AFTER U. S. PRINTERY

President Would Have Jurisdiction Transferred to Bureau of Commerce and Labor.

Washington, D. C. Sept. 16.—President Roosevelt, it is learned here, has determined to ask congress to authorize the transfer of the government printing office to the jurisdiction and control of the department of commerce and labor. A quiet investigation into the management of the big printing establishment has been going on for several months under the direction of Secretary Coghelyou, and enough has been secured to convince the president that the most radical reforms should be inaugurated as soon as possible.

A Young Negress Murdered.

Wilson, N. C. Sept. 16.—The body of Lucy Ann Joyner, a colored woman 19 years old, was found about ten feet from the public road leading from this place to Stantonburg, and about a mile from here. She was last seen alive Saturday evening and it is evident that she was murdered that night. Though her body is badly decomposed and almost unrecognizable, there are wounds about the neck and breast showing they were made with a knife.

A man doesn't have to be bad to be interesting to women, it is sufficient for them to think he is.

Norfolk's Boy Borgia.

Norfolk, Va. Sept. 16.—John Dey, the 13-year-old boy charged with mixing poison which killed his step mother, was given a preliminary hearing in the police court today and was held for the grand jury.

Another A. & N. C. Proposition.

Raleigh, N. C., 17.—A second proposition to lease the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad from the state is now in the hands of Governor Aycock and will come up for disposition at the annual meeting of the directors of the road September 24th. The proposition was presented to the governor yesterday morning by Mr. W. W. Mills, of this city, the parties to the proposition being the same as those to the first, which was declined at a recent special meeting of the directors and council of state.

"Sit" and "Set."

Let us once and for all settle the "sit" and "set" question. Contrary to tradition, the hen does not "set." The hen "sits." But if you have a hen that has laid a dozen eggs and wants to hatch a brood of chickens, you may "set" her. There are no fewer than 81 different meanings of the word "set," while of "sit" there are but 21. The prophet Jeremiah says, "The partridge sitteth on eggs." To sit as applied to men and animals is to "crouch," hence the hen crouches on her nest, or sits on it. Change the school books, which are full of such solecism as "The hen sets, does the hen set? The hen does set."—New York Press.

A woman means what she says till she says it.

Some people could be happy only in jail if the law said they must not go there.

PENNYPACKER SNUBS AYCOCK

Pennsylvania's Press-Muzzling Governor Refuses to Honor the Requisition for Essex Station.

Deputy Sheriff L. W. Tucker, who left a few days ago for Philadelphia to bring back the negro, Essex Staton, who is wanted in this county for murder, will return tonight but without the prisoner. He wired that the governor of Pennsylvania refused to honor the requisition from the governor of North Carolina. No further information was given, so it is not known, yet why the governor of Pennsylvania pursued this course.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., Sept. 16, 1903.

Tom Mayo, one of our best citizens and a prosperous farmer, passed away yesterday.

Dr. R. J. Grimes was called to Robersonville last Sunday to see the sick child of Mrs. Lizzie Griffin.

The millinery department of M. O. Blount opened today under the direction of Miss Jennie Hudgins.

Misses Susie Keel, Rosa White and Allie G. Little have been visiting in and near Bethel this week.

Misses Nellie Manning and sisters and, Miss Maggie Davenport were in town today to witness the opening of the big millinery department at Blount's.

There is much improvement being made in the postoffice front by the carpenters and painters.

Dr. Thigpen and Rev. Mr. Barker have handsomely furnished their office in the postoffice building.

A. Ward's dwelling is nearing completion.

All the departments of the Bethel Graded School continue to swell their numbers.

Dr. Thigpen has consented to give a course of lectures to the classes in physiology at the Bethel Graded School.

Dr. Mayo, from Indiana, was in town visiting his parents near here last week.

The protracted meeting at the Methodist church is now in progress. Dr. Nash is expected to be here and to help in the meeting.

Sir Thomas Has Appendicitis.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 16.—Sir Thomas Lipton is suffering much pain today from the sickness which attacked him on his arrival in Chicago yesterday. Another conference of doctors was called today. It was definitely declared that he is suffering from catarrhal appendicitis, and his condition is reported as serious.

Some people swell with importance so naturally that it is hard to believe they won't burst through the coffin when they are dead.

LETTER TO J. A. BRADY.

Greenville N. C.

Dear Sir: Lead-and-oil is not good paint; don't wear; the rule is, as everyone knows, repaint in three years.

Devoe lasts six, in the same way—allow wide margin in all such statements. What does it mean, to last? It means the same with both.

As to covering: that's another. Here's an instance.

Mr. J. J. Hall, Sheffield, Pa., painted two houses, lead-and-oil; took 40 gallons.

Last summer bought 40 gallons Devoe for the same two houses; returned 10 gallons.

The paint that covers, lasts; it's all paint, true paint, and full measure. Lead-and-oil is all paint but not good paint; the lead wants zinc. Better paint Devoe.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.

P. S.—H. L. Carr sells our paint.

Gus Bullock's Troupe.

The Bullocks are in town and will appear at the opera house tonight. These musical entertainers are so well known in every town and city in the state it is needless for us to eulogize their performance. They are distinctly above the average vaudeville artists, and can always be depended upon to present a clean, refined show. Price of admission—Children, 25c; general admission, 35c; reserved seats, 50c. It is tonight.

Died.

Mr. T. L. Mayo, of Edgecombe county, died Monday night of paralysis. He was about 60 years old and was father of Mrs. D. E. House of Greenville. Mrs. House was with him at the time of his death. Her friends at home sympathize with her in her sorrow.

Store at Kinston.

Mr. C. T. Munford, the big store man of Greenville, has opened a branch store at Kinston. He is out for business and will get his share of it. He believes in the liberal use of printer's ink and will set the Kinston merchants a pace in that particular. There are few business men who equal Mr. Munford in enterprise.

The grand jury of Edgecombe county has returned a true verdict against Dr. Julian M. Baker for the killing of Dr. H. T. Bass, of Tarboro, last March.

Evangelist R. G. Person will soon leave Asheville and make his home at Lebanon, Tenn.

A Wilkes county man was fooling with a Winchester rifle when the weapon accidentally discharged. The bullet went through the wall of his store, through the wall of a school house, where it went through the arm of a girl and struck a boy in the breast. The boy was killed.

A large lumber mill and dry kilns, at Mount Olive were destroyed by fire Tuesday.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 17, 1903.

The Greenville REFLECTOR rises to inquire:

"We would like to know just what North Carolina is to exhibit at the St. Louis exposition?"

Just get the census of the world's products, my son, and glance over it carefully, and then over the products of your native state, and you will find that your own state whose exhibiting abilities you seem to doubt can duplicate every item in the census, and is the only spot of earth so far discovered that can do it.

Do you not think this fact, easily demonstrated, is of itself sufficient to "exhibit at the St. Louis exposition" or anywhere else?—Raleigh Post.

We had no doubts on the subject—that is, we do not doubt that North Carolina has a plenty to exhibit. But we want to know if any good North Carolina money is to be spent for such jim-crack stuff as one usually sees at an exhibition. A few years ago one state went to a great deal of expense to exhibit a perpetual motion machine invented by one of its citizens. The machine would not work but "aint our inventor a genius?" they exclaimed. We don't want any of that $20,000 to go for such stuff, and somebody will hear from it if it does.

Raleigh is stirred to its depths by the question of taxation. Judge Peebles has issued an order against the board of county commissioners of Wake county to show cause why they should not be restrained from collecting taxes under the present assessment. This was bound to come. Whoever has looked into the matter must have seen that the problem of taxation will surely enter the next state campaign, and no one knows to what lengths it may be carried. Assessments and valuations were raised too suddenly to suit the public temper.

Having accomplished everything else detestable, President Roosevelt has now made a record for himself as the prize snob of the universe. He recently refused to accept an invitation to dine with the Seawanahaka yacht club unless Sir Thomas Lipton was excluded. His excuse was that he had met Sir Thomas often enough. Shades of our fathers, what a snob.

The time draws near for the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad election. If we make a mistake in this matter we'll have plenty of time to regret it. More than any one thing the business of Greenville needs this road. We'll never manufacture goods and sell them to other people as long as the town is in the grasp of a railroad monopoly.

North Carolina generally escapes serious labor troubles, storms, floods, forest fires, tornadoes etc. Just why do not know, but it is a mighty pleasant thing to live in such a country.

Senator Beveridge, who tries to use railroad passes as meal tickets, says the coming financial legislation will be soothing. No doubt. The millionaires are able to buy all the soothing syrup they need.

Senator Beveridge was highly successful in his effort to get a free meal on a railroad pass, but he will hear something drop when he tries to ride on a meal ticket.

After his experience with Rooseveltian royalty no doubt Sir Thomas Lipton will be glad to get back to democratic England.

Education will not solve the race problem. The South knew that 60 years ago and now the North knows it.

Public office is a private crust, and a few other things.

A Prayer.

I ask not
When shall the day be done, and rest come on;
I pray not
That soon from me the 'curse of toil'
be done;
I seek not
A sluggard's couch with drowsy curtain drawn.
But give me
Time to fight the battle out as best
I may;
And give me
Strength and place to labor still at evening's gray;
Then let me
Sleep as one who toiled afield through all the day.
—From "Ashes and Incense."

There is a curious state of affairs at Wilson. Early in the summer that town, after a hot fight, voted to abolish saloons and establish a dispensary, but under the law the change does not go into effect until January 1. Now the anti dispensary folks are asking for another election they think on a second trial they can defeat the dispensary. It is not thought the election will be ordered but if it is it will be rather remarkable that the anti-dispensary forces can get a second trial before the law goes into effect.—Statesville Landmark.

Bro. Caho, of the Bayboro, Pamlico, Sentinel, announces that contracts for the cross ties and other supplies for the Pamlico county railroad have been let and that work would proceed soon to a finish. As the taxable values of the county have been increased over $300,000 it shows that the railroad is going to an inviting and a progressive field.—Raleigh Post.

Also the Philippine Slave Trade.

The United States Government has assumed the task of trying to destroy the Japanese slave trade in the Hawaiian Islands. There is still reason to hope, therefore, that some day when Uncle Sam is at peace with his friends and has nothing else to do he may seek to blot out the Chinese slave trade in San Francisco.—San Francisco Call.

WHAT IS LIFE?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 35c at Wooten's Drug Store.

FEARFUL ODDS AGAINST HIM.

Bedridden, alone and destitute: Such, in brief was the condition of an old soldier by the name of J. J. In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

The man who gambles picks his own pocket.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Wise is the man who doesn't write a truthful story of his life.

THE PLEASURE OF EATING.

Persons suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia or other stomach trouble will find that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. This remedy is a never failing cure for Indigestion and Dyspepsia and all complaints affecting the glands or membranes of the stomach or digestive tract. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure everything you eat tastes good, and every bit of the nutriment that your food contains is assimilated and appropriated by the blood and tissues. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A man's knowledge is to little or no purpose unless he utilizes it.

A PURGATIVE PLEASURE.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex. says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache etc." Sold by John L. Wooten.

While a blacksmith may have many virtues, he must have at least one vice.

DISTRESS AFTER EATING CURED.

Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating, great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by John L. Wooten.

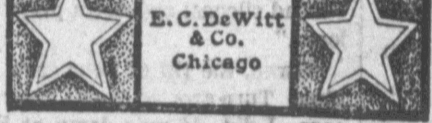

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol Digests What You Eat

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y. writes: After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammelled action.

MARVELOUS CURE BY DR. MOORE.

NORTH CAROLINA } Pitt County } To all whom it may concern: I hereby testify that my wife, Fanny L. Pearce, and my son, John W. Pearce, and Leona Pearce, wife of my son, J. W. Pearce, on or about the first of last March were strangely affected with a malady resembling fits, and when the attacks were on them they would scream and their paroxysms were so violent that they had to be held by main force. I applied to and had the services of five physicians without realizing any benefit whatever. I finally sought the ministrations of Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, and under his treatment my son passed three snakes, two of them were alive and one was dead. My wife passed several bugs with long snouts to them. It gives me pleasure to announce that they are all getting well and the fits have disappeared. J. W. PEARCE. Sworn to before me, Aug. 19th 1903. H. HARDING, J. P.

The above parties are all white people of good family and well known. I also have other affidavits in my possession showing wonderful cures under my treatment. I cure all troubles that flesh is heir to. I have made the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame walk, as people living here in Greenville and in the county will testify. My medicine and treatment are no humbug, but I guarantee a cure in all cases or take no pay. Don't continue to suffer, but try me and be convinced. W. M. H. MOORE, M. D. Greenville, N. C. P. NOTICE OF ELECTION IN THE TOWN OF GREENVILLE.

By an order of the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Greenville adopted on Thursday the 6th day of August, 1903, notice is hereby given that there will be an election held in the Town of Greenville, Pitt County, N. BEARING DOWN PAINS

3647 Indiana Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 27, 1902.

I have been a sufferer with almost every kind of female trouble for years, but as long as I could get around and do my work I would not try patent medicines as I had no faith in them.

About eight months ago I had to take to my bed, suffering with prolapsus of the uterus, with bearing down pains and intense pains in the back. My aunt, who came to nurse me told me of Wine of Cardui and sent for a bottle. I am indeed glad that she did, for that first bottle started me on the road to recovery.

In a few weeks I was out of bed and in three months I was in better health and stronger than I had been in years. I take a dose now, occasionally, of Wine of Cardui and am kept in perfect health.

Mabel Cook
Sec'y, Woodman's Circle No. 70.

Wine of Cardui brings certain relief to women suffering any symptom of female weakness and perfectly regulates the menstrual flow. Wine of Cardui stops bearing down pains by permanently relieving the irritation which weakens the ligaments holding the womb in place. You need not suffer every month if you take this medicine. The periodical discharge will be painless and healthy without continual weakening drains. Wine of Cardui will make your health right and you may treat yourself privately in your own home. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today.

ENTR' ACTE

[Copyright, 1903, by T. C. McClure.]

"Of course you knew all along." He was tearing the edges of the programme into scallops and did not look at her.

"I did not, you silly boy. How could I? You never said a word."

"But I looked."

"Lots look."

"Harvey?"

"He looks lovely."

"How do I look?"

"Bertie! You big, silly, silly kid child!"

"Don't laugh at me, then. It isn't a joke."

She leaned over the plush rail of the box and let a rose leaf flutter, light as a baby butterfly, down to the tier below.

"You girls must have loads of proposals."

"Why?"

"Oh, you all take it so easy. You just laugh at a fellow and look pleasant and all that."

"Have you asked so many, Bertie?"

"Ten. Scored, didn't you? Honest, though, I haven't, Gwen; just you, dear."

"There was that Ferris girl."

"Who? Madge—little Madge Ferris? I wasn't in love with her. We just chummed. You know, Gwen. She was a great chum."

"Did you ever kiss her, Bertie?"

"Not since she was old enough to fight. That isn't anything. I've kissed you, Gwen."

Dead silence; orchestra plays "La Paloma."

"Gwen, the tip of your ear's awfully pink. Turn around, won't you? I don't care. I did. It was down at Faraway Beach, that summer. Member, Gwen? You were an awfully funny little gawky kid those days. Fuzzy hair and big eyes."

"You used to call me a walleyed friz-zle-top," she said over her shoulder, and her eyes were full of dream light and her voice was low. "It was ages ago."

"And I chased you that day. You could run as fast as our boys. Way up the beach, past the cottages and the hill road, up to where the rocks began."

"There was a cave with shells in the sand, and seaweed tangled in the rocks"—She bent nearer with parted lips of expectancy.

"The Green Dragon's cave, you called it, member. And I caught you there and kissed you hard, didn't I, Gwen? And you said it wasn't fair, 'cause you turned into a mermaid as soon as you reached the cave."

"And you said you were a wave, then, and could follow. Wasn't it fun?"

"Great fun. Gwen, Gwen, darling, I wish I had you there this minute."

"I slapped you."

"And then I held your hands and kissed you again. I was good those days. Returned a kiss for a blow. And you didn't slap that time. You laughed and kissed back."

"It was ages ago."

She bent over the rail again away from him. His eyes were so full of something—something—it unnerved her, and the others were watching. She could almost feel Harvey's gaze.

"But, dear, I've been loving you all the time. I'm not a kid, Gwen. Listen to me. Turn your head again. You're afraid."

"Of what?"

"Your eyes. They tell."

After a pause:

"Dare you to, Gwen?"

She turned her head slowly and looked at him.

"You silly boy!"

"Sweetheart!"

"I'm not, Bertie, don't! Mamma's watching!"

"And Harvey? Is he so very rich, Gwen? Say, Gwen, don't he look like a frog in his evening suit? Gwen, look at that old fossil and then at me. Love me, Gwen?"

"The curtain will go up in a minute. Hush!"

"Gwen!"

"Hush—dear!"

"You darling! Say it again!"

"Dear, dear, dear! Now will you behave?"

"If I could tell him for sure, Gwen—dad, I mean—that I had you for sure you know, dear, he'd stand by us; I know he would. He isn't like the women. All they think of is landing a fellow like Harvey and his cash. Dad knows I love you. He'd give me a start, dear heart. It would be fun starting together, wouldn't it, Gwen? You're young, and I'm young. I would do anything in life with you to say 'Go ahead.' Gwen—"

"The curtain is rising."

"Never mind. The rest will look at the stage. Just give me your hand if you're afraid, sweetheart—just your hand for answer. When I bend forward put your hand down, and they won't see. Please, Gwen. Then I'll be good, dear. Just to be sure. Your eyes told anyway. Oh, you darling!"

Curtain rises. Her fan falls.

Culture and Politeness in Caracas.

Caracas has a public library which contains not less than 30,000 volumes. The better class of citizens are not only educated as we understand the word, but accomplished to a degree not common in North America. Both sexes are able to speak three or four languages besides their own and are well up in art and music. As for politeness, there are no such people under the sun. Whenever a Venezuelan, male or female, writes a letter, whether to a dear friend or stranger, he or she invariably concludes it with the words, Beso sus manos, "I kiss your hands," and whenever a Venezuelan gentleman meets a lady, whether it be his sweetheart or his grandmother, he hastens to assure her that he is "lying at her feet."
