Fight Between a Hawk, a Snake and a Rooster.

Mr. R. K. Helms, who lives in the Carmel community, three miles south of town, on last Friday witnessed a desperate fight between a hawk and a snake and later between a hawk and a rooster. Mr. Helms was going along the road when his attention was attracted by a fluttering in the leaves a short distance from the road Mr. Helms went to see what the trouble was and found a hawk and a large blacksnake engaged in a fight. The snake was coiled around the hawk and seemed to be getting the better of the battle. Mr. Helms picked up the snake and the hawk and took them to Helms' mill, some distance away, and exhibited them to several men. He then took the belligerents to his home, intending to put them in his granary to let them fight to a finish, but while he was taking them up the granary steps the snake uncoiled and attempted to escape, turned craven coward, so to speak, and quit the fight and was killed. A game rooster, seeing the hawk, made fight at it and Mr. Helms clipped the hawk's wings and turned him loose to fight the rooster. The hawk gave the rooster a stroke or two with its claws and the rooster quit the fight without getting in a single blow.—Monroe Enquirer.

Hints on Giving.

We should not give people things they don't want.

We should avoid giving anybody the mumps or the chicken-pox if we can help it.

Do not give a friend the cold shoulder without baked and hot coffee to go with it.

A man should not give a lady a kiss unless he thinks she would enjoy it, except in the case of his wife and his mother-in-law.

Do not give red suspenders to a total stranger. he might prefer those of a pale-blue shade instead.

Do not present a bucking broncho to a tall, pale man of sedentary habits, as he would not likely live long to enjoy it.

When you give castor oil to a howling infant give it for its intrinsic worth and not merely as an evidence of your regard.—John A. Simpson, in December Lippincott's.

Child Toys With Gun.

Newbern, Nov. 26.—One of the most horrible accidents that has occurred in this place in years, took place, this morning, in the house of Sam Lancaster, white, keeper of the Nense river bridge. Lancaster's house is close to the draw of the bridge. It seems that, about 8 o'clock this morning, Lancaster saw several ducks swimming close to the draw, and he went in and got his gun from the rack, laying it across the bed in the room in which were his wife and three small children. Lancaster saw that the gun contained shot that was too large for ducks, went into an adjoining room to get some shells that were loaded with smaller shot.

When his back was turned, Lottie the eldest of the three children, ran over and picked up the gun; and, when she turned around, with the muzzle facing her mother and sisters, the gun was, in some way, discharged, part of the load taking effect in the head of Manilla, the youngest child, about five years old, completely tearing the left side of her head off. The next child, Winona, about ten years old, received a large portion of the shot in her back, and a few scattering shots lodged in a picture that was hanging on the wall.

Manilla died about 10 o'clock, and Winona, who was shot in the back, is seriously wounded, but it is thought by the attending physicians, she will recover. One of the most remarkable incidents connected with the affair is that the shot that went in the wall slightly grazed the neck of Mrs. Lancaster, the mother of the children. The children that were shot were standing at the lap of their mother when the gun was discharged.

Three Coons in Town.

Yesterday evening's regular passenger train contained three passengers of color whose tickets brought them to this place. They got off and soon began to look as though they were lost, and evidently decided during the night that they had struck the wrong country, for next morning they again boarded the train, returning to their home near Greenville Miss.

Being from the far South they were unusually polite, but a natural instinct seemed to tell them that Greer county was set apart for the white man only, and they evidently breathed a sigh of relief when the train came in sight this morning. How or where they spent the night we have not inquired but we presume their stay in Olustee was peaceable and quiet.

It is news to some of our readers to know that there are no negroes living within the bounds of Greer county, and her present citizenship desires it to remain ever thus.—Olustee, Oklahoma, Outlook.

Negroes must be a curiosity away out there in the territory.

Mr. Tucker Dead.

Mr. John Tucker, the young man of Chicod township who accidentally shot himself through the arm with a gun, died Friday night. Physicians amputated his arm in hope of saving his life, but he died in a short while after the operation. Mr. Tucker was a brother of Mrs. D. S. Smith, of Greenville.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Nov. 28.

Rev. Mr. King, principal of the Ayden graded school preached a most excellent sermon here Thanksgiving day.

One case before our mayor during the past week. The first in 12 months. How is this in a town of 400 population?

During the meeting just closed here there were 14 conversions and accessions to the Missionary Baptist church.

We have been told our query of last issue "Which is the greater evil, drunkenness or hypocrisy in the church?" was not a fair one. Hypocrisy in the church being the most predominant evil of the present age.

Things will be more serene now. The crocodile has gone to his hole, ceased to weep and dried his eye.

E. F. Tucker has had no call yet for the ten dollar william he mysteriously received from on high.

Emmet Smith arrived Thursday with his bride, nee Miss Viola Askin, from Vanceboro. They will make their home here as Mr. Smith is employed by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Wood Kittrell, of Kinston, came up to spend Thanksgiving.

Mr. Whichard and Miss Mooring were here on Thanksgiving.

J. C. Galloway and Miss Mamie Galloway spent Thursday in town.

Miss Addie Johnson, of Greenville, and Miss House, of House Station, were visitors here during the week.

Miss Lucy Brooks, of Kinston, is spending the week with the Misses Dawson.

Matthew Hart, 77 years of age, was a veteran in the civil war. He engaged in 17 battles and on each occasion tied a red string around his arm. Being at last captured his captors noted the strings and asked the meaning. When informed of his gallantry they complimented him and told him they should treat him well, and they did. The old gentleman relates this incident with pride. A gallant old hero!

Tuesday at 7 p. m. Dec. 1st, Prof. King, principal of the graded school at Ayden, will deliver a lecture in the chapel of the Winterville High school to the Jr. O. U. A. M. All are invites.

STATE NEWS.

Two safes were robbed in Durham Thursday night.

Five banks in Wilmington have a total of nearly $5,000,000 deposits.

The cotton manufacturers of the state will meet in Charlotte on Dec. 8th to consider a curtailment of production.

The little Asheville girl whose brother lost his life while trying to save her's, has since died from the burns received.

At the N. C. Conference in session at Goldsboro, the Thanksgiving collection for the orphans amounted to nearly $700.

An Iredell county man who was losing his guinea chickens, set a beartrap under the tree in which the fowls roosted. He caught the bear—a gentleman of color.

So near by near Taylorsville were returning from a hunt, when a gun carried by Robt. Anderson was accidentally discharged, the load striking Ransom Little, killing him instantly.

A party of Henderson business men went out rabbit hunting, Thanksgiving day, and Eugene Betts was accidentally shot dead by Bob Crockett. After the accident Crockett started to shoot himself, but others prevented him doing so.

Mr. Jo. W. Fuller, who lives about two miles from town, killed his big hog last Saturday, and brought him to town to weigh him. He tipped the scales at 635 pounds—dressed.—Louisburg Times.

Judge Winston for Lieutenant Governor.

Judge Francis D. Winston will be a candidate before the next Democratic State Convention for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor. We are authorized to make this announcement. It is needless for us now to elaborate his qualifications for this high office. His great ability as a presiding officer is too well known. He has filled many places of trust. For fifteen years he has given freely of his brains, time and means to the party. His record as a worker and party leader entitles him to the nomination. We will not lengthen this article with quotations from the press or with copies of resolutions passed by the lawyers when he held court. The press and bar and people were loud in his praise.

No judge stood higher; no judge combined more happily pleasant manners and generous hearted sympathy, with judicial firmness and dignity. No man surpasses him in his capacity to dispatch business.

Has he failed in any duty? No. Has he met public expectation and demand? Most abundantly. What is his character? Strong and upright. Is he a good speaker and debater? Few in the state surpass him. Is he popular and agreeable? No one more so. Has he rendered sufficient services to the party? Ask the democratic state, district and county committees of 1890—and of every campaign since then; and the white supremacy clubs and democratic revolutionists of 1898 and 1900.

Why then should he not be nominated?

In behalf of the democracy of Bertie county who have ever accorded due recognition of faithful party service and official integrity and efficiency, we ask this nomination at the hands of our great party. Later we will publish a sketch of our distinguished fellow citizen. We now announce his candidacy for this high office.—Windsor Ledger.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 23, 1903.

A Cumberland county jury convicted a man of murder. But he was only a negro.

Want to but can't, seems to be the position of the extra session of congress relative to adjournment.

Guns are becoming as dangerous as pistols. Seldom a day passes that does not chronicle a horrible accident with a gun.

The legislature might put a check on so much accidental killing by making it unlawful for two or more people to go hunting together.

William J. Bryan was the guest of honor at a big dinner in London, and he and Ambassador Choate swapped repartee in a way that tickled the fancy of the Britons.

Thanksgiving day was North Carolina day right, along in Richmond. Wake Forest College and Richmond College had a debate there and Wake Forest won the cup.

Virginia comes ahead with a female train wrecker, Mrs. Ellen Bailey. She was convicted and given a sentence of 10 years imprisonment. That is a way to put a step to train wrecking.

The cartoon department in the December Review of Reviews is entirely devoted to American cartoons of the month. The elections and the Panama situation are effectively "covered," as well as many other topics of the time.

Let times be good and the party in power wants to take credit for it, but let them be bad and the ins declare that politics have no bearing on such conditions. That is the situation now. Times are depressing and the administration disavows any responsibility herefor.

Getting $1,000 a day for services is pretty good pay. Congressman Ball, of Texas, will draw $3,000 for serving three days. He was sworn in last March and tendered his resignation three days later, but his salary continued until his successor was sworn in.

Here's a gobble for you. The press dispatches say that so many Thanksgiving turkeys were shipped from out West to the Eastern cities that the turkey trains actually caused a blockade on the Pennsylvania railroad.

So much for having a good judge. The Lenoir county jury acquitted Boyette, the wife murderer, on the ground of insanity. Judge George H. Brown ordered the defendant held in custody and later sentenced him to confinement in the asylum for criminal insane, from which he cannot be released except under a special act of the legislature. Though Boyette's counsel argued strongly for a lunacy commission, Judge Brown stood by his decision and Boyette was taken to Raleigh. Judge Brown was entirely right in the matter. A man crazy enough to commit murder ought to be kept in confinement.

Ignorance of the Bible as Literature.

A boy of seventeen should intimately know the English Bible. He should know it as a literature quite aside from its religious teaching. He should know it from having had it read to him from his earliest years, and from reading and studying it for himself. A boy who grows up without this intimate acquaintance with the great masterpiece of all literature is without something for the loss of which nothing can replace. It is needless to speak of the strength of the language the beauty of the poetry, and the interest of the narratives of this wonderful book, but necessary merely to emphasize concerning it what was said of the myths and legends—that, without knowing it well, it is impossible to really understand or appreciate the great mass of our best literature. Experience shows that unless a boy acquires this knowledge before he is seventeen, he rarely gets it later. The lamentable ignorance that exists in regard to the Bible was shown by a test of college students as to their knowledge of biblical allusions in the great poets.

This test was made by President Charles F. Thwing, of Western Reserve University, and the result was published in the Century for May, 1900. It showed that a great majority of the students had no clew to the most obvious biblical allusions. From "Some Things a Boy of Seventeen Should Have Had an Opportunity to Read," by H. L. Elmendorf in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for December.

Our conference is surely composed of a set of nice looking brethren, which shows that they have been cared for by the people they have served. Our Bishop is among the most able and sainted divines on the Bishop's bench, grand in his appearance, impartial in his rulings, and firm in his convictions.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA. New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chyapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm" is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated leaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Root, of P. O. Box 111, speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my entire family for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

The verdicts in the Tillman and Haywood cases were bad enough, but that Kinston verdict heads them all. Of course the jury may have thought the criminal insane, yet if experts decide otherwise he goes free. —Durham Herald.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

CURED OF PILES AFTER 40 YEARS.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., has the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when it is slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Why Not Keep the Money at Home?

"Every year," said a Charlotte business man, "$2,600,000 goes out of this state as payment on life insurance policies. We get in return only about $600,000 annually. Question: Why can't we organize our own insurance companies and keep the money at home?"—Charlotte Observer.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Women's Headaches

542 1-2 Congress Street.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
