AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Aug. 19 1904.

Little Miss Mary Pierce spent yesterday in Greenville.

Frank Lilly and wife have returned from their visit down the country.

Mrs. Henry Manning, who has been visiting over in Greene is home again.

Mrs. J. W. Brown and children, of Greenville, who have been visiting Mrs. J. J. Edwards, returned to their home Wednesday.

Goodbye ye gold leaf, the farmers after this season will bid you adieu. Shut up the tobacco warehouses, send your salesmen home, and your buyers to a better calling, assign for the day of fleecing in tobacco is over and the farmers another staple will produce and seek another market more in keeping with his labor and more congenial to the anticipations of which he is justly entitled, yea, tobacco farewell.

Ayden is just alive with visiting young ladies. Beautiful, charming, smiling and bewitching, they fairly lift a fellow from his feet. If,—well if—but, it can't be, anyhow we can look.

Miss Maggie Creech, of La-Grange, is visiting Misses Lizzie and May Anderson.

We are pleased to see Jesse Cannon on the streets. He has been quite sick for a long while.

That little talking item in last issue has touched several tender spots. If only something could be said or done to cool the insolence of the callous youth in his presuming familiarity with his elders a mighty good will have been accomplished. The present gang are unusually fresh.

Benjamin Long, of Johnson county, is here on a visit to his children.

Miss Lizzie McGowan after making a short visit to Miss Lillian Bland, returned to her home in Greenville Thursday.

Miss Hattie Randolph, of Kingston, is spending sometime with Miss Lillian Bland.

A Young Woman Who Has Neither Hands Nor Feet.

Miss Ruthie Stiles has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George Stewart, at Bessemer City. Saturday she passed through Gastonia on her way home. Her father is Jacob Stiles at Catawba station. Miss Stiles has no hands or feet and walks on her knees. She is jovial bright and intelligent, and can sing well. She takes a pen in the fold of her elbow and writes "a good hand." Her father was offered big money to exhibit her with a show, but he promptly refused to make money that way. Miss Stiles can get along on railroad journeys and take care of herself pretty well in good weather in the summer time, but in winter the ground is too cold for her to walk on. Her father has only three fingers on one hand and a brother of hers has two fingers grown together.—Gastonia Gazette.

For Sale.

I have for sale on reasonable terms the most convenient lot in Greenville for a wood yard, together with a twelve horse engine and boiler, all belts pulleys and saws ready for operation, also a number one flat that will carry 50 cords wood at a load. Will also sell cheap to any one who means business a thousand cords of wood or less quantity if desired. A wood yard is very much needed in Greenville and here is an unexcelled opportunity to assure one who will give it the proper attention. O. L. JOYNER

WINTERVILLE ITEMS

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug. 20.

Mrs. J. H. O. Dixon has returned home from her visit in the country.

Mrs. Polly Smith returned home from her visit in the vicinity of Ayden and St. John.

Willie Buck has returned from Vanceboro.

Miss Mabel Kittrell, of Greenville, is visiting relatives here.

Harvey Cox has returned from Seven Springs.

Miss Mattie Stock went to Parmele Saturday.

Our popular deaf mute E. A. Bladree has two other deaf mutes visiting him. They seem to be enjoying their visit here. One of them is Mr. Brown and the other is named Williams. But as we can't talk on our fingers we can't find out where they live.

Miss Annie Lissa Carroll cooked a nice cabbage a few days ago. When she was cutting it up she found a small green snake about 2 inches long. His snake ship was cooked done but Miss Carroll did not have cabbages that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Byrd, of Institute, are visiting at Mr. Wyatt Tucker's.

Mrs. Albion Hixson and Mrs. Louisa Cox are out in the country visiting relatives. Mrs. Hixson is a niece of Mrs. Cox, and will return to her home in Alabama next week.

Work on the buildings of the cotton seed oil mill is being pushed rapidly. The buildings will soon be ready for the machinery which is expected very soon. They hope to be ready for work by the first of October. This will add greatly to the already extensive manufacturing interest that is in progress here.

The A. G. Cox Manufacturing Co., has its machinery placed in the new buildings and have resumed their regular work. They are far better equipped than they ever were at their old plant.

Professors Lineberry and Nye are very busy indeed canvassing and corresponding with prospective students. Seven engaged board in one night's mail this week and there were several other letters of inquiry. Everything is being put in readiness for the opening on Sept 5th. The school has a progressive faculty. When they are not engaged in their regular duties, they are off studying to better equip themselves for their work. The prospects are bright. Wherever Winterville High School is known it has a reputation for excellent discipline and thoroughness.

The Winterville Mfg. Co. is also in its new quarters busy as it can be. It has greatly enlarged its plant during the last two months.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry and family have just returned from Mill Springs in Polk co., where he conducted a teachers' institute most successfully for a month. They report quite a pleasant time in the mountains and they appear to be much refreshed.

Barbecue and Educational Rally.

At Quinerly school Pitt Co., N. C. Wednesday August 31, 1904 Professors Kagsdale of Pitt Co. N. C., Johnson, of Columbia, S. C., and Brooks, of Raleigh, N. C., will address the people on the different phases of educational and school work.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 20, 1904.

With wheat pulling around $1.10, the next question is, where is flour going?

People are expressing themselves freely that the county executive committee did the right thing in not ordering an all day voting primary. Such primaries as conducted create great dissension and dissatisfaction and are little short of a nuisance. Even those members of the committee who voted for the primary said they were personally opposed to it.

It is certainly a sign of better days ahead when the people get to taking interest in improving the public roads. Greenville is beginning to realize something of what the town has lost in the past by being surrounded with such bad roads that the farmers at times could not get to town, and is moving in the direction of changing such conditions. That is right, and every business man should take an interest and cooperate with such a movement. There ought to be some good work done on roads before the coming of winter.

THE REFLECTOR does not believe a man who declares himself opposed to the Watts law has a right to ask office at the hands of the democratic party, and the man who does so is inconsistent, to say the least of it. The Watts law is a democratic measure and was enacted by a democratic legislature. It was endorsed by the platform of the democratic state convention and was made one of the principles of the party. The republican party has selected the Watts law as the chief point of opposition to the democracy of the state and on this point is endeavoring to rally its forces. Therefore we repeat that no man who joins himself to this opposition, thereby putting himself out of harmony with his party, has a right to ask an office at its hands.

Rifle Practice.

The Secretary of War has made a new departure in issuing a circular looking to vast development of rifle practice, not only by the National Guard, but by cadets and also by such civilians between the ages of 18 and 45 as may desire to qualify as marksmen. It is the Swiss idea and also the Japanese, only that in Japan the youngsters begin rifle practice at the age of 12, that is, those in the schools of all kinds. The time was when the Americans were a nation of good shots, but relatively few now knowing anything about marksmanship. The purpose of the general government is to develop at least 5,000,000 expert rifle shots in this country; to have rifle ranges, well scattered and well equipped, and to give prizes. Ammunition is to be furnished at a low figure. It is a great plan in all aspects. Revolver shooting is also to be fostered.

The Pious Grumbler.

The person, whether he be a merchant, professional man or laborer, who gets too good for the community, ought either to make the community better or move out. We have no sympathy with the man or woman who is eternally finding fault with the town, and condemns every effort which is made for its growth and improvement.—Southside Sentinel.

A Sign of Defeat.

The presence of the Liquor Dealers' Association in any political party in this State only adds to the chances for its defeat on election day. The saloon business is at an end in this State, and the sooner some people realize it, the surer they are to save both time and money.

The State needs just one law in reference to the sale of liquor and only one, and that could be expressed in a half dozen lines. It simply ought to say that all whiskey or other intoxicants sold in North Carolina shall be sold through a dispensary, organized and constructed by the local authorities of the town or city where the business is done. People are going to have whiskey yet awhile. But a law like this will start them in the right direction, and as the years go by the consumption of liquor will gradually decrease. A little patience, a little wise, conservative action, is all that is needed.—Raleigh Times.

How a Tar Heel Did Up a Western Man

A Concord gentleman who recently returned from a visit to St. Louis tells how a Westerner he came across was taken in by a North Carolina dealer. The Concord gentleman was resting from a weary day's work "doing the show" and was engaged in conversation by a stranger who hailed from a section west of North Carolina. Finding the Concord man a Carolinian he confidentially told him how he was "suckered" out of some of his good money. The ad. he replied to offered "two year old North Carolina corn" for $1.30 a gallon. Knowing the fame of the Tar Heel variety, the Westerner sent his money, $2.60, and soon received by express two gallons of shelled corn, with no directions for use or comment. The Western gentleman told the story of his take-in in confidence, declaring, "you are the only man I ever told, and I tell you because you come from the State"—Concord Tribune.

Hon. John H. Small.

The unanimous renomination of Hon. John H. Small for Congress in the first district was a deserved recognition of an able and faithful official. In the years that have gone that district has been represented by not a few men of the first order of ability, but never by one who has in so short a term of service won more reputation or done more for his constituents. No member of the North Carolina delegation has won higher position. Mr. Small belongs to that class of public men who make things come to pass. To ability and knowledge of the needs of his constituency he adds zeal and industry, knowledge of men, progressiveness and has the essential of success—"keeping everlastingly at it."

The first district is wise to keep Mr. Small in Congress. He has done much to advance its interest, he has gained information—and made for himself a position that will give him greater power for usefulness.

Mr. Small belongs to that class of statesmen who lead and who lead in the right direction. He does not sit down and wait to see which way the tide is going so as to float with the waters. He is no trimmer, but a resolute leader who stands strongly for the measures that will best promote the welfare of the people. No man in the state has made his influence felt more strongly for educational progress, has had a larger vision of the commercial possibilities of Eastern North Carolina, or has labored more diligently since boyhood to promote the industrial awakening which is making Eastern North Carolina rich and prosperous. Nominated by acclamation, it would be an honor to the First district to also elect him by acclamation.—Raleigh News and Observer.

BENSONIZER LUNG CURE

NO MORE EXILE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

A Cure at Last Obtained, After a Searching Investigation, by St. Louis Interests.

A few months ago the attention of a few scientific and philanthropic gentlemen of St. Louis was directed to an entirely new method of combating that most dreadful of all diseases, tuberculosis, commonly called consumption. Out of 115 to 1 cases, 77 were completely cured and 28 have shown such improvement that their ultimate recovery is but a question of a few weeks.

So astonishing have been the results and absolute cures in cases pronounced incurable by all old methods that a company has been formed and is now prepared to furnish at a normal cost this cure to all sufferers of the "White Plague." One of its chief features is that patients can remain at home, surrounded by friends and relatives, and in a great many instances, especially the incipient or early stages of the disease, pursue their daily vocations and still become completely cured.

Patients receiving the same treatment here in St. Louis have completely recovered as rapidly as those in Colorado, New Mexico and Texas. The wonderful results in question have been accomplished by the Bensonizer, and the company which controls this marvelous medical device have located their main office at 417 North Seventh street, St. Louis. They have also located a factory on Easton avenue and a laboratory has been built at Hillside, Mo. The cure will be known as the Bensonizer Lung Cure, and Mr. C. P. Benson, the discoverer of the fluid inhalants which are used, will personally have charge of the affairs of the company. Mr. Benson will personally meet all who call at the office of the company on Seventh street, and will answer all communications from sufferers who are unable to make a personal call.—From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

DeWitt Is The Name

When you go to buy Witch Hazel Salve look for the name DeWitt on every box. The pure, unadulterated Witch Hazel, is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and piles. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months. Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Wooten's Drug Store.

If there were no weeds to interfere with the garden perhaps we wouldn't enjoy eating the vegetables so much.

A Sure Thing

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but this is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. Van Metre of Shepherdstown, W. Va. says "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery cured me absolutely. It's infallible for Croup, Whoop Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by J. L. Wooten Druggist. Trial bottles free. Reg. 12c 50c $1.

A Perfect Painless Pill.

is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by J. L. Wooten.

We are inclined to believe that the hardest work we could do would be what some men think is having a good time.

A Sweet Breath

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Nothing on the Market Equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation when the best is asked for. Mr. Obe Witmer, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customers, says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowels complaints." For sale by J. L. Wooten.

We have often wondered why some corporations did not try obeying the law just to see if it wasn't cheaper than hiring costly lawyers to fight it.

Sick Headache

"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and today weighs more than she ever did before and is real well," says Mr. Geo. E. Wright of New London, New York. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

The greatest bore in town is the man who insists on telling you his troubles when you want to tell him your own.

A Warning to Mothers

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give a child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel troubles appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by J. L. Wooten.

Poker Friends.

"No, I am not popular any more with the gang," claimed a business man who used to entertain largely at poker. "I haven't touched a card in seven years. The friends I made at the poker table were near and dear to me. When I lived on the seventh floor of a tenement, they flocked to see me nightly, climbing the stairs without a murmur. When I moved to the Bronx, they followed me. When I settled in Jamaica, the ride to my house did not seem too long for them, nor did they mind the journey home at 3 or 4 in the morning. When I realized that I was supporting them with my losses, I tore up the cards and cracked the chips with a hammer. When, to behold, every mother's son of them knew me no more! I lived so far away that it was impossible to find time to come to visit me. I am sure that if I had opened a poker game in the darkest cell in the bottom of the bottomless pit they would have come to play with me. To regain their friendship it is only necessary to announce a reopening of the game."—New York Press.

The Etiquette of Cues.

In China the men take as much pride in their hair as women, and the "pig-tail" is a thing of no little moment. In making the cue the whole head is shaved except a circular patch upon the crown. The hair from this is braided, and strands of silk are added, which end in a tassel reaching to the heels. In full mourning the black strands are replaced by white ones and in second mourning by light blue or green.

It is an unpardonable breach of etiquette for an inferior to enter the presence of a superior with his cue wound round his neck or head, as it is frequently disposed of during work, and the greatest insult one man can offer another is to pull his cue. It seems very odd to see sailors and soldiers on ship or in barracks combing each other's long tresses or coolies at the street corners performing the same friendly office. Custom forbids a man to wear a beard and mustache until he becomes a grandfather.

The Local Paper.

"Whenever any enterprise is sprung in a town for its benefit, the first thing the promoters do is to secure the help of the local paper to carry out the project, yet, as is often the case, the same promoters, when the editor comes to them to seek an advertisement do not see how it will benefit them any to use the columns of the paper all because, as they will generally put it, they have been in business so long that they are known by everyone, consequently they turn the editor down only to seek him out again when they have another pet measure to advocate and they want the public to get next. Reciprocity should be more freely practiced"

A Fourth Shamrock.

London, Aug. 19.—Sir Thomas Lipton is paying a visit to the Clyde for the purpose, it is believed, of arranging for the design and construction of a fourth Shamrock. In a published interview Sir Thomas said the yacht designers seemed to think that the change in the rules of measurement made in New York would give a little British boat a better chance of lifting the cup, but his own preference would be to keep pegging away on the former lines.

"It seems to me" said Sir Thomas, "that a victory scored under exactly the same conditions that governed previous defeats would be more satisfying than to win under new rules, especially alterations of our own suggestion. It is a matter, however, for which those are responsible who design and sail the boat."
