WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. June 4, 1904.

Lorenz McGlohon of Renston was here Friday.

R. W. Smith of Ayden has been here several days lately pushing the work on J. R. Smith and Bro's new store.

W. M. Barwick of Fort Barwell, was in town Wednesday.

A mad dog bit old Isom Richardson, Thursday morning. He was bitten on the calf of the leg. Dr. B. T. Cox said it would be necessary to send him to the Hospital in Baltimore. A subscription of about $50 was made up for him Thursday and he left on Friday train. Old Isom was an old time darkey and respected by both races here.

Mrs. Sue Cox returned from Greenville Thursday.

Misses Henrietta and Carrie Wesson, who have been visiting in Greenville since the commencement, came home Thursday.

Miss Olivia Cox, who has been teaching school, came home Thursday.

Out of 20 farmers I have asked about the governorship 17 were for Glenn, 1 for Steadman, 1 for Davidson.

I have recently taken two trips over parts of the territory, Beaver Dam, Chicod and Swift Creek townships soliciting stock for the Winterville oil mill. I did not hear the words "Hard Times" on either trip. The farmers were at work raising king cotton, sweet potatoes, hog and hominy. Saw very little tobacco in comparison to the crops I have seen in the same territory. Most of crops are nearly clean and look nicely, though need rain.

WHITFIELD-SPEIGHT

On Wednesday June 2nd, at 2 p. m. at the residence of the bride's father, Miss Anna Speight a popular young teacher of Pitt county and Mr. Jno. Whitfield of Martin county were united in marriage, Rev. M. P. Smith, of Robersonville officiating. It was a very pretty home wedding.

The following couples waited upon the happy couple. Miss Maggie Edward with D. S. Rollins, Robersonville; Miss Sue Carroway, Farmville with Zing Nobles, Miss Dorothy Johnson, Robersonville, with Abe Carroway, Farmville; Miss Carrie Jenkins, Robersonville, with R. E. Grimes, Robersonville; Miss Maggie Rollins, Bethel, with Oscar Speight; Miss Mollie Bryan, Winterville, with Jno Ross, Robersonville; Miss Fannie Rollins, Robersonville, with Jno. A. Jarrell, Farmville; Miss Tessie Speight with Will Keel, Robersonville. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party left for the home of the groom in Martin county.

THE ORPHAN CLASS.

Large Audience and Splendid Entertainment.

The class of orphans from the Oxford Orphan Asylum gave a concert here Friday night in the Masonic temple opera house. The audience was very large and the children gave a delightful program.

Everything about the entertainment was good and the audience enjoyed it. The children show that they have had excellent training. The net proceeds of the entertainment amounted to $86.

Mr. W. S. Atkins, salesman in this territory of the Steiff pianos, kindly loaned a piano for use in the entertainment.

This was the first entertainment given in the new opera house, and our people had an opportunity of seeing what a beautiful and well arranged opera house the town now has. The Masonic fraternity and town are both to be congratulated.

DANIELS RELEASED.

Judge J. C. Pritchard, the new judge of the United States Circuit Court, in Raleigh Friday afternoon, released Editor Josephus Daniels from custody and dismissed the entire action brought against him by Judge Purnell.

When Judge Pritchard reached Raleigh to hear the case under a writ of habeas corpus, he asked whether Judge Purnell's order granting Mr. Daniels the right of appeal had been issued before or after his own order to Marshal Dockery to produce the body in court before him. When informed that Judge Purnell's order had come after his own, he proceeded to decide the matter on the writ of habeas corpus, thereby rendering entirely void and invalid the last order of Judge Purnell.

This action on the part of Judge Pritchard, which was his first official act after becoming circuit judge, wins him the highest praise of the people of North Carolina.

THE LUMBERTON CASE.

The much talked of case of Judge R. B. Peebles against the Lumberton lawyers, during the progress of which Judge Peebles sentenced three of the witnesses on the charge of contempt, has been settled. The three witnesses in question went to the Supreme court under a writ of habeas corpus and won their case.

This was followed by an agreement between counsel that the entire proceedings against the Lumberton bar be dismissed. And peace reigns supreme once more.

Postmaster of Snow Hill Gone.

Mr. R. W. Beaman, postmaster at Snow Hill, has abandoned the post office, and Mr. F. W. Faircloth, one of his bondsmen, is in charge of the office. Mr. Beaman left on the 24th instant presumably to attend to some business in Kingston, and has not yet returned. Some think he is temporarily deranged, others think he has met with foul play. The postoffice inspector is here to look into the accounts of the missing postmaster. It is believed that his accounts will be found O. K. and no cause can be given for his disappearance.—Kingston Free Press.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 4, 1904.

North Carolina continues to be top of column.

A big cotton crop is planted and away goes the price.

North Carolina is about ready for the springing of the next sensation.

Cotton is getting where it takes only three figures to tell the price.

It does not always pay a judge to slap a sentence on a man because he is mad with him.

When you are about to make an engagement now add the proviso if you are not in jail.

The Winston-Salem Journal is doing some good cartoon work. The pictures hit the spot.

When Charley said walk, or he would send the sheriff with the military to make them walk, they walked.

Judge Pritchard is the biggest P. in the bunch. Purnell and Peebles can spell their names with a little p. hereafter.

If lawyers and editors are to occupy the jails you may look for a movement to have the prison houses made palatial

It is likely that all the candidates for governor will get some votes from Pitt county, but a majority of them will be for Glenn.

Judge Purnell ought to have seen at first that he was in error without waiting for the fact to be pressed upon him by higher authority.

McFee might get a job digging potatoes on some of the truck farms around New Bern. That might suit him better than trying to run a railroad.

Injunction, mandamus, receiver-ship, contempt, habeas corpus and other such term are becoming quite familiar to the people of North Carolina.

The town primaries worked surprises to some people. There will be other surprises when the county convention to nominate candidates comes around.

If Judge Purnell keeps Editor Daniels in jail much longer at Raleigh, the newspaper man will make so much glory and get such an increase in circulation out of it that it will tempt other editor to get sassy towards judges.—Wilmington Star

A strong movement has been begun in Washington and in New York in favor of the nomination of Ex-Senator Vilas of Wisconsin for vice-president on the democratic ticket. He is popular in Wisconsin, is a favorite of the immense German element in the Northwest, has been U. S. Senator for six years, and twice a member of the president's cabinet, and is undoubtedly one of the ablest and best informed publicists in this country.

Editor Daniels' friends have been generous in their offers of money to pay the fine; but not one of them has yet carried him the head of Judge Purnell on a charger.—Wilmington Star.

The lawyers of Washington are very angry at the President because he has appointed a justice of the District Supreme Court without taking him from among them. Yet 25,675 people of the District of Columbia are in government employ.

A gentleman remarked in The Messenger office last evening that he thought the saying "Hell's broke loose in Georgia" should be amended by substituting the name of our own state. We think he is about right.—Wilmington Messenger.

A German official demands an explicit definition of the Monroe Doctrine. The Washington Post glibly responds, "That's easy! Thou shalt not steal!" The Post is a vivacious paper, but it indulges in some snide definitions. The inside meaning of the Monroe Doctrine is of course. Thou shalt not steal anything that I may want to steal. That man had a very accurate idea of the Monroe Doctrine, who, when the minister asked if there was any objection to a couple being married rose and said "I object." On what ground do you, object?" asked the minister. "I want Hannah myself," said the candid swain.

The report of the national department of Agriculture upon the bobwhite, is of interest. It is shown that he is invaluable as a destroyer of weed seed, and that some of the pests which he habitually destroys are the Mexican cotton boll weevil, the pests of the potato crop, the cotton worms, the chinchbug and the Rocky Mountain locust. While doing all this good he does no harm to fruit, grain or any other crop, and with good reason he is pronounced the most helpful bird on the farms. Bobwhite thus has placed upon him the impromatur of the national government, and in the light of this report upon him, in addition to what was already known, it is seen that it is wrong to kill him under any circumstances and that to kill him wantonly is a crime.—Charlotte Observer.

Bill Arp's Ideal Girl.

Here is Bill Arp's bit of wisdom that fits every clime; every race, every nation and all time: "Once I was young, but now I am old, and I never have seen a girl who went back on her mother who ever came to be worth a one-eyed button to her husband. It is the law of God. It is not exactly in the Bible, but it is written large and lawful on the lives of many misfit homes. If one of you chaps ever run across a girl with a face full of roses, who says to tell you when you come to the door: 'I cannot go for thirty minutes, for the dishes are not wiped,' you wait for that girl. Sit right down on the doorstep and wait for her, because some other fellow will come along and marry her off, and then, you lose an angel. Wait for her, and stick to her like a burr on a mule's tail."

When hauled up in court to plead to the indictment that he had also eaten of the forbidden fruit, Adam straightway turned State's evidence. Eve became the principal defendant in the action, but Adam had to work out her sentence by "making bread with the sweat of his brow." Every woman in the land is prepared to believe that Adam got his just deserts because he went against his wife in the hour of her trial. Be it so that Adam made his excuse, but it did not work any more than those of his sons who stay out late and invariably get caught in the midst of their prevarications.—Wilmington Messenger.

THE STAR LOVERS.

Ancient Japanese Legend of the 7th of July.

Have you ever read in the "Stories From the Wonderlore of Japan" about "the meeting of the lovers?" The legend runs thus: On the banks of the silver river of heaven (which we call the Milky Way) there lived a beautiful maiden, who was the daughter of the sun. Her name was Shokujo, and she was so serious and so busy that all called her the "weaving or spinning princess." At last the sun king thought to marry his daughter to Kingin, a young man who kept a herd of cows on the banks of the celestial stream, but no sooner was she married than her character seemed to change utterly, and she became idle and forsook her loom and needle.

The sun king thought the husband the cause of this and determined to separate the couple. So he ordered the husband to remove to the other side of the river of stars and told him that hereafter they should meet but once a year, on the seventh day of the seventh month. The sun king then called myriads of magpies, which formed a bridge over the flood of stars, over which the lover-husband sorrowfully crossed the river of heaven. Then the magpies flew away, filling the air with their chattering.

After this the young wife returned to her loom and worked diligently every day, but every evening the two would go and stand by the banks of the river and gaze longingly at each other. Once a year they were allowed to cross the bridge of birds, except if it rained, when the magpies would be swept away. But usually the sky was clear on the seventh evening of the seventh month, and the lovers met with great joy. So in ancient times the people of Japan celebrated this date, hoped for clear weather and wealth and happiness for all, while the girls made a wish that they might be skilled in needlework.

This is the legend of the 7th of July, when the herdsman star and the spinning maiden star cross the Milky Way to meet each other.

Thieves' Cunning.

An ingenious trick was played by a gang of burglars in Sheffield, England. About 7 o'clock at night news was received by telegraph at the fire station that a large timber yard in the suburbs was on fire. The message purported to be from the owner, who added that there was not much flame, but plenty of smoke. The brigade immediately turned out, but on reaching the scene of the alleged outbreak found it had been hoaxed. The wires were at once put into operation, and it was found the message had come from a silverware manufactory almost opposite the fire station. The officers on gaining an entry found that thieves had ransacked the place. Large quantities of silver goods had been packed, ready for removal, and the burglars doubtless hoped to escape during the excitement caused by the brigade turning out. They had, however, been alarmed and fled empty handed before the arrival of the police.

A Brilliant Meteor.

On Feb. 12, 1875, an exceedingly brilliant meteor in the form of an elongated horseshoe was seen throughout a region of at least 400 miles in length and 250 miles in breadth, lying in Missouri and Iowa. It is described as "without a tail, but having a flowing jacket of flame. Detonations were heard so violent as to shake the earth and to jar the windows like the shock of an earthquake" as it fell about 10:30 p. m. a few miles east of Marengo, Ia. The ground for the space of some seven miles in length by two to four miles in breadth was strewn with fragments of this meteor, varying in weight from a few ounces to seventy-four pounds.

Not the Person Desired.

He had just consulted a story book detective, who told him how old he was, the number of his watch, the size of his shoes, how many children he had and what he had eaten for breakfast. Dazed, he groped for the doorknob and started to go.

"What's the matter?" asked the eagle eyed pursuer of the guilty. "Don't I get the case?"

"No," was the answer. "I want a detective, not a fortune teller."—Washington Star.

An Important Feature.

"Have you any references?" asked the renting agent. "Plenty of them," replied the prospective tenant. "I can refer you to the owner and the agent of the building I am about to leave." "Oh, that's unimportant," was the reply, "but if you have a line from the janitor of that building you might go up and present it to the janitor of our building, and if he O. K.'s it we'll be glad to let you have the flat."—Chicago Post.

Sometimes the girl's father strikes a young man favorable, and sometimes he merely kicks him out.—Chicago News.

Joe L. Wooten

does not hesitate to recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to his friends and customers. Indigestion causes more ill health than anything else. It deranges the stomach and brings on all manner of disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant but a tissue building tonic as well. Renewed health, perfect strength and increased vitality follow its use.

The social reformer generally wears magnifying glasses in his search for vice.

Ladies and Children

Who can not stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups and cathartic pills are especially fond of Little Early Risers. All persons who find it necessary to take a liver medicine should try these easy pill and compare the agreeably pleasant and strengthening effect with the nauseating and weakening conditions following the use of other remedies. Little Early Risers cure biliousness, constipation, sick headache, jaundice, malaria and liver troubles. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

If a man makes no enemies he has but few friends.

When The Sap Rises

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says, "I suffered with a cough until I run down in weight from 148 to 92 lbs. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by J. L. Wooten.

A man's tongue usually outlasts his brains.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Wooten's Drug Store.

True love seldom finds it necessary to express itself in words.

Thrown From A Wagon.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. For sale by Wooten's Drug store Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; anti-septic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment, Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

Sued by His Doctor

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

A bachelor would rather hold a 150 pound girl than a 10 pound baby.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets Better than a Doctor's Prescription.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine. For sale by Wooten Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bro. Farmville.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE.

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

THE ULTRA SHOE.

The salient features of The Ultra are its fine workmanship, excellence of material, desirability of style, and elegance of fit and consequent comfort to the wearer. These form the sine qua non of desirable footwear.

In addition The Ultra is equipped with our patent cushion insole, a device which gives the shoe flexibility and durability, insuring a maximum of ease and comfort to the wearer, and protecting the foot from the ill effect of the hot sidewalks of summer as well as from the dampness of wet weather. This feature alone is well worth the price of the shoe.
