WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. June 8, 1904.

Senator A. A. Forbes was here Tuesday.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry is attending the Teachers' Assembly at Morehead.

R. W. Smith, of Ayden, is here nearly every day now. The new store is nearly finished and will be completed before the 15th inst.

Allen Kittrell took a trip to Ayden and Renston Tuesday.

Robert Elliot, of Greene county, has been visiting his parents here.

Emmett Smith and wife have gone down to Vanceboro to visit Mrs. Smith's relatives.

Harrington Barber and Co., built a nice row of stables back of their stores for the benefit of the horses and mules that have to stand in the broiling sun or rain. These gentlemen not only look after their own customers, but are town improvers.

Felix Pitman was here Tuesday.

We need rain. The grass killing brigade is taking advantage of this dry weather and most of our farmers are about up with their work.

Miss Donie Abrams returned to Greenville this morning.

D. S. Chapman went to Greenville this morning.

Misses Laura and Mima Cox are visiting at J. B. Carroll's.

Mrs. Sallie Manning is on the sick list.

Mrs. Tiberius Nelson who has been quite sick is much improved.

Prof. J. L. Jackson who has been teaching at Conetoe, returned home Monday night. He is going to take a trip to Morehead before he gets married.

Fine Crop Weather.

The weekly crop bulletin of the North Carolina section of the United States Climatic and Crop Service for the week ending Monday, June 6th, is as follows:

The past week was decidedly favorable for agricultural interests in almost every respect. At most places the drought was broken by copious showers, the weather was much warmer and the condition of crops improved materially everywhere. The rainfall was heaviest early in the week, though at some places showers occurred nearly every day; the amount received was somewhat excessive in the following counties, where the land was washed and cultivation prevented for a few days. Orange, Northampton, Anson, Randolph, Wilkes, Alexander and Iredell; generally the rainfall was moderate in amount but highly beneficial to all kinds of vegetation. The temperature for the week was much higher; the mean averaging for the state more than 5 degrees daily above the normal; towards the close of the week maxima above 90 degrees occurred at most places, stations in the central part reporting as high as 97 degrees on Sunday, June 5th. There was also abundant sunshine. Except in the few counties where rainfall was heaviest and where farm work was stopped and grass has made some headway, crops are clean and well cultivated and farmers are generally well up with their work.

STATE NEWS.

The postoffice at Canton and Clyde, in the western part of the state, were robbed Sunday night.

Wilmington will hold a dispensary election July 27th.

SPEAKER TYSON SUES.

Pitt Countian Brings Libel Suit for $25,000.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 7.—A damage suit for $25,000 has been begun in the Circuit court here by Col. L. D. Tyson, Speaker of the Tennessee legislature at its last session, against the Journal and Tribune Company and State Senator W. L. Ledgerwood. The suit is the outcome of the bitter fight being waged by the friends of Senator William R. Bate and the supporters of ex-Governor Benton McMillan, who is fighting for Bate's seat in the United States senate.

Col. Tyson was colonel of the Sixth Immunes in the Spanish American war. Col. Ledgerwood is leading the fight of the Late Democrats in this county, and Col. Tyson, Attorney General Gates, and others are leading the fight for McMillan. Two delegations from Knox county sought recognition at the recent democratic state convention, but the Tyson delegation after a hot fight, was seated.

On his return from Nashville, Col. Ledgerwood was interviewed in the Journal and Tribune, and in it he charged that Tyson and Gates argued before the credentials committee that stealing votes from Republicans was proper. This allegation contains the alleged libelous matter.

COXVILLE ITEMS.

COXVILLE, N. C., June 7, 1904.

Job Moore opened the campaign of 1904 in Swift Creek township Saturday afternoon, by calling to order the democratic primary at Coxville.

The statesmen who will visit Coxville this fall to tell the people which way to vote will miss the friendly shade of the pine trees which used to stand on the historic triangle on which the Mason lodge stands. The Ayden Lumber Co. has cut them all down and carried them away.

Misses Julia Burney, Lizzie Burney and Fannie Roach are going to Morehead City this evening to attend the Teachers' Assembly.

L. B. Mewborn will list taxes at Coxville June 13.

A. B. Davenport was at Coxville this morning "Barkiss is willing". But the old man says she must not be of the Peggotty type. She must be just sweet 16. Thirty years ago his ratio to one was 16, so it is today. He ought to subscribe for the Commoner.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

EVERY AFTERNOON EXCEPT SUNDAY.

D. J. WHICHAID, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Entered at the post office at Greenville, N. C., as second class matter. Subscription rates: One Year, $3.00; One Month, 25 cents; One Week, 10 cents. Delivered in town by carriers without extra cost. Advertising rates reasonable and can be had on application to the editor at the office. We desire a live correspondent at every post office in the county and will send in brief items of news as it occurs. Write plainly, and only on the inside of the paper.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 8, 1904.

The managers for the different candidates for governor continue to do some figuring to find out who is ahead.

Capt. W. H. Day, of Raleigh, suffered a stroke of paralysis Monday and has since been in a serious condition.

The commissioners of Wayne county in response to petitions have refused to grant any more licenses to retail liquors in that county. That is a good way to make the county dry.

Charlotte aldermen have adopted an ordinance prohibiting the running at large of vicious dogs on the streets unless such dogs are muzzled. Every town in the state should have a similar ordinance.

When it comes to heading a procession, there are some people that will never head any, except a funeral.—Durham Sun.

And even then the undertaker will likely be in the lead.

Roosevelt has selected a negro to make one of the speeches seconding his nomination at the republican national convention. He should also have Booker Washington nominated for vice president on the ticket with him.

Good for Greensboro women. The Record says they have set a new pace by doing away with all manner of headgear and going to church bearded at night during hot weather. The innovation will bring joy to the male portion of the congregation as well as comfort to the female.

It has been hinted that some one is going to introduce a resolution in the county convention next Saturday, asking the next legislature to repeal the Watts law. If the report is true, the origin of such a resolution can be easily traced. The delegates to the convention will not be so easily trapped as some people imagine.

Building and Loan Association.

The Charlotte Chronicle recently published a list of the building and loan associations in the state, with the name, location of the home office and names of the president and secretary of each association. In speaking of the benefits arising from such organizations the Chronicle says:

"One of the most interesting vested interests in the state is that represented by the building and loan associations. These institutions are to a very large extent the savings banks of the working people. It is probable that the building and loan interests of Philadelphia are the largest and most important interests in that city. These organizations have given to Philadelphia a distinctive character in the respect, that its working people are better housed than any other working people in the world.

This in turn puts the manufacturing interest of Philadelphia on a higher plain than it would otherwise have been if her working people did not own their homes to so great an extent as they now do."

THE REFLECTOR has several times

referred to the fact that Greenville ought to have a home building and loan association. There is money enough here to start one, there are men amply capable of managing it, and the benefits to be derived by affording laboring people an opportunity to own a home are incalculable.

LET'S KNOW ABOUT THIS.

The people of the state would just like to know exactly what was behind the arbitrary actions of Judges Peebles and Purnell in the recent contempt proceedings, and just how much contempt for the state Judge Purnell felt when he made McBee a co-receiver. There was "contempt" of the law in the case of both the judges. The way the American people get at judges for contempt of this kind is to "rule them" with an impeachment. The state legislature could "rule" the one, and the federal house of representatives could "rule" the other. And such proceedings might reveal facts that both the men are unfit for their positions.

People want to respect their courts both states and federal. They want to believe that their judges are judicial in their temperament, governed by the law and that alone. They do not want to see petty malice enter the sacred precincts of the temple of justice and cast a slime over the contents thereof. They do not want to see the scales of justice tipped by inordinate personal vanity. Neither will they stand idly by and see the strong arm of justice paralyzed by ulterior motives of any kind.

The people have a right to know about some of these things, and to have the dispensers of justice in their midst either "purged of contempt" for the law and justice or convicted of the same. People have a right to demand a judiciary entirely beyond and above the suspicion of unworthiness. Indeed, the confidence of the people in their judiciary must under no considerations be shaken.

We need an investigation, and if it takes impeachment proceedings to bring out the "plain unvarnished tale," why let them come. Let's have the motives. Let's see whether they are worthy a judge or not.—Kinston Free Press.

Misses Bessie Chapman, Mamie

in August.

Sued by His Doctor

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coahella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis &
Bros. Farmville.

An egotist is a man who expects a woman to marry him for himself alone.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets Better than a Doctor's Prescription.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart,
Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine. For sale by Wooten Drug Store, Greenville; R.
L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.

girl enjoys acquiring relatives by

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE.

NO MORE EXILE FOR CON-SUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After
a Searching Investigation,
by St. Louis Internists.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption.
Out of 115 test cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery
is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost,
this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations
and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas.

The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer,
and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a laboratory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C.
P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call. —From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Thrown From A Wagon.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises.
It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. For sale by Wooten's Drug store Greenville, R. L.
Davis & Bros. Farmville.

courtship may develop into a cat

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones
are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and life
injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment, Chamberlain's Pain
Balm acts on this same principle.
It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville,
R. L. Davis & Bros. Farmville.
