wednesday afternoon by a shrieking whistle from the engine at J. O. Proctor & Bro's mill. They will soon be ready for business.

Berry Simpson, of Baltimore, was with us a few days this week. W. E. Proctor, Amos Clark and Levi Holiday went to Richmond on the excursion Wednesday, and returned today. They report good time.

We have been riding out and looking at the crops. There are very good crops all over Chioed township. Our farmers have begun curing tobacco, and next week nearly all furnaces will be in full blast.

D. G. Moore is sporting a new buggy and fast horse. Our city fathers will have to order a street sprinkler to keep down the dust he raises these dry, hot days.

Mrs. C. E. Boyd and children are visiting friends near Vanceboro this week.

Mrs. Henry Hardee and children, of Norfolk Va., are visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Proctor.

Dr. C. M. Jones went to Greenville on business Thursday. W. P. Arnold, Calvin Mills, Jesse Mills and Gus Mills are here today. They are all veterans of the civil war, and we are always glad to see them, but they ought to be in Greenville today at the reunion to help fill the ranks which year by year are growing so thin.

FARMVILLE ITEMS.

FARMVILLE, N. C., July 6, 1903.

In our first communication we wrote that we would speak of the educational interests of the town of Farmville. In the early history of the town, with their exception of the small advantages offered by the free school system, and in that day very inefficient, and almost worthless, no rapid progress was made in the higher grades of learning. In the year 1859 or thereabouts a large and conveniently arranged house now known as the Horton hotel, was built by a joint stock company, and was successfully operated as a school for the neighborhood for several years. After the decline of this school, no special efforts were put forward to conduct a private school until a few years ago, when the large and substantial building known as the Academy was erected, and was most ably conducted by the Principal Prof. John T. Thorne, afterwards by Prof. John T. Stokes.

Since the great educational revival has been begun in our beloved state, our people have awakened to the great need of having a graded school established in Farmville.

On Tuesday the last day of June, Mr. W. H. Ragsdale, your most efficient county superintendent of public instruction delivered one of the most impressive speeches on education I have ever heard. The address was inspiring and created more enthusiasm than has ever been experienced before on the subject of education in this town.

On Wednesday, July 1st, a mass meeting was held and the unanimous voice of the large audience called loudly for a graded school. The names of five of our most influential men in the district laid off were recommended to the board of education as trustees of the graded school we hope to have established here.

At this mass meeting every subject coming up for consideration was carefully discussed and afterwards unanimously adopted. It will be an easy thing to secure a sufficient number of names on petition asking for an election. We think that a large majority of the voters will most gladly vote to have a school tax assessed for the benefit of the children and young men and women who need the advantages that a graded school will afford them.

We look forward with a great of pleasure to the opening of the graded school here this fall, feeling assured that if we do our duty, our county authorities will do theirs.

Valuable Time Saved.

Slight injuries often disable a man and cause several days' loss of time and when blood poison develops, sometimes result in the loss of a hand or limb. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment. When applied to cuts, bruises and burns it causes them to heal quickly and without maturation, and prevents any danger of blood poison. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, Farmville Pharmacy, Farmville.

Who is He?

Who is it that makes the Few gallons, wears longer paint?

The calamity, the second or third of like character, that has befallen the good town of Greenville is truly deplorable. But a people of such pluck and energy and with so much to justify them, will not be discouraged by even so great a disaster. The town will rise Phoenix-like, even unto greater proportions.—Raleigh Post.
