

WHAT WILL THE SPRING DRESS GOODS BE.

Spring Time Approaches,

Spring time approaches. With it comes a renaissance of Merchandise in all lines that have an adaption to season. This fact has interest for every woman. What will the Spring Dress Goods be?

Just now the scenes of styles are interesting, intensely so. . . .

Human needs create human questions. On one side the public is a vast army of human interrogation points. On the other side this store with its answers in surmountable. It matters not whether the question concerns a real or fancied need. A want is an incessant inquiry. We invite you to investigate and after you have investigated you will buy and buy liberal.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C. March 19, 1904.

Joseph Archer, the popular hardware salesman, is here waiting on his trade.

A. S. Browne, of Norfolk, was here Thursday.

Atlee McLawhon had his hand partly cut off by his brother, who was cutting wood near him Friday. The latter's axe accidentally struck him.

O. B. Speight, of Parmele, was here Thursday. He was instrumental in organizing the Odd Fellow Lodge here three years ago.

Our straw hats for men boys and girls are now open. J. R. Smith & Bro.

Mr. Biggs Cox, aged 75 years, died at Mr. J. B. Sugg's Thursday. He had been paralyzed for several years. He served in the Civil war, and was the father of our townsman, Ceburn Cox.

E. V. Cox went to Greenville

Friday on business.

William Guion, of Newbern, was here Friday selling soap.

Joe Long has moved to the Ross house on Main street.

Miss Sallie Sutton, of Greenville came in Friday night to visit Mayor Stokes' family.

A beautiful line of spring lawns calico and percales at J. R. Smith & Bro.

B. T. Smith, of Greenville, was here Wednesday.

P. H. Kittrell, of Winterville, was here Tuesday on business.

Senator A. L. Blow passed through Ayden Thursday on his return from Raleigh.

B. F. Manning, of Greenville, was here Thursday to attend the funeral of his uncle, Mr. Lynn Manning.

As silk is now made from wood pulp, the indications are that the poor silkworm will be forced to hunt another job.

THE MEETING.

Interest Continues Good—Services for Sunday.

Last night's union services in the Presbyterian church was well attended and very interesting. Rev. Mr. Hornaday preached from the text "As many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the sons of God." There were several requests for prayer.

This morning's service was led by Rev. F. G. Hartman.

Services will be held as usual tonight beginning at 7:30.

Sunday morning services will be held in all the churches, except the Presbyterian, and all the congregations will unite again at night in the Presbyterian church.

Successful Tour.

Since his last visit here 3 years ago Harry Lindley the popular comedian has made one of the longest tours ever undertaken by any theatrical company. A tour that has embraced every province in Canada the Klondyke and Yukon territories and 23 states. Not so bad for a man who has been on the boards the number of years our old friend Harry has. Some people say he is 90 years old but Harry denies it and says he will be a frequent visitor to Greenville for many years. Harry is without doubt the most popular showman that ever visits this place and his coming engagement will be hailed with delight by his host of admirers here. The beauty of Mr. Lindley and his plays are always refined and free from any trace of vulgarity, which fact is no doubt due to his great popularity among the fair sex. His coming engagement will be limited to 2 nights. On Monday the sensational 4 act drama "Caught in the Web" and on Tuesday "La Belle Marie."

Negro Brute Hanged.

Roanoke, Va., March 18.—The negro, Henry Williams, whose capture and trial were attended by many sensational features, including the calling out of eighteen companies of militia to prevent mob violence, was hanged today.

On January 30 last, Williams assaulted Mrs. George J. Shields and her 3 year old daughter with a hatchet, razor and pocket knife and let them for dead. After hacking and fracturing the skulls of his victims with a hatchet, Williams cut Mrs. Shields' throat from ear to ear with a razor and locked her in a clothes closet. He escaped to the coal fields, where he was captured a few days later. He confessed to the crime and was rushed across the state of Virginia on a special train to Richmond. He was brought here for trial on a special train, under escort of more than 1,000 soldiers, and a heavy guard was maintained about the court house during the trial.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C.; Mar. 19.

Emmett Smith has about recovered from a severe attack of pleurisy. He was able to be out on the streets one day this week.

There will be several nice residences built on west side of railroad street this spring. In fact the building fever has struck us with a vengeance.

Mr. A. B. Cox, better known as "Uncle Biggs Cox" one of the oldest men in the county, died near here Wednesday. He was noted for his many peculiarities, but also as one of the best and most substantial farmers of his section.

A. L. Blow passed through on the train Thursday on his way home from Raleigh. We had quite a little conversation with him. It has been nearly four months since we have seen home folks and our meeting was indeed pleasant.

Next month for nominating town officers. The woods are full of want-to-be's.

The Masons have fitted up the hall over the store of R. G. Chapman & Co. and now have a nice place in which to assemble.

Miss Minnie Jackson, from the country, has been visiting Miss Dora Cox this week.

Mrs. James Buck, of Ayden, and Miss Maggie Smith, of Black Jack, spent Thursday with the family of J. W. Harper.

Last night the Masonic lodge at this place was duly dedicated by Maj. Henry Harding, of Greenville, as Winterville Lodge No. 523 A. F. & A. M. Before the opening of the lodge there was a barbecue spread in which the general public participated, after which Maj. Harding publicly installed the officers, following with a short address. The public were then dismissed and the lodge went into secret session which lasted way into the 'wee sma' hours. There were a large number of visiting brethren present.

Miss Bonner Kittrell spent Thursday night with Miss Dora Cox.

Misses Lola Jones and Ola Johnson, of Lenoir county, are visiting Mrs. F. M. Little.

Miss Dessie Kittrell returned to Greenville yesterday.

Several strangers have been around town lately, dressed too nicely to be styled burglars, yet not presenting an appearance as gentlemen. The sayings of the wise acres are truly wonderful in this conclusion.

If Charlotte has no more policemen to sacrifice their lives in defense of their fellow's property, Winterville might supply the demand, as several of the Comanche tribe are still here, sitting Bull, Jr., among the number.

R. H. Garris, of Ayden, and Blount Garris, of Grifton, were here Tuesday.

Shad are cheaper, but the soul of the poor man longeth for the time when the taste will be sweeter than the smell thereof.

R. W. Smith and W. F. Hart, of Ayden, were here Wednesday on business.

Dane Cooper has been to Greenville.

Dr. R. L. Carr was here Thursday on professional business.

B. F. Manning on his way to attend the funeral of his uncle, Linnington Manning, was here a short while Wednesday and Thursday.

Elder Manning and Miss Dora Manning attended the funeral of Lynn Manning Thursday.

Prof. Ragsdale, of Greenville,

That New Suit

You are thinking of getting—if it's on the Fashion Plate—is here, ready to wear the moment you put it on. . . .

You'll admire yourself and feel as though others admired you—and they will, too. . . .

It don't take such an awful lot of money to dress well, when you know where to trade. You may have a corps of tailors dancing at your attendance, but none of them can design for you prettier garments, than these Spring Suits which we are now showing. . . .

Your suit desire can be easily satisfied here. Come see. . . .

Miss Lydia Roberson's school closed Tuesday and she left for Gold Point next day. Miss Lydia will be missed by many as she was quite popular.

A nice new picket fence around the home of G. A. Kittrell certainly makes a decided improvement.

The farmers are hustling. The last few days of sunshine have given them the opportunity and they are taking advantage of the situation. We do hope they will diversify their crops.

Mrs. Bettie Taft and Mrs. W. B. Ricks went to Greenville yesterday.

Georgia's Peach Crop Will Be the Finest Ever Raised.

Atlanta, Ga., March 18.—J. H. Hale, one of Georgia's leading peach growers says:

"Georgia's peach crop, which will be the largest and finest ever raised, is safe from cold weather. Even a drop in the temperature to 25 degrees above zero would not seriously damage the crop. The bloom came three weeks later than the average this year and the flowers are the healthiest and most perfect I have ever seen."

Rocky Mount Loses $25,000 to $30,000 in Blazing Ice Factory.

Rocky Mount, March 17.—At this hour 11.25 p. m. the Southern Ice Factory, a 60 ton plant on the outskirts of town, wrapped in red waves of flame, is burning furiously and will be a total loss. Fortunately the building is isolated, and though huge glowing cinders are hurled into the night by the rush of the blaze, no other building is in serious danger, it is believed. How the fire occurred is unknown. It is supposed however to have caught from the furnace in the boiler room, the plant being in operation.

The value of the plant is estimated at between $25,000 and $30,000. The amount of insurance carried cannot be ascertained at this hour.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 19, 1904.

Sully's failure certainly gave the cotton bulls a jolt.

McBee's interview in the Raleigh Post does not help him out of the hole.

If Makemroff would come to North Carolina he might learn from our governor how to rake-em-off.

Greensboro got it. And Raleigh voted to make it unanimous, without apologies to Dan McLean.

Greensboro will give the convention a warm time, but it is to be hoped it will not be in the shape of a big fire.

Mr. Voter, paste this in your hat. If that poll tax is not paid by the first of May you can't vote next November. Will you disfranchise yourself?

When you start to the convention at Greensboro take out an accident policy. The Southern railway might run over a few democrats at the street crossings.

The failure of a firm that has been as prominent on the cotton exchange as D. J. Sully & Co., shows that it is not safe to put money in the hands of any speculator.

That was a nice little move Raleigh made to get the convention back there two years hence for good and all time. But we just bet that Greensboro don't offer the motion to make it unanimous.

The Durham Herald intimates that Hearst will have to start a paper in North Carolina if he expects to get any hollering done for him in this quarter. He has struck ascheme to save that expense by offering to the papers free pages of plate matter booming himself. It remains to be seen how many of them accept and print it.

The Way to Face Your Difficulties.

When fortune smiles one day and frowns the next, many a woman who has been tenderly and luxuriously reared finds herself forced to care for herself in the most undreamed of and practical way. If she be "to the manner born," she goes bravely to work and keeps her heart sunny and true, so that her face may reflect happy qualities. She is too sensible to pine and fret for what is lost, but turns to the brightness that gleams every now and then across her present pathway, and make the most of it until she has no time for useless regretting. You can trust this kind of woman in everything. She will do for any emergency, and has genuine strength and stability, despite her "gentle ways" and ready smile.—Sel.

If many of our schools would devote more time to reading, writing, arithmetic, and kindred branches of study, and less to bugs, insects and flowers, it would be better for the future of our country.—Waxhaw Enterprise.

There are numerous "consumption cures," but they all fall down when it comes to curing the consumption of beer and whiskey.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Mar. 18, 1904.

The red-hot fire in congress smoulders but it is not extinct. A lurid cloud hangs over the house, which emitted sundry lightning flashes yesterday when it became obvious that the McCall Investigating committee would not carry a bucket of whitewash and would exonerate from the hateful charges not much more than half of the republican members. Of the sixty or seventy charged with official improprieties, several are leading members of the house, and the fact that half a dozen are democrats does not seem to assuage the pain or allay the wrath. It looks as if there would be another volcanic eruption when the report is formally laid before the house.

Two prominent demands are being formulated, one, that rules shall be adopted defining the relation which a member of congress bears to the executive departments of the government—a sort of code of official ethics; second, that a general investigation into the executive departments shall be had to ascertain what they do with the money that is given them. The Treasury department under Mr. Shaw and the interior department, under Mr. Hitchcock, are the ones against which the gravest allegations are made. Both are charged with having recklessly used the money appropriated for them without reference to the commands of congress, and in deliberate violation of law. Millions of dollars appropriated for specific purposes have been diverted to other uses, and scores of clerks have been appointed in violation of law who never passed any examination whatever. This, in official nomenclature, is called getting clerks by the "underground route." Both the cabinet officers named, in addition to the postmaster-general, will have to defend themselves before the committee.

There are those who intimate that the president is to be as gentle as a lamb concerning anti-trust legislation. It is even hinted that the merger decision has reconciled the Rockefellers to their unfortunate position that they will contribute handsomely to the Roosevelt campaign fund. "There's no help for what has been done, only don't do so any more."

STATE NEWS.

Spring has come and the vicious chicken hawk along with it. A few days ago a hawk, of the blue darter variety, pounced down upon a young chick at the home of Mr. J. S. Simmons of Herridgs township, and the old mother hen with blood in her eye, and grit in her craw, seized the hawk and entertained him till Mr. and Mrs. Simmons came from about 100 yards away and relieved the good old hen of her burden and proceeded to sever the hawk's head from his body.—Clinton Democrat.

W. B. Ellis has put out between 8,000 and 10,000 peach trees at Woodside, on the Wilmington and Newbern railroad, also 15 acres in dewberries, and expects next year to increase the dewberry acreage to 50 acres, says the Carolina Fruit and Trucks Growers' Journal. At the same time he will increase the number of fruit trees to 20,000 or double the present number, besides other things he has in contemplation.

A FAVORITE REMEDY FOR BABIES. Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

When You Have a Cold

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

DO YOU WANT STRENGTH?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Animals and Rain.

It seems strange that no animal, unless it be the squirrel, seems to build itself a shelter with the express object of keeping off the rain, which they all so much dislike. Monkeys are miserable in wet and could easily build shelters if they had the sense to do so. "As the creatures hop disconsolately along in the rain," writes Mr. Kipling in his "Beast and Man in India," "or crouch on branches, with dripping backs set against the tree trunk as shelter from a driving storm, they have the air of being very sorry for themselves." But even the orang outang, which builds a small platform in the trees on which to sleep at night, never seems to think of a roof, though the Dyaks say that when it is very wet it covers itself with the leaves of the pandanus, a large fern.

No Time to Spare.

The mean man whose birthday gift to his son consisted in allowing him to wash the windows so the boy could look out and see the cars go by belonged to the same family as the man to whom the Washington Post introduces its readers. He was proprietor of a country hotel. The rules of the hotel kept everything under lock and key, and there was no chance for the casual loafer to get newspaper, pen, ink, soap or anything else free. There were not even free seats in the office. One day the proprietor saw a chronic loafer looking at the old timepiece which hung on the wall. The next day a large sign hung over the face of the clock. It read, "This clock is for the use of guests of the hotel only."

Brotherly Encouragement.

"I want to thank you," said Deacon Oldfield, "for the speech you made at the meeting of the trustees the other night in favor of issuing bonds for an addition to the chapel. I'm sorry I wasn't there to hear you." "Why?" replied Deacon Granby, "I thought you were opposed to the proposition?" "I am. But I can't blind myself to the fact that any speech you might make must necessarily help the other side."—Chicago Record.

Why It Isn't Legal.

In the New York Law school at a recent lecture on the making of wills the case of a woman in one of Rider Haggard's books was cited. This woman had a man's will inscribed in ink on her back. And the will was held regular and legal because it had been made in writing. After giving this practical illustration the professor called on John Smith, saying: "Is a will so inscribed regular and legal in your opinion?" "No," answered Smith. "Why not?" asked the professor. "Because it's a skin game," replied Smith. The professor felt angry enough to order Smith out of the room, but the class laughed so much that he decided to overlook the student's flippancy.

DISSOLUTION.

The firm of Coward & Patrick was this day dissolved by mutual consent, E. A. Coward selling his interest in the business to B. F. Patrick, and all interest and liability of E. A. Coward in said business is assumed by B. F. Patrick. This 14th of March, 1904. E. A. COWARD. B. F. PATRICK. Having purchased the interest of E. A. Coward in the firm of Coward & Patrick, I will be associated with my son, B. F. Patrick, and we will continue the business at the same stand under the firm name of B. F. Patrick & Co. Thanking all for their patronage to the old firm, we hope with the best goods and prompt attention to merit a continuance of your favors B. F. PATRICK.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

A SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS SPECIFIC

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes. "ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. No sanitarium treatment necessary; "ORRINE" can be taken at your own home without publicity. Can be given secretly if desired.

CURE GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Mrs. E. W. Clift, New York City, writes: "ORRINE" cured my husband, who was a steady drinker for many years. He now has no desire for stimulants, his health is good and he is fully restored to manhood. He used only five boxes of "ORRINE." Mrs. W. L. D. Helena, Mont., writes: "I have waited one year before writing you of the permanent cure of my son. He took sanitarium treatment, as well as other advertised cures, but they all failed until we gave him "ORRINE." He is now fully restored to health and has no desire for drink." Mr. A. E. L., Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was born with a love of whiskey and drank it for thirty-two years. It finally brought me to the gutter, homeless and friendless. I was powerless to resist the craving and would steal and lie to get whiskey. Four boxes of "ORRINE" cured me of all desire and I now hate the smell of liquor." Price $1 per box. Mailed in plain, sealed wrapper by Orrine Company, 217 14th St., Washington, D. C. Interesting book—Treatise on Drunkenness (sealed) free on request. Sold and recommended by J. W. BRYAN, Druggist, Greenville, N. C.

AN EARLY RISER.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

If a woman doesn't get angry when asked her age it's a pretty sure sign that she is a grandmother.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Men at a theater who are unable to get out between the acts for a smile are forced to grin and bear it.

Mr. Cleveland 67 Year. Old. Princeton, N. Y., March 18.—Former President Grover Cleveland was sixty-seven years old today. In accordance with his custom he spent the whole day at his home on Bayard Lane, with his wife and children. A few personal friends called during the day and offered their congratulations and numerous messages of felicitation were received from friends and admirers throughout the country. Mr. Cleveland has enjoyed better health this winter than for several years past. He is contemplating a shooting trip in the South in the near future and later will go with his family to Buzzard Bay to spend the summer.

Dorothy Dodd SHOES.

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe has that something in beauty and style that means individuality.

It possesses 'style' in the highest degree; it gives distinction to the foot. In the diversity of kinds there are styles for every person from the exquisite evening slipper to the sturdy winter street boot; they all have a light, airy gracefulness peculiarly their own, which is sure to appeal to a woman's eye. "DOROTHY DODD" Shoes Fit, They Fit Perfectly.

Shoes should always fit closely under and about the instep so as to make it impossible for the foot to slip forward and crowd the toes, while the ball and toes should have plenty of room thus giving free play to the foot. This is exactly what "Dorothy Dodd" shoes do. Our new Spring Styles in oxfords and sandals will be very shortly.
