HAPPENINGS WITHIN THE OLD NORTH STATE GATHERED FROM OUR EXCHANGES

Newsy Items of Interest Condensed for Busy Readers.

Young Paul Cheney was set upon by some youngsters with whom he was out promenading, yesterday, and while three boys held Cheney another put a red hot coal in his eye, burning him badly. The boys, of course, deny Cheney's statement. —Kinston Free Press.

Fayetteville, Feb. 10.—News has just reached here that Jake McNeill, a negro living 10 miles from Fayetteville, was called from his house late last night, by unknown parties, who claimed they wished to hire him to dig stumps. He was shot twice with a 44 pistol. It is thought that the perpetrators were connected with a still, which Sheriff Watson captured last week, McNeill being the informant.

Goldsboro, Feb. 1.—A shooting affray occurred in the northern part of the city this afternoon, when Murray Flowers, a well-known white man of this city, formerly an engineer on the Norfolk & Southern railroad, shot another white man, Sherman Taylor, in the shoulder. Flowers was locked up and will be given a hearing before Mayor Higgins tomorrow morning.

The trustees of the State University have elected Lucius McGehee, formerly of this State but now of New York, to succeed the late Judge McRae as dean of the law department. The trustees also voted to abolish the medical department that has been conducted at Raleigh.

Charlotte, Feb. 10.—An unusual sentence was that administered by Recorder D. B. Smith this morning in the case wherein Clark Hall, a white man about 60 years of age, was charged with being drunk. The defendant was sentenced to 30 days in the country.

The executive committee of the North Carolina Press Association will meet in Greensboro on Wednesday, February 16, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the consideration of the matter of the place and time for holding the next annual convention, and such other matters as may come before it.

Raleigh, Feb. 10.—Dr. B. F. Dixon, who as state auditor, is chairman of the executive committee of the North Carolina soldiers' home, has gone to Richmond to look into the matters pertaining to the making of Confederate uniforms for the veterans in the home, a Richmond firm having the contract.

Raleigh, Feb. 10.—Dr. Woods, assistant state veterinarian, has gone to Wadesboro to lend a hand in stamping out an epidemic of hog cholera that has broken out in that section with very serious proportions. He carried with him a supply of the newly discovered cholera serum that has been proven to be such an effective method, through vaccination, to stamp out this disease. It is especially interesting, too, that the serum carried is the product of the laboratory of the state department of agriculture, being the first the department has made.

The Pitt County Teacher's Association will meet here tomorrow.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Husting Town Briefly Told

Ayden, N. C., Feb. 11. The first load of shad for this season was in town yesterday. They were fine and caught at Pitch Kittle seine.

We learn Dr. C. R. Reddick has purchased the residence of Frank Lilly, on the corner of Lee and First streets, and Mr. Lilly will erect him a home on the Venters property, better known as "Kemberlin Heights."

Elias Turnage has purchased the old Methodist church of Stancill Hodges and will move it into a residence.

Miss Judea Albea, of New London, is visiting the family of H. C. Ormond.

Mrs. Jenkins, mother of our townsmen, W. I. and S. A. Jenkins, suffered another attack of paralysis this week from which she is not expected to live through the day.

Mrs. Rebecca Brown, of Mt. Pleasant, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Worthington.

H. A. White, of Greenville, was in town yesterday on business.

C. G. Moore has been elected chief of police. Mr. Moore has been on the force before and made a good officer. We will say "Be sure your sins will find you out."

Samuel Mumford and family have moved to town and live with his son-in-law, Edwin Tripp.

Running on Time.

It is a common saying among railroad executives that they can make all sorts of rules about running trains, but that they have to put a man in the bushes beside the track to see that they are obeyed. Every railroad in America is striving after the—thus far—unattainable; to have all of its passenger trains always on time. "Among every 100 men who become firemen, only seventeen are ever made engineers," quotes the author. "Out of every 100 engineers only six get passenger runs. The next time you see a white haired man on the cab of a big passenger locomotive don't wonder at all at his white hair, but make up your mind that he has the goods or he wouldn't be there. It is a case of the selection and the survival of the fittest. It takes nerve to run the fast trains these days, and if any one of a dozen people, down to the man who spiked the rail, has made a mistake, you ride to certain death."

Presbyterian Services.

The Presbyterian congregation here has arranged to have services two Sundays in each month, conducted by Rev. G. W. Belk, of Kinston. This is very gratifying to the congregation and friends of the church.

For Pamlico and Tar River.

In the appropriation just made by congress for the improvement of rivers and harbors, Pamlico and Tar rivers get $5,000. The size of the appropriation is an indication that no work worth mentioning can be done.

Anniversary of Big Snow.

Today is the anniversary of the big snow on Feb. 11th, 1898. It looks now like the weather had just as soon give us some more snow as not.

NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

The Spragues Will Impersonate Rip Van Winkle

The story of Rip Van Winkle, never old or tiresome to an American audience, will be told again, with a Jeffersonian touch of reality, on Wednesday evening 16th, at the opera house by Herbert A. Sprague, a widely-known and popular lyceum entertainer, appearing under the auspices of the End of the Century Club.

Assisted by his wife, an accomplished and attractive young woman, Mr. Sprague will present the entire dream-legend in four acts, introducing all the typical scenes, such as the village green of Falling Water, Gretchen's kitchen, and the summit of the Catskills, where Rip encounters the phantom dwarfs.

Years of successful work on the lyceum platform, preceded by careful training under some of the best masters, have admirably fitted Mr. Sprague to take up the role made famous on the stage by the great Jefferson. His sympathetic interpretation of the lovable old Rip has won him the warm praise of critics everywhere, Mrs. Sprague being also highly commended for her excellent work as the scolding Gretchen and then as Gretchen's daughter, Meenie.

The sale of seats will be open Tuesday morning to season subscribers in the lyceum course, and on Wednesday morning to the public.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Red Men meet tonight.

Our Greenville, yours if you come.

They all keep an eye on the ads in The Reflector.

Royal Arch Masons meet to night for conferring degrees.

The visits of doctors with vaccination points to the school's means many arms in slings in the near future.

Look for the first installment of the serial story "Truxton King" in tomorrow's Reflector, and be sure not to miss a chapter of this interesting story while it is running.

Lunch will be served in the Ladies Rest Room tomorrow for the teachers and other ladies visiting the town. Whipped cream, sandwiches and hot chocolate at 10c. each. Ladies working down town may also take lunch at the Rest Room.

Sugar Trust Official Gets Two Years.

New York, Feb. 10.—Oliver C. Spitzer, former dock superintendent at the Williamsburg Plant of the American Sugar Refining Company, was today sentenced to two years in the Federal prison in Atlanta. The sentence was imposed by Judge Martin, in the criminal branch of the United States court. Spitzer was convicted last December of conspiracy to defraud the government in weighing importations of sugar.

Almost a Fire.

The kitchen at the home of the Misses Manning, in one of the Fleming buildings on Third street, caught fire this afternoon and caused some excitement for a short while. The fire was put out with only small damage to the building. It caught from a wood box sitting beside the wall, some wood having been dried in the stove and afterwards placed in the box.

UP TO THE MAYOR.

Some Questions Asked His Honor—Do Citizens Own the Sidewalks?

Mr. Mayor:

Have citizens living along a street the right to lay, and pay for, sidewalks in front of their property? When paved, even if it should be done with gold, do the sidewalks belong to the citizens building them or to the town?

When paving is done at the expense of the property owner, have such things as toy automobiles, goat wagons, hand carts, roller skates, and so on, the right to use such pavements to the inconvenience and risk of danger to pedestrians?

For violations of these laws governing all towns, is there any appeal for pedestrians subjected to annoyance, and often menaced with direct physical injury? And if so, what?

Has any sort of conveyance whatever, except a baby carriage, the right to use such pavements?

Citizen.

FARMVILLE ITEMS.

Farmville, N. C., Feb. 11, 1910.

This week the lawless element has been very quiet, only one man arrested for drunkenness and he a Greene county.

There is a good deal of liquor being sold by somebody. It is rather noticeable that all three of the drug stores (neither of which keeps a registered pharmacist) are now owned and managed by ex-saloon keepers.

Farmville is a growing town. One citizen counted 22 new residences the other day that had gone up within the last two years. At the same time both tobacco warehouses have been enlarged and several new stores have been built, two new churches, and we learn that at least three more brick stores are to go up soon, and three or more new residences to be built.

Farmville is to have another new bank soon.

Services at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. N. B. Broughton, of Raleigh, will speak at night.

New North Carolina Industries.

For the week ending Feb. 9th, the Chattanooga Tradesman reports the following new industries for North Carolina:

Weaverville—$25,000 bank.

Rocky Mount—$20,000 tobacco warehouse company.

Durham—$239,800 hosiery mill.

Robersonville—$100,000 hosiery mill.

Wrightsville Beach—$125,000 hotel company.

North Wilkesboro—$15,000 development company.

New Bern—$5,000 auto company.

[Sanford—$50,000 insurance and realty company.

Bessemer City—$2,500,000 mines.

Greenville—$25,000 drug company.

Statesville—$100,000 lumber company.

Elkin—$25,000 chair factory.

Calyppo—$25,000 grain company.

Fayetteville—$25,000 machinery exchange.

Aulander—$5,000 hardware company.

Asheville—$100,000 piano factory.

Newell—$300,000 cotton mill.

Our Greenville, yours if you come.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

The Visitors Here and People Who Travel.

L. H. Pender went to Tarboro today.

M. H. Quinerly went to Conetoe today.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Sheppard are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Baker.

Mrs. W. H. Ward went to Aulander today to attend the funeral of an aunt.

Z. T. Broughton has returned from Raleigh, where he went to attend the funeral of his brother's wife.

O. R. Brown, who had been spending a day or two here, returned to Washington this morning.

Munford to Have Another Great Sale.

A full page advertisement in today's paper announces another great 10 day special sale to begin at Munford's big store on next Wednesday, 16th. This is a sale that will put people to talking and make them hurry to take advantage of the bargains, for you only have to look over the advertisement to see how goods are marked down. In times when there is so much talk of high prices and increased cost of living, bargains like this are worth taking advantage of.

A CHINESE SOLOMON.

His Decision in a Case of a Woman With Two Husbands.

There was a Chinese judge named Wang, who was as wise as Solomon. Before Wang two men and a woman appeared. The older man was the woman's first husband. He had gone to the wars and been reported dead. Now he returned alive to claim his wife. But she meanwhile had married the younger man, who refused to give her up; hence all three came before Wang that he might decide this truly difficult case.

"Yang Ki," said the judge to the woman, "which of these two men made the better husband?"

"Both were perfect husbands, my lord judge," Yang Ki modestly replied. So the judge told the men that he would keep the woman by him for a week, examining her thoroughly, and a week hence he would decide the case. Well, the week passed, and the two husbands came once more before the judge. He shook his head gravely and said to them:

"The woman, Yang Ki, has died. There is no case. Let her original husband take the body away from my house and pay for the burial."

"Ho, not I!" said the original husband. And, so saying, he darted from the court and was soon lost to view.

"You, then," said the judge to the other man, "must stand these burial expenses."

"Yes," the man answered, "that is just, and I will give this woman, who was good and kind, the finest burial my purse will allow."

The judge clapped his hands. Yang Ki, blushing and smiling, entered the courtroom in a rich dress of gold brocade.

"Take her," said the wise judge, "for you and not the other merit her love and service."

How the Rash Comes.

In measles a rash appears on the fourth day of the fever. It is first seen on the forehead, face and neck, afterward over the whole body. It consists of raised red spots. In scarlet fever the rash appears on the second day of the fever, commencing on the upper part of the chest and neck, whence it spreads over the body. In smallpox an eruption is seen on the third or fourth day on the face, neck and wrists. In chicken pox the eruption is made of small blebs. In typhoid fever the rash rarely shows itself before the seventh day of the fever. The spots are rose colored, and they disappear on pressure.

Diplomatic Politeness.

There are two kinds of politeness, politeness to yourself and politeness to others.

When you come home late at night, for example, even if you are very tired, always remove your hat and coat before getting into bed. It is little attentions like this that constitute you a gentleman. At the same time, do not disturb your wife if you can possibly avoid it. It is the height of rudeness to awaken a sleeping lady. —Thomas W. Mason in Littell's.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

To be Held in the Graded School Auditorium Saturday, Feb'y 12th.

The program is as follows:

10:30 a. m.—Devotional exercises by Rev. B. F. Huske.

10:45 a. m.—Reading of minutes.

10:50 a. m.—Announcements and distribution of bulletins.

11 a. m.—The preparation of the lesson, by Prof. H. E. Austin. General discussion.

2 p. m.—Drawing, by Miss Kate Lewis.

This will be one of the best meetings we have had. It will be noticed that we have only one subject for the morning. I think I can assure the teachers that this important subject will be so discussed that you will feel that you have been repaid for the sacrifices that I know you have to make to attend these meetings, and I wish also to ask the teachers to make their arrangements to be present at the afternoon session. It is exceedingly gratifying to those who have arranged to give you this work to see how enthusiastically you are entering into it. I feel that I express your sentiment when I say that your absence from either one of these sessions will be your loss. I am looking for a great meeting. Let us come together and make it such. The names of more than thirty boys have come in as contestants in the "Boys' Corn Club." I wish to request all the teachers to explain this contest to their boys between now and this meeting and give to me that day the names of their pupils who will enter. Let us have at least one boy in each school in the county to become a member of this club. W. H. Ragsdale, Co. Supt. Schools.

Anybody could take this for a bad day.

PROFITS OF STATE PRISON.

The report of Superintendent J. J. Laughinghouse of the State prison, recently made to the directors of that institution, should bring gratification to every tax payer in North Carolina. Mr. Laughinghouse took charge of the prison early in April of last year, and his report covers only the nine months from that time to the end of the year. The report shows a net profit to the State for the year of $95,000, without taking into consideration $12,000 spent in new buildings, $2,000 in improved machinery, and $7,000 difference in the value of the young team that has taken the place of the old ones. This $21,000 in permanent improvements added to the net profit brings the earnings for the year up to $116,000.

This splendid showing stands out all the more prominently when contrasted with conditions when the Republicans and Populists had charge. Prior to 1901 the prison was a burden upon the State, but when Governor Aycock was inaugurated and put Mr. Mann in charge things took a change. In the eight years that Mr. Mann was superintendent the profit from the prison to the State was $324,000, an average of about $40,500 a year.

The very first year of Superintendent Laughinghouse's administration the profits were two-and-a-half times as large as the average year under Superintendent Mann, and at the same time the farms, buildings, machinery and team have been greatly improved. The reason Superintendent Laughinghouse has done so much better than his predecessor is easily explained. It is due to the fact that he is a practical farmer and knows just what to do in managing large farms successfully.

The selection of Mr. Laughinghouse as superintendent of the prison certainly was wise and in keeping with "the eternal fitness of things." Too often in official selections mistakes are made by getting the wrong man, but in this instance it was "the right man in the right place." It takes a journalist to run a newspaper successfully; when a man wants a case plead in court he gets a lawyer; when people are sick they want a doctor; to build a house the services of a carpenter must be had; hence it seems equally as important that when farming is to be done well a practical farmer is needed. That is what Governor Kitchin did when he appointed Mr. Laughinghouse superintendent of the State prison and put him in charge of the large interests connected with that institution. The report referred to is the strongest argument that could be made to support the wisdom of that appointment.

The Spartanburg Journal says: "Perhaps the reason women are happier in their second marriages is that they know enough by that time not to be disappointed." Is it not probable that by the same token a man may learn some things too?—Greensboro News.

Quite an unusual question from a man who has not yet tried the first one.

The old Greensboro Patriot, that is now in its eighty-ninth year and for sixteen years edited by Mr. W. M. Barber, has been sold to Mr. W. I. Underwood, who has also been connected with the paper for several years. Mr. Barber will move to California.

Congress is now wrestling with a bill to break up speculating in cotton futures.

Player Pianos,

In fact, with either of these Player Pianos as a companion, you have the advantage of playing the music yourself—the music you best like, and playing it in that rich, full manner, bringing out the delicate beauties of the melody which even many skilled pianists fail to develop, and this, possible with the veriest novice, without your knowing one note from another.

We will take your deaf and dumb piano in exchange.
