WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., April 2. We would suggest that when the brick stores are finished a nice brick walk be laid in front of them before the workmen leave. It will add so much to appearances.

Mrs. C. A. Fair, of Ayden, spent Friday with Mrs. Sarah Taylor.

Mrs. J. H. C. Dixon and Mrs. Sarah Taylor went shopping to Greenville Wednesday.

A. B. and G. A. Kittrell have been to the capital city during the week.

J. M. Blow spent from Wednesday to Friday in Ayden on business.

Miss Clyde Dawson returned from Grifton yesterday.

Miss Mamie Nichols, of Standard, was visiting friends here yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. William Carroll, of Kinston, came up yesterday morning to visit friends.

R. H. Hunsucker and Roy Cox went to Kinston Thursday and returned same day.

The debate last night was appreciated and enjoyed by all. The department of the young men who participated certainly reflects much credit to the faculty of the school. There are bright minds among the members and some day these boys will occupy places in the world that will win for them not only admiration and esteem but will be a source of pride and gratification to their friends.

The Masons had a very interesting meeting last night.

J. J. Watson, a very prominent citizen of Wilson county, with his son was here Thursday and bought a first class Hunsucker buggy.

Every indication points to renewed activity in Winterville. The building boom, the oil mill, the addition to manufacturing industries are certainly cheering and inspires us with the belief that bigger things are in store.

W. H. Elks, of Standard, was here yesterday.

Miss Cora Hill, of Chocowinity, is visiting Mrs. B. T. Cox.

Miss Cora Braxton, of Ayden, is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. W. B. Wingate.

Will Byrd and wife, of Institute is visiting Mrs. Byrd's father, Wyatt Tucker, near here.

Work has begun in the garden and upon the vegetable in all its pride will be conspicuous on the table.

Oscar Rollins had the misfortune to stick a nail in his foot last Wednesday causing a very painful wound.

Little Misses Mamie Chapman and Janie Kittrell fell down the stairway of the school building Wednesday and were right badly hurt about the head and body. We hope our little friends will soon be well for they are favorites with everyone.

Miss Mattie McLawhorn who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. House, has returned to her home in Ayden.

Allen Kittrell has accepted a position with the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Miss Mayne Ives has closed her school in the country and more than one is glad that she will be home for some time.

S. C. Wells, of Wilson, who has been spending a few days here, returned home today.

BEAVER DAM ITEMS.

BEAVERDAM, N. C. April 1, 1904.

All Fools' day is warm and sunny. The birds everywhere are singing. A country without pretty women and singing birds would have no charms for me.

Edward S. Parker is recovering from an attack of pneumonia. He is a Confederate soldier (27th N. C.) and was with his regiment until the bloody charge at Bristol station where he was wounded.

W. G. Lang was laid to rest at his former country home on March 31st. A large number of friends and relatives attended the funeral. He was 73 years of age and was one of the wealthiest men in the county.

Frank Davis is a little boy's dad. We would all like to see the little Davis.

We see but few people traveling the road. Everybody is busy at home. Farmers are making good time and will plant as early as usual.

William Baldree is the early bird. He is planting corn. Hope Billy will get the worm. He is a good, hard working man.

G. T. Tyson says he is glad his leg is well so he can walk around on his farm.

Prof W. H. Ragsdale was out and made us an address at the close of Miss Tessie Speight's school. We were all glad to hear him. Miss Tessie is a small woman and taught in a small school house with 65 pupils. She is brave and is a nice little catch.

Boyhood Memories.

The Atlanta Constitution lets fly these thoughts: "Backward, turn backward, oh Time, in your flight; make me a boy again, just for tonight. Give me the bliss of that rapturous time when I would go swimming, say, half of the time; give me the blister that followed it then; make me a jubilant urehin again. Backward, turn backward, oh Time in your flight; give me one chance at the teacher tonight, the teacher that larruped me five times a day, oh, give me a chance at that teacher, I say. And give me the wood pile as big as a hill; let the pleasure of splitting it cheer me and thrill, while the boys gayly jeer from over the fence. Oh, give me that pleasure again—darn the expense! The smallest reservation just over the hill, where the thought of the hoeing would give me a chill, the cow that caressed me each eve with her tail as I tried to draw milk for a twenty-quart pail; the hens that were wanting forever to set; the pig with a stomach never filled yet; the measles that hit me; the colicky pain—oh, give me the bliss of my boyhood again! If you'd fill me with rapture and cheerful delight, backward, turn backward oh, Time is your flight!

Miss Nellie Whaley Dead.

It brought sorrow to many friends here to learn that Miss Nellie Whaley, daughter of Mr. F. G. Whaley, of the Beaufort County Lumber Co., died this morning at Suffolk, Va. Miss Nellie was attending school at Blacksburg, Va., and was taken sick there about three weeks ago. Her father went there to see her and found her condition such that she was moved to her grandmother's in Suffolk. Her death was due to heart and lung trouble.

Miss Whaley was in her 18th year. She had such a happy disposition as to win her a host of friends. Much sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing father in the loss of his only child. The burial will be at Suffolk.

As yet we have not noticed any North Carolina papers using the Hearst free plate matter. There may be some that have escaped observation.

Another paper, The Tribune, has been started at Mt. Olive. Fred R. Niniz is editor. It is a six column sheet and makes a creditable beginning.

Congressman Small has introduced a bill to establish a Federal court in the town of Washington. It would be a convenience to the people of the East for another Federal court to be established, there already being courts at Raleigh, New Bern and Elizabeth City, but Greenville being the home of the district attorney and his official headquarters being transferred here, we had hoped the additional court would come to Greenville also.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Mar. 31, 1904.

Interested parties in Washington are still making a desperate effort to have congress fasten a civil pension list upon the country. It fought to fail. If clerks who have been at government desks for many years at a much higher salary than is ever paid other clerks of the same class and a good deal more than the ministers or schoolteachers of the country get, or the average farmer, are so improvident that they cannot save enough to live on by the time they are sixty or seventy, they are stopped from asking the government to take care of them. If all the superannuated, in congress and in departments, could be peremptorily retired, and new blood given a chance to show what it could do, public affairs would progress with increased satisfaction and congress would not have to indulge in so much talk.

Congress having provided a new building to be used as offices for members of the house of representatives, and senators being unprovided for, many of them having offices in a building which has been condemned as unsafe, the plan of enlarging the capitol as originally designed by the late architect, Thos. U. Walter, meets with approbation. This will give Senators the needed room and be a splendid addition to the great building. The house has appropriated half a million of dollars to begin the work, which will cost in the aggregate two and one half millions. The central portion of the east front is to be extended, giving a magnificent entrance hall to the rotunda, 108 feet long. The new addition will correspond in style to the front of the senate and house of representatives, and add much to the dignity of the whole building.

What will it profit a man to oppose being taxed one dollar to pay interest on $200,000 to build roads in the county and damage his vehicles and team five times that much in one season pulling through the mud?—Burlington Herald.

It Was a Costly Smoke.

Last Thursday night night while a number of jurors in the Euhanks case were standing around the cigar counter in the Central hotel office. Mr. Tom Doster stepped up and bought some cigars and presented them to the jurors. Mr. Doster was arraigned in court last Friday for that offense and Mr. N. W. Griffin, the officer in charge of the jury, was also arraigned for permitting such a thing. Both Mr. Doster and Mr. Griffin stated that they thought nothing of the matter; that no idea was entertained of offering a bribe or of tampering with the jury. The court took the view of the matter that no offense was intended and let Messrs. Doster and Griffin off upon payment of the costs.—Monroe Enquirer.

Fasting and Prayer.

In the olden time there was a habit of having occasionally a day of fasting and prayer. We never hear, in these modern times, of anything like this. We do not, at least in a public way, as distinctly refer our misfortunes or our good luck to a divine Providence with thanks or submission as the case may be, as our ancestors used to do. In this respect also we find that times have changed and naturally speculate whether they have changed for better or for worse. The reference made here is to the setting apart by the governor or some other authority in the State of a special day for fasting and prayer and not to what people may do privately or on their individual account. It is possible of course that fasting and prayer are more common now than formerly, but also more private. If this is the case, perhaps it is better so.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Over in Virginia they have lately had a warm time discussing the reading of the Bible in the public schools. The preachers got into it hot and heavy and they differed as widely as the democrats do on their choice for presidential candidate. Some of them are still arguing the question. What is truth? The Master has said "my word is truth." And is truth to be kept from our schools? If so would it not be better to close them.—Durham Herald.

The 300 Filipinos who recently arrived on the grounds at the St. Louis World's fair have been caught by the cold snap. Many of the men spurned such things as pantaloons, sold those furnished them by the government, and preferred to array themselves in their native grass outfit. The grass clothing does not go above the waist and hardly reaches to the knees, so the sold is biting the Filipinos all over in spots.—Wilmington Star.

That these showings express masterfully the foreign and domestic dress idea for the Spring and Summer of 1904 goes without saying. A Cure for Headache.

Any man, woman or child, suffering from headache, biliousness or a dull, drowsy feeling should take one or two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers night and morning. These famous little pills are famous because they are a tonic as well as a pill. While they cleanse the system they strengthen and rebuild it by their tonic effect upon the liver and bowels. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Robbed The Grave

A startling incident, is narrated by John Olive of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in and awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Wooten's Drug Store.

His Fame.

"Your case," the doctors told him, "is absolutely unique. In the whole range of medical annals there is no record of anything like it. It is an entirely new disease. We congratulate you."
"You congratulate me!" feebly replied the patient. "Am I going to get well?"
"We can't tell yet."
"Then what are you congratulating me for?"
"We are going to name the disease after you."—Chicago Tribune.

A Good Idea.

"Say that you will be mine, dearest Angelina."
"I will upon one condition."
"Name it, my adored, and if it were to get you the moon."
"It is easier than that; in brief, simply this—that you will invite me to spend a month in your father's house previous to our marriage."
"Of course, certainly. But why make such a strange request?"
"Well, I wish to learn to cook like your mother."

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

A SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS SPECIFIC

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupefies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes. "ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. No sanitarium treatment necessary; "ORRINE" can be taken at your own home without publicity. Can be given secretly if desired.

CURE GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Mrs. E. Wycliff, New York City, writes: "ORRINE" cured my husband, who was a steady drunkard for many years. He now has no desire for stimulants, his health is good and he is fully restored to manhood. He used only five boxes of "ORRINE."

Mrs. W. L. D. Helena, Mont. writes: "I have waited one year before writing you of the permanent cure of my son. He took sanitarium treatment, as well as other advertised cures, but they all failed until we gave him 'ORRINE.' He is now fully restored to health and has no desire for drink."

Mr. A. E. L. Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was born with a love of whiskey and drank it for thirty-two years. It finally brought me to the gutter, homeless and friendless. I was powerless to resist the craving and would steal and lie to get whiskey. Four boxes of "ORRINE" cured me of all desire and I now hate the smell of liquor."

Price $1 per box. Mailed in plain, sealed wrapper by Orrine Company, 317 14th St. Washington, D. C. Interesting book—Treatise on Drunkenness, (sealed) free on request. Sold and recommended by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for croup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success.
