FARMERS UNION.

Organization Effected in Pitt County—J. Z. Green Speaker.

For a few weeks Mr. G. C. Hedgepeth, of Nash county, district organizer of the Farmers' Union, has been in this county organizing local unions. These locals came together in the court house today to hear an address by Mr. J. Z. Green, of Marshville, who is State organizer, and to organize a county union. Quite a large number of farmers were present and there was much interest in the movement.

Mr. J. F. Evans, agent of the farm demonstration work in the county, introduced Mr. Green, who made a speech that was interesting and instructive. Mr. Green is editor of Our Home, at Marshville, which ranks with the best country papers in the South, and he is also a good speaker. He clearly showed the benefit to come to farmers through organization and co-operation.

Those wanting engraved cards for Christmas should place orders early to insure delivery in time. The Reflector takes orders.

AYDEN ITEMS

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town Briefly Told

Ayden, N. C. Dec 1, 1909.

Elias Coward, who has been spending a few weeks visiting relatives and looking after his business here, will leave for his home in Florida next Friday.

Mrs. J. J. Lawrence and three of her children have moved to town to avail themselves of the splendid educational advantages that Ayden offers.

The Free Will Baptists, under the leadership of Rev. G. C. Vauce, a young man of sterling promise, acquitted themselves like workmen not ashamed last Sunday morning, when after the morning sermon they raised $200 to pay off the entire indebtedness of the new church, and not a person left when the appeal was made. This nice new church will be dedicated at an early day.

The Methodist Conference has returned to this circuit Rev. J. B. Bridgers. This church has made wonderful progress during his administration here.

Mrs. E. Turnage and mother, Mrs. Ormond, are on a visit to Greenville.

H. C. Ormond and wife spent Sunday in Ormondsville.

Henry B. Smith, a prosperous farmer, was on our cotton market Monday and was pleased with results.

His honor, Mayor Barwick, spent Wednesday at Maple Cypress, where he has an extensive mercantile business.

C. J. McGlohon went out hunting last night with his shepherd dog and bagged seven opossums. This shows that he can do more than raise cotton and tobacco.

Ed Garris has purchased the John Dunn farm near town.

J. A. Griffin has purchased the Manning and McGlohon farm which is a part of the late Skilton Dennis estate.

Mack Manning, of Hertford, is in town on business. We hear he is going to locate again in our midst. He moved from Ayden last year.

The old reliable Turner's N. C. Almanac for 1910 can be found at J. R. Smith Co's.

We must think this is a good poultry market. We saw Tuesday five coops geese and five coops chickens, besides other produce shipped from here to the northern markets.

T. Lee Bland, proprietor of Ricks Hotel, Rocky Mount, was in town Tuesday on business. Lee is an Aydenite and we all feel proud of him.

A Correction

Editor Reflector:

In yesterday's paper, we notice it mentioned that Mr. S. C. Wooten, one of those so badly hurt in the automobile wreck on Nov. 5th, has been able to be taken out driving the last day or two. It also read "While making good progress physically, his mind is not yet restored." The latter part of the statement is somewhat misleading to the public and we think it should be corrected.

His mind is certainly in keeping with his physical condition, which, we are glad to say, is satisfactory. S. Hassel, Wm. Fountain.

[The Reflector is only too glad to give the foregoing correction. There was no intention whatever to be misleading, and we are sorry that impression was taken from the article.—Ed.]

TIME IS GROWING SHORT.

And Somebody is Going to Get a Handsome Piano.

There are now only about three weeks more of The Reflector piano contest, as it will come to a close at noon on the 24th of December, Christmas eve. Then the candidate who has recorded the highest number of votes will receive as a Christmas present the beautiful Boudoir piano on exhibition at the music store of Fineman & White. Those who contemplate voting for their favorite must do so before the last stroke of the clock at noon on that day, hence one minute after will be too late. The voting will close exactly at 12 o'clock on the 24th.

The remaining three weeks will mean much to the candidates, and some of them are working with a determination to win this elegant prize. The published list does not show just how they stand, as we know some of them have a large number of votes which they have not turned in. But they should be careful not to hold them too late, as votes must be in on time to count. Nor should any candidate lose any time at work between now and the 24th. Make up your mind that somebody else beside yourself is at work for the prize, and do your best to get new subscribers to The Reflector and collect from old ones.

Every one of our subscribers should feel an interest in this contest. It cost nothing to vote, as you only have to pay your subscription and give the votes to whom you please. If you have been promising to help a candidate with your votes, this month, before the 24th, is the time to do it.

GREENVILLE TOBACCO SALES.

What The Market Has Been Doing This Season.

Secretary E. B. Ferguson, of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, furnishes us the following figures, taken from his official records, of the sales of leaf tobacco this season on the Greenville market:

For the month of November the sales were 2,225,594 pounds for $234,293.29, an average of $10.53 per hundred pounds.

For the preceding three months—August, September and October—the sales were 6,628,370 for $562,532.94, an average of $8.50 per hundred pounds.

For the four months up to Nov. 30th the sales were 8,853,964 for $796,826.23, an average of $9 per hundred pounds.

Bound Over to Court.

A few nights ago Herbert Edmonds, proprietor of the Central barber shop, while on his way from home out Dickinson avenue, was run over at a street crossing by Tom Williams, the mail carrier between the post-office and depots. The vehicle in which the mail was carried struck Edmonds, knocked him down and considerably bruised him. A warrant was issued against Williams for assault by reckless driving and when the case came up for hearing before Mayor Whedbee, Tuesday, Williams was bound over to Superior court.

Steamer Lost Near Hatteras.

Baltimore, Nov. 29.—A wireless from Diamond Shoals lightship says that mate and four men were rescued from the stranded steamer Brewster, and are now safe on the lightship.

The ship, loaded with fruit from Jamaica, was stranded six miles inside the lightship this morning.

The wireless announced serious danger to the tugs sent from Norfolk and Cape Hatteras. Heavy winds are blowing and may break up the ship. It is expected that the remaining crew will be saved, however.

In the Fleming Office.

N. W. Outlaw, who recently moved here from Goldsboro to engage in the practice of law, will occupy the office on Third street formerly used by the late J. I. Fleming, instead of in the Masonic Temple building as was previously announced. His card will be found elsewhere in this paper.

Don't Warm Gold Fish.

A lady who had some gold fish conceived the idea of setting the globe down before the fire to keep the fish warm on a recent cold night. Next morning the fish were dead. Warming them was the very thing the fish did not need.

WEDNESDAY DEC. 1, 1909.

Those automobile tourists did not even stop at Greensboro, but they saw Guilford's good roads just the same, and it was the quality of these that caught the thousand dollars prize.

In these latter times scrambles for office keep going on from one election to another, so that the people get no relief at all from political agitation. The Winston-Journal says there are already five candidates out for sheriff of Forsyth county, and the election nearly a year off. That is only one instance, and there are others.

When Will the Farmer Learn?

The Farmers' Union News feels sad when it looks about over the country and sees so many farmers who are being caused to suffer as a result of their misguided acts in the spring.

The cotton buyer, the "sly old con," made the farmer believe that ten and eleven cents was a big price for cotton. Then they proceeded to buy it from him for future delivery at that price. The farmer did not stop to consider that if the merchant could afford to pay ten and eleven cents for cotton to be paid for in the fall, that he, the farmer, could afford to wait until fall to make contracts for sale.

Many, many, are the families in the cotton district who will have to go in want during the next twelve months as a result of this misguided piece of business. Many a child will go without sufficient clothes, without sufficient shoes to keep its feet warm. Many a mother will be caused to stay at home from church for the reason that the man who swore to protect her and provide for her refused to take the advice of his fellow-farmer, sought the advice of the speculator, accepted it, and was caught in the trap.

As we meditate, we are caused to exclaim: "When, oh, when, will the farmer learn!"—Farmers' Union News.

Exchange Seed for Meal.

A ton of cottonseed is equal in feeding value to about 1,350 pounds of cottonseed meal. In most places in the Progressive Farmer territory a ton of cotton seed sold to the mills will purchase 1,800 pounds of cottonseed meal. In such cases it is plain that we have 450 pounds of cottonseed meal, or say $7.20 to pay for hauling a ton of cottonseed to market and for hauling 1,350 pounds of meal back to the farm. Unless the haul is a long one, it is apparent that it will pay to sell the cottonseed to the mills at $27 to $30 a ton. Moreover, there is an additional reason for feeding meal rather than seed, in that the oil in the seed can only be used as feed by cattle in small quantities. Therefore, if as much feed value is to be obtained from 1 ton of seed as from 1,350 pounds of meal, the seed must be fed in small quantities; whereas a larger ration of meal may be fed with satisfaction. It should be apparent to any one that with cottonseed at from $27 to $30 a ton and meal selling for only a little more per ton the seed should be sold to the oil mills unless the haul is too long. For every ton of cottonseed sold off the farm not less than 1,350 pounds of meal should be returned and fed to live stock, the stable manure carefully saved and applied to the land.—Progressive Farmer.

Newspaper's Hogs.

We suppose all newspapers have a few "hogs"—two legged ones—on their subscription list. We had one, but we haven't got him now. He got in debt to us $3, and we cross-marked his paper. Did he pay us? No, indeed; he had his postmaster to notify us on a dead head government card that he "refused" the paper, which he had read three years without paying for it. We haven't got any other hogs on our books now, and if we are so unfortunate as to get another, we will publish his name and warn the public.—Carthage News.

TRUTHFUL REPORTS.

Greenville Reads Them with Uncommon Interest.

A Greenville citizen tells his experience in the following statement. No better evidence than this can be had. The truthful reports of friends and neighbors is the best proof in the world. Read and be convinced. John G. Latham, 907 Cotanche street Greenville, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills in my case far surpassed any other kidney remedy I had previously used. For some time my kidneys were disordered, the secretions being too frequent and painful in passage. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was so much impressed that I procured a box at John L. Wooten's Drug Store. They seemed to go directly to the seat of my trouble and gave me relief in a short time. My kidneys were restored to their normal condition and I felt better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Canny Scot.
In the differences that would sometimes arise between members of his tenantry the Duke of Argyll was often invited to arbitrate upon the matter in dispute, and he used to tell a characteristically Scottish story of one of the occasions. Two tenants having waited upon him and asked him to decide the question at issue, the duke put what he always regarded as a very necessary preliminary question, "Will you abide by my award?"
"Well, your grace," was the reply of one of the hard headed old disputants, "I'd like to ken first what it is."—London Chronicle.

The Other Way With Him.
"Remember, sir, that you owe something to your constituents," said one member of a town council to another.
"Humph!" said the other. "If you owe anything to your constituents all I've got to say is that you're lucky. Why, there are not half a dozen voters in my ward that have not borrowed money from me."—Stray Stories.

Pitfalls of Slang.
Host (in India)—Do you see that fanatic over there? He has sat on that corner and in that posture without moving for six months. Traveler (from America)—Gee, that's going some!—Chicago Tribune.

Little minds are tamed and subdued by misfortune. But great minds rise above it.—Irving.

AN EVENING SPENT

With the most versatile pianists, could not possibly bring you more enjoyment than you, yourself could derive from either.

The Lindeman
Player Piano,
The Milton,
The Bjure Bros.
Or Lester
Player Pianos,

In fact, with either of these Player Pianos as a companion, you have the advantage of playing the music yourself--the music you best like, and playing it in that rich, full manner, bringing out the delicate beauties of the melody which even many skilled pianists fail to develop, and this, possible with the veriest novice, without your knowing one note from another.

We will take your deaf and dumb piano in exchange.
