

MEETING LARGELY ATTENDED.

Practical Talks on the Farm by Distinguished Speakers.

Hon. John H. Small, accompanied by Messrs. F. G. Plummer, W. L. Spoon, A. B. Boykins, A. D. Shamel, of the United States Department of Agriculture, and Prof. Pratt, State Geologist for North Carolina, who have been holding a series of Farmers' Educational meetings in a number of the towns of Eastern Carolina, held a similar institute in this city yesterday.

The Farmers' Institute was held in Masonic Temple in the morning and was largely attended by numbers of the most influential and representative farmers of Pitt and the adjoining counties. The above mentioned experts each made formal scientific talks on the following subjects: Mr. W. F. Plummer, representing the Forest Survey, made a very interesting address on the forests in the different parts of the United States explaining the different methods employed for the preservation of these forests from unnecessary waste in lumbering, means employed for preventing forest fires, methods of raising the trees from seeds in nurseries, and the setting out of these plants on the mountain sides and in arid wastes, also methods of irrigation.

Mr. W. L. Spoon next addressed the institute on the subject of Public Roads. He contrasted good and bad roads, drew comparisons between the old Roman roads in use centuries ago and the present macadam roads. He also discussed shell roads and sandy clay roads, setting forth their advantages and disadvantages, also the proper methods employed for repairing building and draining these roads.

Mr. E. B. Boykins next addressed the meeting on the subject of cotton generally. He discussed the best methods of cotton culture, seed selection, fertilizers, etc., and gave the farmers some very valuable hints on this subject.

Mr. A. L. Shamel, of Illinois, then addressed the meeting on the subject of corn and tobacco culture, showing from a practical as well as scientific standpoint the best means of cultivating these articles to secure best results. Mr. Shamel also gave the farmers some very valuable hints.

Next Prof. Pratt State geologist, discussed the large peat deposits in this State and other similar investigations now being made at his office.

After Mr. Pratt's address Hon. J. H. Small made a brief talk and closed the meeting. All the farmers who attended were highly pleased and feel that they have been greatly benefited by the different practical and scientific hints given them by the agricultural experts.

From here the party went to Williamston to hold a similar institute today.

Freight Rate Hearing.

Raleigh, Aug. 9.—The notable conference between Governor Glenn and the corporation commission on one side and the leading railways on the other, to stop freight discriminations against this State and also to reduce freight rates in various cases, begins at 11 o'clock to-morrow. The Norfolk & Western, which had asked for postponement, gets a refusal and will be represented. There will be many railway officials present and also representatives of various cities and towns.

Storm Damage in Durham County.

Durham, N. C., Aug. 9.—Definite reports of the damage wrought by the storm which passed over this section Tuesday afternoon show that in many cases the farmers' crops are a total wreck. Tobacco, for the most part, was beaten off the stalk, and those leaves that were left, were punctured by the large hail stones. The corn crop, although not so badly damaged, in many places had the fodder cut in shreds.

Farmville Market.

Farmville, Aug. 10.—The Farmville tobacco market opened Tuesday under flattering conditions with a good, color lot of tobacco. This market has made the highest average in this State on the 1907 crop, the average being 7.98 for the week.

With new prize house, steam plant and the new railroad, active warehousemen backed by a strong corps of buyers, the Farmville market will sell three times the tobacco it sold last year. All the farmers were pleased with prices and spoke very complimentary of the hard working warehousemen and liberality of the buyers. 1 td & w.

CONTROL THE PRICE.

Those Who Raise Tobacco Should Fix The Figures.

Greensboro, Aug. 9.—Col. John S. Cunningham, of Person county, was here today returning from Wileksboro, and will go, Friday, to Pilot Mountain to attend the meeting of the Tobacco Growers' Association. This association is composed of tobacco farmers of the State and a large number is expected to be present. "I am still of the opinion," said Colonel Cunningham today, "that the farmers ought to control the price of tobacco they raise on the farm, just as the manufacturer controls the price of his product. If the farmers will do that and raise their supplies at home you will see the tobacco section prosper wonderfully."

"How is the tobacco crop over the State this year?" Colonel Cunningham was asked. He replied: "The tobacco crop has very much improved in the last 30 days and with a late fall we shall have an average crop."

Charged With Burglary.

Upon a warrant issued at the instance of J. F. Turnage, of Contentnea Neck, Mr. John Suggs has been committed to jail, by Justice J. S. Abbott, on the charge of burglary in the first degree.

Mr. Turnage alleged that sometime between night and day, he heard some one fumbling at the latch of his door. After several minutes had elapsed the door was opened and someone entered the room. Mr. Turnage called, "who's that," and received as an answer "me, me." The intruder slipped out before Mr. Turnage could recognize him.

But he claims to have recognized the voice to be that of Mr. Suggs. So he dressed and went to Mr. Abbott and swore out a warrant. The case was tried at an early hour and Mr. Suggs was committed to jail without bail to answer the charge of burglary. Mr. W. H. Phillips brought him to Kinston this morning and lodged him in the county jail.

Mr. Suggs has been a tenant of Mr. Turnage's during the past year and had been extended the privileges of the family, living in the house with them and being treated as one of them. This case comes as a great surprise to the friends of all the parties.—Kinston Free Press.

NORTH CAROLINA WEEK AT THE JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION

Folk of the Old North State Will Practically Own the Exposition—Grand Military and Naval Parade to Be Reviewed by the Governors of Three States and Famous Army and Navy Officers.

NORTH CAROLINA BUILDING.

BEGINNING Aug. 12 and continuing to Aug. 18, the people of North Carolina will practically own the Jamestown Tercentennial exposition. That will be North Carolina week, and during that time special pains will be taken to entertain and amuse the people of the Old North State. Aug. 15 will be North Carolina day, which will be royally celebrated. Governor Glenn and his staff, the members of the North Carolina commission and other distinguished men will be in attendance, together with the military and naval forces of the state and a band of Cherokee Indians from the reservation in North Carolina to make the programme interesting. Governor Glenn will make one of his characteristic human interest speeches.

A reception will be given at the North Carolina building, to be attended by many men of prominence in public life, together with every citizen of the state who may be there, and the building will be elaborately decorated in honor of the occasion. Electric illumination, fireworks and other special features will be in evidence upon this great occasion.

The detailed programme for the week is as follows:

The Official Programme.

Aug. 12.—Governor Glenn, staff and official party will arrive via Seaboard Air Line railway at Portsmouth about 5:30 p. m. They will be met at the station by a committee from the North Carolina society of Norfolk, who will escort them to their hotel in Norfolk, where they will be the guests of the North Carolina society.

Aug. 13.—At 10 a. m. the governor and party will be taken over the city of Norfolk in automobiles bearing the colors of the state of North Carolina.

1 p. m.—Upon the arrival of the governor of North Carolina at the exposition grounds he will be received at the gate by a reception committee consisting of the officials of the Jamestown Exposition company and escorted to the North Carolina State building, where he will remain during North Carolina week.

4 p. m.—The governor and official party will visit the North Carolina exhibits in the various exhibit palaces, where they will be received by members of the North Carolina commission.

Aug. 14.—At 11 a. m. the governor of North Carolina will leave the North Carolina State building, accompanied by his staff, members of the North Carolina commission and a military escort of the North Carolina state troops, arriving at the Auditorium building at 11:30 a. m., where the following exercises will take place:

Auditorium, 11:30 a. m.—Opening prayer by the Rev. Mr. Chelberg.
Music by the North Carolina Third Regiment band.

Hon. G. S. Powell, president of the North Carolina commission and master of ceremonies, will present Hon. St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition company, who will deliver the address of welcome on behalf of the exposition.

Address by Lieutenant Governor Francis D. Winston of North Carolina.
Music.

Address by the Hon. Robert B. Glenn, governor of North Carolina.
Music.

Reviewing Stand, 5 p. m.—Review of soldiers and sailors by Governor Glenn of North Carolina, assisted by the governor of Virginia, governor of Massachusetts, Major General P. D. Grant, Admiral Harrington and other army and navy representatives.

8:20 to 11 p. m.—Reception to the governor of North Carolina by the North Carolina state commission at the North Carolina State building.

Complete In Every Detail.

When the thousands of Tar Heel visitors enter the portals of the exposition they will find awaiting them a most beautiful colonial city, complete in every detail and with each nook and corner replete with attractions of every variety and kind. There will be many great battleships and vessels of every description in the harbor of Hampton Roads, in view from the exposition grounds; there will be military drills and parades, and the sound of martial music will be heard everywhere. Flowers border every walk and drive, and the cool shade of the Canoe Trail is most enticing these fine summer days. The exhibits are interesting and instructive in the extreme, and days may be well spent in their study. The Old North State's resources appear to great advantage in the several exhibit buildings, and these alone are well worth a visit to the exposition. The exhibits of Virginia, South Carolina, Maryland and the score or more of other states are grand and comprehensive. The War Path is a round of instructive pleasure, the electric illumination a fairyland, and altogether, once seen, the Jamestown exposition gives a pleasant impression, never to be forgotten.

Governor Glenn's Proclamation.

From the executive department of the state of North Carolina at Raleigh recently came the following proclamation to the people of North Carolina and the United States generally concerning the Jamestown exposition and the possibilities of this pertinent celebration advertising the resources of America, especially the south:

From the substantial construction of the exhibit buildings at the Jamestown exposition and from the magnificent exhibits in said buildings I have every reason to believe and do believe that the exposition will be a great success and will advertise the resources of the south materially, agriculturally and educationally as they have never before been advertised. I therefore as governor of the state of North Carolina earnestly hope that all the citizens of our state will take an active part and interest in making the Jamestown exposition a great success in doing so they not only will be building up Virginia and the south generally, but give great impetus to a full advertisement of the resources of North Carolina.

On Aug. 15 North Carolina will have an exhibition day, and I earnestly desire every North Carolinian possible to be there and aid in making this state occasion a great success.

R. B. GLENN, Governor.

North Carolina Building.

The North Carolina building at the Jamestown exposition is of colonial architecture and was erected at a cost of $23,000. It is an imposing structure, constructed upon a plot of ground 135 by 110 feet in size, situated on Willoughby Boulevard, east, and overlooks the broad waters of Hampton Roads. The building was designed by Zimmerman & Leister, architects, of Winston-Salem, N. C., and was constructed by J. D. Elliott, contractor, of Hickory, N. C. The building is three stories high and contains fourteen commodious apartments, a hallway on each floor and a number of closets and bathrooms.

The Vanderbilt Room.

To the right on entering the main hall is the Vanderbilt room, so called for the reason that the beautiful and expensive mission furniture it contains was presented by Mrs. George Vanderbilt. This furniture was made by the members of the Baltimore Industrial club, composed of the children of the workmen employed on the Vanderbilt estate near Asheville, and is a very interesting exhibit.

Just back of this room is another reception room finished after the mission style, with hardwood walls, like the Vanderbilt room. The furniture in this apartment is a gift from the White Furniture company.

In the lower hall hangs a board of North Carolina pine upon which is painted the following toast:

Here's to the land of the long leaf pine,
The summer land where the sun doth shine,
Where the weak grow strong and the strong grow great;
Here's to "Down Home," "The Old North State."

Lift on Years for Boy.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 9.—Jeremiah Walker, a negro boy, this morning in Superior court pleaded guilty to attempt to commit criminal assault and was sentenced by Judge Guion to fifteen years in the State prison. Walker is perhaps one of the youngest boys ever sent to the penitentiary for so long a term. Some say he is nine years old, others that he is eleven. His crime was committed on a three-year old white girl here several weeks ago. The boy was arrested and held without bail.

New York's Crime Wave.

New York, Aug. 9.—There have been 216 attacks on women and girls in Greater New York since May 4th, and only eight convictions. The record of these three months is without parallel in the history of the city. Each day adds its quota and witnesses growing an er on the part of the public. The figures given are for cases reported to the police. Undoubtedly there are scores of other affairs in which those attacked kept the facts secret in order to avoid publicity.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE

Those Who Come and Go—Some Knew You—Some You Know

C. C. Cannon returned this morning from Ayden.

Mr. C. C. King returned this morning from Pittsburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Joyner left this morning for Panacea Springs for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cowell, of Washington, are visiting Mr. Cowell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cowell.

Richard Snow, of Durham, who has been visiting Edward Hearne, left Friday morning to visit friends in Afton.

Miss Lillie Christian, of Durham, who has been visiting Miss Helen Brinkley, returned to her home this morning.

Mr. R. R. Cotten, of Bruce, and his sister, Mrs. M. J. Weeks, of Trinity, Randolph county, were Greenville visitors yesterday.

Weather.

Occasional showers tonight and probably Sunday.

Blame is Placed.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 9.—Coroner Separk has subpoenaed a number of persons connected with the Southern railway wreck at Auburn to appear here Saturday morning when the taking of evidence begins.

An affidavit is made to the coroner that the collision which cost three lives was due to the criminal act or default of some persons. This is directly aimed at the conductor and engineer of the passenger train which should have obeyed orders and stopped at the station.

The station agent is subpoenaed, but the coroner tells me that this agent was not wired that the trains were to meet, the place being merely a flag station.

Glenn Will Introduce Bryan.

Greensboro, Aug. 9.—Governor Robert B. Glenn has accepted an invitation to come here on October 1 and introduce Col. William Jennings Bryan, who will be the guest of honor and who will make the principal address of the fair. It is expected that the Nebraska statesman will draw a large crowd to the city for the week.

TAKING TESTIMONY.

Peonage Case On in Full Blast—End not in Sight.

(Editorial Correspondence.)

Bearfort N. C., Aug. 10.—While the Greenville folks here attending the peonage case in Federal court can so far see no prospect of the end, but are longing for the time when they can get off and go home. The taking of testimony began this morning but only three witnesses were examined. It was really a battle between the lawyers on contending sides, nearly every question from one side bringing objections from the other, followed by argument of points by counsel, overruling or sustaining objections by the court and noting exceptions. It went that way through the entire days session.

Major Henry Harding was the first witness and testified as to his issuing the warrants for the laborers at the instance of Kline, that he gave the warrants to Kline and the latter gave them to the Sheriff. At one time in the cross examination of Maj. Harding the defense wanted to show that Kline had no criminal intent at the time of applying for the warrant, and asked the witness what past between them at the time. Counsel for the government strongly objected to this but Judge Purnell said that what passed between them at the time was competent, but nothing subsequent. He stated further, that if defense was depending on the State statute of the landlord and tenant act, that was already a nullity by the Federal statute. Counsel replied they were not depending on the landlord and tenant act but on section 3431 of the Code of 1905 which was read. Maj. Harding then answered the question by saying Kline went to him and asked him if there was any law in North Carolina to punish persons for breaking contract, section 3431 was read to him and the warrants were applied for. Kline states he did not want the men to return to work for him but wanted the law to take its course.

The next witness was the Russian interpreter who was taken to Greenville by special Agent Hoyt to translate the language of the foreigners held in jail as government witnesses, this being after the preliminary trial of Kline. He learned the names of the alleged peons and the numbers by which they worked in camp, got the two together.

Sheriff L. W. Tucker was the next witness who testified about the warrants being carried to him by Kline, his going to the camp with deputies and arresting nineteen of the parties, ten of whom, through interpreter Joe, expressed a preference to return to work.

It was a brilliant battle of lawyers all through the day. D. J. W.

A Thought for a Year.
(P. Q. RUSTY)

As you move along on life's journey scatter a little sunshine. Throw a few bouquets of sweet scented flowers along the pathway of your fellowman. Do not contribute to the downfall of your neighbor—help to lift him up. Cheer him when he's sad and despondent, laugh with him when he's glad. If you would increase your own happiness make someone else happy. Forget your neighbor's faults; forget all the slander you have heard before you repeat it; forget the fault-finding and give little thought to the cause which provoked it; forget the peculiarities and mistakes of your friends, and remember only the good points which made them your friends and which make you proud of them. If you hear something of your friends, do not repeat it unless you know it to be true, and then not unless it will do them good. Forget all personal quarrels you may have heard by accident, and which if repeated will seem a thousand times worse than they really are. Obliterate from your yesterday all that is terrible, all that is impure, all but the noblest impulses, start out with a clean sheet today, and record upon it, for sweet memory's sake, only those things which are lovely and lovable. Thus you will make life worth living.

What will we do when the Standard Oil company and the Southern Railway go out of business?

Half of these newspaper men who are talking about "trundle beds" never saw one in their life.

Editor Wade Harris, of the Charlotte Chronicle, takes time to bring out the good points in the Southern Railway, which is alright and proper.

With the completion of the Raleigh & Pamlico branch of the Norfolk & Southern, we will be about forty miles nearer the capital city.

If an individual thought he could disregard the law he might try it. Of course, he would be brought to count just as the Southern Railway was.

Up at High Point they have discovered a quantity of "snake root," which is said will cure any case of snake bite. With this prohibition is sure to come.

The newest thing is "News-boys day" at the exposition. Probably you can get the papers you want that day, which is the 24th.

A man has been arrested in Washington for working on Sunday. It is safe to say that the same man would be arrested if he did not work on Monday and the other five days of the week.—Wilmington Star.

They get them week days for vagrancy, and on Sunday for not being a vagrant.

DEMURE BOSTON.

Among our big cities Boston is peculiar in not thrusting its bigness upon us. Its outward demeanor is demure. At its portals Liberty Enlightening the World would look out of place; we would rather expect the Puritan maiden Priscilla to stand as doorkeeper. The evidences of commercial prosperity are present, but they do not stare us out of countenance. They are not concentrated in any one spot, but are "a good diffused." Here and there an incipient skyscraper attempts to lift its head, only to be severely snubbed. Skyscraping is considered architectural leze majesty in the presence of the gilded dome of the statehouse. Old Boston, with its narrow, winding streets, has many curious survivals of the past, but the Greater Boston has advanced further than any of our communities toward the city of the future, which is to be not a city at all, but a thickly settled country.—Samuel M. Crothers in Century.

The King's Pink Shirt.

For the benefit of Beau Brummel, Jr., and his followers I made special note of how the first three gentlemen in the land were attired at their majesty's garden party on Saturday. The king wore a dark blue frock coat and waistcoat, with dark gray trousers in a very small and not very distinct check. He had a pink shirt, with a heliotrope satin ascot tie and a ruby pin, lavender kid gloves, patent leather boots with white uppers, a deep pink rosebud as buttonhole and, of course, a silk hat.

The Prince of Wales wore a black frock coat, with white waistcoat and dark gray trousers; his shirt was blue, and necktie (an ordinary knot) in a subdued slate. His boots were the same as the king's, and he wore a white buttonhole.

The Duke of Connaught was in a dark gray frock suit and wore a crimson carnation as buttonhole.—London Lady's Pictorial.

Bismarck's Only Sister.

Bismarck's only sister, the third child of Ferdinand von Bismarck-Schonhausen, celebrated her eightieth birthday on June 29. "The Iron Chancellor" was her senior by twelve years," says the Freie Presse, "but it was to her, his beloved sister Malwine, that he addressed the letters which constitute a complete history of his public services. She was married when seventeen years old to Oskar von Arnim and had four children, two sons and two daughters. Both sons died. Her grandson, Detlev von Arnim, is now the owner of the homestead at Krochendorff and the father of the venerable woman's two great-grandchildren. One daughter married Landrat Ludolf von Kotze and the other one married her cousin Wilhelm, the son of the chancellor, who was always known in the family as Bill."

Lew Fields Was Annoyed.

Lew Fields declares he has grown tired of denying a contemplated reunion with Joe Weber and that in the future he will let writers on theatrical matters have their own way. An experience with a well known dramatic editor of Chicago has demonstrated to him the futility of denial. Fields had terminated his engagement in Chicago and moved on to Milwaukee. He was aroused from his slumber about 8 a. m. by a call on the long distance telephone.

"Say," came a voice from Chicago, "I'm the dramatic editor of the —. Are you and Weber going to reunite? Now, don't say you're not, for I know better."

"Hold on there! Wait a minute!" exclaimed Fields. "What do you expect me to say?"

"I expect you to say the truth," came the reply in defiant tones. "Now, are you? Don't try to deny it."

"Well, I must tell you the truth," replied Fields. "I have not yet received any proposition from Weber to resume a partnership."

"You're a liar!" shouted the Chicago man.

And without farther ceremony he rang off.—New York Morning Telegraph.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free.

Weak Kidneys

Cause more trouble than any other organ of the body. The function of the kidneys is to separate inorganic salt and water in the process of circulation, and to remove them and their attendant poisons from the body through the bladder. Therefore when the kidneys become diseased and weak they are naturally unable to perform their work properly, and pains in the back, inflammation of the bladder and urinary disorders are the result. It is imperative that a prompt relief be afforded, which is impossible unless you remove the cause.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills promptly eliminate poisons from the system and at the same time make the kidneys well and strong.

Politics sometime makes strange cellmates.

All stomach trouble are quickly relieved by taking a little Kodol after each meal. Kodol goes directly to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the digestive organs, supplies the natural digestive juices and digests what you eat. It is a simple, clean, pure, harmless remedy. Don't neglect your stomach. Take a little Kodol after each meal and see how good it makes you feel. Money back if it fails. Sold by John L. Wooten

Worry never completed a task worth while.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A weeks treatment for 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's drug Store.

The vacation earned is the vacation enjoyed.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids containing the very same juices found in healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by John L. Wooten

The pies are just as good as ever—your "taster" is out of whack.

For scratches, burns, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolicized Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The vacation we miss is the one we would have enjoyed the most.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50cents. Sold by Bryans Drug Store.

Worry causes more perspiration than the heat of the sun.

Mothers who give their children Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup invariably endorse it. Children like it because its taste is so pleasant. Contains honey and tar. It is the original laxative cough syrup and is unrivaled for the relief of croup. Drives the colic through the bowels. Conforms to the Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold out Jno. L.

ORIGIN OF THE HALO

Conventional Emblem of Sanctity signed as an Umbrella.

"Few people—few even among artists—have any idea of the humble origin of the halo, that conventional emblem of sanctity in all artistic portrayal," said a well known painter just returned from a sojourn in Europe. "It is commonly accepted as the badge of holiness on the part of the figure whose head it crowns. The old masters used it generally as the hall mark of a saint regularly canonized as such by the Catholic church. My attention was first attracted by the fact that the earliest paintings of Giotto did not represent even the members of the holy family with the conventional circle of light above the heads of the figures, but instead a flat, opaque disk, somewhat like a mortarboard cap, was limned upon the head of each. This led me into an investigation of the strange headgear. The result was interesting.

"In the eleventh and twelfth centuries, years rich in the building of churches and cathedrals, there were erected around the outside of the sacred edifices statues of the saints, long rows of them sometimes stretching the length of the buildings and placed for the most part just under the eaves. In time the caretakers of the buildings perceived that the droppings of birds and the discoloration from the rains falling from the roofs disfigured the images. Accordingly they placed over the tops of them flat wooden disks of sufficient size to protect the statues, embryo umbrellas, as it were. Giotto began to paint holy pictures when a mere country boy, and his ignorance assumed the protecting disk as an essential part of the saint; hence his earliest paintings represent each sacred figure topped off with what looks much like the bottom of a barrel. Later he idealized this into a circle, dark at first, but growing more luminous with each successive production of his artistic fancy, until he developed the circle of light that has come down unchanged through generations of painters as the badge of sanctity. An artist would as soon think of leaving the rays of light from the picture of a setting sun as the halo from the head of a saint.

"But," concluded the man of colors, "that celestial sign, emblematic of all that is supernal, began business merely as an umbrella." — Washington Post.

Astronomy and a Girl.

They were enjoying a quiet stroll out under the star strewn veil of evening, and he, bashful youth, eagerly grasped a stray opportunity to keep alive the languishing conversation.

"Yes, Miss Georgiana, that star over there is the planet Jupiter, which, they say, is about 400,000,000 miles from the earth; and that bright red planet overhead is Mars, which just now is only a little over 40,000,000 miles away. It's a great question among scientists whether or not there are inhabitants on either of them."

"Well, George," said the fair listener, in her thirst for astronomical knowledge drawing a little closer to her informant, "if there really are it doesn't seem to me they're near enough so that they could see us on a dark evening like this, even though they were looking this way." — Judge.

Babies in India.

There is a widespread prejudice in India against the birth of twins or triplets, which is supposed to be natural among animals, not among human beings, says the Dundee Advertiser. In former times such children were killed, though in some places this was avoided by making them over to some wandering fakir as disciples. For an Indian baby the sixth day after its birth is the most dangerous; hence Shashti, the "goddess of the sixth," is specially worshiped. This is rather curious when taken with the fact that surgeons tell us that this is just the period when infantile lock-jaw, caused by want of care and cleanliness, is likely to attack the child. On this night a fire is kept burning to light the room, and the infant's bed is surrounded with iron and other things which are said to scare evil spirits.

The Effect of Fear.

Great fear suspends the action of the salivary glands, and this fact is utilized for the detection of criminals by the officers of the law in India. When a man is suspected of having committed a crime he is obliged to chew dry rice in the presence of the court. So intense is the influence of fear on the glands of the mouth and throat that if the person is guilty there is no flow of saliva, and mastication is impossible. Such culprits usually confess. On the other hand, if the person is innocent there is no fear, and the salivary glands secrete enough saliva to soften the rice.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and salivary complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat-producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated. Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatina.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

The Savory Seamless Roaster

Is far superior to any other Roaster made, not an ounce of substance lost. Other roasters waste from 10 to 20 per cent. The Savory seamless roaster needs no water, grease or attention of any kind. It simply asks to be let alone. Retains all juices and flavors, renews the youth of the toughest fowl. One great feature of the Savory roaster is the oval bottom, with the ordinary flat bottom roaster the moisture brought out of the meat by cooking has no chance to accumulate and is burned and dried up in the bottom of the pan. In the oval bottom this meat juice flows continuously to the lowest point of the bottom, where it is turned into steam and condensed on the surface of the meat. This condensation continues until the roast has become heated through to the temperature of the atmosphere in the roaster, when the condensation stops and the brown ing of the roast begins.

The Savory roaster is self basting and self browning. The bottom is raised off the oven by the outside heat retaining jacket, which applies a uniform heat to the roast from all sides.

The Savory roaster is in a class to itself. Is guaranteed to give satisfaction when used according to directions. Buy one, take it home, go by the directions, use it thirty days, if not all we claim forth, return it to us and we will give you back your money, providing the roaster when returned, is in good condition.

See our window display of the Savory roasters. We will be glad to show you. Call and see them.
