AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Nov. 7, 1905.

Sure Ayden is growing. As an evidence our chief of police right in the broad day light lost himself and had to be instructed as to his bearings. Certainly we are spreading. That too, at a tremendous pace.

The success of the Security Life and Annuity Insurance company, of Greensboro, is phenomenal. Our friend W. E. Hooks informs us that during the month of October its policies issued closed with over one half million dollars, and during the present year it has done more than three and one half million. They anticipate at the close of the next two months to make it reach five million for the year. This is remarkable and reflects much credit upon our own home institutions. Mr. Hooks himself within the last twenty days has written more than thirty thousand dollars.

Lee Bland and wife and Miss Lizzie McGowan, of Greenville, spent from Saturday until Monday out at Elder Bland's.

Late Saturday night some one shot a pistol or rifle ball through one of the show windows of Dr. M. M. Saul's drug store. There is no reason nor sense in such conduct and the matter should be investigated and the perpetrator severely punished.

Cotton has got to eleven, now for twelve and that will clean the platter.

Two more families have come to Ayden. M. B. Barber who has accepted a position with J. R. Smith & Bro. and lives in the new house out near the graded school, and Mr. Duke who temporarily resides at the Early House.

Mrs. John Hatton spent Friday in Greenville.

Miss Delia Smith is teaching the free school at Winterville.

Mrs. E. S. Edwards left Saturday to visit her daughter in Washington.

Cotton generates and degenerates as the market fluctuates and there can be no regular rates at all dates to suit the states of producers of cotton freights.

Our old and good friend, W. H. Hamilton, from Winterville, came Friday and spent a pleasant hour with us. We enjoyed his visit ever so much and hope he will do the like again.

Exhilarating—Friday when the whistle of the Ayden Milling and Mfg. company blowed for noon two horses thought mellenian had arrived and that "Old Gabe" had sounded the first note, and not being just ready to answer the call, made a dash and a break for a safer clime and in their mad career and terrible noise occasioned thereby frightened another team which too made haste to secure life and protect limb. A third horse, hitched to a cart near by, seeing the sight and hearing the noise deemed it wise on his part and good wisdom displayed when with a mighty bound, a vociferous snort joined the throng and between the three what was lacking to make the din complete was no fault of Ben Manning, Sid Moore and Joe Blow. The damage a badly shattered cart in top of telephone pole, a smashed up wagon and a nice little bill for the manufacturing company.

Miss Julia Breedy after spending the summer at her old home up in the mountains of Maryland and Pennsylvania has come home and her friends are pleased to see her. She left yesterday to teach school out in country three miles from here.

Mrs. Eunice Hall, of Goldsboro, is visiting the family of Samuel Mumford, near here.

Rev. W. E. Cox preached and conducted religious services in the Episcopal church here Sunday night.

STATE NEWS.

The first issue of the University's Magazine for this season has made its appearance.

The Baptist state convention will meet in Raleigh December 6th.

Evangelist Stuart is holding a meeting in New Bern.

The Western North Carolina Conference meets in Greensboro this week.

A new Methodist church at Oxford was dedicated Sunday, Bishop Granberry, of Virginia, preaching the sermon.

A flagman of the Southern railway has been arrested at Goldsboro for raising a $20 check to $70.

Boy 13 Broke Rule 13; 13 Went on Strike.

Pittsburg, Nov. 6.—Messenger boy No. 13, employed by the Postal Telegraph Company in this city, broke rule No. 13 of the company's orders yesterday, was fired on the spot, and in consequence thirteen other messenger boys went on a strike.

Rule No. 13 prohibits the use of cigarettes in the boys' quarters. Ralph Lightner, otherwise Messenger No. 13, was caught red-handed yesterday. Everything was against him, and he was told that his services were no longer required.

Then the thirteen went out in sympathy.

Then a count was made, and when it was found how the unlucky number figured in the affair, there was a mad scramble for cover. All of the boys were finally taken back with the exception of Lightner.

"Ge, we could..t win de strike wit' no such handiicap as dat," was the comment they made.

The Columbian Club requests the presence of

The invitations are very handsome, and there are only a limited number and can be secured by calling at Coward & Wooten's Drug Store at 10 cents each.

W. F. M. Society

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will hold an informal reception at the home of Mrs. Wiley Brown Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the occasion being the opening of the mite boxes. Every member is expected to be present and all the ladies of the church are cordially invited. Offerings will be thankfully received.

Died.

Mrs. Sallie Ann Moore, wife of Worrell Moore, of Carolina township, died this morning. Mrs. Moore was quite old and had been in feeble health for sometime. Last Saturday she was painfully burned by accidentally falling against a stove. She leaves a husband, who is also very old, one son and four daughters. All the children are grown.

His Peculiarity

"You must find that impediment in your speech rather inconvenient at times, Mr. Biggs."

"Oh n-no. Everybody has his little peculiarity. Stammering is m-mine. What is yours?"

"Well, really, I am not aware that I have any."

"D-Do you stir y-your tea with your right hand?"

"Why yes, of course."

"W-well, that is y-your peculiarity. Most p-people use a t-teaspoon."—Liverpool Mercury.

TUESDAY, NOV. 7, 1905.

By this time Prince Louis has been given an idea of what America is.

The Greensboro Industrial News shows a disposition to stand pat on that police libel suit.

The fact that cotton is bringing eleven cents puts others besides the farmers in a happy state.

With cotton at eleven cents the farmers ought to be happy. They have carried their point.

Has the matter of another daily train on this branch of the Atlantic Coast Line died a natural death?

The Industrial News must have money behind it or else Greensboro's chief of police is badly mistaken.

Greenville has numerous good sites for factories, but the trouble is that they are not being utilized for that purpose.

The High Point spirit ought to permeate the state. If it did some of the other towns might get needed factories.

The sick prisoner being kept in a hospital at Winston and was told to take a little walk for his health, is walking yet.

A football victory got on the side of the University team Saturday. That may encourage the boys to go to doing something for Thanksgiving day.

They hollered themselves hoarse for Mr. Roosevelt when he made his tour of the South, but they would not do it if he was running for president.

Some calendar makers have a way of making holidays through the year in red, but those who put Thanksgiving day for this year on the fourth Thursday in the month did not reckon that the president would have his say about it later and put it on the fifth Thursday.

I once heard of a man who, discussing a name on the visiting list, said to his wife: "You know perfectly well that I don't like that man." "Don't you think you are a little unreasonable?" asked the wife. "Your dislike arose because he did not answer a letter you wrote him, and you found afterward that the letter was hung up all summer in the pocket of your overcoat, and was never sent to him at all. 'Yes, I know that,' was the rejoinder, 'but it was so long before I found it out that I couldn't overlook his rudeness, and I never forgave him and I don't believe I ever shall.' There is a good deal of ill-feeling in this world that is without any firmer foundation.—Ex.

Mr. Joseph Benson Foraker seems to be supporting the president's railway regulation plan just like Sampson supported the pillars of the temple.—Commoner.

While the railroads often claim to be imposed upon by railroad commissions and the like, they are never willing to prove it by a reference to their books.—Durham Herald.

Most of us want to get square with our enemies before we forget them.

Some Little Fables in Lifting Rhyme.

Two Pharisees.

A Pharisee of gracious men who loved of all men to be seen, once to the temple took his way to pose before the world and pray, And lifting up his cunning eyes towards the bright and sunny skies he gave loud thanks—the story ran—he was not like the publican.

The Pharisee of whom you've read has for a long, long time been dead; but in his place in every land some other Pharisee will stand, and standing thus will pray aloud—not to the Father, but the crowd—and then imagine he is viewed with honor by the multitude.

A man with overwhelming gall who answers to the name McCall, swiped fifty thousand plunks or more belonging to the widows' store, and gave it to a sleek campaign in hopes to add unto his gain, but raised his pious eyes on high and prayed—and worked graft on the sly.

"Thank God," he said, "I did not swerve, but strove our honor to preserve." And as he prayed his pockets bulged with wealth secured by schemes divulged despite his loud emphatic plea that none were quite so pure as he. And with a nerve sublime he tried to point to his career with pride.

The Pharisee of olden time has long since struck another clime, and all the world declares with vim 'tis surely hot enough for him. The Pharisee who grateful feels because the profits of his steals were spent to further other schemes will sometimes feel just how it seems.

MORAL:

This life is full of guile and strife But graft lurks in the New York Life—The Commoner

If Mr. Hearst should win in New York it would not only be a blow to democracy in that state but all over the country.—Durham Herald

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated. Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat
Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds 24 times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size. Prepared at the Laboratory, J. E. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

BROWN'S HAVE GONE

But Blues and Greys are here to stay. The medium longcoat, with vent in back, single or double breasted is the coat that you should wear this season. It should be made with Military shoulders and to fit the body medium loose. We have it, made in all the new fabrics. Of course blacks and blues are good this season, yet a dark blue ground with a slight tint of green, makes an attractive suit. And greys, the have come to stay; everything will be grey next season.

PRICES, $7.50 TO $25.00

MACKINETTE COATS—This coat is the only coat that well dressed should wear; this coat is light in weight, yet it gives you the comfort than a coat many times its weight.

PRICES, $10 TO $25.00. SOLD BY
