Newsy Notes From a Hastling Town Briefly Told

Ayden, N. C., Dec. 17, 1907

Mrs. Gay Dixon and Miss Olivia Berry after attending the bazaar in Greenville for several days came home Friday.

As Christmas draweth nigh the old rooster crows, the old hen cackles and old booze flows.

On the departure for her home, last Saturday, of a charming and fascinating young lady who has been teaching in one of our schools for the past several months one of our prominent young merchants hurriedly hid himself away to the office of J. M. Blow and closely scanned a map of the United States in order to post himself regarding the exact location and distance to the residence of this young damsel fair. Surely he has got 'em bad.

George and Fred Worthington left here one day last week for Scotland Neck to finish some work they had left there undone. They placed their grip containing their Sunday clothes in the second class car with other things. When they went to get them some kind friend had relieved them of the grip. To say they were surprised does not express it as their loss was something like $50. Both of these gentlemen have our sympathy and we would recommend hereafter that they not only tag their baggage, but have a pasteboard attached to their persons in order that they may never have an experience of like occurrence.

Thursday evening upon the arrival of the train from Greenville there alighted in our town two citizens from the country here near by, Josephus Jones and his amiable spouse Pussie. Both were in exuberant spirits of a hilarious order. Proceeded forth with to make things lively in their own way of doing things. Pussie had a doll baby and at once insisted that one of our prominent citizens should give same the kiss of welcome. Of course he complied. Then Josie and Pussie proceeded to take in the town on a high scale. Josie furnished music from the mouth supposed to originate in a more sulphurous clime, while Pussie performed the acrobat species on the sidewalk. Her rolling and tumbling was just immense. So much so our most excellent chief became jealous and furnished Josie with quarters for the night, while Pussie he marched to the denizen forest and bade adieu. The next morning Mayor Barwick appeared on the scene with a smile serene and bland, and passed around the contribution box in which was speedily placed the munificent sum of $19.50 and with a further request on the part of his honor from Josephus that he make his appearance at the next term of Pitt Superior court that others might see the musical and hilarious composition with which our community is blessed. So endeth the first act.

W. M. Butt, chairman of board of education of Beaufort county, spent a couple of days last week here with W. E. Patrick.

Ashley Albritton, a prominent attorney from Snow Hill was here Monday on professional business.

Nat Whitfield, of Greenville, was here yesterday.

Mrs. E. L. Brown came up on the train yesterday from a visit to relatives in Kinston.

The various schools here will close next Friday for the holidays and reopen January 1st, 1908.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.

Those Who Come and Go—Some You Know Some Know You

Mrs. Harry Skinner left this morning for Raleigh.

Oscar Greene went to Norfolk today.

The weather man says snow and it looks like snow.

H. A. Biow returned today from Shelmerdine where he has been spending the last few months.

Mrs. B. E. Parham, of Greenville, after spending several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parham on Peyton avenue returned home this afternoon.—Kinston Free Press.

Be sure to try a pair of our cadet stockings for children. Every pair guaranteed. Pulley & Bowen.

Presentation to Retiring Minister

The congregation of the Christian church at Grifton last night presented the Rev. W. Y. Everton, pastor of the Methodist church, a set of silver knives and forks, as an expression of their appreciation of the efficient and courageous manner in which he led the prohibition forces to victory in the recent liquor election at Grifton. Mr. Everton was untiring in his efforts to purge Grifton of the liquor evil. Mr. Everton was appointed to the Battleboro circuit for the ensuing year, at the Methodist conference in Newbern and will remove from Grifton to Battleboro some day this week.—Kinston Free Press, 16th.

Come to us for Christmas goods. J. R. & J. G. Moye

Voice Like Capt. Swift Galloway.

Mr. H. E. C. Bryant writing to the Charlotte Observer from Washington, refers to a well known and well beloved citizen of Greene county in the following:

Rev. Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the senate, is unique in appearance. With his deep, tremendous mellow bass voice, his long, peculiarly trimmed hair, he looks like a relic of a century ago. His voice, when praying, is not unlike that of Capt. Swift Galloway, of Greene county, when speaking to a Democratic state convention. Mr. Hale is a man of ripe old age; in his younger days he was a great force in the religious world and a giant in the pulpit. He wears his hair long and square cut as did men in the time of Washington, the Adameses and Thos. Jefferson.—Kinston Free Press.

Savory Seamless Roasters are self basting, self browning, seamless, sanitary. Call and examine them. They are guaranteed to please. J. R. & J. G. Moye.

Lost Dog.

Last seen about the 20th of November. Dark liver color, cross between bull and pointer. Liberal reward for return. W. H. Harrington, Greenville, N. C. 26, d-1mo.

Santa Claus has made headquarters at my store near the A. C. L. depot. Come to me for anything in the way of dolls, doll carriages, wagons, mechanical toys, drums, horns, bisque figures, cups and saucers, vases, Christmas tree ornaments, etc. L. M. Savage.

Ladies black voile skirts, ready made, with silk drop skirts to match. Pulley & Bowen.

Receptions to Prisoners Unwise.

It is noted with interest that a citizen of this State who had just finished a term of two years in the Federal prison in Atlanta for crookedness in liquor dealing, has returned to his home and "was given a warm and hearty reception by his family and friends," and it is further stated that a reception was given at his home (presumably in his honor), which a large number were present. In a neighboring town some months ago a citizen who served a term in jail for crookedness in liquor dealing signaled his release from prison by a reception at his home. We do not think when a man is released from prison he should be shunned by his former associates or mistreated by his family; that may drive him to despair. On the contrary he should be given all proper encouragement to so conduct himself that he may efface, as far as possible, the memory of his fall. But it is dangerous to make much of a to do over one of this kind. If the receptions, etc., do not make him believe he has done no wrong, it may lead others to think that it is something of an honor to serve a term in jail or in the penitentiary. Better leave off the receptions on such occasions.—Statesville Landmark.

Special reduction in price of boy's and children's clothing. Pulley & Bowen.

The Blood of Our Presidents.

Despite the fact that we are the most amalgamated nation on earth, but two of the twenty-five men who have served this country as president came from other than British ancestry. Having occasion a few days since to go over a list of the presidents, it occurred to me that it would be of interest to see whence our executives come. I find that all but two—Van Buren and Roosevelt, who came from the Dutch—were of British ancestry.

These twenty-three from the British are divided up into Scotch-Irish, Scotch, Welsh and English. From the Scotch-Irish came Jackson, Polk, Buchanan, Arthur and McKinley; from the Scotch are Monroe, Grant and Hayes, and from the Welsh came Jefferson. All the rest came from the English, pure and simple. German, French, Italian, Polish, Russian and Scandinavian blood have not yet mingled in the veins of our presidents, and probably will not for some time.—Pathfinder.

Mrs. Fannie Hardee Dead.

At 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, at the home of her son in South Greenville, Mrs. Fannie Hardee passed away after an illness of eight weeks. She was 67 years old and leaves two sons, Messrs. D. S. Smith and W. J. Hardee, one daughter, Miss Fannie Hardee, and one sister, Mrs. Bettie Tucker. She was an excellent woman and her death is mourned by many friends.

The remains were taken to Greenville today for interment in the family burial ground on the Marion Hardee place.

Currants and seeded raisins. J. B. Johnston.

We make a specialty and study of Gloves. See our Christmas line. Frank Wilson.

Large assortment of nuts and candies. J. B. Johnston.

Fancy Raisins, coca nuts and grapes, just received at J. B. Johnston's. 17 3rd 1tw.

Heard Money Stolen.

The loss of $752, an account of which appears in our local columns today, is an object lesson to the people who have money. Just last week we called attention to the loss of $1,500 by a Randolph county farmer who thought it was safe in the mattress of his bed. Like the Fitzgerald merchant, when he went to look for it one day, it was gone, and the thief may never be known. The Randolph county farmer and the Fitzgerald merchant should have had their money in some bank. It would have been safer there and would have been worth more to the business world than anywhere else they could have possibly kept it. It was not only their duty as a matter of precaution to put their money in the bank, but it was their duty as business men. Banks sometimes fail, but they hardly ever fail to pay the depositors even in the worst failures.

Only a few weeks ago this Fitzgerald merchant fell out with the banks for issuing clearing house certificates and immediately withdrew his money. If his example had been followed by all the depositors of the bank it would have been impossible for them to get more than 50 cents on the dollar and their action would have ruined the bank. But fortunately for them and for the bank and for Fitzgerald, they did not take the same view of it, and left their money where it is safer and where it is doing its part in our great commercial system. We sympathize with the farmer and the merchant who lost their money, but we cannot approve their policy. If every farmer, and every merchant followed their example, the commerce of the country would come to a sudden or sensational halt, and more money would be lost in a year than is lost by bank depositors in a decade.—Fitzgerald Enterprise.

A beautiful line of ladies embroidered handkerchiefs, just in at Pulley and Bowen's.

Eye Injured.

Monday afternoon Mr. Oscar Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Greene, who is one of the construction crew of the local telephone system, was at work putting a telephone in a residence. While driving a nail through a porcelain knob on which to fasten the wire, the knob broke and a piece of it struck him in the left eye. The injury to his eye was so severe that he went to Norfolk today for treatment. We hope the injury to his eye will not be permanent.

For useful Christmas presents go to Pulley & Bowen.

Eye Defects.

If you have eye troubles, don't put them off, but see Dr. Taylor, of Greensboro, who will be at his old office in Ayden, Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 23 and 24, for the purpose of correcting eye defects. Don't fail to see him. Small eye troubles make big ones when neglected. All work guaranteed.

Weather.

Partly cloudy tonight, probably snow in mountain districts, Wednesday rain or snow.

Keen Kutter Safety Razors will make a nice Christmas gift. At H. L. Carr's. 2t

Resolutions of Sympathy.

The Supreme Architect of the universe having visited our lodge with death and called from labor to rest the soul of our brother, W. H. White, Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. & A. M. desires to express this testimonial of esteem to his memory.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother White this lodge has lost one of its most faithful members, one true to its principles and who lived and practiced the teachings of Masonry. He was a loyal brother, a true friend, an upright citizen, and while we deplore his death we bow in humble submission to the will of God who doeth all things well. We will ever cherish his memory in our hearts, and commend his faithfulness as an example worthy of emulation.

Resolved further, That we extend to the widow, parents, brothers and sister of our deceased brother our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement, and commend them to God who alone can sustain them in such great sorrow.

Resolved further, That a copy of this testimonial be sent the widow of our brother, and copies furnished The Reflector and The Orphans' Friend for publication.

Funeral Wednesday.

The remains of Mr. W. T. Fleming, who died Monday at Old Fort, are expected here on this evening's train, and the burial will take place in cherry Hill cemetery Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Now for Christmas. We have the things men want and appreciate and plenty of them. Come see. Frank Wilson

No more sensible Christmas gift could be given to a man or boy than a new suit or overcoat. Frank Wilson.

Ready for Christmas

Santa Claus and everybody else will find my store ready for Christmas with an unusually large lot of toys, dolls, vases, figures, cups and saucers, wagons, doll carriages, horses, drums, and a full line of fruits and confections. I can supply anything wanted for Christmas at very lowest prices. JAMES LONG.

Try our dollar underwear and you won't have to go South to get warm. Frank Wilson.

That Christmas Turkey will be all the better if cooked in a Savory Seamless Roaster. Savory Roasters are sold by J. R. & J. G. Moye.

Full of snap and ginger is what good dressers say of our Christmas neckwear. Frank Wilson.

Notice to Creditors.

Having duly qualified before the Superior court clerk of Pitt county as administratrix of the estate of Albert Moore, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate to make immediate payment to the undersigned, and all persons having claims against said estate are notified to present the same to the undersigned for payment on or before the 17th day of December, 1908, or this notice will be plead in bar of recovery. This 17th day of Dec. 1907. Lorena Moore, Admx of Albert Moore.

Republican presidential possibilities are narrowing down to Hughes, Taft and Cortelyou.

This moon will not wait until Christmas to get full, an example some folks will imitate.

To talk of the foolishness of hoarding money makes little impression on the fellow who has none to hoard.

Some other fellow comes forward with the suggestion of Bryan and Hearst as running mates.

If the Boston preachers' calculation, that the reign of the devil on earth will cease in eight years, comes true some folks are going to lose their jobs.

A negro who was hanged in Nebraska, picked a tune on his banjo just before going from the cell to the gallows. Guess he thought he would be happy as long as he could.

Reports say that President Roosevelt has already become planning a European tour as soon as his term of office expires. Guess he wants to separate himself from the rumpuss as soon as possible.

When Christmas giving is reduced to a mere swapping of presents much of the significance is lost. The Bible teaches "it is more blessed to give than to receive." Follow this idea and let your best giving be where you expect nothing in return.

The superintendent of the graded school of Lumberton has set a precedent that will doubtless call down much wrath upon his offending thead, by ordering that the seven young ladies who compose the faculty of the school refrain from receiving company any time between Monday morning and Friday afternoon.

H. E. C. Bryant, special Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, writes that there is more talk of opposition to Bryan among Democrats of all soots than there has been for years. He says Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, is developing much strength for the nomination.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.

By a Contributor

Those New Jersey squirrels that lined their nests with chewed-up fragments of thirty $20 bills, have cured one person of the fear that banks are not safe.

Mr. Taft will return to find that absence does not make Foraker's heart grow fonder.

Mr. Tom Johnson will call at the White House shortly, just to "pass time o' day," and show there are no hard feelings.

Thousands of men and women in all walks of life are suffering from kidney and bladder troubles. Don't neglect your kidneys. Delays are dangerous. DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills afford quick relief for all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. A week's treatment 25c. Sold by J. L. Wooten's drug store.

A friend without discretion is more to be feared than an enemy in armor.

Jack and Jid were both quite ill. Now each is well and wiser. For blues and headaches have to go, When they take an Early Riser. DeWitt's Little Early Riser Pills are sold by J. L. Wooten's drug store.

The biggest crowns in Heaven are for those who were the most natural on earth.

Whenever you feel that your stomach has gone a little wrong, or when you feel that it is not in good order as is evidenced by mean headaches nervousness, bad breath, and belching, take something at times, and especially after your meals until relief is afforded. There is nothing better offered the public today for stomach troubles, dyspepsia, indigestion, etc than Kodol. This is a scientific preparation of natural digestions, combined with vegetable acids and it contains the same juices found in every healthy stomach. Kodol is guaranteed to give relief. It is pleasant to take; it will make you feel fine by digesting what you eat. Sold by John L. Wooten, druggist.

God appreciates and rewards all we do for others, even if those we seek to benefit forget to thank us.

DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve—don't forget the name, and accept no substitute. Get DeWitt's. It's good for piles. Sold by J. L. Wooten's drug store.

Do not forget that the most substantial foundations are not always seen by the one who passes by.

Are you having trouble with your kidneys? There are lots of people today who wonder why they have pains across the back, why they are tired and lacking in energy and ambition. Your kidneys are wrong. They need relief without delay. Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills; they are for weak back, inflammation of the bladder, backache and weak kidneys. Sold by J. L. Wooten's drug store.

As a rule chesty men are narrow-minded.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by Bryan's Drug Store.

It makes some women awfully happy to be sorrow for somebody.

It's a good thing to avoid people who consider you a good thing.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lungheating mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's cough cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb". Always demand Dr. Shoop's cough cure. Bryans Drug Store.

The finest coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. "Health coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health coffee imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. I. E. Hooker & Co.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

A gift should be something that gives to him who receives it a better impression of your friendship, and also something that will keep that impression in mind. You surely will find the gift you want in our stock.

When you buy your gifts for Christmas you should endeavor to give something nice however small. Quality not quantity should be your motto. We kept this in view when we bought our holiday line and we have the daintiest and most appropriate gifts that can be given.

This space is too small to give you a list of everything we have. Suffice to say that we have the largest and most elaborate line of holiday goods we have ever had.

Our line of toilet and manicure sets is without doubt something that will tempt you to invest. We have them from $1 to $12.50

We also have a line of men's pocket books and bill books to suit, and prices that are reasonable.

The use of candles at the Christmas season is as closely identified with the holiday as Santa Claus himself. We have a line without rival ranging from 30c to 3.00 per dozen.

Bohemian glass sets are again stylish and we have them in every style and in such pretty designs too. Our prices are from 1.50 to 3.50.

There is always a great demand for Bibles at the Christmas season. The Bible makes a most appropriate gift for either young or old. We have them from 50c. 3.50

A book of poems in a dainty binding. A Christy Book, a new novel, and all the regular holiday editions, bring delight and enjoyment to the recipient. We always carry a good line of picture books, novels illustrated books, holiday editions and everything usually found in the Book line.

In leather goods we have a complete line of ladies' shopping bags in all the popular colors of leather. Our prices range from 50c. to $5.00.

Never before has such a gorgeous line of mirrors been displayed in Greenville.

The line consists of French plate mirrors on gold and silver easels, and in triple mirrors with frames of the same materials. Our prices are very reasonable on this line.

Boys, we have drums, rocking horses, dolls, tin toys etc.

Be sure to see our line of Post Card Albums. Every post-card collector needs one, and nothing is more acceptable as a gift. Ask to see them.

In bisque figures we have something that will appeal to your pocket book, however small or large it may be.

Our souvenir goods in silver, brass, gun metal, and white metal are the most tempting of the whole line. We have hundreds of articles in silver, antique brass, gun metal and copper, that will appeal to every holiday shopper in Greenville and the vicinity. Dainty and original, you may be sure the person to whom they are given has nothing like them. We have heard nothing but exclamations of delight wherever they have been shown. We also have articles of the same materials without the souvenir feature that are creations of beauty, jewelry cases, candelabras, puff boxes, pin trays, ink stands, pin cushions etc.

No where will you find such a collection in china goods as at our store. Our shelves are profuse with the world's china creations; the rich and modest line of hand painted Old Ivory from Prussia, the delicate hand painted Nippon Art Ware from Japan, the brightly colored and artistically decorated pieces of our Tokio assortment, and the pretty creations from the German line. When you come to see us don't leave the store until you have seen our souvenir line of blue cobalt from Germany. This line consists of dozens of useful ornamental prices containing views of Greenville. When you give a gift out of town give something that will give local touch to the one who receives it.

The talking machine is a gift to the family. Mr. Man you can do nothing better than buy one now. The whole family will enjoy it, and none of the family more than you. We handle both the Edison and the Victor machines and a full line of records for each.

We have been very frugal in marking our line of Christmas goods and we believe the people of the community will appreciate the fact. You must come to our store if you see the real holiday line. All goods will be sold at prices marked.

What About Christmas?

With the compliments of the season to all our readers we ask you the question of the hour

WHAT ABOUT CHRISTMAS

The children are asking it with wondering and hopeful expectations of what Santa Claus is likely to bring them.

The older people are asking it, not so much in speculation regarding the remembrances that Christmas will bring to them, but rather as an inquiry as to how they are to provide suitable and satisfactory presents for relatives and friends without too heavy a drain upon their time and purse.

May we help you to solve the problem and put you in the way of doing your Christmas shopping with pleasure satisfaction and economy?

We offer the advantage of selection that can only be found in a very extensive showing of first class goods. We take pleasure in pleasing customers and will do all in our power to help you to just the right article at the right price, so that you may leave our store glad that you came, and perfectly satisfied with your purchases in every respect.

We extend to all a cordial invitation to call and see our line of

TO MY FRIENDS.

Having been away for several months I wish to announce to my friends and patrons of the "empire" of Pitt that I am still connected with the firm of Chas. M. Stieff, and if bachelors are allowed to misuse the happy term home as a synonym for a "hanging out place" I still call Greenville my home, and while I intend to be away from Greenville a great deal of my time during this fall a postal care of box 325, Greenville, will reach me within a day or two. We now have a number of slightly used upright pianos, some of which have been rented during the summer months, others which were temporarily used by artists at the exposition and for orchestra work, at bargain prices.

We also offer a special school piano for $225 00 fully measuring up in standard to any $350 00 instrument. This piano is especially built for college and school work for the special price named above and is full guaranteed by my firm for 10 years. Those interested in a school piano or in a good slightly used piano for the home should write me at once and will profit by it, and as ever I am always mindful of my patrons' protection and interest as well as my firm's interest. Grateful of past patronage. Very respt.,
