Father Cuts Son's Throat.

New Orleans.—Thomas O'Connor, Jr., was killed tonight, his throat being cut while scuffling with his father. The elder Connor has been arrested and charged with the murder of his son. Father and son after discussing wrestling engaged in a deadly bout, in the presence of a family. The father was fighting when he apparently got the best of the boy, but immediately afterward a deep gash was discovered in the young man's throat. The father is said to be crazed and nothing can be learned from him.—Salisbury Post.

President McKenley in Bronze.

James B. Duke, President of the American Tobacco Company, has one of the largest private collections of bronze and marble statuary in America at his home in Somerville, N. J., is about to add to it a life sized bronze statue of the late President McKenley. A cable dispatch received yesterday announced the successful castings of the statue at the famous Galie foundry at Florence, Italy. The statue was executed by Prof. Trentanove from a favorite picture of the late President which Mr. Duke has in his New York office. The statue will be erected in a conspicuous place on the Duke estate next spring. Mr. Duke was a great admirer of President McKenley.—New York World.

The Sans Souci club will have called meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Miss Ma Cobb. All members requested to be present.

Weather.

Partly cloudy tonight, colder in the interior. Thursday fair and milder.

Secure your seats now for Polk Miller before it is too late.

BOMB OUTRAGE IN NEW YORK.

Explosive Dropped From Elevated Road into Crowd of People.

New York, Jan. 6th.—A bomb of giant powder and shot was dropped from an elevated railway station into a crowd of people at the corner of Second avenue and Forty-second street, tonight. In the explosion that followed three persons were injured seriously and of these two will probably die. The outrage was seemingly directed against the proprietor of a fruit store on the corner, and this man, Salvatore Cinluca, aged 39 years was one of the two dangerously injured. The other was Mary Bailey, 40 years old, who was making a purchase at the stand. The 15-year-old son of Cinluca was less dangerously injured. The bomb throwers escaped in the excitement.

The bomb fell on the sidewalk directly in front of the fruit store and almost at the feet of Cinluca, his son and Miss Bailey. Many persons were passing at the time and a dozen of these were thrown to the ground. The crowd fled in panic leaving the three seriously injured senseless in the midst of mashed fruit, broken glass and splintered wood.

Woman Surprises the Congregation.

Des Moines, Ia.—Before a congregation of nearly a thousand persons, and while the preacher was in the midst of his sermon, Mrs. A. B. Simms, a society woman and holder of the national woman's whist championship, arose yesterday in the University Church of Christ and denounced card playing as a sin. Two years ago Mrs. Sims won the first prize for women in the whist tournament held at Cleveland. Last year at St. Louis she won the national woman's championship. It is said that recent evangelical meetings held in the city are responsible for the change in Mrs. Sims' ideas.—Wilson Times.

Indian Weds White Girl.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 8.—There are those in Nebraska who no longer agree with President Roosevelt in his theory of co-education of white children with the youth of other races. This difference of view was caused by the wedding of Miss Flora French, a beautiful white girl, of Cherry county, with a full-blooded Indian who had attended school with her, and won her for his bride. Miss Lulu Kortz, county superintendent of Cherry county, has become positively alarmed at the tendency of common schooling of two different races.

Miss French, who is from one of the best families of Cherry county, married the Indian Saturday. The school teacher used her influence to prevent the marriage, but to no avail, the girl writing her that the Indian lover, was well educated, had as good manners, and in all respects was as desirable as the white boys, and therefore, there could be no reason for rejecting him because of his skin.

"Squaws of the tribe will now be Flora's companions," says Miss Kortz. "She must make her home in the wigwags or shanty her husband provides. It was to me a tragedy. I am now in favor of separate schools for red and yellow and black and white."

GENERAL LEE AND HIS CHAPPELS.

Rev. A. D. Betts Tells of His Great Devotion to Christian Work.

Apropos the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the birthday of General Robert E. Lee on the nineteenth of the present month, Rev. A. D. Betts, of Town Creek, sends the following with reference to one side of the Great Chieftain's life:
"During the winter months when the armies were quiet, the chaplains met every few weeks. General Lee was frequently present.

"On February 22nd, 1864, I met him on the train going to Richmond. I told him I thought he had about 25 chapels in his army. He modestly said: "Yes we had 29 last Saturday." How did he know? Of course the good man had sent to each brigade for an official statement, which showed his interest in the spiritual welfare of his soldiers. It is well for us to think of him as a Christian on the one hundredth anniversary of his birthday.

"A. D. Betts"
Town Creek, N. C., Jan. 5th, 1907.

Fire at Grimesland.

About 7:30 Tuesday evening what is known as the Venters dwelling house, formerly owned by W. E. Proctor and J. J. Elks, was destroyed by fire. The house was recently purchased by Levi Holliday and was being ceiled in the upper story, which had never been complete. Mr. Holliday and J. B. Holt had been up there at work all day Tuesday and shortly after they quit work and had gone home, the alarm of fire was given. The building was entirely destroyed before the flames could be checked. It was a seven room, two story structure and is quite a loss to the owner. There was $750 insurance on the building and the loss is estimated to be about one thousand or twelve hundred dollars.

Death of Mrs. Ballard.

Mrs. Ballard, mother of Mrs. J. S. Congleton died Tuesday afternoon at the home of her daughter on Second and Green Streets. She was in her eighty-fourth year, and has been an invalid for several months past. She was buried this afternoon at three o'clock in Cherry Hill cemetery, Rev. M. T. Plyler conducting the burial service. The pall-bearers were Messrs. L. W. Tucker, E. E. Griffin, W. B. Wilson, J. L. Starkey, Wiley Brown and A. B. Ellington.

A MERCHANT SHOT AT PARMELE.

Hit in the Breast With No. 4 Shot.

Mr. D. S. Powell, a large merchant of Parmele, was closing his store Tuesday night and someone fired at him and struck him in the breast with No. 4 shot. Mr. Powell is quite seriously hurt but will recover. There is no clue as to who did the shooting, but a negro man had made threats against Mr. Powell and the supposition is he is the one. Hines went over with his blood hounds and the dogs took the trail and ran it to the coal chute where it was lost. The negro must have jumped a train that passed soon after the shooting.

Not many people in town today. Guess the farmers are taking advantage of the warm pretty weather.

EAST CAROLINA CUT OFF.

No Further Connection For Raleigh.

The Atlantic Coast Line has been notified by the Southern Railway that on account of changes in schedules on that line trains will not make connection at Sanford with train No. 52 which now leaves Sanford at 3:40 p. m. for Wilmington.

Connection will still be made at Sanford with train No. 53, leaving Wilmington at 9:10 a. m. Further advice has been extended that the Southern Railway will not make connection at Selma, N. C., with Atlantic Coast Line main line train No. 80, nor with No. 47 known, in Eastern North Carolina as Selma connection train. This action of the Southern Railway breaks the connection for Raleigh from Eastern Carolina points.

ELECTS SUNDAY SCHOOL OFFICERS

And Change Hour of Meeting.

At a meeting of the Christian Sunday school held first Sunday in January the following officers were elected for one year:

J. G. Latham, superintendent.
D. W. Arnold, assistant superintendent

Mrs. E. A. Moye, secretary.
Miss Alice Lang, treasurer.
Miss Mattie Move King, organist.

Miss Agnes Spain, assistant organist.

The time of meeting was changed from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Please note the change. On next Sunday January 13th D. W. Arnold will organize a Bible class. Both young and old are invited to join this class it is free to all.

RATS FORCE SHUT DOWN.

As Large as Cats, They Snatch Food From Hands of Laborers as Mill.

Wheeling, W. Va.—Supt. Williams, of the Wheeling Steel and Iron Works, at Benwood, where 2,000 men are employed, is authority for the statement that the plant may have to be shut down to rid it of thousands of rats, many as large as ordinary cats.

The rodents, which tear to pieces cats that are brought to the mill, have become so bold that they snatch food from the hands of workmen. Every day large numbers of men go dinnerless as a result of rats breaking into their dinner pails.—Salisbury Post.

Bad Negro Uses Razor.

Lucius Allen, a South Carolina negro with a criminal record broke loose yesterday evening in Brooklyn the colored habitude and slashed Annie Click and Lizzie Hobson severely with a razor.

The visiting negro seemed merely crazed with bad booze that he brought with him and had no provocation for his meanness. He cut the throat of one woman almost across her neck and the other was whacked about the body. Both were regarded in a serious condition. As soon as Allen did the bloody work he ran and had a long lead on the officers before they knew he had done anything. They had him spotted last night and they expect to catch him before he finally escapes. He has been often in trouble and has done time for it.

Officer Monroe this morning caught Allen and he has been landed in jail where he will remain until the condition of the woman he stabbed is found to be better.—Salisbury Post.

MEETING OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Interesting Events Preceding the Organization.

Raleigh, N. C. Jan. 9th.

We have experienced our first visit to Raleigh on the eve of the assembling of a session of the General Assembly, and to say that the experience was interesting is not more than half expressing the situation. Members of both the senate and house of representatives began arriving early. A large number were on hand by Monday night and every incoming train Tuesday brought more. With them came candidates innumerable for the various positions to be filled, and Tuesday was a day given to hard work by the candidates and their supporters.

Of course more interest centered in the speakership of the house than from any other place to be filled. There were four aspirants for this honor, and perhaps no previous session has ever shown more able men from which to make a selection. These were E. J. Justice, of Guilford county; Walter Murphy, of Rowan county; W. C. Dowd, of Mecklenburg county; J. S. Manning, of Durham county. No idea could be given in advance of the caucus as to which of these candidates would win.

The caucus met in the hall of the house of representatives at 8 o'clock Tuesday night. B. B. Winborn, of Hertford, was made chairman of the caucus and H. M. London, of Chatham, secretary. A motion was made that all Democratic members of the house of representatives, ex-members, officers, and members of the Democratic press be permitted to remain in the caucus. An amendment was offered that all Democrats in good standing be allowed to remain.

This amendment was greeted with a round of applause and was adopted unanimously. Upon roll call 90 of the Democratic members responded to their names.

The motion was adopted that all nominating speeches be limited to five minutes. Nominations for speakers were declared in order. Representative Bickett, of Franklinton, presented the name of E. J. Justice. Representative Preston, of Mecklenburg, presented the name of W. C. Dowd. Representative J. M. Julian, of Rowan, presented the name of Walter Murphy. Representative Parsons, of Richmond, presented the name of J. S. Manning. Representative Laughinghouse, of Pitt, seconded the nomination of Murphy. Several others of the members made speeches seconding the nomination of the different candidates whose names had been presented.

The vote on first ballot stood Justice 41, Dowd 23, Murphy 20, Manning 6. Second ballot Justice 45, Dowd 22, Murphy 18, Manning 4. Justice having received a majority of one vote he was declared the nominee of the caucus and on motion his nomination was made unanimous.

The following other officers were elected:

Chief clerk, Frank Hackett of Wilkes county, by acclamation.

Reading clerk, B. F. Arendell, of Wake county, by acclamation.

Engrossing clerk, M. B. Kinsland, of Haywood county, by acclamation.

Door-keeper, John A. Lisk, of Montgomery county, first ballot.

Assistant door-keeper, D. H. Jones, of Halifax county

In the assignment of seats in the house Representatives Laughinghouse and Jones, of Pitt,

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9.

Every man thinks his representative the best speaker for the house.

Some of the Legislators will feel quite strange in the capitol city today.

People should be more careful about the kind of clothing they wear in warm winter weather and not take cold.

The crank who threw the bomb and wrecked the Philadelphia bank was on his way South. We are glad that we were spared of such a character.

The Legislators will have enough to do if they attend to the important matters that will come before them. But as usual they will have a thousand little things demanding attention.

"Some years ago the cost of running the Legislature was $5,000. Two years ago it had grown to 71,000. With proper economy it can be reduced to $60,000 and should be done." News and Observer.

THEY NURSED THE BABY.

And Then the Burglars Tied Up a Doctor With His Own Bandages

While the police are searching today for two burglars who robbed the home of Dr. D. B. Blumstein, at 333 West Thirty-seventh street, the physician and his young wife are wondering whether they ought to prosecute such amiable men. The 15-month-old baby of Dr. and Mrs. Blumstein is the peace maker in this most unusual robbery for, while the doctor was bound and gagged and Mrs. Blumstein was held in her bed with a revolver at her head, one of these kind burglars carried the baby, which had commenced to cry, all about the apartment and talked the nicest baby talk to it and petted it with all the caresses and sweet words he knew.

One of the robbers was Dr. Blumstein's patient not more than a month ago. The fellow is about 24 years old, and he told the doctor at the time that his name was Smith and he lived in Twenty-sixth street. The physician treated him once or twice, and saw no more of him until Christmas midnight, when Smith and another man appeared at the doctor's home. At the door Smith told the physician he needed more medicine, and Dr. Blumstein sat down to write him a prescription.

A moment later a revolver was pressed at the doctor's temple by Smith, who said:

"We aren't regular burglars, but we need the money. We want all you've got. Do not be alarmed, but come down with the cash.

The physician tried to get them to take his surgical instruments, but they declared nothing but cash would answer. They bound the doctor with his own surgical bandages and ransacked the apartment. Going to the room where Mrs. Blumstein was sleeping they awakened her, and with the revolver close to her face, told her to be quiet while they hunted for the pocketbook. Then the baby began to scream. Smith's partner picked the child up and danced about the room with it, calling it pretty names, stroking its face and tickling its chin. In a few minutes he had quieted the infant and put it on a couch, assuring its mother he wouldn't hurt it for the world.

"I like babies," he said, "and I think yours is a dear little chap. Please do not feel the least uneasiness about it while it is in my care."

"No Mrs. Blumstein," broke in Smith. "I assure you the pretty little child is absolutely safe with us."

While he was saying this he found the family pocketbook with $22 in it. Counting the money, he said he guessed that would do, so releasing Dr. Blumstein and giving him a friendly warning, the two men departed.—New York Evening World.

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. For Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently though surely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets J. W. BRYAN.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of opium, chloroform or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remidier. Dr. Shoop, it seems has welcomed the Pure Food Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines for many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by Bryan's Drug Store.

The more dignity a man has the less use the world has for him.

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet pleasant and safe Syrup called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure is for croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for croup, that's all. Sold by Bryan's Drug Store.

A woman has but little use for a man who thinks he is the whole thing.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. Health Coffee is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real coffee, remember in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet it's flavor matches closely old Java add Mocha coffee. If your stomach heart or kidneys can't stand coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing and satisfying. It's safe even for the smallest child. Sold by T. E. Hooker & Co.
