GLENN FOR GOVERNOR.

NOMINATED ON FIFTIETH BALLOT

Special to Reflector:

Greensboro, N. C., June 24....

R. B. Glenn was nominated at 5 o'clock this morning on the fiftieth ballot, receiving 651 votes.

THE CONVENTION.

Greensboro, N. C. June 23—

The democratic state convention was called to order at 12:20 this afternoon by Senator F. M. Simmons, chairman of the state committee. Five thousand people were assembled in the convention hall.
The delegates gave ex Gov. T. J.
Jarvis a rousing cheer as he entered the convention. Other distinguished men were greeted with ovations when they appeared.

In calling the convention to order Senator Simmons made a vigorous speech at the conclusion of which he named Congressman John H. Small, of the first district, as temporary chairman. Mr.
Small also made a stirring speech, but both of the gentlemen had to cut their speeches short because of the noise among the delegates and their eagerness to get down to the work for which they had assembled.

After the speech-making the announcement of the different committees was made. F. G.
James, of Pitt, was on the credentials committee.

The convention then adjourned until 4 o'clock, and upon re-assembling the committee on permanent organization reported as follows:

Chairman—R. A. Doughton.
Secretary—A. J. Field.
Assistant Secretaries—E. E.
Britton and G. P. Pell.
Reading Clerks—W. L. Cohoon
and W. W. Wilson.

The permanent organization took charge of the convention, other committees made their reports, and nominating speeches for candidates for governor were in order.

Victor S. Bryan presented the name of Charles M. Sedman.

W. A. Self presented the name of W. D. Turner.

Locke Craig presented the name of Theo. F. Davidson.

J. C. Buxton presented the name of R. B. Glenn.

The friends of each candidate filled the hall with cheers as his name was mentioned.

The nominating and seconding speeches consumed until past 7 o'clock when the convention again adjourned until 9, then the battle of ballots began.

The first ballot, omitting fractions, resulted: Glenn 552, Steadman 416, Turner 118, Davidson
158. Several subsequent ballots showed some falling off of the vote for Davidson, most of these going to Glenn.

The telegram received this morning shows that an all night session was held and fifty ballots taken before a nomination was made. No news has come today from other nominations on the ticket.

Accepted Bids.

The board of internal improvements on Thursday evening completed the examination of bids for material to construct the electric lights and water works plants.
Bids were accepted for the entire equipment of both plants. The contracts go to several different firms. The work of construction will begin as soon as enough material arrives and it is hoped to have both plants installed by the end of the year.

NO FAULT OF THE WATER SYSTEM.

Washington, June 22, 1904.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Seeing the account of the fire at Washington in your issue of the 20th, I feel it my duty to make a correction; as the only thing true in the statement is there was a fire at the A. C. L. depot, but as to the building being gutted and the in efficiency of the water plant to furnish water, there is no foundation whatever. I think I can say in behalf of the citizens that not a town in the state has a more thorough equipped water system than has the town of Washington.
There were seven streams of water playing on the building, and the hose were bursting under the pressure, consequently we had the pressure reduced to 55 pounds which was held throughout the fire. Why the fire was not extinguished long before it was was on account of the fire being on the inside of the freight rooms, and the floors, which were of double thickness, were bolted from the inside, consequently the firemen could not get the water to the fire.

The firemen and citizens did heroic work, and it takes only the man that can stand off and do the writing to find fault. There are some people who prefer telling a talehood when the truth would answer much better.

C. F. BLAND,
Supt. Water Works.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS

WINTERVILLE, N. C., June, 24.

The charter for the Pitt County Oil Mill has arrived. The contract for machinery has been given.

There is a young gentleman down to Mack Smith's house and Mack is all smiles.

Miss Clyde Dawson went to Ayden Tuesday.

After a long dry spell we are having plenty of rain, but it is mixed with hard winds, hail and lightning. On Sunday about 4:30 p.m. a very hard wind struck this vicinity blowing down fences and corn. Two box cars on the side track here were blown 300 yards or more. They jumped the switch and went on the main line but did no damage. Agent Green got a crowd and pushed them back before the south bound passenger train arrived.

Tuesday night we had the hardest rain of the season, a regular gully washer. Some hail fell Tuesday evening and night.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 24, 1904.

It is all over and several of them did not get it.

Top of the afternoon to next governor R. B. Glenn.

The left estimators can now tell how their man did not get it.

They voted all night 'till broad day light, and nominated Glenn in the morning.

Now let those who did not get it throw themselves into the campaign in behalf of the winner.

The acceptance speeches that could not be aired at the convention might make good reading.

The Charlotte Observer says: "On July 28th they will be in the p."

The Observer must have just started over to Greensboro to the convention.

The republican national platform says "Our administration of the great departments of the government has been honest and efficient." The postoffice department must have been overlooked in the count.

The nomination of Hon. R. B. Glenn for governor brings much gratification to his friends throughout the state. He will make an ideal governor and will fill the executive chair with credit to himself and the state.

Ex-Judge Roberson, of North Carolina, must have committed the unpardonable sin from the way the republican convention in Chicago sat down upon him. They ousted him as a member of the national convention. Guess he can stand that better than he could attending receptions with negro members.

The republicans in national convention at Chicago adopted a loud sounding platform which patted themselves on the back vigorously. One sentence says "In the Philippines, we have suppressed insurrection, established order and given to life and property a security never known there before." This is certainly news to the balance of mankind. If such a transformation has taken place it must have been during the last few hours.

It is funny to see a flannel mouthed gas-bag of a fellow get up and beat the air and split his voice and swear that he is as much opposed to the contaminating influence of a still house as any man that ever walked beneath the pure blue sky. But he does not live the Watts law; it is no quite right. He says it discriminates against the country and gives the town the still house, which heretofore was in the country. This old rotten argument has long since been exploded. The country people are saying already that it is a discrimination in their favor to take the still away from them and put it on some one else. In this the country people show no thing but good sense and good horse sense at that. The time for fooling the country people is past. They do it in Russia, but it has passed in North Carolina.—Lexington Dispatch.

All the same, fifty ballots showed the sticking qualities of the friends of the different candidates.

With Fayetteville near the centre there are twenty one contiguous counties in North Carolina without either a saloon, distillery or dispensary.—North Carolina Baptist.

The fact that Hettie Green, the richest woman in the United States, dines daily at a cost of eight cents per day is subjecting Hettie to lots of newspaper notoriety. But why this continuous harping at Hettie and Uncle Russel Sage? Have rich people no privileges and no independence left them any more to eat or work as they please.—Durham Sun.

A Cute Answer.

The childish idea of things are original and sometimes wonderful, as bright and sharp. Master James Burch, the bright little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott Burch, was asked by his mother during the storm yesterday, "what is thunder?" To which he replied with remarkable acumen: "Dess de moon talkin, to de tars ('stars')." A bright idea for one so young.

Says the Concord Tribune: "A North Carolina preacher named Dunaway married a 'runaway' couple the other day, but there is nothing in a name." Go on away from here with your foolishness! You are just trying to get us to say that the runaway bride has Dunaway with her name. We hope that it will never be said of this couple that they have done away with the knot that Dunaway tied.—Atmington Star.

Some people see no wrong in giving a part of their salary to the man who lets out the jobs. Then too some people see no wrong in fixing or doctoring accounts, so as to make up for expenses. It is all right if they are lucky enough not to be caught.—Lexington Dispatch.

No, it is not all right. To doctor accounts is pure undadulterated stealing; and the man who does it to even up ought to wear stripes.

This talk about farmers not going to town because they can't buy liquor there is all rot. It is a slander on the farmer and a measly bid to merchants to advocate the open saloon. The farmers do not go to town to get liquor, but some of them, when they get into a saloon town are tempted and tried and persuaded by the insidious saloon until they do drink and get drunk. For a town to set up such "attractions" as the saloon to get business from the farmer should be resented by the farmer as unjust to him. Let the farmer beware of the town that tries to lure him into a saloon.—North Carolina Baptist.

The trend of things in the political as well as the religious world is toward the centres of wealth and power. This is not a new nor an original statement but it is a true one, and it bodes no good to the world. Money has popularized many things that were once odious, and the eyes of the public are dazzled by its false and dangerous light. Zeb Vance said in Fayetteville years ago: "Fellow citizens, let us remember that there are some things in this world that are better than money." We have left this old doctrine and are fast coming to believe that there is nothing else quite so good. But the truth is ever the same, and that is the eternal truth. Not what a man has, but what he is, is the real question.—Charity and Child.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 to 1 cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost, this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call. — From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., June, 24 1904.

W. R. Harris returned from Burgaw Monday night.

Mrs. W. B. Quinerly, Misses Sallie Bett Quinerly and Edith Broadway were shopping in Greenville during the week.

R. C. Cannon and Allen Cannon went to Greenville Tuesday on business.

E. E. Rouse, of Kinston, was a visitor here Tuesday.

George Cooper, wife and little child were visiting friends in town Sunday.

Mrs. Josephus Latham who formerly lived near Greenville and is well known there, has been on a visit to Mrs. Gardner of this place recently.

Rev. W. L. Bilbro and wife who have been on a visit to their son have returned to their home in Dover.

The rains are just coming lovely, the crops are looking good, the girls are smiling sweetly and the boys are just — Well!

We are requested to state that it is Wednesday night before the 2nd Sunday in July that Rev. A. T. King, of Greenville, has an appointment to preach in the Baptist church at this place.

Mrs. Mary Smith, of Winterville, is visiting Mrs. C. A. Fair.

Miss Ida W. Edwards returned yesterday from Fremont where she has been assisting as bridesmaid at the marriage of a friend.

Cam Nobles, Jr., came up from Kinston Thursday morning.

H. H. Hart, of Rocky Mount, spent Wednesday night here with friends.

Miss Martha Harding, of Centerville, is stopping with Miss Helen Quinerly.

Joe Stroud and Joe Anderson have returned from Farmville.

We regret very much to learn of the serious illness of Elder Fred McLawhorn at his home near here. Mr. McLawhorn had a severe attack Wednesday night of kidney colic and as a relief his physician administered morphine, since which time Mr. McLawhorn has been unconscious all efforts to arouse him have failed. It is feared his right side is paralyzed, besides much apprehension is felt as to his final recovery.

Charles Nunn, of Kinston, and John Nunn of Elizabeth City, are here on a visit to their brother Ben Nunn. John Nunn has accepted a position with the Ayden Milling and Mfg Co. in the trimming department. The business of the firm is constantly increasing and are continually employing new force to meet the demand made upon them.

Thad Manning, of Winterville, was here yesterday.

Bob Anderson and Clarence Cannon went a courtin' Sunday and the exercise must have proven conducive to their good health judging from the pucker of their lips as if green persimmons were of the delicacies they partook.

Several of young friends attended the lawn party at Chapman's grove Wednesday evening.

Ayden base ball team has an engagement to play Hookerton on Friday 24 inst. at Hookerton.

Ben Sheppard after a short visit has returned to Wilmington.

We learn E. G. Cox who is at Seven Springs for his health has so much improved that he will return home tomorrow.

Sued by His Doctor

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coahella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros, Farmville.

Oscar Dixon came home from Grifton yesterday.

While the county seems to be flooded with insurance men the companies represented by E. G. Cox must be of a very high order, if one can judge from the many and various inquiries concerning them and Mr. Cox since he has been away, and the seeming anxiety on the part of no few for his speedy return.

E. T. Ellison, of Winterville spent the day, Wednesday with C. A. Fair.

There are big preparations being made for some occasion in the pretty house next to the one where we live.

As regards the lecture Wednesday evening of B. W. Ha'cher grand lecturer of the grand lodge of Masons on "the building of King Solomon's temple" any attempt at description on our part would be silly. The man, the occasion and the subject of itself is sufficient for all to know it was grand, magnificent, sublime, from start to finish it was interesting, and our people appreciate the occasion afforded them of an intellectual fast so rare.

Mrs. Fordyce Harding and little daughter, of Greenville, are visiting Mrs. Will Quinerly.

Misses Blanche Cannon and Helen Quinerly attended the lawn party at Chapman's grove.

Thirty dollars were realized from the lawn party by the young ladies which goes toward the purchase of a library for that neighborhood.

R. W. Smith spent Wednesday night in Winterville looking after the store recently started there by J. R. Smith & Bro.

H. L. Blount and J. B. Briley, of Standard, took in the lecture Wednesday night.

Friend Tommie Smith has been confined to his room with sickness for the last two days. His smiles are missed and his presence badly needed by we boys at the store.

Amos Joyner, of near Winterville, was here yesterday.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and life injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment, Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros, Farmville.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets Better than a Doctor's Prescription.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine. For sale by Wooten Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros, Farmville.

For sick headache take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville; R. L. Davis & Bros, Farmville.

Thrown From A Wagon

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville, R. L. Davis & Bros, Farmville.

C. S. FORBES,
THE MAN'S OUTFITTER,

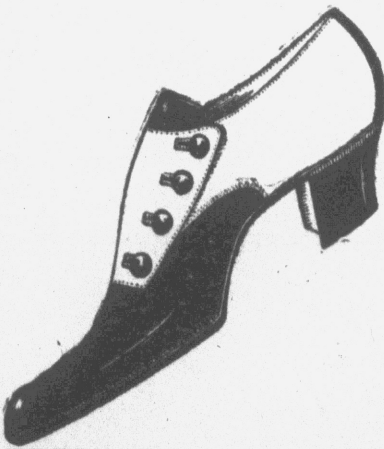

THE ULTRA SHOE

The salient features of The Ultra are its fine workmanship, excellence of material, desirability of style, and elegance of fit and consequent comfort to the wearer. These form the sine qua non of desirable footwear.

In addition The Ultra is equipped with our patent cushion insole, a device which gives the shoe flexibility and durability, insuring a maximum of ease and comfort to the wearer, and protecting the foot from the ill effect of the hot sidewalks of summer as well as from the dampness of wet weather. This feature alone is well worth the price of the shoe.

We present a wide range in styles and finish, and are able to meet the requirements of the most fastidious as the more conservative patron and we invite a thorough inspection of our line. Ultra in name, Ultra in character, Ultra in every feature that contributes to fit, comfort and style. In finish, material and workmanship we are proud to present to all lovers of good taste in footwear a shoe for which we have never yet had to make an apology.
