Newsy Notes From Our Hustling Neighbor.

Winterville, N. C., Jan. 23, 1909.

Dr. Henry W. Battle, of Kinston, delivered one of the finest lectures ever delivered here last night in the auditorium of Winterville High School. The subject of his address was the life of Robt. E. Lee and from beginning to end he held the large audience spell bound. Dr. Battle had a subject that every Southern boy and girl loves from the heart, and then the eloquence of the speaker was superb. He reviewed the life of Lee from young manhood when a constant companion of his widowed mother to his old age as teacher of the sons of the soldiers who had followed him on many a battle field. He spoke of the great secret of Lee's remarkable career and that was his sense of the right in all things. He held up the life of Lee as one of the finest productions of Southern manhood and as a beautiful model for the boys of today. We want to assure Dr. Battle that his address was heartily enjoyed by all present, and we hope to have him again.

Mrs. N. C. Tripp and Mrs. J. B. Johnson, of Greenville, returned home this morning after having spent some time with the family of Bryant Tripp.

Joseph Roberson, of Hassell, spent Friday night with the family of M. G. Bryan.

Clyde Daughety went to Norfolk Thursday and returned Friday.

Miss Lala Chapman came in from Stokes Friday evening to spend Sunday.

Mrs. Bessie Daughety spent Friday in Ayden.

Miss Vivian Roberson went to Robersonville this morning to spend Sunday.

J. D. Cox left Thursday morning for Robeson county, where he will spend several weeks in the interest of the Beaufort County Lumber Co.

Rev. T. H. Kingle left this morning for Goldsboro where he will fill his regular appointment there Sunday.

J. E. Green spent Thursday night with relatives in Grifton.

L. L. Kittrell went to Greenville this morning.

Will Close Tonight.

The Demorest Comedy Co., presented "Ku Klux Klan" in the opera house Friday night. It was a thrilling play and the audience gave liberal applause. This afternoon "Peck's Bad Boy" was given at a matinee, and of course that delighted the little folks.

The company will close its week's engagement tonight with "Beyond the Rockies," a romantic Western drama. Tonight the musical chimes will be repeated by special request, and the drawing for the baby will take place.

The Demorest Comedy Co., has certainly made a good reputation in Greenville. It is the best low price show that has been here. For a week stand the attendance held up well.

Ladies admitted free again tonight if accompanied by escort with paid admission.

Cotton Ginned.

The government ginner's report issued today shows the cotton of this season's crop ginned to Jan. 16th to be 12,667,231 bales.

JUDGE DID NOT OBJECT TO IT.

But Would Have Same Law Apply to the Lawyers.

After the adjournment of court Friday evening, Judge O. H. Allen and several members of the bar were standing on the corner of the square discussing certain cases and incidents that had come up during the term. The business of the term being over, the judge was asked if he was going home on the evening train?

"No," he replied, "I will remain until morning and come back to the court house a while to see if there are any matters that need looking over and signing before I leave."

The reporter had joined the group in time to hear this question and reply, and the opinion of Judge Allen was asked on the bill offered or suggested in the legislature to require judges to remain at the county seat during the full time allotted for a term of court.

"Oh, I like that all right," he said. "Such a law would make no difference with me, as it is my custom to remain to the end of the term any way. But I would like to offer one amendment to such bill, and that is every lawyer having business with the court be also required to remain to the end of the term, and that they be allowed to continue no cases, even though counsel on both sides consent to it, unless the judge gave his approval to such continuance."

This put the laugh on the lawyers present, but ex-Governor Jarvis remarked "you can put me down as agreeing to that amendment right now."

If such a bill should be enacted, with the amendment suggested by Judge Allen, you would see the courts, especially civil terms, disposing of a great many more cases and there would be fewer crowded dockets.

Senate Won't Confirm Seawell.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—Herbert F. Seawell, who is President Roosevelt's second choice for the Eastern North Carolina judgeship, need not order his official robes and other court paraphernalia during the Rooseveltian administration. He won't be a Federal judge unless Mr. Taft selects him above all other attorneys in Eastern Carolina for this honored position. This fact was made plain this afternoon by one of the Republican leaders in the senate.

THE LEGISLATURE.

What Our Law Makers Are Doing at Raleigh.

FIFTEENTH DAY.
SENATE.

In the senate there were only a few new bills. One by Senator Ormond was to place solicitors on salary and to fix their compensation.

The bill amending the charter of Greenville passed third reading.

A resolution to adjourn Friday until noon Monday was defeated.

HOUSE.
The committee gave the bill to increase the salary of the commissioner of labor and printing a favorable report. There was a resolution to pay the expenses of the inaugural committee.

Among the new bills were: To amend code as to seduction; to amend law as to inheritance tax; to abolish crop pest commission; to regulate sale of feed compounds; to allow three days' grace on sight drafts; as to liabilities of banks as to forged checks.

Representative Harshaw gave notice that on Saturday he would introduce a joint resolution to adjourn the session February 20th, and ask immediate consideration.

Coming Next Week.

Harry Lindley, the old favorite comedian, surrounded by a most capable company, will play three nights in the opera house commencing Jan. 28th. All new plays will be presented together with bright and catchy specialties. The press of the towns Mr. Lindley has been playing say he never was better equipped to please the public than now.

Ladies Free Tonight.

The Demorest Comedy Co., in appreciation of the liberal patronage according this week, will admit ladies free again to the closing performance tonight, if accompanied by escort holding paid ticket. The company has been very liberal in this particular.

Mr. J. J. Mason Dead.

News has been received here of the death of Mr. J. J. Mason, of Washington, which occurred in the hospital there Friday evening. Mr. Mason was a native of Pitt county and has lived in Washington for some years. He had many friends here.

Bill Requires Roads to Take Mileage.

Mr. Barringer, of Guilford, introduced in the Senate yesterday a bill relating to the privileges of persons owning mileage books. It provides that a person who shall be the purchaser or owner of a mileage book in this State shall not be required to obtain a ticket for transportation over any railroad upon which he is entitled to travel by the right given in the mileage book. The bill will receive strong support in the senate.

Mr. Ormond, of Lenoir, presented in the senate a bill fixing the salaries of solicitors at $2,500, there being already a senate bill to abolish the fee system and make the solicitors' annual compensation $2,000. There are also two bills in the house, one providing a salary of $2,000, which the house committee virtually rejected, the other, the Koonce bill, at $2,750. This bill was yesterday made a special order in the house for next Tuesday at 12 o'clock.—Raleigh News and Observer.

FEW FACES CAREFULLY WASHED.

Women Are Neglectful of Most Important Treatment for the Complexion.

Strange as the assertion may seem, not eighty women in a hundred know how to wash their faces. The dab of cold water, oft-repeated, which so many women call "washing the face," is not even a sop to cleanliness; and following exposure to dust or smoke-laden wind is an insult to any skin. The cold water shocks and checks the capillary circulation, which alone is a menace to healthful functioning; and, failing to dissolve the dirt, it makes mud-pies of it in combination with a more or less oily excretion from the glands. It is such treatment as this that start comedones (commonly called "blackheads") which are arrested secretions of the sebaceous glands that clog the pores and finally distend them. Two baths daily, given with an intelligence that respects the delicacy of the facial structure, are all that cleanliness requires under ordinary exposure; and of these the night toilet—the one most commonly omitted—is the most important care which the complexion can receive. The day's impurities should not be left to obstruct the pores during sleep, when the exhalations from them need to be perfect.—The February Designer.

YOUNG PRIMA DONNA.

Juanita Rush, of the Herald Square Company a Young Star.

Miss Juanita Rush, the prima donna of the Herald Square (comic) Opera Company, which organization comes to the opera house next Tuesday evening in the comedy song success "A Trip to India," is preceded by the reputation of being one of the most youthful and at the same time capable operatic stars now on tour.

Although scarcely out of her teens Miss Rush handles the most difficult of operatic parts like a seasoned veteran and shows the result of an early and thorough training of her enviable musical gift.

Previous to joining the Herald Square combination, Miss Rush was prima donna of the Colonial Opera Company, which was one of the most successful musical organizations that toured the South last season.

Seat sale will open Monday at Reflector Book Store.

BETTER LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE.

We thought the railroad rate matter, so far as it relates to passenger fares, was settled and that there would be no further agitation of it. That is the position the people had taken, and though a compromise was effected at a rate some higher than specified in the bill passed by the legislature two years ago, it gave them satisfaction. But it seems that the railroads are not satisfied with the agreement they made, and want to re open the matter to agitation. With this end in view the head officials of the several railroads operating in this State met by agreement in Raleigh, the other day, and asked a conference with Governor Kitchin whom they desired to help bring about a change in the existing passenger fare law and permit the railroads to charge a higher rate. Another day was set to discuss the matter further.

According to our way of thinking, the railroads had better let well enough alone. If they re open the rate war and arouse the people on it, and come out the worst in the agitation, they will have only themselves to blame for it.

Some of these days Greenville will have a tall office building. We have already heard some men wishing for the quiet of upper stories.

From the way congress is raising salaries, that body must think "Uncle Sam" has plenty of money.

An Augusta dispatch says Mr. Taft had a quiet day. We thought that is what he went there for.

The Homestead Exemption.

The legislature shows a disposition to do something to the homestead exemption law in this State. This is of course in response to a somewhat more or less popular demand. It has been agitated for some time by various commercial bodies. The law was passed soon after the war and served a good purpose. The people had just emerged from a four years' war poor in pocket and worn out; many—scores—were in debt, unable to pay through no fault of their own, left to the mercy of unyielding creditors. Under these conditions the homestead exemption was passed and it was wise. In addition it prevented worthless husbands from squandering the homes that sheltered wife and children, but it is now claimed, and with some truth, that it is working a hardship, not only on honest creditors, but to the man of small means as well, often preventing him from obtaining credit where he could profit. In other words, an honest, upright man, having no more property than the exemption amounts to, is turned down; he is classed as having no credit and suffers thereby.

But, strange as it may seem,

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

this privilege is being abused more and more as the years go by, for scores of people seem to have just realized that they can buy and cannot be forced to pay, no matter what happens. By hook or by crook they manage to obtain credit from the merchant or tradesman, then pop their fingers and say "get it if you can."

It is a knotty problem, but the legislature may solve it.—Greensboro Record.

Without an Enemy.

Heaven help the man who imagines he can dodge enemies by trying to please everybody! If such an individual ever succeeded we should be glad of it—not that we believe in a man going through the world trying to find beams to knock and thump his poor head against, disputing every man's opinion, fighting and elbowing, and crowding all who differ with him. That, again is another extreme. Other people have a right to their opinion, so have you; don't fall into the error of supposing they will respect you less for maintaining it, or respect you more for turning your coat every day to match the color of theirs. Wear your own colors in spite of wind or weather, storm or sunshine. It costs the vacillating and irresolute ten times the trouble to wind and shuffle, and twist, that it does honest, manly independence to stand its ground.—Mt. Olive Tribune.

The Indiana legislature is considering the erection of a governor's mansion, to cost $150,000. "Don't do it," advised Governor Marshall (Democrat) the other day. "A house costing $15,000 to $20,000 is good enough for any governor to live in," he went on; "and to spend more than that on an executive mansion would be a waste of public money. Moreover, no poor man could afford to live in a $150,000 house, unless the cost of running it were laid upon the taxpayers, and that would be a waste of money. A millionaire might be able to keep up such a house at his own expense, but the average man couldn't." Somehow from time to time these Democrat fellows continue to talk horse sense.—Savannah News.
