WHAT WILL THE SPRING DRESS GOODS BE.

Spring Time Approaches,

Spring time approaches. With it comes a renaissance of Merchandise in all lines that have an adaption to season. This fact has interest for every woman. What will the Spring Dress Goods be?

Just now the scenes of styles are interesting, intensely so. . . .

Human needs create human questions. On one side the public is a vast army of human interrogation points. On the other side this store with its answers in surmountable. It matters not whether the question concerns a real or fancied need. A want is an incessant inquiry. We invite you to investigate and after you have investigated you will buy and buy liberal.

Umbrella was out of Commission.

The great fire was not what would be called a humorous experience for Baltimore, but there were a number of funny incidents to it. For instance, a man stood at the corner of Charles and Baltimore streets gloomily watching the progress of the flames and grasping the handle of a raised umbrella while the sparks rained down around him. An acquaintance approached and asked:

"Why have you your umbrella up?"

"To keep off the sparks."

"Well, it doesn't seem to be doing it very well. Look up."

The owner of the umbrella looked up and found that he had only the ribs left, the cover having been burned completely off, while a few smoldering holes in the shoulders of his coat proved the inefficacy of his expedient.—Baltimore Sun.

UNION SERVICES.

Great Opportunity for Christian Work.

At the union services in the Presbyterian church, Monday night, Rev. J. A. Hornaday preached on the parable of the sower. He forcibly and practically compared the different conditions of ground on which the seed fell to the word of God. The sermon was followed by several requests for prayer.

This morning's services were well attended and was conducted by Rev. F. G. Hartman.

The services tonight at the usual hour, 7:30, and all Christians are urged to go in the spirit of prayer. The meeting is affording a great opportunity for faithful work in the cause of Christ.

Quite a number of Masons from Grimesland came up on Proctor's gas boat to attend the opening meeting in the Masonic temple Monday night.

TEMPLE OPENED.

The First Meeting of Masons in their New Quarters.

Monday night marked an epoch in the history of Masonry in Greenville. It was the occasion of the first meeting of the lodge in its new quarters in the Masonic temple. While the temple yet lacks much of being completed in its entirety, the halls on the third floor have been made ready for use.

This opening meeting in the temple was not only attended by nearly all the members of Greenville lodge, but many visiting brethren were here from neighboring lodges.

A committee was appointed to correspond with the officers of the Grand Lodge and have them name the date for the laying of the corner stone and dedication of the temple by the Grand Lodge. This will be a notable day, and will no doubt bring the largest number of Masons to Greenville that have ever assembled here at one time.

The opera house which occupies the second floor of the temple will soon be completed and will be opened with a play by home talent for the benefit of the temple fund and another play will be given on the night following the dedication.

Mrs. V. H. Whichard went down Monday afternoon and placed flowers on the officer's desks. For this thoughtfulness the lodge extended her a vote of thanks.

Gave His Life For 2 Cents

Wilmington, March 20.—"Anybody give me two cents and they may hit me as hard as they can," was the playful challenge which cost Bud Merritt, a thirteen year-old colored boy, his life while playing with a number of companions at Eleventh and Chestnut street this afternoon. The challenge was accepted by Charles Henry Brinkley, another colored boy of about his own age. The Merritt boy straightened up, expanded his chest and the blow was delivered from Brinkley's fist in the breast. Merritt took the pennies, and remarked, "that's 2 cents easy made." In a moment he threw up his hands and fell over dead. Brinkley's father gave him to the police authorities, but later upon investigation of the coroner, he was released, the killing having resulted accidentally.

Seems Nearing the End.

Paul R. Outlaw, who was for more than a year associated with THE REFLECTOR and gave up his position last fall on account of his health failing and left in December for his old home in Hertford, went to the hospital at Tarboro last week, in the hope of being benefited sufficiently to enable him to stand a trip to Colorado. Information came this afternoon that his condition is desperate and it is not thought that he can live many hours. This is sad news and will be learned with regret by his many friends in Greenville.

No Lights.

As dark as it was Monday night no street lamps were lighted to relieve the density thereof. A large number of people were out at church, at the opera house and at the Masonic temple, and all had to grope their way home in darkness.

W. F. M. SOCIETY.

Good Record for the Past Year.

Reported for Reflector.)

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Greenville Methodist church, met in regular monthly session, at the residence of Mrs. Alfred Forbes, March 16th 1904, at 3:30 o'clock, p. m., the president, Mrs. Hattie L. Carr, in the chair.

After some routine business the society presented to Mrs. Alfred Forbes a certificate of life membership. The certificate was presented by Mrs. Wiley Brown in eloquent and well chosen words, as follows:

"When this society honored me by asking me to present this certificate, I was glad, because I felt, and still feel, that no one knew better than I the merit of her to whom it is to be presented. I, as a little child regarded you, Mrs. Forbes, as one of the noblest and best of woman, and this opinion, formed in childhood, has grown and strengthened with advancing years. You joined this society while yet it was in its infancy, and with beautiful loyalty and devotion you have clung to it through all the years, both in prosperity and adversity, and I trust that this token of our love and appreciation may be the means of binding you closer still to our beloved society, and inspire you still to work and pray for increased success for it. My prayer is that you may live many years yet, and be permitted to go in and out among us, so that others seeing your good works, may be constrained to glorify God."

This pleasant incident came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Forbes, who in a few words and with deep emotion expressed her appreciation.

The report for the fiscal year ending March 1st, 1904, was submitted, as follows:

Dues collected for the year	$19.75
Conference expense fund	3.00
Life members	60.00

Total $82.75

This society consists of twenty members, a certificate for life membership costs $20.00. Three certificates have been acquired by this society during the year just ended.

This is a fine record for this society, too much cannot be said in praise of the noble women, who for the love of Christ and the souls of men have prayed and worked together through sunshine and shadow that the light of the glorious gospel of Christ may be carried to the peoples of the earth who sit in darkness, without God and without hope.

Twice twenty other good women of the Methodist church should join this noble band without delay, and aid them in the blessed work committed to the church by our ascended Lord.

A Large Manufacturing Plant.

We had no idea, until taking a walk down there a day or two ago; that the plant of the Greenville Lumber & Veneer Co., located about a mile South of town, is an enterprise of such large proportions. The plant was started only a few months ago, yet it has already expanded until several acres are covered and the work of enlarging continues to go on. Besides having a large saw mill, the company makes baskets, barrels and boxes in which to ship truck and the output of these is enormous. It is a busy plant and adds much to the development of the community.

The Shirt Store of the Town

'Tis by reason of our immense Shirt trade, that we lay claim to the distinctive term, "The Shirt Store of the town."

We know that no concern gives the study of shirt fashions and shirt making more serious thought than we do.

The result is a high achievement in the Shirt business not equalled elsewhere in our city.

Our Shirts are imported and our Shirts are made for our trade exclusively. The designs and colorings are in advance of those shown by other Shirt dealers.

Everything new in Madras and genuine French Percales—both plaited and plain negligee styles—either attached or detached cuffs.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 22, 1904.

As McBee is satisfactorily shelved the state is ready for the next sensation.

One sign of spring is that the base ball agony has found its way back in the papers.

The Winston Journal sent out a handsome picture of Hon. R. B. Glenn as the "next governor of North Carolina." A little premature, but it would not surprise us if the forecast comes true.

The Idle Comment man of the Charlotte Observer, speaking about a cat domiciled in the quarters of a club in that city, says "Well, he has gone and had four kittens." That is a new one on the public, and it would be interesting to know just how Avery works it out.

The Kinston Free Press tells of an ox that has three horns, the extra one growing out on the tail. As the addition is on the wrong end for a horn it looks more like the ox in question has two tails. We refer this matter to the Charlotte Observer for decision.

While the democratic executive committee was in Raleigh last week most of the members were interviewed as to their preference for the presidential nomination. Parker came in as first choice and Cleveland second. Being from all parts of the state, the polling of the committee perhaps gives a good indication of the standing throughout the state.

The Washington Gazette-Messenger tells of the arrest in that town of two women who were practicing palmistry, the charge being that palmistry is fortune telling on which a license tax of $150 is imposed. The women were tried before the mayor, declared guilty and bound over to Superior court, but later the entire proceedings were withdrawn and the women dismissed on condition that they leave town. It is on the latter point that we make complaint of the proceedings. If the women were guilty of violation of the law they should have been made to answer for it right there and not turned off on other towns to carry on the same practice. It is too often that occurrences of this kind are acted—where tramps, suspicious characters or fugitives are arrested and forthwith released on condition that they leave town, when it is known they will simply go to some other town.

Praise for Killing a Man.

State Treasurer R. B. Lacy, when in Charlotte a short while ago, told a story that interested a good many people, and when a reporter was in Raleigh a few days ago he obtained particulars of the rather peculiar incident. There lived sixteen miles east of Raleigh a well-to-do, sturdy farmer named James Bunn. He made apple brandy, and it was his custom to sell no brandy, but to give a dipper full of it to any man who came to the house and asked for a drink. He never gave a second dipper to any one man on one day.

In April, 1865, Federal troops under command of Gen. Kilpatrick had possession of Raleigh. One day two soldiers rode up to Bunn's place and asked for brandy. He gave each a dipper full. They were already somewhat under the influence of drink. They rode two miles beyond Bunn's farm and then returned, demanding that the old man give them more brandy. He refused. One of the soldiers drew his revolver and presenting it to Bunn's head said:

"If you don't produce the brandy I will kill you."

Cade Bunn, a son of Mr. Bunn, was chopping wood a short distance away from the house. In the house lay William Bunn, who was just convalescing from typhoid fever. It was a warm spring day, and the window near his bed was raised. He heard the Yankee threaten his father and looking out the window saw the pistol close to his father's head. In a second he had picked up a shot gun and was sighting it from the window.

"Stoop, pa," he said in a low tone of voice. His father ducked his head. The shot rang out, and the Yankee who held the pistol propped from his horse, riddled with buckshot. The other Yankee fled.

Attracted by the sound of the firing, Cade Bunn ran to the house, and he and his father and brother held council as to what they should do. They decided quickly. They hitched up a one horse wagon, placed the body in it, covered it with branches of cedar and drove to the headquarters of Gen. Kilpatrick. There was intense excitement, and a double guard was placed over the prisoners that night.

The next day the trial took place, and the three men told their simple, truthful story.

There was a pause for a moment, and then the Federal commander said:

"My friends, you have done the bravest thing I ever saw—have acted squarely and honestly. You are discharged. If any other soldier belonging to this command comes to your house and behaves as this dead soldier behaved, I shall expect you to kill him, too."—Charlotte Observer.

From the "Once Upon a Time" Stage to "That Reminds Me."

Our earliest instinct is to ask for a story, our latest to tell one unasked. Human life is bounded at either end by a phrase: "once upon a time" at one end, "that reminds me" at the other. Above the first instinct we rise gradually, gradually declining to the second. Not that the narrative sense ever dies in us; only that in the plenitude of our powers we are not satisfied with a story that is nothing more than a story, a narrative for narration's sake.

The mind of a child is all agape for facts, for it is empty, and nothing is so quickly filling, so easily assimilable, as a dish of facts. Facts of fiction are preferred by the child to actual facts because they satisfy also its strong imaginative sense. Its moral and intellectual senses are still in abeyance. Deduce from any story "a moral" or an idea, and the child runs away rudely. There lies the difference between us and it. Our moral and intellectual senses are flourishing, and by their strength our imagination is proportionately weakened. Grimm is not enough for us. Our moral sense cries aloud for Hans Andersen. Dumas leaves us cold. Our mind needs Balzac. It is not enough for us that once upon a time there were three princesses or three musketeers who suffered or did some queer things. We want those triads to illustrate, to symbolize, to mean something, to corroborate or upset some theory that we have formed, to quicken our mind and affect our conduct.

Such are the prime needs of our maturity. Comes Time, mowing away with his scythe our intellectual and moral curiosity; nor does he restore to us our old imagination. He crops us bare of all but experience. Things that have happened—especially, old egoists that we are, the things that have happened to ourselves—are the only things that rouse us from our lethargy. "Anecdoteage" is an ugly phrase. "Second childhood," less harsh, is not less exactly descriptive. For our last state, the state where narrative is absolute despot, was our first state too.

How He Went.

When going about officially Lord Wolsley was very particular about appearing in uniform and expected all officers invited to meet him to come similarly attired. Some years ago he arrived at a certain town to inspect the troops, and some people in the neighborhood gave a large dinner party in his honor, to which the principal officers in the garrison were invited. One of these officers told me that when he informed his soldier servant he should dress at a certain hour, as he was going out to dinner, the man at once inquired whether he was going as "an officer or a gentleman." I may add that, as he was invited to meet Lord Wolsley, he went as an officer.—London M. A. P.

KODOL
Digests What You Eat.
Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol
Digests What You Eat

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes: After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammelled action. $1.00 Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c

Chicago

It has always been rather a puzzling thing to us why lawyers sometimes in selecting a jury, endeavor to get those who have not read the account in the newspapers anything concerning the crime with which the accused is charged. It seems to us that juries should be made up of the most intelligent men to be found and it is generally presumed that this class are readers of newspapers. There is no reason why an intelligent citizen should not sit on a case and judge fairly and impartially, even though he may know before hand all about the crime.—Roxboro Courier.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." AN EARLY RISER.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

COLDS CAUSE PNEUMONIA.

One of the most remarkable cures of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind. who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

REFEREE'S NOTICE.

PITT COUNTY, IN SUPERIOR COURT. In the settlement of the estate of Thomas J. Shepherd.

It was referred to the undersigned at January term 1904, of Pitt Superior Court to ascertain and report the distributees of the estate of Thomas J. Shepherd, dec., and the share and amount to which each is entitled.

A paper has been filed with us which purports to give a list of persons entitled as distributees and the manner in which they are entitled, as follows, to-wit:

I. That each set of the representatives of Catharine Floyd, Elizabeth Moore, Joel Smithwick, Margaret Gibson, Francis Hadley and Harriett Hadley is entitled to one-sixth of the estate.

II. That the representatives of the six sets of distributees are as follows: 1. Catherine Floyd is represented by Catherine Manoy and A. M. Shaw, who take her share. 2. Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

A SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS SPECIFIC

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes.

"ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. No sanitarium treatment necessary; "ORRINE" can be taken at your own home without publicity. Can be given secretly if desired.

CURE GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Mrs. E. Wycliff, New York City, writes: "ORRINE" cured my husband, who was a steady drunkard for many years. He now has no desire for stimulants, his health is good and he is fully restored to manhood. He used only five boxes of "ORRINE."

Mrs. W. L. D., Helena, Mont., writes: "I have waited one year before writing you of the permanent cure of my son. He took sanitarium treatment, as well as other advertised cures, but they all failed until we gave him "ORRINE." He is now fully restored to health and has no desire for drink."

Mr. A. E. L., Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was born with a love of whiskey and drank it for thirty-two years. It finally brought me to the gutter, homeless and friendless. I was powerless to resist the craving and would steal and lie to get whiskey. Four boxes of "ORRINE" cured me of all desire and I now hate the smell of liquor."

Price $1 per box. Mailed in plain, sealed wrapper by Orrine Company, 817 14th St., Washington, D. C. Interposing book—Treatise on Drunkenness, (sealed) free on request. Sold and recommended by

DO YOU WANT STRENGTH?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

When You Have a Cold

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

A FAVORITE REMEDY FOR BABIES

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville R. L. Davis & Bro. Farmville.

THE NAME WITCH HAZEL

The name Which Hazel is much abused. E. C. DeWitt & Co. Chicago, are the inventors of the original and only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. A certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Eczema, Tetter, Piles, etc. There are many counterfeits of this salve, some of which are dangerous, while they are all worthless. In buying Which Hazel Salve see that the name E. C. DeWitt & Co. Chicago, is on the box and a cure is certain. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Dorothy Dodd SHOES.

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe has that something in beauty and style that means individuality.

It possesses "style" in the highest degree; it gives distinction to the foot. In the diversity of kinds there are styles for every person from the exquisite evening slipper to the sturdy winter street boot; they all have a light, airy gracefulness peculiarly their own, which is sure to appeal to a woman's eye. "DOROTHY DODD" Shoes Fit, They Fit Perfectly.

Shoes should always fit closely under and about the instep so as to make it impossible for the foot to slip forward and crowd the toes, while the ball and toes should have plenty of room thus giving free play to the foot.

This is exactly what "Dorothy Dodd" shoes do. Our new Spring Styles in oxfords and sandals will be here very shortly.
