VANDERBILT IN WONDERLAND.

Thanks the Lord it Ain't No Worse, and Gives an Invitation to a Feast.

Grifton, N. C. Nov. 10, 1906.

May the good Lord bless us all, Fellow citizens. But, gentlemen of the jury, how did it happen that you should have rendered such a verdict after hearing the evidence of all our big speakers, from Vanderbilt down to Skinner, Dockery, and several other big guns in the campaign? I know all we fellows told you the truth in our argyment, but you did not get the wax out of your ears sufficient for us to make you believe you understand. But gentleman of the jury, you should have set on that box as the great reservoir of American liberty and southern polytheism. You were to swing the great flag of justice over this immense community in hydraulic majesty and conjugal superfluity, you should have been the great triumphal arch over which evaporates the even scales of justice and numerical computation. You should ought to have assended the deep arcana of nature and dispose of this vexed question with equiponderating concatenation with science its future velocity and reverberating momentum. But, gentlemen, you must understand that the question you have decided upon one of Democratic eccentricity which was not allowed to walk in the primeval shades of universal freedom of political society, but had to endure the red hot sun or political harangues on the heights of nobility and feudal eminence. But gentlemen, it is a true saying, that it's a bad wind that blows no one any good, its my pie to tell you and everybody else, that I'm glad it was no worse, and we can cheerfully eat our Thanksgiving dinner thanking our God it was no worse than it was. I see it very plainly that I've got to go to school again and study the Democratic arithmetic and learn how to count, for it looks to me like that with my old fashion learning I ain't no count on the count.

But, Mr. Editor, we have rea-

TOOK AWAY CARS.

Southern Railway Treats Thomasville Like a Dog.

Thomasville, N. C., Nov. 9.—The Southern railway has treated Thomasville like a dog. Just after certain factories had secured some cars to load with chairs an order was sent to Thomasville to send by first train every empty car, regardless of size, to Danville, Va. Some of the factories had all the chairs ready to put in the cars and some of them even had them on wagons ready to be put in the cars at once while others had goods on their platforms ready to go out.

The citizens of Thomasville are exceedingly mad and rightly so.

Only a month or so ago the North Carolina Chair Association refused to appear at High Point to complain of shortage of cars. To-day's treatment shows how much that was appreciated. From all indications, probably a dozen claims will be filed at once and pressed strenuously. It was a dirty trick to say the least.

son to thank God for another good blessing which everybody, regardless of religion or politics, can enjoy, and are specially invited to give their presence at an entertainment in the town of Grifton, on the Wednesday evening before the Thursday of Thanksgiving day, to enjoy a rich treat that is in store for all who come. There will be a grand entertainment by the good brethren and sisters of the M. E. church for the benefit of the new church they are erecting at this place. It is a good and worthy cause and should have the good will of all men religiously inclined. So every one is invited to come, and don't be afraid to come, for you know when that good old Methodist bell sounds the call for worship she says, "Room for All," "Room for All," "Room for All." So come and serve the Lord the best you can. If you can't sing, pray. If you can't preach, pay, and lend a hand in building a tabernacle to the Lord.

Vanderbilt.

AN HONORABLE SEXTETTE

Chicod Takes the Banner all Around.

In the recent election Chicod took the banner by giving the largest majority of any township in the county. She is also entitled to the banner on the age of some of her voters. A bunch of six Democratic patriots walked up to the box at Black Jack together to put in their votes whose combined ages were 490 years. They were W. Haddock, aged 85; W. Hudson aged 84; James Elks, aged 84; W. H. Buck, aged 82; R. T. Wilson, aged 80; P. W. Arnold, aged 75. If a township in any county in the State can beat this sextette we are ready to hear from them. You can't down old Pitt as long as she has such Democratic voters as these.

Marriage Licenses.

Register of Deeds R. Williams issued licenses to the following couples since last report:

- White.
- James Avery and Estelle Sermons.
  - W. O. Grimes and Verna Edmunson
  - W. A. Sermon and Coonie Allen.
  - J. K. Briley and Mattie Nelson.
  - W. F. Warren and Pattie Manning.
  - Zeb Murphy and Mattie Smith.
  - Fred Carroway and Lillie Shingleton.
  - W. Z. Wilson and Lula Venters.
- Colored.
- Henry Speight and Lillie Parker.
  - James Williams and Annie Donaldson.
  - E. D. Telfair and Carrie Wiggins.
  - Jeremiah Daniels and Arqueen Nobles.

Quite a Walk.

A crowd out for a walk took a tramp down the new railroad opening Sunday afternoon. When they stopped and took their bearings they were seven miles from town. It seemed like forty before they got back.

BURGLARY IN TOWN.

Home of Mr. L. H. Rountree Entered.

There seems to be a gang of burglars working up and down the railroad in this section. One night last week some robberies were committed in Kinston. Saturday night the home of Mr. R. C. Cannon, in Ayden, was entered and several articles stolen.

Sunday night the burglars struck Greenville and the home of Mr. L. H. Rountree, on Pitt street, was broken into. Entrance was made into the house by cutting a slat from the window blind, by which means the blind was unlocked, and the window was then raised. The burglar went to Mr. Rountree's bed room and took his pants in the parlor and rifled the pockets of $16.50 in money. Nothing else was missed.

Weather.

Fair tonight, colder in eastern portion with probably heavy frost. Tuesday fair.

The Greenville Volunteer Fire Company meets tonight.

ing accompanied by Mrs. Gold and Mrs. Howard who had been visiting Mrs. Moye.

As we lay sweltering in the heat,
While you were miles away,
But 'worms will turn,' 'tis said;
'Each dog doth have his day.'
And now that fall is here
We've come, and come to stay
For nine long months with you,
So you needn't make a fuss,
For we shall teach and guide you,
And you'll have to obey us."

Sale of Blooded Stock.

At are opportunity by the Farmers of this Section to get improved stock at common Stock Prices.

On Wednesday November 14th, 1906 I will offer for sale at my farm, three miles West of Greenville on the Tarboro road about 150 head of high bred hogs, about 20 young steers some of them ready broketo work, and a few choice young bullocks of the Red Pole and Polled Angus breed. I will also sell some very fine farm mules. Only reason for selling mules is I want to replace them with mares for breeding. I am ordering this sale of improved stock simply as an experiment and if the farmers will buy this stock at anything like fair prices my purpose is to have an annual sale of improved stock. Here is a rare opportunity to get especially fine gilts, either of the Berkshire or Polland China blood, for common stock prices and the stock will be offered for sale in such a manner that everyone rich or poor, can have the same chance to purchase. In other words you can buy one or as many more as you like. Let everyone interested in this branch of farming attend his sale.

FOR THE LITTLE ONE.

Game of Fisherman Furnishes Fun and Exercise.

To play the game of fisherman mark off two lines across a clear piece of ground about twenty-five feet apart. Then let all the children count out to see who is to be the fisherman.

The fisherman must stand between the two lines of players and repeat the following rhyme:

Swim, little fishes, from the river to the sea!
Swim, little fishes—one, two, three!

At the word "three" all the children, or fishes, must run across his territory to the land beyond their opponent's line while they run he (the fisherman) must catch as many as he can.

Those who are caught now become fishermen and help him catch more fish. The game goes on as before, the fishermen all repeating the rhyme in concert until all the fishes have been caught.

Fierce Sea Monster.

Have you ever heard of a hammer headed shark? This fish is distinguished by the singular shape of its head, having the appearance of the head of a hammer. The eyes are gray and projecting, and when the fish is irritated the colors of the iris are like a flame. The most common species are long and slender in body, which is gray, and the head is black. It is usually about eleven or twelve feet long and weighs up to 500 pounds. It is bold and greedy for blood and is often found around ships even near the coast.

It has not the strength of an ordinary shark, but is more ferocious, and can strike with as much force. The sailors frequently have hair-breadth escapes from this dangerous creature of the seas.

An Official Blockhead.

"It is in many here, the same as it is in rural communities," pessimistically said the landlord of the Prantytown tavern, "to elect the biggest lunkhead in the region constable. But I estimate that we broke all records when we elevated Bill Slackputter to that position. Why, day before yesterday when a life insurance agent and a picture enlarger got into a fight down in front of the postoffice and bid fair to pretty nearly kill each other what did that doblittered booby do but wade right in and part 'em!"—Watson's Magazine.

In Self Defense

Major Hamm, editor and manager of the Constitutionalist, Louisville, Ky., when he was severely attacked 4 years ago, by Piles, bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of which he says, "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Quickest healer of Buras, Sores, Cuts and wounds. 25c at J. L. Wooten's drug store.

It is really one of the most wonderful tonics for developing the figure and soothing the nerve ever offered to the American people. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Wooten's Drug Store.

Modest Claims Often Carry the Most Conviction.

When Maxim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a great surprise instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. They do not publicly boast of all this remedy will accomplish, but prefer to let the users make the statements. What they do claim, is that it will positively cure diarrhoea, dysentery pains in the stomach and bowels and has never been known to fail. For sale by J. L. Wooten

For Your Convenience.

In the making of a Buck's Range your convenience has been considered. They are made with every modern appliance that tends to make them save time, energy and money for you.

Buck's Ranges are boxes that are practically hot blast in construction insuring economy of fuel.

They have sanitary white enamel, so ventilated as to bake ideal. Neither the top nor the bottom of the oven will warp—always smooth and level.

Let us tell you of their other superior merits. Sold only by $8.

Cheaper by the Wholesale.

When the late Charles Pease was landlord at the Pease hotel at Hartford, Vt., an old gentleman dropped in one morning and asked for a drink of brandy, saying that he was not feeling very well. Mr. Pease produced the brandy with water and sugar and told the old gentleman to help himself, handing him an ordinary drinking glass. The old gentleman poured out an ordinary drink and, fixing it to his taste, drank it. Smacking his lips, he said: "That is pretty good. I guess I will have some more." Filling the glass well up this time, he drank the contents and handed Mr.
Pease a quarter. The latter gave him back 17 cents. The old gentleman counted the change and said:
"You have made a mistake, Mr.
Pease. You have given me back too much change. I usually pay 10 cents, and you have only taken 8."
"Well," said Mr. Pease, "it is cheaper at wholesale."—Boston Herald.

His Special Line.

When the late Colonel Elliott F.
Shepard, son-in-law of Commodore Vanderbilt, bought a newspaper and started to run it he found that he knew little about the duties of active newspaper men. Although it was an afternoon paper, he made an innovation by employing a night city editor, and this was a signal for all kinds of people to seek employment on the paper. One day a very bright general writer sought the colonel and asked for a place on the staff.
The colonel then put him through a regular course of catechising as follows:

"Are you a member of the church?"

"Yes; I am a Presbyterian."

"Well, that is good. What is your special line?"

"I am merely a bohemian writer."

"Do you speak the language also?"—Leslie's Weekly.

In a Bad Way.

This old lady was a hypochondriac.
Her various diseases interested her, and she talked of nothing else.
One day a visitor found her eating heartily and inquired as to her health. The invalid sighed and answered, "I feel very well, ma'am, but I always feel bad when I feel well, because I know I am going to feel worse afterward."

Baited the Wrong Fish.

It happens sometimes that the cure is worse than the disease. It was in the case of the mother who tried to break her little Theodore of the habit of taking sweets off the sideboard. "We often have bonbons when there are guests to lunchcon," she said, "and although Theodore promises not to touch them I always does."

"You might do as I did in the same circumstances," suggested the neighbor, smiling reminiscently.

"What did you do?"
"I carefully removed the inside filling from a chocolate drop and stuffed the shell with red pepper."

"Did it work?"
"It might have worked," replied the neighbor, "if Johnny had happened to spy it. As it was, I forgot all about it in the press of other matters, and at dinner time the guest of the evening got it."

Conscientious.

At a cricket match, Married versus Single, the former took first innings, and chiefly by the aid of some blind hits by one of the players, named Jones, made a score of 84.
Just as the bachelors were about to commence their innings news of a local railway accident, in which some of the passengers had been killed, reached the field.

"I'm in a bit of a quandary," said
Jones to the curate who had organized the match. "My missus was in that train."

"Dear me. I'm sorry to hear it," was the reply. "You are anxious to get away, of course?"

"Well, no, sir. It ain't that. I was only thinking if anything has happened to my Mary I ought to be playing for the single chaps."—London Queen.

Pronouncing Greek Names.

Strictly speaking, it is not right to pronounce the termination "eus" in Greek proper names as if it were two syllables, e-us, but in one syllable, having the sound of ue. Orpheus, for example, is not Or-fe-us, but Or-fuce, the latter being the classical method. In spite of this, however, the e-us pronunciation is allowed by the dictionaries, that being the anglicized method. Zeus, the name of the supreme deity, according to Greek mythology, is an exception. It should always be pronounced as if spelled Zuce.

MONDAY, NOV. 12, 1906.

The Superior court of Graham county made quick work of the negro who shot Col. Holt last week. In four days after the commission of the crime the negro had been tried and convicted of burglary and sentenced to be hanged Dec. 6th. That is the kind of swift justice that satisfies the people, and where criminals are thus dealt with there is no occasion for lynch talk.

This talk by Blackburn of contesting the election of Hackett is simply barking up a tree. He knows there is no ground for a contest, and if he does such a thing North Carolina ought to be made too warm a place for him.

Peary went north and then came south again. And the North pole continues to do business at the same stand unmolested and undiscovered.

Marion Butler has not yet sufficiently recovered from the shock to tell how it happened.

It is about time for the next cabinet change to be announced, or the moon may get ahead of it.

Blackburn must be in bad taste when even many in his own party are glad of his defeat.

Mighty Near a Fool.

A North Carolina doctor, inclined to be mindful of other people's business, was riding along a country road. He drew up where a native was husking corn in a field.

"You are gathering yellow corn?" said the doctor.

"Yes, sir: planted that kind," was the reply.

"Won't you get more than half a crop?" volunteered the physician.

"Don't expect to, sir; planted it on half shares."

The doctor was somewhat nettled at this, and replied:

"You must be mighty near a fool."

"Yes, sir; only a fence between us."—Human Life.

Bystander Shot.

Saturday night there was some trouble between Mr. Joseph Rawls and Mr. J. M. Reuss in the latter's store. Mr. Reuss got his rifle, loaded it and started out after Mr. Rawls. Friends seeing there was about to be more trouble gathered around Mr. Reuss to disarm him, and while doing so the rifle was discharged. The ball struck the pavement and glanced and went through the calf of Mr. R. D. Gooch's leg. Mr. Gooch's wound was painful but not serious.

Golden Wedding.

Handsome invitations engraved in gold, have been issued, reading as follows.

1856. 1906
Mr and Mrs. William M. King invite you to be present at the Fiftieth anniversary of their marriage Saturday evening, November 1th nineteen hundred and six, from eight to eleven, Greenville, North Carolina

No cards are sent in town, but all friends are cordially invited.

Come Out Tonight.

Every business man in Greenville should bear in mind the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tonight. If you are interested in the progress and development of the town show it by your presence at the meeting. The place is at the mayor's office and the hour 8 o'clock.

Baptism.

Elder W. H. Laughinghouse, of the Free Will Baptist church, administered the ordinance of Baptism to one person Sunday afternoon, the ceremony taking place at the river.

Lock Up and Shoot.

See that your doors and windows are all fastened at night and then have a gun handy. Then you will not be in much danger of burglars. As they are around people cannot be too careful.

Bargain in Printing Press.

The Reflector will sell a 6 column quarto Monona leverless, cylinder printing press, complete with steam fixtures, at a bargain. It is practically new, having been in use only about 18 months. Can be worked either by hand or power and is a good press for weekly paper, having speed of 800 per hour. It will print two 9 column pages or four 6 column pages. Reason for selling is speed is not fast enough for daily paper with circulation as large as Reflector now has. Any one interested can correspond with us.

Idle Dreams.

Women, it has been learned, dream much more frequently, as well as more vividly than men; but on the other hand, it is now maintained that dreams, provided they are not mentally depressing, are both normal and wholesome. Hardened criminals dream little and great thinkers much. Evidence has also been produced to support a theory that dreams are the product of a normal, temporary insanity during which we disport ourselves with a refreshing lack of restraint—the weary brain being in a state of blissful anarchy. In this way regions of the brain left idle in waking moments are exercised and the grinding monotony of workaday life varied. This is one explanation of the fact that events which burden us the most during the day rarely enter our dreams.

Have your buttons sewed on tight this week. They will need to be strong when "Joshua Simpkins" comes on the 21st.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Wednesday Night, Nov. 21st.

The sensational rural drama, "Joshua Simpkins," will be produced at the Masonic Opera House Wednesday, Nov. 21. The play contains an interesting and intelligible plot, but is not allowed to interfere with the fun, which is said to be in abundance. During the run of the play some startling scenes and situations are seen, the principle of which is said to be the saw mill in third act, shown in complete operation, cutting up real timber. The saw used is the genuine article, the same as usually seen in large country saw mills. An excellent band and fine orchestra accompany this attraction. The band will parade at noon, when some good music may be looked for, all being dressed as farmers.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Information as to the use of Sweet Herbs in Cooking.

When a soup, sauce or vegetable is to be flavored with an herb or another vegetable the flavor should be added toward the end of the cooking period. Since the oils and other bodies which give seasoning to vegetables and herbs their flavor are volatile they are either driven off by long continued cooking or rendered much less delicate in flavor. Herbs that are to be left in the dish or served with the dish must be added just before the food is served. The herbs generally served with the dish are chervil, parsley, tarragon and chives.

Burnet, thyme, summer savory, sage and sweet basil are cooked with the dish a short time, not over twenty minutes, and are then removed.

Making Beds.

The practice of having beds made in the early morning, though exceedingly tidy, is one which should be discouraged, for it is bad. Constantly we see a bed made half an hour after the sleeper has left the room, wherefore all the exhalations from the skin during the night are confined beneath the sheets and are inhaled again when the bed is next used. It is an excellent practice, and one which ought to be encouraged in all young people, to turn off the clothes of the bed immediately on rising. The mattress, too, should be turned back so that all may be properly aired and quite cold before being remade.

Papering a Room.

When repapering a room it is well understood that for sanitary reasons all the old paper should be removed. If this is not done it should be remembered that grease spots in the old paper may keep the new from sticking well. If there is a little break in the plaster do not think that the damage is repaired by papering over it, for the paper drawn tight like a drumhead will break easily. Mix some plaster of paris with water and fill the places where furniture has gouged out a hole in the wall or a nail has been driven. Right preparation of surface means much in both papering and painting.

Utilizing Stale Bread.

Those who are trying to cut table expenses should never throw away bread. When it is too dry put it in an iron skillet with plenty of water. When it softens add a big chunk of butter and a little salt, sprinkled over, and let it remain covered for awhile. It will stick and brown. Loosen with a sharp knife and turn. Every one likes it with sirup or sauce for breakfast or luncheon. It should be soft, but not soggy, brown, not black, and hot.

Hanging Dress Skirts.

To keep dress skirts from wrinkles, if there are no patent hangers convenient, they should be folded down the center front, then the doubled skirt folded in thirds and a large safety pin thrust through the folds. The safety pin, when fastened, is used as a hanger, and in this way the skirt hangs straight, with no strain on any part of the waistband.

Pickle Test.

If you suspect that pickles have been colored with copper you can satisfy yourself with a very simple test. Put some piece of the pickle into a vial containing a mixture of equal parts of ammonia and water, says the Portland Express. If there is any copper present the liquid will become blue in color.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

Testing His Heroism.

He had been courting the girl for a long time. It happened on Sunday night after church. They were sitting on the sofa, and she looked with ineffable tenderness into his noble blue eyes.

"Tom," she murmured, with a tremor in her voice, "didn't you tell me once you would be willing to do any act of heroism for my sake?"

"Yes, Mary, and I gladly reiterate that statement now," he replied in confident tones. "No noble Roman of old was fired with a loftier ambition, a braver resolution, than I."

"Well, Tom, I want you to do something really heroic for me."

"Speak, darling! What is it?"

"Ask me to be your wife. We've been fooling long enough."

Birds' Calls.

There are many birds of which the male and female have the same call, such as the raven, the rook, the New Zealand parson bird and the gull, and to the highly cultivated musical ear a difference in pitch may be perceived which would escape the ordinary observer. With the true songsters there is little difference in the vocal organs of the two sexes, although the males of most species sing better and more continuously than the females.

WORK AND EFFICIENCY.

Simple Remedy For Every Man—How to Make Life Healthy.

It is the kind of work in which a man is engaged which determines him the special meaning of the word "efficiency." The success of his efforts may depend upon the quantity of his output or it may depend upon its quality. Quality! Quantity! Upon these two hang all the laws of efficiency.

For each of us it is possible to increase the duration of his best moments and to render them more frequent. It is also possible for us to reduce the number and the length of those periods of depression and of vitality when our work miscarries and our lives lack snap and enthusiasm. If we succeed in bringing about such a change we shall have raised the whole plane of our living something higher and more admirable. Our work will be productive of results that would otherwise have been quite beyond our reach. There are conditions for each individual under which he can do the best and the best work. It is his business to ascertain those conditions and to comply with them.

It is useless for the nervous, highly strung, quickly fatigued man to try to live by the same programme as the phlegmatic, even tempered neighbor. The conditions under which the two men produce the best results are not identical. The man who can't work at his best until after a long period of warming ought to stick to his job, when once he has got it, as long as he can keep up to a high grade level. That is the real economy for him. On the other hand, the man who accomplishes most when he works by fits and takes intervals of play seven times ought not to feel that he is doing wrong when he stops up imitating the steady worker. System and continuous drive decrease, not increase, his efficiency. Both men can do high class work, but not under the same conditions.

Every man ought to discover the special conditions of his own best work and try to make such conditions for himself in so far as he can. Otherwise there is a waste of energy. Nothing is gained and much is lost through trying to run everything through the same mold.—World's Work.

Mr. Whyte and Mr. Gorman.

In the summer of 1871 Mr. Whyte, the new senator from Maryland, then senator and Democratic leader, was seated in his law office in Lexington street, between Maryland and Calvert. A slender young man, slightly above medium height, with a pale, intellectual face, straight black hair and large, blue eyes, entered the room of the senator and party leader, examining a law report and, with a winning smile and putting his hand on the senator's shoulder, said: "Senator Whyte, I have come in today that I am favorable to your nomination for governor. I am Arthur Gorman of Howard county." Although he had heard of him as a rising young Democrat, it was Whyte's first meeting with the Senator Gorman.

When the legislature of 1872 convened the county leaders went to Governor Whyte, who had just been inaugurated, for advice as to the opinion of the speaker of the house delegates. With characteristic boldness and discernment the governor said: "Why, you have just the man for the place."

"Who?" the then "state crowd" asked in chorus.

"Young Gorman of Howard," answered Governor Whyte, whose name was law, and Mr. Gorman became the speaker.—Baltimore Sun.

The Widow He Married

A young man who was a widower had three grown-up daughters. Having occasion to go away on a visit for a few weeks, he wrote home from time to time. In one of his letters he informed them that he had married a strapping widow with six children.

"You may imagine what a stir this news caused in the household. When he returned home one of his daughters, her eyes red with weeping, said: "Where's the widow you married, father?"

"I married her to another man."

THE REASON WHY

It is only by reason of the maker's intimate, thorough knowledge of women's tastes and the requirements of her feet that "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes have achieved their marvelous success. First, they satisfy the eye and lend real distinction to the foot. Secondly, they fit women's feet as only "Dorothy Dodd's" can fit. Thirdly, their large sale permits them to be sold at a moderate price. This store secured and controls the sale of these splendid shoes, because it believes them to offer the wearer more real value and satisfaction than any others possible to procure. New styles now ready. Glad to show even though you do not care to buy.
