SURPRISE WEDDING OF DANVILLE MAN.

Miss Louiss Jett Became Bride at Broadnax of Mr. Z. V. Johnson.

A surprise wedding was performed today at Broadnax, Va., when Miss Louise Jett, a charming young lady of that place, became the bride of Mr. Z. V. Johnson, a popular merchant of Danville. No announcement had been made of the affair and the first news of the culmination of the romance flashed over the wires shortly after the nuptial knot had been tied in the form of a telegram to Mr. J. L. Cherrault, the manager for Mr. Johnson's establishment here.

Mr. Johnson left the city on a midnight train last night and even his best friends thought he was going off on a business trip and little dreamed that he had planned a matrimonial venture. No details of the marriage have been secured here, but it is learned that it took place this morning at the home of the bride's mother.

The bride is a beautiful and attractive young lady and has on many occasions been a visitor to Danville, where she won for herself many friends by her rare beauty, delightful personality and lovely disposition. She has been the recipient of much social attention wherever she has visited, and is endowed with all the traits that go to make up a sweet and good wife.

Mr. Johnson came to Danville about four years ago from Lynchburg, and embarked in the mercantile business.

He is a prosperous young business man and has won for himself through his fine business sagacity and close application a place in the foremost ranks of the commercial world here. Mr. Johnson is popular among all with whom he is acquainted, and has a host of friends in Danville and other cities, who wish him and his wife no end of pleasure and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are expected to arrive in the city on one of the afternoon trains. They will make their future home here and expect to leave on Christmas day for a bridal tour.

—Danville Bee, 12th.

Mr. Johnson might be called a Greenville, boy, and he has a large number of friends and some relatives here. While raised in Scotland Neck, he came to Greenville at the age of 16 and after finishing school went in business with Mr. C. T. Munford and conducted a very successful store. Desiring a larger field he went to Lynchburg, Va., about six years ago and later to Danville. His friends here are glad of his success in business and congratulate him upon his marriage.

A Hint to Shoppers.

There is only a week left now in which to do holiday shopping and during the remaining days before Christmas the stores will be crowded with customers. People will find it much to their advantage if they will do their shopping early in the week. In this way they will have more time to make selections and the sales people will have more time to wait on them. Do not wait for the final rush and take chances of getting what happens to be left. Greenville merchants have nice holiday stocks, as you will see by looking over the advertising columns of The Reflector.

Weather.

Rain tonight, colder in Western portion, Sunday fair colder.

DON'T MAR OUR CHRISTMAS.

Governor Requested to Order Hanging Postponed.

Sylvester Barrett is in jail under sentence to be hanged on next Tuesday, 18th, for the murder of Constable W J, Lovick, near Farmville, last January. Barrett was to have been hanged in November, but was respited for a month. Since then there has been an effort to get his sentence commuted to life imprisonment, so that the approaching day of execution passed from the minds of the people for the time being. It has been recalled, however, by work beginning on the erection of a scaffold in the jail yard on which to hang Barrett.

This date of execution being so close to Christmas the people of the town are almost shocked at the thought of the season of joy and love being marred by a hanging. Numerous telegrams have been sent Governor Glenn requesting that the hanging be postponed for thirty days, and we hope he will, for the sake of the women and children at least, grant this request.

MEETING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Thursday night was a scene of much solemnity at the Christian church (Disciples). The work was that of ordaining an elder and four deacons, Rev. Mr. Cunningham, of Washington, N. C. and State Evangelist, W. G. Walker, being present.

Brother Walker and Cunningham took part in the ordination service. The scene was impressive. Mr. Cunningham's charge to the elder was full of sublime thought, and carried with it much conviction.

Mr. Walker delivered the charge to the deacons which was listened to with rapt attention, after which Mr. Cunningham preached the sermon of the evening. It has been on the lips of all who heard him, as a blessing born with love to those who did not hear it.

Thursday night Mr. Walker preached an able sermon to an appreciative audience in which he presented the State work to his hearers. A nice little sum was raised for Atlantic Christian college, Wilson, N. C. Friends of the christian church will be glad to know that the work is moving on in good shape.

JUSTICE ELKS A JOINER.

Good Anywhere You Put Him.

As I was travelling this week down in chided township, night overtaking me I drove up to the gate of our worthy and highly esteemed friend, Mr. J. J. Elks. Both he and Mrs. Elks gave me a hearty handshake, bade me enter and make myself at home, which I assure was appreciated. Mr. Elks is one of Pitt's rising young men. He served the people of his county four years as chairman of the board of commissioners, giving entire satisfaction. But his popularity does not stop there. In the recent election he was made a justice of the peace. On the 12th inst he was called upon to exercise his first official ability as a magistrate, and that day he joined four loving couples in the holy bonds of wedlock.

Go it, John, and fulfill the Scripture. Help the boys to multiply and replenish the earth. Long life and a happy Christmas to you and yours. A. A. Forbes.

TRAVEL IS LIGHT.

Very Few People On the Go.

James Moore went to Scotland Neck this morning.

Miss Lizzie Jones has returned from a visit to Norfolk.

J. S. Higgs has returned from Raleigh.

Miss Dora Hornaday came home from Ayden Friday evening.

H. W. Whedbee returned from Ayden Friday evening.

Miss Sallie Davenport, of Hamilton, who has been visiting the Misses Manning, returned home this morning.

Elder and Mrs. A. J. Moore, of Whitakers, came in Friday evening to visit their son, L. I. Moore, and left this morning.

SERVICES TOMORROW.

Methodist Church.

The usual services will be held. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. by the new pastor, Rev. M. T. Plyler.

Public cordially invited to all these services.

Will Close for Holidays.

The Greenville tobacco market will close from Thursday, Dec. 21st to Monday, Jan 7th. for the holidays. Next Thursday will be the last sales day until the holidays are over.

Missing an Opportunity.

No one has yet caught on to the opportunity of a profitable investment by rigging up a portable wood saw in Greenville. There is enough wood around town that needs cutting to keep a saw steadily employed. Every body would patronize it from the point of convenience if nothing else.

Elder Barnhill Acquitted.

The jury in the Federal court at Raleigh acquitted Elder T. H. Barnhill, of this county, of the charge of selling liquors illegally. It was a warmly contested case.

Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. F. G. James Monday afternoon at 3 p. m.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15

The vice-president, members of the cabinet, senators and congressmen are all in the push for more salary.

The fellow who could invent a way to make eggnog without eggs would be popular along this time of year.

If Mr. and Mrs. Storer made President Roosevelt, no doubt they would now like to do the job over again.

The railways puncture the record with frequent bad wrecks, and by way of diversion between times run over people along the road.

No doubt there are many other people beside congressmen who would raise their own salaries if they had had the opportunity.

The Baptist church of Salisbury will take a pass at its members for worldliness and may establish a strict discipline to cover the matter. The deacons of the church held a meeting and adopted a resolution against the manufacture, sale or use of intoxicating liquors, gamblers, profane swearers, debt dodgers, theater goers and so on. The Democratic feature about this is that the matter is to be submitted to a vote of the church, and every member will have the privilege of voting for or against the resolution.

STRINGENT AND PROPER.

One of the best provisions of the Ward bill was that the possession of Federal license should be considered prima facie evidence of guilt in any proceeding against a man for illegally selling liquor. It has been the custom of owners of houses of ill-fame and other violators of the temperance laws to take out Federal licenses as a protection in case they were caught up with. It is a shame that the Federal Government should issue license to a man to sell liquor in a prohibition community. It is worth nothing to him except to secure immunity from Federal prosecution. Under the Ward act, as was demonstrated by Solicitor Brooks in Durham, the possession of such license causes convictions where other evidence is not conclusive.

The New Bern authorities have taken a drastic but correct step in advance of the Ward act, by refusing to give license to any person to do any business whatever who has taken out Federal license. New Bern is a prohibition town. It seems that persons who run restaurants, cigar stands, or other places would take out Federal license and convert their places into illicit saloons. In the future they cannot do business in the city, which is proper. If the Federal administration insists upon trying to render New Bern's prohibition law a failure, the city fathers do wisely to ostracize the owners of such licenses and other towns and cities should do like wise. — News and Observer.

Roosevelt and Carnegie are cut down to the foot of the spelling class.

According to the annual report of Commissioner Yerkes, the States of North Carolina, Missouri, Kentucky, Ohio and Virginia, in the order named, were the largest producers of both chewing and smoking tobacco, the quantity produced being as follows: North Carolina, 67,638,840 pounds; Missouri, 65,306,072 pounds; Kentucky, 47,639,909 pounds; Ohio, 28,311,659 pounds; Virginia, 26,720,160 pounds.

Such late trains as we are having would make the little folks mighty uneasy if Santa Claus had to come by rail.

There will be a little more than a week more of hustle, then will come the fire works.

In Self Defense
Major Hamm, editor and Manager of the Constitutionalist, Eminence, Ky. when he was fiercely attacked 4 years ago, by Piles, bought a box of Bucklen's Anal Ointment, of which he says, "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Bucklen's Ointment, Burns, Sores, Cuts, and all kinds of skin diseases. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Dor ch upped and cracked hands nothing is Wiquite as good as an application of E. W. Wooten's Hazel Salve. Put it on before going to bed, use an old pair of gloves and see what a difference the morning will bring. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

When a man is unable to choose between two evils he usually hunt up a third.

It is a mistake to use a violent cathartic to open the bowels. A gentle movement will accomplish the same results without causing distress or serious consequences later. E. W. Wooten's Little Early Risers are recommended. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Crops may come and crops may go, but the forbidden fruit crop is always with us.

My heart and hand another claimed,
His plea had come too late,
It's ever thus with people without pluck and vim,
Take Rocky Mountain Tea, don't get left again.
Wooten's Drug Store.

Riches may have wings, but don't sit down and wait for another man's riches to fly your way.

Open the bowels and get the cold out of your system. Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar opens the bowels and at the same time allays the inflammation of the mucous membranes. Drives out the cold and stops the cough. Absolutely free from any opiates. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Pleasant to take. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

It is the best safeguard against indigestion, biliousness and dyspepsia, known to mankind: Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea or Tablets, 85 cents. W. S. Wooten's Drug Store.

Dearest man of her acquaintance.

It is noticeable a cold seldom comes on when the bowels are freely open. Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Taste as pleasant as maple sugar. Free from all opiates. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jno. J. Wooten's Drug Store.

Any thin or undeveloped girl or woman will be benefited by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It is one of the greatest known remedies for people strong, healthy and well. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.
Wooten's Drug Store.

A man with a sprained ankle will use a crutch, rest the ankle and let it get well. A man or woman with an over-worked stomach can't use a crutch, but the stomach must have rest just the same. It can be rested too without starvation. Kodol will do it. Kodol performs the digestive work of the tired stomach and corrects the digestive apparatus. Kodol fully conforms to the provisions of the National Pure Food and Drug Laws. Recommended and sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves regulates the bowels, aids the kidneys, cures stomach troubles, builds up the nervous force and repairs the ill effects of over eating. Tea or Tablets, 85 cents.
Wooten's Drug Store.

A TEXAS WONDER.

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctor gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure cough and cold cure. Guaranteed by Jno. L. Wooten Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, at whose laboratory Kodol is prepared, assure us that this remarkable digestant and corrective for the stomach conforms fully to all provisions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law. The Kodol laboratory is a very large one, but if all the sufferers from indigestions and stomach troubles could know the virtues of Kodol it would be impossible for the manufacturers to keep up with the demand. Kodol is sold here by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

NORTH CAROLINA DAY.

Celebrated at Greenville Graded School.

"North Carolina Day" was celebrated in a very fitting manner at the graded school Friday afternoon. The program this year was in the nature of a memorial service in honor of Dr. Charles Duncan McIver, former president of the State Normal and Industrial college at Greensboro.

Several visitors were present, and each went away feeling pleased at having attended.

The program rendered was as follows:

1. The old North State.
2. Preamble to the State Constitution
3. Chas. Duncan McIver. -- Grace Smith.
4. The Farmer Boy--Fannie Spain.
5. The University Student--Marguerite Higgs.
6. His first Vote--Carl Wilson.
7. A Great School for Women. --Abby Smith.
8. Death of Dr. McIver--Lucile Tripp.
9. Charles Duncan McIver as I knew Him--Essie Whichard.
10. "He died Poor That He might make others rich"--Royce Tucker.
11. McIver's First Attempt at Public Speaking. --Conrad Lanier
12. How McIver Found His Mission, Lillian Burch.
13. Ho! For Carolina

A movement is now on foot to erect a large statue at the Normal college in honor of Dr. McIver. Each child in school was requested to bring a penny to aid in erecting the statue. It was an interesting sight to see the little people dropping in their pennies to aid in honoring the great man who did so much for the State. Greenville's contribution to the fund will be quite a creditable one
