WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Dec. 9.

It is a true saying "a man in love is not fit for anything else." Equally true is it a man suffering with rheumatism is in the same awful condition. We know, for several years ago we experienced the former and now, for the last five weeks, we have endured the misery of the latter. Under such a deplorable state of affairs we know our patrons and readers will pardon all discrepancies of the Winterville items. We shall endeavor to do better in the future and hope our effort may be appreciated. Clear of rheumatism and out of love, surely there is a possible chance for some improvement.

Mr. Newton, of Westmoreland county, Va, is here working insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Manning are visiting at the home of Elder T. N. Manning.

We were pained to learn that Samuel Mumford had a severe stroke of paralysis last Thursday. Mr. Mumford is one of our very best citizens and should his affliction prove fatal it will be a serious blow to the community in which he lives. Our sincerest hope is for his speedy recovery.

It seems when a man is down everything has a tendency to keep him down, and so just now, Jordan is a hard road to travel.

We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the marriage of Prof. Harry P. Harpling to Miss Lullie Ives at New Bern on the 23rd inst. We tender thanks and wish our young friend very much joy.

My patrons will please take notice that laundry will be sent off next Monday, 14th, and return Thursday 17th.—C. A. Fair.

John Augustus Edwards and family have moved here and will make this their home. Mr. Edwards is a jolly old time soul and a good old Reb. Hence he is liked by all.

Mrs. J. J. Nobles is visiting friends in the country.

R. G. Chapman was in Greenville yesterday.

Miss Annie Belle Kittrell, of Grifton, spent from Saturday until Monday with Miss Janie Kittrell.

Miss Lala Chapman was visiting the family of W. S. Roach, near Coxville, Saturday and Sunday.

A. G. Cox and R. H. Hunsucker were visiting Samuel Mumford, near Ayden, Saturday.

B. F. Manning and G. A. Kittrell went to Weldon Sunday.

G. A. Kittrell sold one thousand dozen eggs one day last week.

Mrs. Bettie Britt spent Sunday in the country.

Mr. Williams and wife have been visiting the family of G. R. Dixon.

Elder T. N. Manning went over on the other side of the river Monday and returned same day.

Widows.

A Chicago mathematician announces that Chicago, with 60,396 widows, has a larger number than any other community in the country, it is added that the number of widowers in the city is only 23,097.

As a matter of fact, the state in which widows are most numerous is New York, in which they number 320,000. The city in which they are most numerous is the city of New York, where there are 105,000.

There were by the last Federal census 2,720,000 widows in the whole United States, of whom, it is worthy to remark, 88,000 were in Indiana and only 8,000 in Utah.

There were 128,000 in Massachusetts, less than the total number in the two states of Alabama and Mississippi, though the view pretty generally prevails that the number of widows is disproportionately large throughout New England.

There are nearly 2,000 in Hawaii and 2,700 in Alaska, a proportionately larger number than in the city of Chicago.—New York Sun.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor H. W. Whedbee has disposed of the following cases in his court from Dec. 2nd to 9th, inclusive.

John Pennington, drunk and down, fined $1 and costs, $3.20.

A. F. Clark, using vulgar and profane language, fined $1 and costs, $4.

J. B. Simmons the state organizer of the Jr. O. U. A. M. is in the city and has a full list made up, and will institute a council on Monday night. This is an excellent order and we are glad to know that he has been successful.

Save up your change for the bazaar that begins in the opera house next Tuesday night.

Gorman and the Presidency.

A friend of Senator Gorman said recently that while all this talk is proceeding, whether the senator can or cannot get the democratic nomination for the presidency, the gossipers may be reckoning with out their host. According to this narrator, it is by no means a fore gone conclusion that Senator Gorman is a candidate.

The friend in question went on to say that Senator Gorman will seek the nomination if he is reasonably confident of two results, namely, that he can secure the nomination and that his chances for election are equal to those of the republican candidate. A handicap upon either proposition. It was stated, would preclude his appearance before the convention as a candidate.

It was stated that the senator does not care for a complimentary nomination, with defeat staring him in the face. He would abhor the idea of being a candidate before the convention and meeting defeat there. His position in American politics and statesmanship is so well secured that he does not feel the necessity for empty honors.

There are many contingencies, it was explained, which enter into the situation and all of these will be carefully taken into account by Senator Gorman before he allows his name to go before the convention with his authority. It will be recalled that no man has the right to say today that Senator Gorman is an avowed candidate for the presidency.

"When the Senator's name goes before the convention," said his friend, "it will be when he feels sure of nomination and when he is reasonably confident of leading his party to victory."—Washington Star.

Bazaar.

Beginning Tuesday night of next week and continuing through the remainder of the week the ladies of Baptist church will hold a bazaar in the opera house. There will be doll booths, fancy work booths, candy booths, refreshment booths, etc. Good place to spend a pleasant hour and buy nice things for Christmas.

Holiday goods putting in their appearance, Santa Clause will soon be here.

In all Christian nations the custom of exchanging gifts at the holiday in celebration of the birth of Christ has grown, until now it is looked forward to, not only by the little one expecting jolly Santa Claus down the chimney, but also by the young folks and old folks to whom gifts are sent telling them in what esteem they are held by the givers. For this Christmas at Wooten's Drug Store has just been opened the prettiest line for gifts, including the handsome Wave-crest ware ever shown here. Go see for yourself before this line is picked over.

Cashier Missing.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 8.—Theron S. Brown, for some years cashier of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, whose headquarters are here, is missing. His books are undergoing investigation and the officers of the company admit a shortage of several thousand dollars.

A few days ago Brown, accompanied by his wife, went on a visit to New York. His wife returned alone last week. Brown disappeared in New York and his present whereabouts is not known. The insurance company cannot be seriously affected, as its assets are millions as compared with a shortage that will not, it is not believed, exceed a few thousand dollars. Brown's family stands high in social circles.

Fire in Beaver Dam.

About daylight this morning the Joyner store building, about 8 miles above Greenville, in Beaver Dam township, was destroyed by fire. About one thousand bushels of cotton seed, several thousand pounds of hay and a quantity of leaf tobacco were burned in the building. We could not learn the amount of the loss or if there was any insurance. It has been some years since the house was used as a store.

It was one of those incidents that fill the mind with a feeling of awe and creates the impression that the invisible omnipresence of the Great Ruler of the Universe had something to do with the strange, touching and unusual occurrence. If it was as symbolic incident and intended so to be, then nothing could have been more appropriate and in no way could the impression have been made more beautifully or forcefully.—Goldsboro Argus.

The little sparrow which perched itself in the top of the church to-day and sang a requiem while the choir was singing during the funeral services over the remains of the late Jno. R. Morris attracted right much attention from the audience. When the choir stopped singing the sparrow stopped and seemed to listen attentively and sorrowfully to the impressive funeral services conducted by the pastor of the church. If it was by accident that the sparrow chanced to come into the church just at that hour and happened to warble its melodious requiem just while the choir were singing their sacred dirge, then it was a beautiful incident and impressed those who noticed it with the purity of the life of the soul which had deserted the pulseless remains hidden in the flower-laden casket.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 9, 1903.

Charlotte is again building a fine hotel, on paper.

One of the finest things Durham hasn't got, but is yet waiting for, is that union depot.

At a meeting of prominent negroes held in Chattanooga, Tenn., they decided to organize a party of their own.

The linotypers that set the president's message had something of a job to pull off. Just think of 17,000 words.

We just believe Bassett will take some other subject for his next magazine article, that is if he writes any more.

In his message the president takes a very roscote view of the condition of the country. It is not likely that the New England cotton mill operatives whose wages have been cut concur in his view.

With cotton playing all around 12 cents comes the announcement of other mills in Massachusetts cutting down the wagos of employes. The number of hands affected is reported at 80,000, and they will hardly call these prosperous times.

The only way Mr. Cleveland can make some people believe he is not after it is to die.—Durham Herald. We hope the old man will not soon take that much trouble to convince them.

Judge Neal is holding court in Charlotte. He told the grand jury if they failed to take some action against the gamblers in cotton futures he was going to take some action against the jury for failure to perform its duty.

At the next Methodist General Conference an effort will be made, if present plans do not miscarry, to have the Discipline amended so as to remove the ban on card playing and dancing. Western Methodists are said to have originated this movement. It is claimed, however, that many Methodists in New England—of all sections—favor allowing members to play cards, dance and go to the theater, and that a prominent Methodist clergyman of Boston, is one of the clerical directors of the Actors' Alliance.—Charlotte Chronicle.

And when the church gives the members free license to indulge in these things, the Devil can afford to take a good long nap and not give himself any concern about what is going on. The line between the church and the world is already so indistinct as to seriously affect the spiritual usefulness of the former. The fashionable (?) church wants to be popular and do everything the world does, but it is a sorry Christian who is not willing to give up worldly indulgences for the love of Christ.

The caption of a cablegram tells us that "William J. Bryan is still in Europe." The politicians in America are wondering if he will remain still after he gets back to the United States.—Wilmington Star.

Mr. Cleveland is the only president the democrats have had since the war and there seems to be a suspicion that he is the only one they ever will have.—Durham Herald.

One thing Mr. Bassett's friends may be sure of, there is not as much danger in him now as there was before he "writ" his famous article. He'll not turn the thing loose again till he is sure it is not loaded.—Raleigh Times.

As a temperance measure the Georgia Baptist State Convention proposes to fix the price of a drink of liquor a $1. Atlanta newspaper men will oppose this, as they couldn't afford to get bloated any more over what the Gate City is doing.—Wilmington Star.

Since there can be no curtailment of shirts, editors will have to curtail the number they wear, if the high price of cotton results in a big advance in shirt material. This is one way the speculative movement in cotton affects the newspaper fraternity.—Wilmington Star.

H. B. Varner, editor and proprietor of the Lexington Dispatch, has purchased the Salisbury Truth-Index from W. H. Stewart and will change it from a semi-weekly to a weekly and Mr. J. B. Spilman will be editor and manager. The paper will be an eight-page form and will be aggressive but conservatively democratic in its policy.

Our Snow Hill correspondent notes that there swings in that town an old bell inscribed "Ceres of London, 1792." The bell has been doing duty for several generations, and is still in a state of perfect preservation and usefulness.

This is an interesting piece of news. There are numbers of such objects of historic interest scattered about here and there throughout our Southland especially in Virginia and the Carolinas. Some day, perhaps, our people will learn more fully the value of these relics, and we will take greater care of them.—Kinston Press Press.

The following is told on a young man of the city who is not a regular sportsman, so to speak, but who went out recently in search of the feathery tribe. He borrowed a dog for the occasion that was very intelligent and well trained as a pointer and retriever. The dog as soon as he got into the fields began successfully to hunt quail and the young man popped away at them without bringing down anything. This occurred for three or four times and the intelligent dog began to show signs of disgust. Finally a drove of blackbirds flew over the hunter and he blazed away into them and a stray shot brought one down. The dog seeing a bird fall brightened up and went for it. He looked at the bird and immediately saw that it was not a partridge and dug a hole with his paws and carefully covered it up. He then tucked his tail between his legs and trotted back to town and no amount of coaxing could get him to hunt with that man any more.—Kinston Free Press.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville and R. L. Davis Farmville.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," write Post & Bliss, Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis, Georgia, Va. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Pikesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Women's Headaches
542 1-2 Congress Street.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.
I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pain would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.
Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.
Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.
Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Both men and women suffer headaches, but periodical headache falls only to the lot of women and is the unerring sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains. Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain Mrs. Snow was made a strong and healthy woman again. Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Queen Quality

The First Requisite

The very first requisite of a shoe is that it shall fit the foot with absolute accuracy. Closely but not tightly! No waste space, yet no pressure! The "QUEEN QUALITY" Shoe is made so that

It Fits the Foot

It fits just as a Paris made glove fits the hand. Have you ever noticed no other shoe talks much about Fit? They talk about "style" and "beauty" and "form" and other things that mean nothing. But they say little about FIT! They don't dare to!

"Queen - Quality"

fits because it is an entirely different construction which, by the way, adds many dollars to the weekly pay roll. But the shoes fit perfectly!
