AYDEN ITEMS

AYDEN, N. C. January 20, 1904.

R. W. Smith went to Raleigh
Sunday night and returned Monday morning.

James Dawson, near Haddock's
X Roads, lost his house and kitchen and contents by fire last Monday.

James Mayo, a prosperous farmer of Greene county, carried a load of tobacco to Kinston last week, and on arriving was taken seriously ill and died Sunday. He leaves a wife and several children and and an aged mother.

W. F. Hart went to Kinston
Tuesday night to see his son, who is still very low.

The Ayden Milling & Mfg. Co.
are increasing their capital and will begin to manufacture buggies at an early day.

Court in Greenville this week has several of our townsmen as jurors.

Rev. D. W. Davis delivered two splendid sermons here Sunday.
His congregation will build a church here at an early day.

Rev. Mr. Standfield, pastor of the Methodist church, filed his regular appointment here Sunday morning and night.

A large nice mule for sale, J.
R. Smith and & Bros.

A. B. Minor left this morning for Suffolk after spending a few days here.

W. W. Perkins returned Tuesday night from Richmond.

Robbed The Dying.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Charged with robbing the dead and dying at the Iroquois fire, three men have been placed under arrest by the chief of police. The first to be captured was Louis Witz, keeper of the Illinois saloon, located at Dearborn and Randolph streets, a few doors from the main entrance of the theater.

It is charged that Witz robbed
the body of a dying woman, Mrs.
E. J. Trask, the afternoon of the fire, securing $199, which, it is alleged, was divided among three men, two of whom were arrested after Witz. The police have received confessions from all three men.

The other two arrested are Charles Conway, said to have received $20, and Thomas McCarthy alleged to have been given $27.50.
The third man, still at large, is a stranger, who was given $12. He is said to be a traveling man from St. Louis.

Call For Convention.

Washington, Jan. 18.—The following official call was issued today for the assemblage of the democratic national convention at St. Louis, July 6th next:

Washington, D. C., January 18, 1904.—The democratic national committee having met in the city of Washington on the 12th day of January, 1904, has appointed
Wednesday, the sixth day of July, 1904, as the time, and chosen St.
Louis, Mo., as the place for holding the democratic national convention. Each state is entitled to representation therein equal to double the number of its senators and representatives in the congress of the United States, and each territory, Alaska, Indian Territory and the District of Columbia, shall have six delegates.

All democratic citizens of the United States who can unite with us in the effort for a pure and and economical constitutional government are cordially invited to join us in sending delegates to the convention.

JAMES K. JONES, Chairman.
C. A. WALSH, Secretary.

ORMANDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMANDSVILLE, N. C. JAN. 19, 1904 Pneumonia seems to be quite prevalent in our neighborhood at present. Several cases having resulted in death.

Rev. Mr. Pate filed his regular appointment here Sunday. Our people are very much pleased with him.

Mrs. W. J. Hardee has returned from a visit to her parents, Mr.
and Mrs. D. W. Patrick, of Snow Hill.

Jesse I. Davis, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of our community, has sold his farm to A. E. Denton and will in the future make Ayden his home.
We regret very much to lose
Mr. Davis from our neighborhood.

The High School has recently added a lot of new books to its library. The library has increased in volumes a goodly number this year. Let the good work continue such is a great factor in upbuilding and elevating a neighborhood.
We justly feel proud of our neighborhood.

Hotel Destroyed.

Elizabeth, City, Jan. 18.—The River View Hotel was totally destroyed by fire Friday night at 11 o'clock. The loss is about $5,000 partially insured. The Elizabeth City Marble Works and Miles Jenning's junk shop were badly damaged, with no insurance. The blaze is thought to have been the work of an incendiary.

Superior Court.

The following cases have been disposed of since previous report: Charles Dawson, assault with deadly weapon, not guilty.

Richard White, carrying concealed weapon, pleads guilty, fined $10 and costs.

John Jones, assault with deadly weapon, fined $1 and costs.

Charlie Clark, simple assault, pleads guilty, judgment suspended
upon payment of costs.

Daniel Joyner, assault with deadly weapon, guilty, fined $5
and costs.

Richard Leggett, carrying concealed weapon, pleads guilty, fined
$10 and costs.

Bob Harrington, assault with deadly weapon, pleads guilty, fined $10 and costs.

Willis Johnson, larceny, pleads guilty, sentenced 4 months in jail to be assigned to Edgecomb roads.

A Large Schooner Wrecked on Lookout Shoals.

Beaufort N. C., Jan. 19.—The three-masted schooner Joseph W.
Brooks, lumber laden from Savannah, bound for Baltimore, struck on outer Lookout shoals at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. Heavy seas boarded her, carrying away the only yawl boat which contained the captain and crew's personal effects, and the deck load, leaving them at the mercy of the waves.
She settled down and filled with water. The crew took to the jib boom at daylight. The Cape Lookout life saving station crew rescued Captain Davis and seven sailors. The vessel and cargo is a total loss.

Peculiar Assaults.

There is a case in Wakesuperior court in which a man is charged with assaulting another with a two horse wagon.

Mayor Powell two years ago bound a man over to court for assaulting another with a railway locomotive, and the complainant won, too.—Raleigh Times.

Carolina Brick Co. Enlarges.

The Kinston-Clarks Brick and Tile Company, which recently changed its corporate name to the Carolina Brick Company and increased its capital stock to $25,000
elected the following officers:

L. Harvey, president; W. G.
Jones, general superintendent, and C. Felix Harvey secretary and treasurer.

They have bought the plant of the Brick and Tile Manufacturing Company, at Hyman's Siding, and have also purchased 52 acres of land at Robersonville and will establish a big plant at that place to supply the constantly increasing demand for their product up the Coast Line railroad. The last named plant will cause a great saving in freight on shipments to that section of the state, as heretofore all brick had to be sent out from either the Clarks branch or the Kinston plant and the freight rate constituted a great part of the profits.

The plant at Robersonville will have an output of 4 1/2 to 5 million brick per annum, making the total capacity of the Carolina Brick Company 15 million brick annually. No change will be made in the policy of the concern nor, at present, in the price of the product.—Kinston Free Press.

Female Seminary Burned.

Raleigh, Jan. 18.—The Oxford Female Seminary was burned this afternoon. Eighty young lady students all escaped. The value of the property was $25,000; insurance $10,000. F. P. Hobgood is president.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Jan. 20.

Sid Higgs and Mr. McCreary, of Greenville, were here Saturday.

Mr. Scott, of Roanoke, Va., was here last week on business with G. A. Kittrell & Co.

Misses Lena and Bertha Dawson came up Saturday morning from a trip South.

Miss Nettie Garris went to Greenville Saturday.

Saturday is a day of general repairs and our people come and go. Thrift and enterprise keep them home the remainder of the time. This, with a spirit intermingled to do good keeps us abreast with the times. Sunday they go to church and rest.

Miss May Galloway and Mrs.
Charlie Galloway were visitors to our town Monday. They paid us a special visit.

Jesse L. Smith, of Beaver Dam, had business with the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., here Saturday.

Miss Malissa Tucker and Mr.
Ed Byrd, of Institute will be married this evening at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Wyatt L.
Tucker, at 3 o'clock. Elder Samuel Moore, of Bethel, officiating.

Mrs. M. D. Higgs and Miss Lizzie Blow, of Greenville, spent Sunday with us. It was a pleasant visit to us and ended only too soon.

Thad and Ora Manning are making preparation for the manufacture of brick during the coming season.

T. N. Manning has embarked in the grocery business on Main and Railroad streets.

High prices are paid for real estate, and yet, owing to good prices received by our farmers, they are not over anxious to sell.

The Missionary Society held its meeting in the Missionary Baptist church Sunday night. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. F. C.
Nye and Mrs. F. O. Cox. An excellent address on missions was delivered by Rev. T. H. King, of Ayden, after which a song was rendered by Misses Myrtle Proctor and Ethel McDaniel that completely captivated the entire audience.
We were glad to be one of the number. A. G. Cox also made an interesting talk.

A large number of our people attended services at Bethany and Hancocks Sunday.

We vote F. O. Cox, a clever fellow. For the last two weeks his treats on persimmon beer and the good old rutabagas and sweet potatoes at our boarding house made us think of the good days to come when we are in a more delightful clime.

B. F. Manning, Jr., of Ayden, spent Sunday with his friend, Mr.
Sturgis.

Johnnie and Abram Dixon, of Black Jack, were with J. N.
Harper, Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. W. E. Cox preached in the Episcopal church Monday evening.

Richard Wingate, M. G. Bryan and J. M. Blow are attending court.

As some move out and others
move in the departed are missed and the arrivals are welcomed.
We will grow and just can't help
it.

Many were the friendly hands we yesterday grasped on the streets of our old home, Greenville, and cordial were the greetings accorded us by old friends from every section of our native home, the good old county of Pitt. It made us feel our friends are not few, but are as numberless as the leaves and sincere as the truth,
God bless them all.

We are pleased to see our young friend Louis Manning one of THE REFLECTOR force. Treat him well and you'll have a good boy.

These Three are Men.

Three young men, who had not all been together in several years,
met on the street Tuesday night,
and were talking over the happy incidents of their boyhood days.
What impressed the reporter most in passing, was the size of the three, and a little inquiry disclosed that their weight is 637 pounds.
The young men are Mr. Alex.
Heilbronner, of New York, who tips the scales at 235, Mr. R. L.
Humber 202, Mr. R. C. Flanagan 200. Another thing that can be said about them is, that they are all good men in proportion to their size.

Entered at the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter. Subscription rates: One Year, $3.00; One Month, 25 cents; One Week, 10 cents. Delivered in town by carriers without extra cost. Advertising rates reasonable and can be had on application to the editor or at the office. We desire a live correspondent at every post office in the county, who will send in brief items of news as it occurs. Write plainly, and only on one side of the paper.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 20, 1904.

As Chicago seems such a good place to step off from with a certainty of burning hereafter, perhaps it is the burning here they want to escape.

A Washington correspondent of a Brooklyn paper says that Senator Gorman has eliminated himself from the presidential race and believes that Judge Parker will be a stronger candidate than any other man.

Ex-Governor Russell has returned to Wilmington and it is said, has abandoned hope of getting the Wilmington postoffice for Mrs. Russell. Now if that hundred dollars was only "lent" let him hasten to return that also.

"You are talking a good thing that is worth pushing along," is the remark made by a business man in commenting upon the recent article in THE REFLECTOR suggesting the organization of a building and loan association in Greenville. If enough of our business men will catch this idea it will be easy to secure one. That it would be a great benefit to the town is beyond peradventure.

Several republicans seem to be keeping up a lively scrap over the nomination in the Eighth Congressional District as though they really intend to retire Representative Klüttz. It looks like there is enough aspirants for the place to start a congress of their own.

There are a good many men on both sides of the house ready to give the civil service law a kick whenever there is a chance. They denounce it as a fraud and humbug; they declare that it promotes mediocrity by encouraging laziness and inefficiency; that while called "competitive," it really prevents wholesome rivalry and abolishes ambition. A good many members of both parties deny that the "merit system" has any real merit, and insist that the victorious party, bearing the responsibility, ought to have the offices. This opinion is held by a majority of members of both houses, but they think the people believe in the system, and when it comes to a roll-call, they are afraid to abolish it.

The Raleigh Times says that to witness the performances of an ex-Governor of his state, which state is still his home, and an ex United States Senator in collusion with foreigners in another State attempting to collect what each knows to be a fraudulent and dishonest claim, is a sight for the gods. We trust not one cent of honest indebtedness will ever be apudiated, or in any way unjustly accounted for. Let the State and every county in the state pay every honest dollar of indebtedness without discount or necessary delay, but we do trust the right may prevail in these South Dakota bonds, and that pair of ingrates who held office and drew salaries from the substance of honest people may get the rebuke they so richly deserve.—Durham Sun.

It is now proposed to pension all who served the ninety days and have reached the age of 62. Why not pension them all and be done with it.—Durham Herald.

Col IA Sugg has contributed some strong articles to THE REFLECTOR on the cotton situation that is attracting attention. In cotton exchange vernacular he is what is called a "bull." He has faith in high prices and believes they will yet go higher. There are other men who make the cotton situation a study whose views are in accord with his. We notice that the Charlotte Chronicle has interviewed Mr. O. P. Heath, of Charlotte, who says that cotton really ought to have gone up in price before it did, and expresses the opinion that it will be fully five years before the staple again sells for low prices. His views are very much the same as Col. Sugg's—that so many people have left the farms and gone to the town as to make labor so scarce that a larger crop than at present cannot be cultivated and harvested, and even should a larger crop be made the increasing demand will more than offset the supply and maintain a high standard of prices. With these conditions the outlook for both the farmer and business men are most promising.

"With the price of food in general soaring," says the Baltimore Herald, "living comes high, but we must have it."

Not necessarily. People are in the habit of saying they must live, but that is hardly so certain as that they must cease to live. It is only a question of time. There is an end to all things temporal, and the time will come to each mortal when he will no longer say that he "must have it." Still while there is life, the struggle goes on. The man who toils is entitled to a living.—Danville Bee.

If a boy be properly trained he will love work better than idleness. If he is not trained, but allowed to drift, nothing but an inherent strong character will save him.—Charlotte Chronicle.

In a few days all the mail carried in the United States will be weighed for about thirty days, so as to furnish a basis of weights by which the government will pay the railroads for transportation of the mail for the next four years.

Where does all the public money go. We don't know, and we doubt if anybody else does.—Elizabeth City Economist.

Certainly not. We cannot even keep track with the little we have and tell where it all goes, much less tell where all the public money goes.

The Chicago churches may be fire traps still it is better to burn here than hereafter.—Duaham Herald.

The Richmond News-Leader says: "Financially, the lot of North Carolina certainly seems to be a happy one. The penitentiary has a surplus of $50,000, which it desires to lend the state, but the state treasurer refuses to take the loan, because it is not needed, and the sheriffs throughout the state are making such fine collection of taxes and such prompt settlements that the treasury has all the money it wants."

A Prisoner in Her Own House. Mr. W. H. Layna, of 1001 Agnes Ave., Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says "would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time, after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville and R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

Mr. Wm S. Crane, of California Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville and R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

When bilious try a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and realize for once how quickly a first-class up-to-date medicine will correct the disorder. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville and R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

Congratulations

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, and R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

Think before you speak, and consider before you promise.

Found a Cure For Indigestion

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion, and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am 51 years of age and have suffered great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want now.—George W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville and R. L. Davis & Bros., Farmville.

The person who lives fast will be apt to die quick.

CURED OPPILES AFTER 40 YEARS.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, laceration, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

The more people know the less they brag about it.

A GOOD NAME.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Auctioneers have a nod way of receiving bids.

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A POINT OF LAW

"Missour!" said the judge to the prisoner, "what's yer rail name?"
"Jim Sanders."
"Waal, Jim Sanders, yer here to be tried for the killin' of Andy Lary. The said Andy Lary an' you uns was playin' a small game at the Sunset saloon, an' Andy won consid'able of you uns' money. You draw'd suddent an' with no other provocation except losin' fa'r, jist because you was unlucky."
"Andy was the unlucky one," interrupted the prisoner. "He dropped a ace of clubs on the floor when I had another one in my hand."
"Are you sure of that?"
"Tom Burke seen it. I kin prove it by him."
"Call Tom Burke," said the judge.
Burke took the stand and swore that he had seen an ace of clubs lying on the floor, a duplicate of which was in the hands of the prisoner, but he couldn't say which man dropped it. He rather thought it fell from Jim Sanders' sleeve.
"Judge," said the prisoner impressively, "I've toyed with keards, man an' boy, nigh on ter twenty year. My reputation for skill should puttee me from sich a barefaced statement as that. There's hundreds of men as has played with me who'll swear that I am oncapable of any sich onhandness. If I take a keard from my sleeve it goes on ter the table an' not on ter the floor."
The prisoner looked around at the faces of those present for justification.
"You've spoke a strong argyment in yer favor," said the judge, assuming a judicial pose.
"To prove what I say," continued the prisoner, "I'll agree to deal myself two aces of clubs from a squar pack an' use one from my sleeve, an' if any member of the jury kin spot the time I done any part of this professional bit of work I'll plead guilty, confess an' dance the rope without objectin'."
"Jim Sanders," remarked the judge, "preyas to this charge you uns has always bore a excellent reputashun, an' yer propoishun is worthy of yer standin' in the community."
A table was drawn forward, the jury took seats around it, and the prisoner was given the cards. He proceeded to shuffle them, dealt a poker hand to each jurymen, dealt each man to fill, and, without betting, there was a showdown. The dealer's hand was three of a kind, being three aces of clubs, and two kings. The judge looked at the hand meditatively and then turned the aces over. One ace belonged to the pack. The others had different backs. The judge and jury looked at the prisoner as if the vindication was questionable.
"Yer honor and gentlemen of the jury," said the prisoner, "I hev done as I agreed. I said I'd deal two aces of clubs from a squar pack and take another from my sleeve. The pack was squar, an' that's the aces of clubs. I could hev dealt 'em all from keards of the same pattern, as I hev 'em in my pocket, but that wasn't what I agreed to do. I agreed to deal 'em from a squar pack."
The judge continued to stare meditatively at the aces and then said to the prisoner:
"Jim Sanders, I hev remarked on the excellent reputashun you bore before the shootin', an' I hev allus regarded you uns a honorable man, but I mus' confess I was not prepared for this spechul evidence of yer high toned sense of honor. The experiment is entirely satisfactory. We will resume our original positions."
The table was moved back into its place, and the jury again placed their chairs and stools in two rows.
"Gentlemen of the jury," said the judge, "I'll now charge you. The prisoner is accused of shootin' in cold blood one Andy Lary. The occasion of the shootin' is said to be the droppin' of an ace of clubs on the floor, the same ace bein' in the hand of the prisoner. You uns is forbid to consider the onhandness of Andy Lary. There musn't be no prejudice ag'in said Lary on account of sich onperfeshunal clumsiness, specially since he's dead. What you uns has to consider is, Did Lary drop the keard, or did Sanders drop it? An' you uns needn't consider if Sanders dropped it, 'cause he's proved sich mufin' onworthy of him. An' you uns needn't lug in no side questions like whether the prisoner is guilty anyway, even if Lary did drop the keard, or whether Sanders was right in assumin' that Lary wasn't playin' fa'r. You uns is to decide if Lary dropped that ace. If Lary dropped it, then you uns is to find the prisoner not guilty of the shootin'."
The jury rose, but before retiring the foreman put the following question:
"Are we to consider if the prisoner done the community a service in puttin' out of the way a man that showed none of them nice points-of-honor that the prisoner has showed an' a man that was bringin' disgrace on us all by bunglin'?"
"You are to consider that p'int," replied the judge.
The jury then filed out to the saloon where the shooting took place. In half an hour they filed back again, and the foreman announced the verdict:
"At the Sunset saloon we found an ace on the floor which the barkeep says is the identical ace about which the shootin' occurred. On examinin' it we found that it wasn't the ace of clubs, but the ace of spades. Nevertheless since keardlessness on sech matters is dangerous and demoralizin' to this community, and since Lary sartially dropped the ace, we find that the prisoner give him proper punishment an' is not guilty."
OLIVER MEARS HINSDALE.

Saved From Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discoveries for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. Its the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial Bottles Free at Woolens Drug Store.

You err when you drop good manners.

Wonderful Nerve

Is displayed by many a man even during pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joi ts. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c at Wooten's Drug Store.

To be patient is better than to be famous.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly run-down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Wooten's Drug Store. Price 50 cents.

God measures by motives; men by mistakes.

Domestic Troubles

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you but cure. 25 cents at Wooten's Drug Store.

FOR PARTICULAR WOMEN

We are proud of our shoe stock this season. We are certain we have the finest line we have ever shown and we are certain that no other store gets even a little bit ahead of us.

ULTRA and BROCKPORT Shoes for Women are our strong cards, and we are able to meet the requirements of the most fastidious as well as the more conservative patterns, and we invite a thorough inspection of our line—ULTRA in name, ULTRA in character, ULTRA in every feature that contributes to fit, comfort and style. In finish, material and workmanship, we are proud to present to all lovers of good taste in footwear a shoe for which we have never yet had to make apology.

The "Brockport" Shoe is constructed on common sense principles without sacrifice of those attributes that appeal to a woman's taste, or her pride, in a well and stylishly dressed foot.

Our usually up-to-date line of children's and infant's shoes is even better than ever. We are positive we can insure you perfect

Bloodhounds After Florida Train
Robbers.

Pensacola, Jan. 18.—An armed posse with bloodhounds is in pursuit of the robbers who tried to wreck a train on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad last night, by placing ties upon the track. It is believed that the same bandits attempted to rob a train on the Seaboard line on Monday last.

Hanna Issues Call.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Senator Hanna Saturday issued the call for the republican national convention to meet at Chicago, at noon June 21, 1904, to select candidates for president and vice president. The call makes the usual provisions for the number of delegates, four at large from each state, and two from each congressional district, together with alternates.

Warning to Pistol Carriers.

In imposing a fine upon one of the offenders in court for carrying concealed weapons, Judge Justice remarked that the men addicted to the habit of carrying pistols are running a risk of being sent to the roads for a term of months, and first thing they know they will find themselves in the road gang.

Capt. Orren Williams Dead.

News was received in Greenville, Tuesday night, of the death of Capt. Orren Williams, of Tarboro, which occurred that evening about 6 o'clock. Capt. Williams was one of Tarboro's oldest and best citizens. He had for years been in the insurance business and was well known throughout the state.

Assurance of Peace.

St Petersburg, Jan. 18.—The czar's assurance, given at the winter palace January 14 on the occasion of the new year reception, that he desired and intended to do all in his power to maintain peace in the far east, is regarded by the foreign diplomats as a hostage given to the world for the preservation of peace, which with the guarantee that Russia will recognize the open ports and other concessions in Manchuria, will, it is thought, place the onus of a rupture on Japan.

Most of the newspapers here join in the peaceful chorus, one paper remarking, however, that it was strange for Russians to first hear of the czar's words by way of America.

Triumph.

I'm starting on the new year well;
I haven't thus far lent
To any red-nosed hanger-on
A solitary cent;
I haven't bought a dollars worth
Of common or preferred
That tumbled down the moment I Secured it, 'pon my word!

I haven't yielded unto one
Fair little agent's pleas;
Not once have I left home without My wallet or my keys;
Not once this year have I sat down
To eat a midnight meal,
Well knowing what would follow,
how Dejected I should feel.

I haven't let my temper send
My judgment on the run,
There is not a foolish thing that I Remember to have done.
I pat myself upon the back
For holding firm and true—
The only thing that I regret
Is that the year's so new.
