GRADED SCHOOL.

List of Teachers Completed.

The board of trustees of the graded school held a meeting Friday afternoon to complete the list of teachers. Miss Doyle, of Tennessee, did not accept the position to which she was chosen at the previous meeting of the trustees and Miss Lila Chisman, of Hampton, Va., was elected in her stead. Mrs. A. L. Blow was elected to fill the place remaining vacant. This completes the list of teachers for white school.

For the colored school C. M. Epps, of Plymouth, was elected superintendent; Sudie Fleming was elected one of the teachers. Two other teachers, Annie L. Ends and Annie L. Blackwell, were elected subject to examination.

The board also made the following rates of tuition for children living outside the graded school district who wish to attend: For 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades $1 per month. For 4th, 5th and 6th grades $1.50 per month. For 7th, 8th and 9th grades $2 per month.

Washington's Fine Hotel.

Our sister city, Washington, has in the Hotel Louise a hostelry that any city in the South might well be proud of. Mr. A. A. Springs, the proprietor, is a genial, courteous gentleman of the old school, and the hospitality so abundant beneath his roof is a joy and solace to the wayworn traveler. The Louise is a strictly modern hotel, situated on Main street in the heart of the city. The service in the dining room is without fault, and Washington and the traveling public are appreciative of the advantages and comforts of Mr. Springs' house.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Meetings Resumed for the School Term.

The Pitt County Teachers' Association that suspended its meetings during the vacation of the schools, today resumed its regular monthly meetings. All are glad to welcome the teachers back among us, and they seem glad to be once more greeting each other and mingling together. The work of the association last winter and spring was of interest and benefit to all who attended, and we feel sure it will continue doing much good for the schools, the advancement of education and better equipping the teachers for their duties.

The attendance at today's session was quite large. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. A. T. King, and after reading the minutes and revising the roll of members the association was briefly addressed by Senator A. L. Blow.

The question of establishing a teachers' library was discussed, Prof. Ragsdale making a report from the committee recommending the library. Prof. Dove, in behalf of the trustees of Greenville graded school, extended an invitation to the association to hold its sessions in the graded school building, and also to locate the library there.

Committees were appointed to take the library in charge and to collect funds to procure books.

A committee on nomination of officers of the association was appointed to report at October meeting.

A committee was also appointed to plan a course of work for the association, and there was discussion upon the question of meeting twice a month for a while to better pursue the course of study mapped out. This discussion was engaged in by Profs. Lineberry, Ragsdale, Dove and Everett and Rev. A. T. King.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 12, 1903.

The South today has more money than the entire country had at the opening of the civil war. We raise 75 per cent. of all the cotton and 75 per cent. of all the tobacco of the world, and half of the standing timber in the United States is in the South.

Did you ever notice how quickly a dentist becomes interested in a man who has bad teeth; how a lawyer gets next to the man who wants litigation, how tenderly a doctor looks upon the man who coughs?

Of course we have got to execute justice and vindicate the law, but Pitt county tax payers would no doubt prefer that the Philadelphia authorities keep that negro murderer,

Raleigh is attempting to force its employees to pay their debts. The man who has to be forced to pay an honest debt will get around the law in some way.

Wilmington evidently does not think highly of the Hamlet incident. Two negro sports were hurried out of the Bonitz hotel the other day with neatness and dispatch.

A woman recently died in Asheville from a broken heart. She was accused of stealing jewels. It seems that man's inhumanity to man is also extended to woman.

There are nine hundred and ninety six thousand five hundred and forty pensioners on the federal roll. The balance of the population may get on yet

Let the man who would reform the world begin on himself. He would probably get no further, and wouldn't need to.

The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year—for the man who did not save a bucket of coal from last winter.

In the latest Raleigh "incident" the newspapers made good to such an extent that no one succeeded in proving them liars.

A minister in a Western state died recently while kneeling in prayer. Never was there a better time to die.

Negro education and negro crime have gone together. Why this is so we do not know, but it is a fact.

In spite of diligent efforts the gubernatorial political pot refuses to boil so that you would notice it.

Mr. Bryan may be unjustly criticized, as a contemporary asserts, but he alone makes his crown of thorns.

The money question may be settled, but did you ever hear so much talk about a "settled" thing?

The man who kills his wife or sweetheart and commits suicide is still prevalent.

Bob Fitzsimmons has been propped up on crutches and announces that he will fight again.

The negro gets more justice in our courts than white people. We do hang a negro once in a while.

Fewer acres and a larger yield per acre is good advice to tobacco planters.

Kaiser William has had a battle with himself. Of course Bill won.

An Epitaph.

The following epitaph is on a tombstone in a cemetery within seven miles of our city hall:

"Reader, pass on; don't waste your time
O'er bad biography and bitter rhyme;
For what I am this crumbling clay insures,
And what I was is no affair of yours."
—New York Press.

Long, long he strived to gain the height
And thereby win her heart,
Then learned, poor victim that he might
Have had her at the start.
—Chicago Record-Herald.

STATE PRESS.

The negroes are going to remain in the south and the thing to do is for both races to make up their minds to get along as best they can together. And but for the outside interference this would be easy.—Durham Herald.

If the state looks upon the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad as political plunder it would be best to sell it outright, but this and the penitentiary should be considered and conducted as business institutions.—Durham Herald.

A New Jersey woman dreamed the other night that her money had been stolen. Next day she was robbed by a sneak thief. There is a mysterious connection between dreams and events when money is involved. If you don't believe it just dream that you are not a millionaire.—Durham Sun.

The Turkish authorities at Beirut and Constantinople were quick to send out the report that the Christians began the brawl of last Sunday in Beirut. Later reports contradict this statement, and say that the Mussulmans began the fight. The Turk is a liar on general principles, and a quick liar, too.—Charlotte Chronicle.

But this truth from long experience I assert, that he who has the most friends and the fewest enemies, is the strongest; will rise the highest with the least envy; and will fall, if he does fall, the gentlest and the most pitied. There is no one creature so poor, so low, or so obscure, who may not, by the strange and unaccountable changes and vicissitudes of human affairs, some way or other, become a useful friend or a troublesome enemy to the greatest and the richest.—From Lord Chesterfield's Letters to His Son.

FEARFUL ODDS AGAINST HIM.

Bedridden, alone and destitute: Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by the name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. for years he was troubled with Kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies. "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. ## THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

MARVELOUS CURE BY DR. MOORE.

NORTH CAROLINA } Pitt County }
To all whom it may concern: I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely affected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared. J. W. PEARCE.

Sworn to before me, Aug. 19th 1903. H. HARDING, J. P.

The above parties are all white people of good family and well known. I also have other affidavits in my possession showing wonderful cures under my treatment. I cure all troubles that flesh is heir to. I have made the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame walk, as people living here in Greenville and in the county will testify. My medicine and treatment are no humbug, but I guarantee a cure in all cases or take no pay. Don't continue to suffer, but try me and be convinced. WM. H. MOORE, M. D. Greenville, N. C. P. O. x 180.

Women's Headaches

542 1-2 Congress Street.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

PACTOLUS ITEMS.

PACTOLUS, N. C., Sept. 11, 1903

Cotton picking and fox grapes.

J. J. Saiterthwaite, R. R. and J. P. Fleming left last Friday for Baltimore and New York.

Mrs. H. G. Huntly and sister, Miss Gertrude Nivens, returned to Marvins Monday.

Little more tobacco is passing through for the Greenville market this week than was last. Prices must be getting better.

The fall must be near. Jackets are being pressed into service.

J. J. Saiterthwaite returned from Baltimore Wednesday evening.

Town has been full of picture agents this week. Wonder how many gave orders to have themselves made better looking.

L. T. Ross has a hog not educated to reading novels but to walking cotton guards. He is often seen making personal inspections of certain potato patches. The matter was placed before the section master and he at once had what he thought was the remedy made. The theory is now Mr. Hog is using tomwalkers to prevent annoyance of blood hounds.

The farmers are busy now rounding up fodder and picking cotton. Tobacco is so low we do not hear much of that, only kicking themselves for planting this year. Now don't do this same kicking next year over planting all cotton.

Mr. John T. Britt, editor of the Oxford Public Ledger and Clerk of the Court of Granville county, is in the city: Asked about the sales of tobacco on the Oxford market, Mr. Britt said:

"Sales are very light. Prices are extremely low. The farmers are very much disheartened and those who can do so will hold their tobacco in the hope of better prices. The low price of tobacco has a disastrous effect upon business. In Oxford last year this time we had sales every day, while this year it is a hard matter to have two a week and the offerings are very light. Those who are judges say that the crop as a whole is exceedingly good in the country, especially as to fine wrappers. It is an average good crop as to size. When sales first opened there was no buyer except the buyer for the American Tobacco Company. Now there are seven or eight buyers, mostly buying on speculation. The tobacco men say there is a better feeling at Oxford as to prices. Tobacco is selling a little better than at first, due to the competition by private speculators, who believe prices will be better next year and they are prepared to hold it.—News and Observer.

Crushed Under a Log.

Friday afternoon while at work around the saw mill of Mr. O. L. Joyner, three miles from town, Mr. Jones Dunn met a terrible accident by a heavy log rolling over on him. One leg and thigh were crushed beneath the immense weight, and Mr. Dunn was also injured internally. His injuries may prove fatal.

Miss Hennie Whichard, the editor's oldest daughter, who has been sick for the past nine weeks, now seems to be on the road to recovery. Her condition has so improved that she has been sitting up a little the last day or two.
