POSSUM SUPPER TO MR. GARDEN.

(Reported for Reflector)

On last Wednesday night Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse, Jr. gave a delightful possum supper in honor of Mr. J. D. Gorden, who by the way, is soon to venture forth upon these seas of matrimony. In doing this we hope that he will need no oil thrown upon the billows, but that his ship may ever sail under clear skies, and that his pilot will keep him in the straight channel and thereby avoid all possibility of striking a shoal and causing a wreck.

"Brer Possum" got everybody's attention about eleven o'clock and had a monopoly on same until he (Brer Possum) was some what in the minority. All was silent for at least one half hour except for an occasional question to the waiter about the supply of toast possum and taters.

After due justice had been done to our friend in fur, refreshments were served. Toastmaster Moseley led off with a beautiful toast to the health of the groom elect and his future partner. Next Mr. Garden replied with a toast to the host all present and especially the silent remains of the possum. And so it went on, each in his turn giving the best toasts he could think of and some of them were rich with wit and sparkling with humor. All were laden with the best wishes for the groom and the bride par excellence.

Our friend, Mr. Garden, has made a wise and excellent choice. He has even eclipsed his own expectations. May his path as well as hers be paved with happiness, and may every cloud above them have not a silver, but a golden lining. In the words of the freshman "May good luck follow them all their days, and never catch up with them."

SYLVESTER BARRETT RESPITED.

Will Not Hang Until Jan. 15th.

In compliance with the request of many citizens of Greenville conveyed by telegraph to Governor R. B. Glenn on Saturday, urging that the execution of Sylvester Barrett set for the 18th be postponed thirty days so that the hanging would not take place in the midst of preparation for the observance of Christmas, the governor has granted the prisoner a respite until January 15th. Governor Glenn wired Sheriff Tucker to that effect and also wrote him changing the date of the death warrant accordingly. The gallows in the jail yard was about completed in readiness for the execution.

In connection with this the Raleigh News and Observer says: Attorneys for Barrett are seeking time to present new matter in their plea for a commutation of the death sentence to imprisonment for life, but Governor Glenn's position is that without the recommendation for commutation from Judge Long and Solicitor Larry I. Moore, he can do nothing in the way of commuting the sentence of the negro sentenced to death for the killing of Constable Lovett, who had come after him with a warrant of arrest.

There is intense interest in Pitt county in the matter, for while Governor Glenn is receiving petitions in behalf of the negro there are also letters from many who urge that the sentence of death against Barrett be carried out.

THE NEW PASTOR.

Methodist Congregation and People Delighted With Mr. Plyler.

Rev. M. T. Plyler, who was appointed at the last North Carolina conference to the pastorate of the Methodist church in Greenville, occupied the pulpit here for the first time on Sunday, preaching excellent sermons both morning and evening. The congregations were very large and all were delighted with him. He impresses his hearers as a man of force and intellect, and as a pastor his reputation throughout the conference ranks him with the best. We congratulate the Methodists of Greenville upon having such a scholarly man for the next year.

Mr. Plyler will enter at once into the work here and will bring his family to Greenville early after Christmas.

Kings' Daughters Meet.

Don't take chances on the weather continuing good, but do your Christmas trading early.

The weather has pushed up to spring feeling, but will soon take a tumble.

Lost—On road between Greenville and Great Swamp church, a lady's black silk umbrella with straight gold handle, figured design. Liberal reward for return to Reflector office or Miss Verna Whichard. It'd it sw.

Weather.

Rain and colder tonight. Tuesday fair and decidedly colder.

GREENVILLE'S CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION.

A Happy Departure from the Old Custom.

The superintendents of the Sunday schools in town have arranged to have a great celebration for Christmas that is quite out of the ordinary, but which embodies beautifully the Christmas spirit and idea. They will have in the Masonic Temple opera house a combined service for all the schools, with all the children in town on the stage, and exercises appropriate to the occasion. A unique feature of it is that no presents will be given, but every child will be expected to carry something to make glad the hearts of the little orphans. The spirit of it is "giving," not "getting." At an appointed time in the exercises the children will march out and deposit their gifts, and receive a neat badge bearing God's promise of blessing to those who help the poor.

Everyone that attends this celebration is likewise expected to carry something for the orphans. It may be much or little, of anything useful, but it must be something, and that something will be their ticket of admission.

The proceeds of the evening will be divided equally among the several churches participating, and sent by them by their respective orphanages. As at this time God gave His Holy Only Begotten Son to make glad the hearts of all men, so we will make glad those helpless little children by sharing with them the blessings God has showered upon us.

No more fitting celebration of Christmas could be had. The motive and underlying principle of it is an inspiration, and we believe it will sweep the town with the sweetness of its spirit and the grandeur of its purpose.

The Greenville Reflector is twelve years of age, and like the old negro's 'possum, it gets better. Brother Whichard is to be congratulated on his phenomenal success since taking the burdens of this paper upon his shoulders. May he and The Reflector live to enjoy many more birthdays before the hand of time shall press upon the heart strings of life and lay him beneath the sod—Durham Sun.

They Have Made Up.

London, Saturday, 16—It is reported that a reconciliation has been effected between the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough or that a settlement of the marital troubles has been reached. The appearance of the duchess, socially looking radiantly happy, is the cause of the rumor that the differences of the duke and duchess are made up and together they will spend the holidays together with their children at Blenheim.

Getting wood cut is a problem. The man who will rig up a portable sawing outfit will strike a money making business.

Wise and Otherwise.

Vanity and hypocrisy are the parents of prudery.

Too many blows will extinguish the light of love.

Sound judgment doesn't necessarily make the most noise.

All things come quickly to those who wait on themselves.

How to Kill Your Town.

Kick.

Keep kicking.

And don't quit kicking.

One pull one way and one t'other.

Go to other towns and buy your goods.

Denounce your merchants because they make a profit on their goods.

Knife every man that disagrees with you on the method of increasing business.

Tell your merchant that you can buy your goods a great deal cheaper in another town and charge him with extortion.

Keep every cent you get, and don't do anything of a public nature unless you can make something out of it directly.

When you say anything of your town say it in a way that it will leave the impression that you have no faith in it.

Patronize outside newspapers to the exclusion of your own, and then denounce them for not being as large as the city papers.

Don't we need more back bone for the interest of humanity? Not a spinal column that cannot yield or bend; but upright, and just opinions—a gentle, honest steadfastness, which is cruel never—Williamston Times.

HUNGRY THIEF.

Preferred Food to Silver Spoons.

A few nights ago some one broke into the dining room at the home of Mr. Josiah Dixon, in West Greenville. The safe in the dining room contained a quantity of cooked food to which the thief helped himself generously. The thief took the plates of food out in the yard and there were signs where he sat down by the fence to enjoy his meal, no doubt the best he had run up with in a long time. There were silver spoons and other ware in easy reach in the dining room, but these did not seem to interest the thief in the midst of so much good eatables, and nothing but the food was disturbed.

Mr. Dixon says he would have given the man all he wanted to eat if he had just asked for it and saved the trouble of breaking in the house, as he has never turned a hungry person empty from his door.

Even at this distance it almost made one hold his nose to read that dead cat hunt in the Charlotte Observer.

It is about time for the president to break out in a new place.
He cannot go long without a sensation.

The pensions, small as they are, will help many a Confederate soldier and widow have a happier Christmas.

That Santa Claus' headquarters should be everywhere shows how many places the old gentleman can get in. He will be everywhere next Monday night.

The fifty-six page Christmas number of the Charlotte Observer
Sunday, was a thing of beauty.
Filled with matters of such choice originality it is well worth preserving, as the articles make good reading for some time to come. There have been larger papers issued, that is with more pages, but none better was ever produced in the South than this edition of the Observer.

The trial of Elder T. H. Barnhill of Pitt county, in the Federal court at Raleigh last week for moonshining, gave Pitt county a reputation that is not at all enviable and which the good people of the county do not appreciate.
That case, like the white cap case here a few months ago, was premier for lying on the witness stand, some witnesses being carried to Raleigh whose characters qualified them to tell any lie, it mattered not how black it was. Of course all were not that way. Another shameful feature of the case was the effort, as shown in the published reports, of counsel for the defense to cast reflections on good men who were there merely as character witnesses.

Do you ever stop to think, dear reader, of the value of your local paper to the community. The home paper has an influence for good that is hard to overestimate.
It moulds public opinion; it does well its part in protecting and preserving the government. It takes the place of a standing army in guarding the liberties of the people; it teaches your children morality, truth and power; it brings many rich blessings to the homes it visits with but little financial reward for its labors, and in too many instances not any. The home paper is the mirror in which those at a distance see us. It is the pain of all who are interested in our town to take personal interest in the town's paper and assist in every way possible in making it a true representative of our intelligent and hospitable people as well as our enterprising and rapidly developing little city.
Send the paper to your friend, bring us the news and do your duty by your home paper and it will meet you more than half way. When you help your home paper you help your town and indirectly help yourself, for we are equally interested in our town and community.—Mount Olive

In Self Defense
Major Hamm, editor and manager of the Constitutionalist, Eminence, Ky. when he was fiercely attacked 4 years ago by Piles, bought a box of Buckle's Arkana Salve, of which he says, "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Buckle's Salve of Burns, Sores, Cuts and Wounds. 25c at J. L. Wooten's drug store.

For the aged and cracked hands nothing is so quite as good as an application of E. C. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Put it on before going to bed, use an old pair of gloves and see what a difference the morning will bring. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

When a man is unable to choose between two evils he usually hunt up a third.

It is a mistake to use a violent cathartic to open the bowels. A gentle movement will accomplish the same results without causing distress or serious consequences later. E. C. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are recommended. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Crops may come and crops may go, but the forbidden fruit crop is always with us.

My heart and hand another claimed.

His plea had come too late, It's ever thus with people without pluck and vim, Take Rocky Mountain Tea, don't get left again.

Wooten's Drug Store.

Riches may have wings, but don't sit down and wait for another man's riches to fly your way.

Open the bowels and get the cold out of your system. Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar opens the bowels and at the same time allays the inflammation of the mucous membranes. Drives out the cold and stops the cough. Absolutely free from any opiates. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Pleasant to take. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

It is the best safeguard against indigestion, biliousness and dyspepsia, known to mankind. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. W. S. Wooten's Drug Store.

leverest man of her acquaintance.

It is noticeable a cold seldom comes on when the bowels are freely open. Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Taste as pleasant as maple sugar. Free from all opiates. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Any thin or undeveloped girl or woman will be benefited by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It is one of the greatest known remedies for people strong, healthy and well. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.

Wooten's Drug Store.

A man with a sprained ankle will use a crutch, rest the ankle and let it get well. A man or woman with an over-worked stomach can't use a crutch, but the stomach must have rest just the same. It can be rested too without starvation. Kodol will do it. Kodol performs the digestive work of the tired stomach and corrects the digestive apparatus. Kodol fully conforms to the provisions of the National Pure Food and Drug Laws. Recommended and sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves regulates the bowels, aids the kidneys, cures stomach troubles, builds up the nervous force and repairs the ill effects of over eating. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.

A TEXAS WONDER.

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctor gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure cough and Cold cure. Guaranteed by Jno. L. Wooten Drug Store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, at whose laboratory Kodol is prepared, assure us that this remarkable digestant and corrective for the stomach conforms fully to all provisions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law. The Kodol laboratory is a very large one, but if all the sufferers from indigestion and stomach troubles could know the virtues of Kodol it would be impossible for the manufacturers to keep up with the demand. Kodol is sold here by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.
