DROPPED DEAD IN COURT.

Jesse Kennedy Stricken While Testifying.

Thursday in Superior court at Kinston, began the trial of J. L. and W. T. Kennedy, on the charge of assault on Ed Hughes with deadly weapon. Last March just after a sensational trial in which all the parties were concerned, the Kennedys made an assault on Hughes on the streets of Kinston. Hughes was shot, and while for a long time it was thought his wounds would prove fatal, he did not die, but is paralyzed in the lower part of the body.

When the trial was started Thursday, Hughes was taken in court on a cot to give in his testimony. After the state had finished its evidence, Jesse Kennedy, one of the defendants, was put upon the stand in his own behalf. While giving his testimony he fell from his chair and in 5 minutes was dead. Three physicians were hastily summoned and they declared his death due to hemorrhage of the brain.

Mr. Kennedy was about 60 years old and was a very prominent farmer of Lenoir county.

A Big Swindle in Cigar Bands.

It was to be expected that sooner or later some unscrupulous genius would counterfeit cigar bands for redemption, but it was hardly expected that it would be gone into to the extent that has recently been unearthed by the American Cigar Company. A million tags have been made in imitation of their bands.

The individual is Alfred M. Fanning, of Springfield, Mass. He sent in imitations of a half dozen of the bands, and had it not been for inordinate greediness he might never have been discovered. But the unusual number of bands being redeemed from that city caused the first suspicion to be raised regarding their genuineness.

Fanning is an engraver, and the charge of forgery has been placed against him, because of the signature on every band. A quantity of articles, which he had secured for the bands, were found in his room. A half million bands were also found in his room.

Geese in Place of Negroes in the Cotton Field.

The rail fence in these parts is almost a thing of the past. In driving over the county a good deal of late, the writer has seen but one large field enclosed in a fence made of new rails. This one has just been put up by Mr. M. K. Biggers in Goose Creek. It encloses a large cotton field and was put up to keep geese in, as he expects to turn that big field over to these fowls to keep it chopped out. Squire A. W. McMauns says that geese are better than anything else to chop cotton, and since a good many people are expecting to be short on hands this spring, this may be a pointer. —Monroe Journal.

Ten Millions Bales.

The ginners report of the cotton crop, issued today, estimates the crop for the season at a little above ten millions bales. This being lower than expected, there was considerable advance in the price of futures.

The physicians of Pitt county in Convention assembled announce that their Black List will be placed in the hands of the subscribers by May 1st. Any one indebted to a physician for medical service had best settle their account prior to this date and avoid being placed upon the list. D Sw-24 to 1.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Its Progress During the Past Year.

In the Presbyterian Standard published at Charlotte, we find this contribution from Greenville relative to the progress of the Presbyterian church here during the first year of Rev. F. G. Hartman's ministry:

The second Sunday in March a year ago the present pastorate was begun. The morning hour of that day this year was devoted to hearing reports from the different departments of the church's work for the year just past, and the consideration of plans for future work. During the year just closed, two valuable additions have been made to the eldership: P. M. Johnston, a son of the late Rev. F. H. Johnston, D. D., and Prof. W. B. Dove, superintendent of the graded school. Two young and efficient deacons were also installed and 18 new members were added to the roll.

The Sunday school is well organized and doing fine work under the guidance of Supt. W. B. Dove.

The Ladies' Missionary Society has taken on new life during the year. With few exceptions every lady in the church is a member of this organization.

The Children's Missionary Society is efficiently led by Miss Mary Callum Wiley.

On Sunday night a series of union evangelistic services was begun in the Presbyterian church. Without any design this happy circumstance occurs to initiate the new year's work of the present pastor, Rev. F. G. Hartman.

Recent events have drawn all the pastors and congregations of the Greenville churches very closely together and with one mind and heart this united effort is made to win the souls of men and women to Christ.

Last Meeting of The Week.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will observe its last meeting of the week of prayer and self denial, Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. W. H. White. All money for home missions should be brought at that time.

Union Services

There were good services in the Presbyterian church again last night and this morning. The text used by Mr. Hornaday last night was "Not this man, but Barabas." and his sermon was an earnest plea for decision for Christ against sin. The interest in the meeting continues. Services to-night as usual.

Fourteen Bales.

J. C. Norman, a well-to-do farmer of Beaver Dam township, brought 14 bales of cotton to town today. He did not sell here, but had J. B. Cherry & Co. to ship it for him. Fourteen bales is a good lot of cotton for a farmer to have at this time of year.

THE WEATHER.

Occasional showers tonight and Saturday.

We give a man credit for being level headed if he isn't above our level.

Today is a good Friday, and a week from now we will have Good Friday whether it is good or not.

At New Bern a colored man came in contact with a broken electric light wire and was instantly killed.

Attention is called to the summons by the Superior court clerk in the case George W. Caroway and others against Godfrey A. Stancil and others.

END OF THE CENTURY CLUB.

Reported for Reflector.)

The End of the Century Club held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon, March twenty second, with Mrs. J. G. Moye. In the absence of the president the vice president, Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, presided in her usual graceful manner.

The subject of federation was brought before the club, and the vote to federate was unanimous.

After the conclusion of the business part of the meeting the following literary program was enjoyed: Reading of prophecy of Cramer concerning the reign of Elizabeth in play of Henry VIII, by Mrs. Quinerly, Quotations from plays by each member.

The visitors present were Mesdames Harry Galloway, J. Bryan Grimes, R. L. Carr and C. C. Vines. Mesdames Galloway and Grimes both gave interesting accounts of the clubs in their respective homes.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Misses Ethel Skinner and Mary James.

The club adjourned after one of the most delightful meetings of the year to meet April 5th with Mrs. R. Williams.

The world's cotton crop for 1902-'03 is estimated at 17,179,765 bales valued at $750,072,450.

The next agony will be spring house cleaning.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 25, 1904.

The state has gone a week without a new sensation.

If Port Arthur gets taken many more times it may be took.

Better hammer this thing in your head Poll tax unpaid May first means no vote.

The Wilmington Star, the oldest daily paper in the state, has begun its 74th volume. The lustre of the Star is never dim.

We are awfully sweet folks, you know. Some fellow has figured it out that the people of the United States eat $4,150,000,000 worth of candy a year.

Every citizen of a town counts, but we see no need of Greensboro wasting any breath over Mr. Blackburn if he had rather claim some other place as his home.

Even if you do not pay your poll tax by the first of May in order to vote, the sheriff can step up afterward and make you pay it anyway, that is if you have anything he can get his hands on.

No, anxious inquirer, the convention going to Greensboro does not insure that the nomination for governor shall go to that city also. But if Greensboro does get its balance of the state will hurrah for her man.

We understand some people complain because of the communication that appeared in THE REFLECTOR calling attention to the fact that selling articles by raffling is unlawful. That is peculiar, to say the least of it. If the laws of the state prohibit a thing and people violate the law unwittingly, it looks like they should appreciate their attention being called to it. The communication came from a source that is amply able to withstand criticism, but we felt like saying this much on the subject.

Here is the way a Benton county man confessed at a revival. He had been pressed to repent and finally got up and said: "Dear friends, I feel the spirit moving in me to talk and tell what a bad man I have been, but I can't do it while the Grand Jury is in session." When You Have a Cold

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bro. Farmville.

A CURE FOR ECZEMA.

My baby had Eczema so bad that its head was a solid mass of scabs, and its hair all come out. I tried many remedies but none seemed to do any good until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The Eczema is cured, the scabs are gone, and the little one's scalp is perfectly clean and healthy, and it's hair is growing beautifully again. I cannot give too much praise to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Frank Farmer, Bluff City, Ky., In buying Witch Hazel Salve look out for counterfeits. DeWitt's is the original and the only one containing pure Witch Hazel. The name E. C. DeWitt & Co is on every box. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

One of the most remarkable cures of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind. who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by John L. Wooten.

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities.
