NEWS NOTES FROM WINTERVILLE.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 23. B. F. Manning, L. L. Kittrell, J. D. Cox and the editor went to the city Monday, R. G. Chapman, L. F. Elliott yesterday, and a host of others left for that point this morning.

Little Miss Annie Lee Britt is visiting in the country.

Mrs. Bettie Britt spent Sunday out of town.

Times are excruciatingly dull, news items far between and a poor little devil of a country cross roads editor for a big town paper stands just between his satanic majesty and the rolling deep. To get there is something we can not conceive of but as patience is a mighty prompter and perseverance a never failing maxim, perhaps we'll fill the space allotted to our special care after a while.

We return thanks for the following invitation:

Mr. and Mrs. L. Kittrell request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter, Effie Elizabeth, to Mr. Guy B. Taylor, On Wednesday afternoon, October the fourteenth, nineteen hundred and three, at two o'clock at home, Winterville, N. C.

Invitations will be sent out in town.

Miss Pearl Williams, of Pactolus has been visiting Miss Mittie Manning.

J. A. Nichols, of Robersonville, was visiting relatives here yesterday.

Court in session at Greenville as usual draws a large crowd of our citizens.

Rev. Mr. Eure, of the Methodist church, filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Carlos Harris, of Greenville, came down Sunday and he and Charlie Fair went off somewhere a courting. They didn't get back until late. Then Fair said it was not as fair as it might have been in days gone by.

J. B. White and Peach Hilliard, of Greenville, were here a short while Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Johnson and little Miss Dorothy went to Greenville yesterday.

Mrs. A. D. Johnston spent Monday in Greenville.

A. G. and Mrs. Cox spent part of Saturday and Sunday visiting near Haurahan.

Thursday evening, as was his custom, Mr. Rufus Tripp drove down in the woods near his home to superintend the getting out of shingles. Tying his horse near by he went off some distance among the hands. The horse became entangled in the harness and in its efforts to get loose broke its neck. This is the second valuable horse Mr. Tripp has lost in the last six months.

A. M. Moseley, of Ayden, was here yesterday.

Mrs. Bettie Britt & Co. will have their millinery opening Friday, 25th.

J. W. Sparks has gone to Chester, S. C., to accept a position.

Rev. W. E. Cox spent part of Friday here.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry, by special invitation delivered, an address in the M. E. church at Ayden last Sunday.

Guy Taylor and Miss Taylor, of Braingers, were visiting friends here Sunday.

Mrs. F. C. Nye received a telegram Saturday announcing the death of her father at Chapel Hill. All our people, among whom Mrs. Nye is extremely popular, deeply sympathize with her in this sad bereavement.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Sept. 23, 1903.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry, principal of Winterville High school, was in town Sunday and gave a very interesting lecture in the Methodist church advocating missions.

Prayer meeting at the Baptist church every Wednesday night.

B. H. Hunsucker, of the Hun-Carriage Works, Winterville, was in town Monday.

E. L. Brown, formerly of Alotkie, has succeeded E. M. Kilpatrick as operator here. Mr. Kilpatrick has gone in search of greener pastures.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. D. Albritton, of Hookerton, spent Sunday at the home of J. J. Edwards.

Miss Mary Hodges, of Kinston, spent Monday with Mrs. W. M. Edwards.

The graded school opens Oct. 1st. Tuition for pupils outside of the district, five, seven and one half and ten cts. per day for the primary, intermediate and higher grades. Will state here for the benefit of those attending this school that there is only one place in town where school books can be found. They are kept by W. C. Jackson and Co.

J. J. Scarlet, of Greenville, has been elected principal for the colored school.

Mike Mewbern, one of our clever cotton buyers, representing Alex. Sprunt & Son, received a telegram yesterday to go to South Carolina. We dislike to give him up but wish him the best of success in his new territory.

A. M. Moseley went to Winterville yesterday.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., Sept. 23, 1903.

There is much interest manifested in the revival at the Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Barker received six into the church Sunday morning.

Dr. Nash returned from Rocky Mount Monday evening, much improved in health.

Misses Effie and Mattie Grimes drove to Tarboro Saturday and returned.

Master Judson Blount went to Rocky Mount Saturday to consult the dentist.

There is quite a scare in this community over the mad-dog situation. Sam Brown, colored, was attacked Monday by a mad dog and received some ugly wounds in the hand. The services of Drs. James and Thigpen gave great relief to the frightened and suffering darkey.

The colored population seems to be on the side of ill fortune. One small boy had his head crushed by a wheel, and another child died while it was in the doctor's office for treatment within the last three days.

Rev. Mr. Hocutt left Saturday for Pactolus, where he will conduct a protracted meeting. Mr. Hocutt deems himself very fortunate in having secured the services of Rev. Mr. King, of Greenville, to assist in the meeting. Much good will surely result from the labors of such consecrated men.

The graded school has entered upon its third week with joy in the present and brighter hopes for the future. Teachers, patrons and pupils are striving toward the same end with one purpose—the education of the children. Superintendent Ragsdale has promised to recruit their library soon with a $30 lot of books, the $10 having been raised by the citizens, in order to get the benefit of the state library fund. The children are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the books.

Result of Railroad Election.

Elections were held Tuesday in the towns of Greenville and Grimesland, and in Beaver Dam and Farmville townships, on the question of subscribing for second mortgage bonds of the Raleigh & Pamlico Sound railroad.

The result of the election in Greenville was as follows:

Ward	Reg	Vote	For RR	Vs E R
1	17	13	0
2	37	29	0
3	79	51	5
4	117	59	12
5	39	23	2
Total	289	175	19

In Grimesland 31 votes were registered, 22 were cast for the subscription and 1 against it.

In Beaver Dam township 75 votes were registered, 19 were cast for subscription and 18 against.

In Farmville township 142 votes were registered, 75 were cast for subscription and 20 against.

So Greenville votes for the subscription by 30 majority, Grimesland by 6 majority, Farmville by 4 majority, while Beaver Dam votes against it by 56 majority.

Superior Court.

The following cases have been disposed of:

Sam Bryant, cruelty to animals, not guilty.

James Harrington, cruelty to animals, mistrial.

Henry Dudley, failing to lists taxes, pleads guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs and taxes.

Mass Meeting at Bethlehem.

A mass meeting will be held at Bethlehem church, 9 miles above Greenville, on Wednesday, Sept. 30th, at 11 o'clock, a. m., in the interest of the moral and temperance status of our county. Several good speakers will be on hand. The public cordially invited to attend.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 23, 1903.

Bulgaria must be the country with the largest population in the world. Since the fracas began about seven hundred thousand insurgents have been killed by the Turks and newspaper correspondents.

The Chicago federation of labor has sent the president a letter of advice containing 9,000 words. Even his worst enemies would not inflict such cruel and unusual punishment upon his strenuousness.

Virginia physicians have decided that it is not contrary to the ethics of their profession to advertise their business in the newspapers and otherwise. As a discovery this beats the efforts of the late C. Columbus.

Snow Hill voted to subscribe $10,000 to the Raleigh & Pamlico railroad. The company can now take its choice of routes, but we are sorry for their judgment if they cut Greenville out.

Greenville hereby puts in a bid for the democratic state convention. We know we won't get it, but we have no hard feelings against the state executive committee.

Not having been able to find a Richard Coeur de Lion or a Sir Godfrey de Buillon, Bulgaria will postpone its 20th century crusade against the heathen.

Governor Aycock has set down on the A. & N. C. lease proposition again. We wonder what those would-be lessees see in it that makes them so anxious.

Senator Hanna denies that he will relinquish the chairmanship of the Ohio republican national committee. The denial was wholly unnecessary. Senator Hanna is from Ohio.

If some folks in public life should refrain from disturbing the peace for the space of four days they would be eternally forgotten.

The Atlanta Constitution has presented the presidency to Senator Gorman. All he has to do is to win and the Constitution will let him have it.

No doubt all of the gentlemen think they will make a better governor than the present one—with the assistance of the newspapers.

Senator Gorman believes the office should seek the man, but that it is not necessary for the man to keep conspicuously out of the way.

Has somebody deported and colonized John Temple Graves? We haven't seen a "solution" from him in several days.

The Panama canal treaty went out of business yesterday. This means more arduous work for our diplomats.

Anyone wanting pure, unadulterated freshness will apply to the colleges just about this time.

Mr. Hearst has been endorsed again. We know it's so, because we read it in his paper.

FARMVILLE CORRESPONDENCE.

FARMVILLE, N. C. Sep. 22, 1903.

This cool, bracing morning has driven away that lassitude which we had to undergo during the last days of summer, and we enjoy the brightest sunshine, and look up and behold the clear blue sky, with not a fleck of cloud to mar its beauty, and, then casting our eyes along the horizon, where sky and earth seem to meet, we see evidences of the approach of the fall of the year, the saddest and yet most pleasant part of the year. The falling leaf, the changing leaves of the forest, commingling with crimson, and gold with blue—we imagine that a thunderbolt had struck a rain bow, and sifting these colors upon the leaves of the forest, gave a beauty to the eye that is seen and enjoyed by the lovers of nature only in the autumn, but this beautiful natural panorama changes, from the vari-colored, leaf and flower, the chilly winds, the icy hands of frost, the dreary drizzling rain, causes all these beauties of autumn to turn into a brown seared lifeless color and state, and as we see these once beautiful leaves clad in their coats of brilliant green, snapped from the parent stem of the tree, and fall in eddying currents to the ground, the grand old simile of homes is forced upon our minds, "as leaves on trees so are the generations of men." We begin to meditate upon the mutability of all material things, and are compelled to ask knowledge that there is nothing unchangeable and sure but God and eternity. While meditating upon this thought we are brought face to face with the solemn truth that nature teaches.

The lesson we may learn; if remembered; will lead us to seriously consider that as the leaves fall, so man falls and passes away and the places that once knew him will know him no more forever. How important then that as our lives draw to a close we may, having finished our life work according to the laws of God, have abiding with us the consciousness of having done our duty and look by faith to the fulfillment of the promises held out to us of a life of unchangeable joy and peace.

Several of our merchants have returned from the Northern markets, where they have bought large and handsome stocks of goods suitable for the fall trade and are now ready to wait on the ever increasing patronage which the merchants of our town are receiving.

A large quantity of cotton has been picked and ginned and is being rapidly sold by the producer. The prices received seem to be satisfactory. The tobacco farmer is not so well pleased with prices offered for tobacco, hence is holding for higher prices, which is the best he can do under the circumstances.

The young people are making preparation for the social enjoyments which the fall and winter generally afford them. Quite recently a most delightful entertainment was given at the home of Misses Ada and Ellen Tyson, complimentary to their friend and visitor, Miss Nina Basnight, of James City. A large number of young people attended this social gathering and participated in the varied pleasures and amusements afforded. After several hours spent in listening to sweet music and engaging in several amusing games, the party repaired to the dining hall, where a feast of good things was enjoyed by those present. Towards the wee, small hours of the night the party dispersed with anticipations of many a like happy occurrence in their life's experience.

Safe-crackers out of a job seem to like the climate of this state.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Many Cursed Dinners a Mistake That Is Being Corrected.

Only as a matter of chastening discipline can the three or four hours' dinner find apology or defense. Its every other aspect is that of a gastronomic mistake. Profusion has long stood in the minds of the unknowing or inexperienced for hospitality or for luxury, while in reality it simply means confusion, a multitude of courses not leading the palate on in artful sequence to a satisfying climax, but to weariness unspeakable.

It must be quite three years since the Prince of Wales, now King Edward VII., intimated, with much definiteness, that if any dinner which he honored lasted longer than one hour royal displeasure would be incurred, a "hint" which, of course, carried the weight of a parliamentary statute.

American society raised its eyebrows and "considered the matter," but in a manner so leisurely that only the past season did it arrive at the definite conclusion that dinners to be really comme il faut or pleasurable must be short, the extreme limit not to exceed an hour and a half. This is mending matters much, as much probably as "conventional art" in dining will ever attain. For after all it is but the few, not the many, who have learned or are capable of learning dining as an art, a palate being the inheritance of generations.—Good House-keeping.

New Window Draperies.

The question of window and archway draperies is a particularly live one to the present day householder. We are entering upon what an English writer terms "a renaissance of interior decoration," and the flood tide of French and Italian designs that marks all new fabrics quite sustains his conclusion, says Harper's Bazar. There is no phase of this study in which the impulse of invention is felt more strongly than in that which deals with new draperies and their counterfeits, wall papers. The richest of today's novelties in furniture coverings and draperies are all in combinations that imitate the subdued tones of the last sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Moire damask in palest tan or the green of the mignonette, over which are impressionistic cream or pink flowers and designs in leaf and scroll that unite the pale shades of green, blue, rose and brownish tans, is conspicuous. In all the new brocades and damasks, whether costly or of medium grade, and again repeated in lace embroideries, wall papers and the more beautiful cretonnes, the tendency is toward the exquisitely detailed conventional garland and basket and lover's knot designs which characterized French decorations of every class for a hundred or more years preceding Napoleon. At the same time there is to be seen in draperies of high texture and on embroidered net curtains a revival of Venetian and Florentine ornament.

"Upon a good fellow, but his conversational abilities are remarkably limited. He has a few stock phrases, and that's all."
 "Well, what else can you expect? He's a stockbroker."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

DISTRESS AFTER EATING CURED. Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating, great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by John L. Wooten.

The Inland Route.

Washington, Sept. 20.—The report of the engineer officers of the army concerning the proposition for an inland water route between Norfolk, Va., and Beaufort Inlet, N. C., has been submitted to the War Department but will be withheld from publication until congress meets. Several routes were gone over by the engineers. The most feasible and economical route, which finally was decided upon, is through very shallow water and swamp region. It is understood that the distance covered by the way is nineteen miles and that the estimated cost is $10,000,000. After careful consideration of the matter the engineers recommend the construction of the canal at "sea level." It is said that the engineers have in mind a method whereby the proposed waterway may be shortened. The subject of locks was gone into and while it may be necessary to employ them in some instances the officers were influenced in their decision respecting the route selected by the fact that it obviates the necessity for an extensive lock construction.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS. The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

The greatest shock mortal man can receive is to find that the woman he worships has corns.

A PURGATIVE PLEASURE.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex. says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache etc." Sold by John L. Wooten.
