RAIN COATS FOR LADIES

OVERCOATS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

FORM FIFTY-TWO
"EFF-EFF"
WATER-PROOF

Let us set you straight on the matter of Cravenette Overcoats. The most successful process for waterproofing a garment is that of Priestley's, and every Cravenette treated to their process bears their name, and when in addition to Priestley's Cravenette stamp an overcoat is identified with the label of Wilkinson the combination is one that insures not only a waterproof overcoat, but also an overcoat of fine fabric, with all the knocks of fashion and style that distinguish the "EFF EFF" Clothing people from the ordinary sort.

Messages and Papers of the Confederacy.

One of the most interesting publications of the day is a compilation of original official papers of the Confederacy. The compilation is made by Congressman James D. Richardson, of Tennessee, authority being granted by a special act of Congress to copy them from the official papers of the Confederacy that were captured at Richmond, at the close of the war and deposited in the government archives at Washington. The Washington Post is publishing this work complete in two handsome volumes, making it most useful for ready reference. A. B. Bateman and W. B. Earnest, representatives of the Post, are now in Greenville calling on prominent citizens and members of the Daughters of the Confederacy introducing the work. They have also arranged with THE REFLECTOR to make this paper local agent for the work, so that those wanting it may have a convenient place to leave their orders. THE REFLECTOR will have a complete set of the books in a few days which can be seen at this office.

DOES NOT TAKE ALL

But Sentiment in Growing in that Direction

The Kinston Free Press speaking of the recent victorious dispensary election in the town of Grifton, by which four saloons will close on January 1st, says that with the passing of the saloons at Grifton, Pitt county will not have a saloon in it. In this the Free Press is mistaken, as there are yet saloons at Falkland, Farmville, Fountain, Grimesland, Pactolus and Stokes, about a dozen in all after those at Grifton close. But the way the sentiment against saloons is growing it is only a question of time when all of them will be closed and the county freed from the saloon evil.

Hand Mangled.

Good Week.

The past week began with bad weather and the first two days brought little tobacco to market, but the pretty weather that followed made up for it, so that taken all together the warehouses had a good week. The sales were especially large on Friday. Many farmers who were selling made high averages.

THE REFLECTOR is in receipt of an invitation to the inauguration of Dr. W. L. Potat as president of Wake Forest College on Dec. 7th.

Reaching High Prices.

We had occasion to look through the sales book of the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Co. for the week, and were struck with the fact that there was not a day during the week on which prices for some lots of tobacco sold at the Farmers Star warehouses did not run as high as $50 per hundred, and some even higher. They were not just sample piles either, but large lots brought there fancy figures. It takes good work on the part of the warehousemen to get such prices for tobacco.

"Nothing But Money."

Abbott Davison and his musical company in "Nothing But Money" was the attraction at the Masonic opera house Friday night and it proved a success. Mr. Davison took the leading role as the Sporty Tramp and he was all that could be asked. The singing and dancing by members of the company were of the highest order. There were a number of encores and not an unfavorable criticism was heard. A return engagement would be appreciated by the theatre going public.

WILL SELL THE PROPERTY.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I see in an article in your paper as to the future prosperity of Greenville and asking where will the people get nice, desirable building lots. In this article the writer referred to my property which is in the business portion of Greenville and also in a good desirable neighborhood. When I bought this property I did not intend selling it but to keep it for my own use. But after giving careful consideration to the above mentioned article, I have decided to lay off the front in lots and will sell these to desirable people on easy terms, who wish to build on same.

Yours &c,
SAM WHITE.

It is said that Kentucky wants a mint. Great Scott! Kentucky would have no use for a mint unless it had a julep attached. There must be some mistake.

The card elsewhere in this paper from S. T. White shows that he readily accepts the suggestion to open his property in South Greenville for residential purposes. It is a splendid piece of property and no better location for good homes. We expect to see Greenville move right along out that way.

Must Care For Insane.

Governor Glenn issues an open letter to the superintendents of the hospitals for the insane at Raleigh and Morganton to the effect that steps must be taken at once to turn out enough of the harmless, indigent insane and pay patients now being cared for to make room for all dangerous indigent insane now in county jails in various counties. He also directs letters to sheriffs in all counties instructing them to make application at once to the superintendent of the nearest hospital for admission of all such in the respective counties and in the event the admission of any is refused he will take up the case.

Next year—just a year, in fact—another State election occurs. In order to vote at this election it is necessary that poll taxes be paid on or before the first of next May. It is therefore not too soon to be thinking about it. The limit is the first of May; it will do no good, so far as being able to vote is concerned, to pay the day after, though you must pay it some time, so why not fork it over and be done with it?—Greensboro Record.

Mr. Duke can continue through his trust to dictate the price of tobacco and rob the farmers at will; Mr. Kilgo can continue to be the recipient of favors at the hands of cigarette trust magnates; and Mr. Gattis—poor old feeble—will be allowed to work the balance of his days, if he is not to infirm to do any work, to pay the costs incurred in defending his good name.—Raleigh News and Observer.

TRINITY COLLEGE NOTES.

DURHAM, N. C., November 24th, '05. Dr. Edwin Mims is in Nashville, Tenn., as a delegate from Trinity to the Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools of which Trinity is a member. He is also on the programme of the Southern Educational Association which meets at the same time in Nashville to deliver an address before this organization.

The committee of the faculty on public lectures has arranged for a number of lectures to be delivered at the college by members of the faculty and other invited speakers. Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte, will deliver a lecture in this series early in December.

Rev. W. L. Grissom, of Greensboro, has presented to the Trinity College library a handsomely bound volume of his new book "History of Methodism in North Carolina." This book is the first volume of his work and it was designed especially for the library. Mr. Grissom is an alumnus of the college and his friends are gratified at the complimentary reception which his book has received. The second volume has not yet come from the press.

President Kilgo is now in South Carolina. On last Sunday he dedicated a church at Branchville, and since that time has been visiting relatives. He is expected home the latter part of this week.

Professor A. H. Meritt has been elected by the faculty as the Trinity College representative on the board of directors of the Watts hospital.

L. E. PENDER.

To the Cotton Growers and Business Men of Pitt County.

You are hereby requested to hold a meeting in each township first Saturday in December at 2, P. M. to organize and name from two to five delegates to attend a meeting to be held at the Court House in Greenville the second Saturday in December, the 9th at 1 o'clock.

This meeting is called for the purpose of organizing the cotton interests in Pitt county and to select delegates to the North Carolina Cotton Association which meets in Raleigh the first Wednesday in January, the 3rd. County and township organizations will be as outlined by the Southern Cotton Association. Each will elect a President, Secretary and Treasurer. The Southern Cotton Association is now recognized as a prominent factor in protecting the cotton growers interest and in keeping prices of the staple on a paying basis, and I trust all who are interested will meet and give us their hearty cooperation.
